The Book of
ZECHARIAH

FOR a dozen years or more, the task of rebuilding the temple has been half completed. Zechariah is commissioned by God to encourage the people in their unfinished responsibility. Rather than exhorting them to action with strong words of rebuke, Zechariah seeks to encourage them to action by reminding them of the future importance of the temple. The temple must be built, for one day the Messiah's glory will inhabit it. But future blessing is contingent upon present obedience. The people are not merely building a building; they are building the future. With that as their motivation, they can enter into the building project with wholehearted zeal, for their Messiah is coming.

Zekar-yah means "Yahweh Remembers" or "Yahweh Has Remembered." This theme dominates the whole book: Israel will be blessed because Yahweh remembers the covenant He made with the fathers. The Greek and Latin version of his name is Zacharias.

A Call to Repentance

IN the eighth month ^aof the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came ^bto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of ^cIddo the prophet, saying,

2 "The LORD has been very angry with your fathers.

3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Return ^ato Me," says the LORD of hosts, "and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Do not be like your fathers, ^ato whom the former prophets preached, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: ^b"Turn now from your evil ways and your evil deeds,"' But they did not hear nor heed Me," says the LORD.

5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

6 Yet surely ^aMy words and My statutes, Which I commanded My servants the prophets, Did they not overtake your fathers?

"So they returned and said:

^bJust as the LORD of hosts determined to do to us, According to our ways and according to our deeds, So He has dealt with us." , ,

Vision of the Horses

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet:

8 I saw by night, and behold, ^aa man riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees in the

9 Then I said, ^a"My lord, what ^bare these?" So the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they ^bare."

10 And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "^aThese ^bare the ones whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro throughout the earth."

11 ^aSo they answered the Angel of the LORD, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth is ^bresting quietly."

The LORD Will Comfort Zion

12 Then the Angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, ^ahow long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You were angry ^bthese seventy years?"

13 And the LORD answered the angel who talked to me, with ^agood and comforting words.

14 So the angel who spoke with me said to me, ^a"Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

^bI am ^azealous² for Jerusalem
And for Zion with great ^bzeal.

15 I am exceedingly angry with the nations at ease;
For ^aI was a little angry,
And they helped—but with evil intent."

16 'Therefore thus says the LORD:

^a"I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy;
My ^bhouse ^ashall be built in it,"
says the LORD of hosts.
"And ^aa surveyor's line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem."

17 "Again proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"My cities shall again ¹spread out through prosperity;
 "The LORD will again comfort Zion,
 And ^bwill again choose Jerusalem."'"

Vision of the Horns

18 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were four ^ahorns.

19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" So he answered me, "These are the ^ahorns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" So he said, "These are the ^ahorns that scattered Judah, so that no one could lift up his head; but ^bthe craftsmen are coming to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations that ^blifted up ^{their} horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Vision of the Measuring Line

2 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, ^aa man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

3 And there was the angel who talked with me, going out; and another angel was coming out to meet him.

4 who said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying: ^aJerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it.

5 'For I,' says the LORD, 'will be ^aa wall of fire all around her, ^band I will be the glory in her midst.'"

Future Joy of Zion and Many Nations

6 "Up, up! Flee ^afrom the land of the north," says the LORD; "for I have ^bspread you abroad like the four winds of heaven," says the LORD.

7 "Up, Zion! ^aEscape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon."

8 For thus says the LORD of hosts: "He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who ^atouches you touches the ^bapple of His eye.

9 "For surely I will ^ashake My hand against them, and they shall become ^bspoil for their servants. Then ^byou will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.

Vision of the High Priest

3 Then he showed me ^aJoshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and ^bSatan¹ standing at his right hand to oppose him.

2 And the LORD said to Satan, "^aThe LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who ^bhas chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! ^cIs this not a brand plucked from the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was clothed with ^afilthy garments, and was standing before the Angel.

4 Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, ^aand I will clothe you with rich robes."

5 And I said, "Let them put a clean ^aturban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And the Angel of the LORD stood by.

The Coming Branch

6 Then the Angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying,

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If you will walk in My ways,
 And if you will ^akeep My command,

Then you shall also ^bjudge My house,
 And likewise have charge of My courts;

I will give you places to walk Among these who ^cstand here.'

8 'Hear, O Joshua, the high priest, You and your companions who sit before you,
 For they are ^aa wondrous sign; For behold, I am bringing forth ^bMy Servant the ^cBRANCH.

Says the LORD of hosts,
 'And ^aI will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.'

6 “The one with the black horses is going to the north country, the white are going after them, and the dappled are going toward the south country.”

7 Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might awalk to and fro throughout the earth. And He said, “Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth.” So they walked to and fro throughout the earth.

The Command to Crown Joshua

9 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

10 “Receive the gift from the captives—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon—and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

11 “Take the silver and gold, make *a*an¹ elaborate crown, and set it on the head of *b*Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

12 “Then speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, saying:

He *a*shall bear the glory,

So *b*He shall be a priest on His throne,

And the counsel of peace shall be between *b*them both.’”

14 “Now the *a*elaborate crown shall be *a*for a memorial in the temple of the LORD *b*for Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

Obedience Better than Fasting

7 Now in the fourth year of King Darius it came to pass that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Chislev,

2 when the people sent Sherezer, with Regem-Melech and his men, to the house of God, to pray before the LORD,

3 and to ask the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in *b*the fifth month and fast as I have done for so many years?”

4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

5 “Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months during those seventy years, did you really fast for Me—for Me?’

6 “When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves?

7 ‘Should you not have obeyed the words which the LORD proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem and the cities around it were inhabited and prosperous, and the South and the Lowland were inhabited?’ ”

Disobedience Resulted in Captivity

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,

9 “Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“Execute true justice,
Show mercy and compassion
Everyone to his brother.

10 Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless,

The alien or the poor.

Let none of you plan evil in his heart

Against his brother.’ ”

11 But they refused to heed, *shrugged*¹ their shoulders, and *stopped*² their ears so that they could not hear.

12 Yes, they made their hearts like flint, *b*refusing to hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Thus great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it happened, that just as He proclaimed and they would not hear, so they called out and I would not listen, says the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land became desolate after them, so that no one passed through or returned; for they made the pleasant land desolate.”

Jerusalem, Holy City of the Future

- 8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came, saying,
 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 'aI am ¹zealous for Zion with great ²zeal;
 With great ³fervor I am zealous for her.'
- 3 "Thus says the LORD:
 'aI will return to Zion,
 And ^bdwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
 Jerusalem ^cshall be called the City of Truth,
 The Mountain of the LORD of hosts,
 The Holy Mountain.'
- 4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 'aOld men and old women shall again sit
 In the streets of Jerusalem,
 Each one with his staff in his hand
 Because of ¹great age.
 5 The streets of the city
 Shall be ^afull of boys and girls
 Playing in its streets.'
- 6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 'If it is ¹marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days,
 'Will it also be marvelous in My eyes?'
 Says the LORD of hosts.
- 7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 'Behold, ^aI will save My people from the land of the ¹east
 And from the land of the ²west;
 8 I will ^abring them back,
 And they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
 'They shall be My people
 And I will be their God,
 In truth and righteousness.'
- 9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 'aLet your hands be strong,
 You who have been hearing in these days
 These words by the mouth of ^bthe prophets,
 Who spoke in ^cthe day the foundation was laid
 For the house of the LORD of hosts,
 That the temple might be built.
 10 For before these days
 There were no ^awages for man nor any hire for beast;
 There was no peace from the enemy for whoever went out or came in;
 For I set all men, everyone, against his neighbor.

 Mic. 4:1, 2]
- 11 ^aBut now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' says the LORD of hosts.
- 12 'For ^athe ¹seed shall be prosperous,
 The vine shall give its fruit,
 The ground shall give her increase,
 And ^bthe heavens shall give their dew—
 I will cause the remnant of this people
 To possess all these.
- 13 And it shall come to pass That just as you were ^aa curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel,
 So I will save you, and ^byou shall be a blessing.
 Do not fear,
 Let your hands be strong.'
- 14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts:
 '^aJust as I determined to ^bpunish you
 When your fathers provoked Me to wrath,'
 Says the LORD of hosts,
 '^bAnd I would not relent,
 15 So again in these days I am determined to do good To Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
 Do not fear.
- 16 These ^aare the things you shall ^bdo:
 Speak each man the truth to his neighbor;
 Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace;
 17 ^aLet none of you think evil in ^byour heart against your neighbor;
 And do not love a false oath.
 For all these ^aare things that I hate,'
 Says the LORD."
- 18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
 19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 '^aThe fast of the fourth month,
 ^bThe fast of the fifth,
 ^cThe fast of the seventh,
 ^dAnd the fast of the tenth,
 Shall be ^ejoy and gladness and cheerful feasts
 For the house of Judah.
 ^fTherefore love truth and peace.'
- 20 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
 'Peoples shall yet come, Inhabitants of many cities;
 21 The inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying,
 ^a"Let us continue to go and pray before the LORD,"

ZECHARIAH 8:21

- And seek the LORD of hosts.
I myself will go also."
- 22 Yes, "many peoples and strong nations
Shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem,
And to pray before the LORD."
- 23 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
'In those days ten men ^afrom every language of the nations shall ^bgrasp the sleeve of a Jewish man, saying,
"Let us go with you, for we have heard ^cthat God is with you.'"
- Israel Defended Against Enemies*
- 9 The ^bburden of the word of the LORD
Against the land of Hadrach,
And ^aDamascus its resting place
(For ^bthe eyes of men
And all the tribes of Israel
Are on the LORD);
- 2 Also against ^aHamath, which borders on it,
And against ^bTyre and ^cSidon, though they are very ^dwise.
- 3 For Tyre built herself a tower,
Heaped up silver like the dust,
And gold like the mire of the streets.
- 4 Behold, ^athe Lord will cast her out;
He will destroy ^bher power in the sea,
And she will be devoured by fire.
- 5 Ashkelon shall see it and fear;
Gaza also shall be very sorrowful;
And ^aEkron, for He dried up her expectation.
The king shall perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.
- 6 "A¹ mixed race shall settle ^ain Ashdod,
And I will cut off the pride of the ^bPhilistines.
- 7 I will take away the blood from his mouth,
And the abominations from between his teeth.
But he who remains, even he shall be for our God,
And shall be like a leader in Judah,
And Ekron like a Jebusite.
- 8 ^aI will camp around My house
Because of the army,
Because of him who passes by and him who returns.
No more shall an oppressor pass through them,
For now I have seen with My eyes.

The Coming King

- 9 "Rejoice ^agreatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, ^byour King is coming to you;
He is just and having salvation,
Lowly and riding on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.

God Will Save His People

- 11 "As for you also,
Because of the blood of your covenant,
I will set your ^aprisoners free from the waterless pit.
- 12 Return to the stronghold,
You prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare
That I will restore ^bdouble to you.
- 13 For I have bent Judah, My bow,
Fitted the bow with Ephraim,
And raised up your sons, O Zion,
Against your sons, O Greece,
And made you like the sword of a mighty man."
- 14 Then the LORD will be seen over them,
And ^aHis arrow will go forth like lightning.
The Lord GOD will blow the trumpet,
And go ^bwith whirlwinds from the south.
- 15 The LORD of hosts will ^adefend them;
They shall devour and subdue with slingstones.
They shall drink and roar as if with wine;
They shall be filled with ^bblood like ^cbasins,
- 16 Like the corners of the altar.
The LORD their God will ^asave them in that day,
As the flock of His people.
For ^bthey shall be like the ^cjewels of a crown, ^dLifted like a banner over His land—
- 17 For ^ahow great is ^bits goodness

- together with their children,
And they shall return.
10 I will also bring them back from the land of Egypt,
And gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, ^bUntil no more room is found for them.
11 ^aHe shall pass through the sea with affliction,
And strike the waves of the sea:
All the depths of ^bthe River shall dry up.
Then ^bthe pride of Assyria shall be brought down,
And ^cthe scepter of Egypt shall depart.
12 "So I will strengthen them in the LORD,
And ^athey shall walk up and down in His name,"
Says the LORD.
- Desolation of Israel*
- 11 Open ^ayour doors,
O Lebanon,
That fire may devour your cedars.
2 Wail, O cypress, for the ^acedar has fallen,
Because the mighty trees are ruined.
Wail, O oaks of Bashan, ^bFor the thick forest has come down.
3 There is the sound of wailing ^ashepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.
There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the ^bpride of the Jordan is in ruins.
- Prophecy of the Shepherds*
- 4 Thus says the LORD my God,
"Feed the flock for slaughter, 5 "whose owners slaughter them and ^afeel no guilt; those who sell them ^bsay, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich'; and their shepherds do not pity them.
6 "For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. "But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver ^athem from their hand."
7 So I fed the flock for slaughter,
^bin particular ^athe poor of the flock.
I took for myself two staves: the one
I called ^bBeauty, and the other I called ^bBonds; and I fed the flock.
8 I ^adismissed the three shepherds ^bin one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
9 Then I said, "I will not feed you.
^aLet what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh."

10 And I took my staff, ¹Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11 So it was broken on that day. Thus ^athe¹ poor of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 Then I said to them, "If it is ^aagreeable to you, give ^{me} my wages; and if not, refrain." So they ^aweighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the ^apotter"—that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter.

14 Then I cut in two my other staff, ¹Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said to me, ^aNext, take for yourself the implements of a foolish shepherd.

16 "For indeed I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are cut off, nor seek the young, nor heal those that are broken, nor feed those that still stand. But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in ^apieces.

17 "Woe^a to the worthless shepherd,
Who leaves the flock!
A sword shall be against his arm
And against his right eye;
His arm shall completely wither,
And his right eye shall be totally blinded."

The Coming Deliverance of Judah

12 The ^bburden of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, "who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and ^bforms the spirit of man within him:

2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem ^aa cup of 'drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem.'

3 ^a"And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem ^ba very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it.

4 "In that day," says the LORD, "^aI will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

5 "And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.'

7 "The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall not become greater than that of Judah.

8 "In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; the one who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of the LORD before them.

9 "It shall be in that day that I will seek to ^adestroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

14 "all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Idolatry Cut Off

13 "In that ^aday ^ba fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

2 "It shall be in that day," says the LORD of hosts, "that I will ^acut off the names of the idols from the land, and they shall no longer be remembered. I will also cause ^bthe prophets and the unclean spirit to depart from the land.

3 "It shall come to pass that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who begot him will say to him, 'You shall ^anot live, because you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and mother who begot him ^bshall thrust him through when he prophesies.

4 "And it shall be in that day that every prophet will be ashamed of 6 "And one will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your ^aarms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

The Shepherd Savior

7 "Awake, O sword, against ^aMy Shepherd, Against the Man ^bwho is My Companion,"

Says the LORD of hosts.

c"Strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered;

Then I will turn My hand against ^athe little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass in all the land."

Says the LORD,
"That ^atwo-thirds in it shall be cut off and die,

^bBut one-third shall be left in it:

9 I will bring the one-third ^athrough the fire,
Will ^brefine them as silver is refined,

And test them as gold is tested.
They will call on My name,

And I will answer them.

dI will say, 'This is My people';
And each one will say, 'The LORD is my God.'

The Day of the LORD

14 Behold, ^athe day of the LORD is coming,
And your ^aspoil will be divided in your midst.

2 For ^aI will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem;
The city shall be taken,
The houses rifled,
And the women ravished.
Half of the city shall go into captivity,
But the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then the LORD will go forth And fight against those nations, As He fights in the day of battle.

4 And in that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, Which faces Jerusalem on the east.
And the Mount of Olives shall be split in two,
From east to west,
^bMaking a very large valley;
Half of the mountain shall move toward the north
And half of it toward the south.

*The Book ofMALACHI

MALACHI, a prophet in the days of Nehemiah, directs his message of judgment to a people plagued with corrupt priests, wicked practices, and a false sense of security in their privileged relationship with God. Using the question-and-answer method, Malachi probes deeply into their problems of hypocrisy, infidelity, mixed marriages, divorce, false worship, and arrogance. So sinful has the nation become that God's words to the people no longer have any impact. For four hundred years after Malachi's ringing condemnations, God remains silent. Only with the coming of John the Baptist (prophesied in 3:1) does God again communicate to His people through a prophet's voice.

The meaning of the name Mal'aki ("My Messenger") is probably a shortened form of Mal'akya, "Messenger of Yahweh," and it is appropriate to the book which speaks of the coming of the "messenger of the covenant" ("messenger" is mentioned three times in 2:7; 3:1). The Septuagint used the title Malachias even though it also translated it "by the hand of his messenger." The Latin title is Maleachi.

Says the LORD of hosts.

Says the LORD of hosts,

The Gospel According to
MATTHEW

MATTHEW is the gospel written by a Jew to Jews about a Jew. Matthew is the writer, his countrymen are the readers, and Jesus Christ is the subject. Matthew's design is to present Jesus as the King of the Jews, the long-awaited Messiah. Through a carefully selected series of Old Testament quotations, Matthew documents Jesus Christ's claim to be the Messiah. His genealogy, baptism, messages, and miracles all point to the same inescapable conclusion: Christ is King. Even in His death, seeming defeat is turned to victory by the Resurrection, and the message again echoes forth: the King of the Jews lives.

At an early date this gospel was given the title Kata Matthaiou, "According to Matthew." As this title suggests, other gospel accounts were known at that time (the word "Gospel" was added later). Matthew ("Gift of the Lord") was also sur-named Levi (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27).

Christ Born of Mary

18 Now the ^abirth of Jesus Christ was as follows: After His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child ^bof the Holy Spirit. 19 Then Joseph her husband, being ^aa just man, and not wanting ^cto make her a public example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But while he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, ^cfor that which is ^bconceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

21 ^a"And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name ^bJESUS, ^cfor He will save His people from their sins."

22 So all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying:

23 ^a"Behold, ^bthe virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which is translated, "God with us."

24 Then Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took to him his wife,

25 and ^bdid not know her till she had brought forth ^aher² firstborn Son. And he called His name JESUS.

Wise Men from the East

2 Now after ^aJesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, ^bwise men ^bfrom the East came to Jerusalem,

2 saying, “Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen ^bHis star in the East and have come to worship Him.”

3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and ^bscribes of the people together, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

5 So they said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

6 ‘But^a you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
Are not the least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a Ruler.
^bWho will shepherd My people Israel.’”

7 Then Herod, when he had secretly called the ^bwise men, determined from them what time the ^astar appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found ^aHim, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also.”

9 When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

11 And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 Then, being divinely warned ^ain a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.

The Flight into Egypt

13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.”

14 When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt,

15 and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called My Son.”

Massacre of the Innocents

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying:

18 “A voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation, weeping, and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted,
Because they are no more.”

The Home in Nazareth

19 Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20 saying, “Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who ^bsought the young Child’s life are dead.”

21 Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a ^adream, he turned aside ^binto the region of Galilee.

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called ^aNazareth, that it might be fulfilled ^bwhich was spoken by the prophets, “He shall be called a Nazarene.”

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 In those days ^aJohn the Baptist came preaching ^bin the wilderness of Judea,

2 and saying, “Repent, for ^athe kingdom of heaven is at hand!”

3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

^a“The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

^b‘Prepare the way of the LORD;

Make His paths straight.’”

4 Now ^aJohn himself was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist; and his food was ^blocusts and ^cwild honey.

5 ^aThen Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him.

6 ^aand were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

8 "Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance,

9 "and do not think to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

10 "And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

11 "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

12 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

John Baptizes Jesus

13 "Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.

14 And John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and are You coming to me?"

15 But Jesus answered and said to him, "Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed Him.

16 "When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him.

17 "And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.'

Satan Tempts Jesus

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

2 And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry.

3 Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

4 But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'"

5 Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple,

6 and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written:

MATTHEW 4:21

^a'He shall give His angels charge over you,'

and,

^b'In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.'

7 Jesus said to him, "It is written again, ^a'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'

8 Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.

9 And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me."

10 Then Jesus said to him, ^a"Away with you, Satan! For it is written, ^a'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve.'

11 Then the devil left Him, and behold, ^bangels came and ministered to Him.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He departed to Galilee.

13 And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali,

14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

15 ^aThe land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 ^aThe people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,
And upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death
Light has dawned."

17 From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, ^b"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

18 And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

19 Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."

20 They immediately left their nets and followed Him.

21 Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, 22 and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people.

24 Then His fame went throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics; and He healed them.

25 aGreat multitudes followed Him—from Galilee, and from bDecapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

The Beatitudes

5 And seeing the multitudes, aHe went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him.

2 Then He opened His mouth and taught them, saying:

3 "Blessed^a are the poor in spirit, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 4 "Blessed^a are those who mourn, For they shall be comforted.
 5 "Blessed^a are the meek, For bthey shall inherit the earth.
 6 Blessed^a are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, bFor they shall be filled.
 7 Blessed^a are the merciful, For they shall obtain mercy.
 8 "Blessed^a are the pure in heart, For bthey shall see God.
 9 Blessed^a are the peacemakers, For they shall be called sons of God.
 10 "Blessed^a are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 a"Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of bevil against you falsely for My sake.

12 a"Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for bso they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Believers Are Salt and Light

13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.

A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 "Nor do they aight a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house.

16 "Let your light so shine before men, athat they may see your good works and bglorify your Father in heaven.

Christ Fulfills the Law

17 a"Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.

18 "For assuredly, I say to you, a till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled.

19 a"Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 "For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds athe righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder Begins in the Heart

21 "You have heard that it was said to those of old, a You shall not murder and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.'

22 "But I say to you that awhoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, b'Raca!' shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says, b'You fool!' shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 "Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you,

24 a"leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

25 a"Agree with your adversary quickly, bwhile you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.

26 "Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.

Adultery in the Heart

27 "You have heard that it was said to those of old, a You shall not commit adultery.'

28 "But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

29 a" If your right eye causes you to sin, bpluck it out and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

30 "And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

Marriage Is Sacred and Binding

31 "Furthermore it has been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'

32 "But I say to you that whoever divorces his wife for any reason except sexual immorality causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a woman who is divorced commits adultery.

Jesus Forbids Oaths

33 "Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your oaths to the Lord.'

34 "But I say to you, 'do not swear at all; neither by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 "nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

36 "Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black.

37 "But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' For whatever is more than these is from the evil one.

Go the Second Mile

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'

39 "But I tell you not to resist an evil person. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also.

40 "If anyone wants to sue you and take away your tunic, let him have your cloak also.

41 "And whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two.

42 "Give to him who asks you, and from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away.

Love Your Enemies

43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.'

44 "But I say to you, 'love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you.'

45 "that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

47 "And if you greet your brethren only, what do you more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so?

48 ^a"Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Do Good to Please God

6 ^aTake heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

2 "Therefore, when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.

3 "But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.

4 "that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will Himself reward you openly.

The Model Prayer

5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.

6 "But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

7 "And when you pray, do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their many words.

8 "Therefore do not be like them. For your Father knows the things you have need of before you ask Him.

9 "In this manner, therefore, pray:

^aOur Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.

10 Your kingdom come.

^aYour will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.

13 And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.

14 For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

14 “For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.
 15 “But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Fasting to Be Seen Only by God

16 “Moreover, when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
 17 “But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face,
 18 so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

Lay Up Treasures in Heaven

19 “Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal;
 20 “but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.
 21 “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Lamp of the Body

22 “The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light.
 23 “But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

You Cannot Serve God and Riches

24 “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. ^bYou cannot serve God and mammon.

Do Not Worry

25 “Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?
 26 “Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?
 27 “Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?
 28 “So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; 29 “and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

 31 “Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’
 32 “For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.
 33 “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.
 34 “Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Do Not Judge

7 ^aJudge ^bnot, that you be not judged.
 2 “For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.
 3 ^aAnd why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye?
 4 “Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me remove the speck from your eye’; and look, a plank is in your own eye?
 5 “Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.
 6 ^aDo not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

7 ^aAsk, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
 8 “For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.
 9 ^aOr what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?
 10 “Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent?
 11 “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!
 12 “Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow Way

13 ^aEnter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it.
 14 ^aBecause narrow is the gate and ²difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

You Will Know Them by Their Fruits

- 15 ^a“Beware of false prophets, ^bwho come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.
- 16 ^a“You will know them by their fruits. ^bDo men gather grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles?
- 17 “Even so, ^aevery good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.
- 18 “A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.
- 19 ^a“Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
- 20 “Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

I Never Knew You

- 21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘^aLord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who ^bdoes the will of My Father in heaven.
- 22 “Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we ^anot prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’
- 23 “And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; ^bdepart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’

Build on the Rock

- 24 “Therefore ^awhoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock:
- 25 “and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.
- 26 “But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand:
- 27 “and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall.”
- 28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching,
- 29 ^afor He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

- 8 When He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him.
- 2 ^aAnd behold, a leper came and ^bworshiped Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”
- 3 Then Jesus put out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” Immediately his leprosy ^awas cleansed.
- 4 And Jesus said to him, “See that

Jesus Heals a Centurion’s Servant

5 ^aNow when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a ^bcenturion came to Him, pleading with Him,

6 saying, “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented.”

7 And Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

8 The centurion answered and said, “Lord, ^aI am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only ^bspeak a word, and my servant will be healed.

9 “For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

10 When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, “Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!

11 “And I say to you that ^amany will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

12 “But ^athe sons of the kingdom ^bwill be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you.” And his servant was healed that same hour.

Peter’s Mother-in-Law Healed

14 ^aNow when Jesus had come into Peter’s house, He saw ^bhis wife’s mother lying sick with a fever.

15 So He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served ^bthem.

Many Healed in the Evening

16 ^aWhen evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick.

17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

^a“He Himself took our infirmities
And bore our sicknesses.”

The Cost of Discipleship

18 And when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side.

19 ^aThen a certain scribe came and said to Him, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”

MATTHEW 8:20

20 And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”

21 “Then another of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father.”

22 But Jesus said to him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

23 Now when He got into a boat, His disciples followed Him.

24 “And suddenly a great tempest arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But He was asleep.

25 Then His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, “Lord, save us! We are perishing!”

26 But He said to them, “Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?”

Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

27 So the men marveled, saying, “Who can this be, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”

Two Demon-Possessed Men Healed

28 “When He had come to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass that way.

29 And suddenly they cried out, saying, “What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?”

30 Now a good way off from them there was a herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the demons begged Him, saying, “If You cast us out, let us to go away into the herd of swine.”

32 And He said to them, “Go.” So when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water.

33 Then those who kept them fled; and they went away into the city and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to depart from their region.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His own city.

2 “Then behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, “Son, be of good cheer; your sins are forgiven you.”

3 And at once some of the scribes said within themselves, “This Man blasphemers!”

4 But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?

5 “For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise and walk’?

6 “But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins”—then He said to the paralytic, “Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

7 And he arose and departed to his house.

8 Now when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

Matthew the Tax Collector

9 As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, “Follow Me.” So he arose and followed Him.

10 Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, “Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

12 When Jesus heard that, He said to them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.

13 “But go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice.’ For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.”

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

14 Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?”

15 And Jesus said to them, “Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

16 “No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.

17 “Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

18 While He spoke these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped Him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay Your hand on her and she will live.”

 19 So Jesus arose and followed him, and so did His “disciples.
 20 “And suddenly, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and touched the hem of His garment.
 21 For she said to herself, “If only I may touch His garment, I shall be made well.”
 22 But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her He said, “Be of good cheer, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that hour.
 23 When Jesus came into the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, 24 He said to them, “Make room, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping.” And they ridiculed Him.
 25 But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.
 26 And the report of this went out into all that land.

Two Blind Men Healed

27 When Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, “Son of David, have mercy on us!”
 28 And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.”
 29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith let it be to you.”
 30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, “See that no one knows it.”
 31 “But when they had departed, they spread the news about Him in all that country.

A Mute Man Speaks

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed.
 33 And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, “It was never seen like this in Israel!”
 34 But the Pharisees said, “He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons.”

The Compassion of Jesus

35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.
 36 “But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd.

The Twelve Apostles

10 And when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

Sending Out the Twelve

5 These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying: “Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Samaritans.

6 ^a“But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 ^aAnd as you go, preach, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

8 “Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

9 ^aProvide neither gold nor silver nor copper in your money belts,

10 ^anor bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staffs; for a worker is worthy of his food.

11 ^aNow whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there till you go out.

12 “And when you go into a household, greet it.

13 ^aIf the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it. ^bBut if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 ^a“And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.

15 “Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!

Persecutions Are Coming

16 ^a“Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. ^bTherefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

17 “But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to councils and scourge you in their synagogues;

18 ^a“You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

19 ^aBut when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For ^bit will be given to you in that hour what you should speak;

20 ^afor it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21 ^aNow brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.

22 ^aAnd you will be hated by all for My name's sake. ^bBut he who endures to the end will be saved.

23 ^aWhen they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have ^bgone through the cities of Israel ^cbefore the Son of Man comes.

24 ^aA disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master.

25 ^aIt is enough for a disciple that he be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If ^athey have called the master of the house ^bBeelzebul, how much more will they call those of his household!

26 ^aTherefore do not fear them. ^aFor there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

33 ^aBut whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

1 1 Now it came to pass, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to ^ateach and to preach in their cities.

2 ^aAnd when John had heard ^bin prison about the works of Christ, he ^csent two of his disciples

3 ^aand said to Him, "Are You ^bthe Coming One, or do we look for another?"

4 ^aJesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see:

5 ^aThe blind see and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and ^bthe poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 ^aAnd blessed is he who is not offended because of Me."

7 ^aAs they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? ^bA reed shaken by the wind?

8 ^aBut what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 ^aBut what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, ^aand more than a prophet.

10 ^aFor this is he of whom it is written:

*^aBehold, I send My messenger before Your face,
Who will prepare Your way before You.'*

11 ^aAssuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 "And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 "For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 "And if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come.

15 "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

16 "But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to their companions, 17 "and saying:

'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not lament.'

18 "For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.'

19 "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children."

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

20 "Then He began to rebuke the cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent:

21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 "But I say to you, "It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.

23 "And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 "But I say to you, "that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

Jesus Gives True Rest

25 "At that time Jesus answered and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes.

26 "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.

27 "All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

28 "Come to ^aMe, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 "Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am ^bgentle and ^clowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

30 "For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time ^aJesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry, and began to ^bpluck heads of grain and to eat.

2 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!"

3 But He said to them, "Have you not read ^awhat David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:

4 "how he entered the house of God and ate ^athe showbread which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, ^bbut only for the priests?

5 "Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple ^bprofane the Sabbath, and are blameless?

6 "Yet I say to you that in this place there is ^aOne greater than the temple.

7 "But if you had known what ^{this} means, ^aI desire mercy and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 "For the Son of Man is Lord ^aeven of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

9 Now when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue.

10 And behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—that they might accuse Him.

11 Then He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out?

12 "Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

13 Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored as whole as the other.

14 Then the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Behold, My Servant

15 But when Jesus knew it, ^aHe withdrew from there. ^bAnd great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them all.

16 Yet He ^awarned them not to make Him known,
17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

18 *"Behold! ^aMy Servant whom I have chosen,
My Beloved ^bin whom My soul is well pleased!
I will put My Spirit upon Him,
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.*

19 *He will not quarrel nor cry out,
Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.*

20 *A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench,
Till He sends forth justice to victory;*

21 And in His name Gentiles will trust."

A House Divided Cannot Stand

22 ^aThen one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw.
23 And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"
24 ^aNow when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This fellow does not cast out demons except by ^bBeelzebub, the ruler of the demons."
25 But Jesus ^aknew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.
26 "If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
27 "And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.
28 "But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, ^asurely the kingdom of God has come upon you.
29 ^a"Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.
30 "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

The Unpardonable Sin

31 ^a"Therefore I say to you, ^aevery sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, ^bbut the blasphemy ^aagainst the Spirit will not be forgiven men.
32 ^a"Anyone who ^aspeaks a word against the Son of Man, ^bit will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

A Tree Known by Its Fruit

33 ^a"Either make the tree good and ^bits fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit.

34 ^a"Brood¹ of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? ^bFor out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

35 "A good man out of the good treasure ^aof his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things.

36 "But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment.

37 "For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Scribes and Pharisees Ask for a Sign

38 ^aThen some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

39 But He answered and said to them, "An evil and ^aadulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

40 ^a"For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 ^a"The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and ^bcondemn it, ^cbecause they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.

42 ^a"The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

43 ^a"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, ^bhe goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.

44 "Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

45 "Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; ^aand the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

46 While He was still talking to the multitudes, ^abehold, His mother and ^bbrothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him.

47 Then one said to Him, "Look, ^aYour mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."

48 But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?"

49 And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My ^abrothers!"

50 "For ^awhoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 On the same day Jesus went out of the house ^aand sat by the sea.

2 ^aAnd great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that ^bHe got into a boat and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: "Behold, ^asower went out to sow.

4 "And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them.

5 "Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth.

6 "But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away.

7 "And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them.

8 "But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some ^aa hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

9 "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

10 And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11 He answered and said to them, "Because ^ait has been given to you to know the ^bmysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

12 "For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.

13 "Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14 "And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

*^aHearing you will hear and shall not understand,
And seeing you will see and not ^bperceive;*

15 For the hearts of this people have grown dull.

16 "But ^ablessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear; 17 "for assuredly, I say to you ^athat many prophets and righteous ^bmen desired to see what you see, and did not see ^bit, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear ^bit.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

18 ^a"Therefore hear the parable of the sower:

19 "When anyone hears the word ^aof the kingdom, and does not understand ^bit, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside.

20 "But he who received the seed on stony places, this is he who hears the word and immediately ^areceives it with joy:

21 "yet he has no root in himself, but endures only for a while. For when ^atribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately ^bhe stumbles.

22 "Now ^athe one who received seed ^bamong the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.

23 "But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands ^bit, who indeed bears ^afruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

The Parable of the Wheat and the Tares

24 Another parable He put forth to them, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; 25 "but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way.

26 "But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared.

27 "So the servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?'

28 "He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us then to go and gather them up?'

29 "But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them.'

30 'Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but "gather the wheat into my barn."

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

31 Another parable He put forth to them, saying: ^a"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field,

32 "which indeed is the least of all the seeds; but when it is grown it is greater than the herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven

33 ^aAnother parable He spoke to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three ^bmeasures of meal till ^bit was all leavened."

Prophecy and the Parables

34 ^aAll these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them,

35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

^a"I will open My mouth in parables;

^bI will utter things kept secret from the foundation of the world."

The Parable of the Tares Explained

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37 He answered and said to them: "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.

38 ^a"The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are ^bthe sons of the wicked one.

39 "The enemy who sowed them is the devil, ^athe harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels.

40 "Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age.

41 "The Son of Man will send out His angels, ^aand they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42 ^aand will cast them into the furnace of fire. ^bThere will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 ^a"Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. ^bHe who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, 46 ^awho, when he had found ^bone pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Dragnet

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and ^agathered some of every kind,

48 ^awhich, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away.

49 "So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, ^aseparate the wicked from among the just,

50 ^aand cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51 ^aJesus said to them, "Have you understood all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes, ^bLord."

52 Then He said to them, "Therefore every ^ascribe instructed ^bconcerning the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure ^athings new and old."

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

53 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there.

54 ^aWhen He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this Man get this wisdom and ^athese mighty works?

55 ^aIs this not the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary? And ^bHis brothers ^cJames, Joses, Simon, and Judas?

56 ^aAnd His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?"

57 So they ^awere offended at Him. But Jesus said to them, ^b"A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house."

58 Now ^aHe did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time ^aHerod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus

2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."

3 ^aFor Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.

⁴ Because John had said to him, ^a"It is not lawful for you to have her."

⁵ And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, ^abecause they counted him as a prophet.

⁶ But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod.

⁷ Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.

⁸ So she, having been prompted by her mother, said, "Give me John the Baptist's head here on a platter."

⁹ And the king was sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he commanded it to be given to her.

¹⁰ So he sent and had John beheaded in prison.

¹¹ And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

¹² Then his disciples came and took away the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

Feeding the Five Thousand

¹³ ^aWhen Jesus heard it, He departed from there by boat to a deserted place by Himself. But when the multitudes heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities.

¹⁴ And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He ^awas moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick.

¹⁵ ^aWhen it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food."

¹⁶ But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

¹⁷ And they said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."

¹⁸ He said, "Bring them here to Me."

¹⁹ Then He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, ^aHe blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes.

²⁰ So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained.

²¹ Now those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

²⁴ But the boat was now ¹in the middle of the sea, tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.

²⁵ Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.

²⁶ And when the disciples saw Him ^awalking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear.

²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, ¹"Be of good cheer! ?It is I; do not be afraid."

²⁸ And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."

²⁹ So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

³⁰ But when he saw ¹that the wind was boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

³⁶ and begged Him that they might only ^atouch the hem of His garment. And ^bas many as touched it were made perfectly well.

Defilement Comes from Within

15 Then ^athe scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying,

² ^a"Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

³ He answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition?

⁴ ^a"For God commanded, saying, ^a'Honor your father and your mother'; and, b'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'

⁵ ^a"But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, ^a'Whatever profit you might have received from me is a gift to God'—

⁶ ^a'then he need not honor his father ¹or mother.' Thus you have made the ²commandment of God of no effect by your tradition.

7 "Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying:

8 'These^a people ¹draw near to Me with their mouth, And honor Me with their lips. But their heart is far from Me. And in vain they worship Me, ^aTeaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'"

10 When He had called the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear and understand:

11 "Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

12 Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?"

13 But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.

14 "Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

15 Then Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

16 So Jesus said, "Are you also still without understanding?

17 "Do you not yet understand that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and is eliminated?

18 "But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile a man.

19 "For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

20 "These are the things which defile a man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

A Gentile Shows Her Faith

21 Then Jesus went out from there and departed to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, 'Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed.'

23 But He answered her not a word. And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."

24 But He answered and said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"

26 But He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little ^adogs."

even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."

28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, ^agreat is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Jesus Heals Great Multitudes

29 ^aJesus departed from there, ^bskirted the Sea of Galilee, and went up on the mountain and sat down there.

30 ^aThen great multitudes came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, ¹maimed, and many others; and they laid them down at Jesus' ^bfeet, and He healed them.

31 So the multitude marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they ^aglorified the God of Israel.

Feeding the Four Thousand

32 ^aNow Jesus called His disciples to Himself and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."

33 ^aThen His disciples said to Him, "Where could we get enough bread in the wilderness to fill such a great multitude?"

34 Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."

35 So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And ^aHe took the seven loaves and the fish and ^bgave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitude.

37 So they all ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets full of the fragments that were left.

38 Now those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 ^aAnd He sent away the multitude, got into the boat, and came to the region of Magdala.

The Pharisees and Sadducees Seek a Sign

16 Then the ^aPharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red';

3 and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times.

4 ^aA wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of ^athe prophet Jonah." And He left them and departed.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5 Now when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said to them, "^aTake heed and beware of the ^bleaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread."

8 But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you ^bhave brought no bread?

9 ^a"Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up?"

10 ^a"Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you took up?"

11 "How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?—but to beware of the ^bleaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

12 Then they understood that He did not tell ^athem to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the ^bdoctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

13 When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, "^aWho do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

14 So they said, "^aSome say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or ^bone of the prophets."

15 He said to them, "^aBut who do ^byou say that I am?"

16 Simon Peter answered and said, "^aYou are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

17 Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, ^afor flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but ^bMy Father who is in heaven."

18 "And I also say to you that ^ayou are Peter, and ^bon this rock I will build My church, and ^cthe gates of Hades shall not ^dprevail against it."

19 ^a"And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth ^bwill be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth ^bwill be loosed in heaven."

20 ^aThen He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

23 But He turned and said to Peter, "^aGet behind Me, ^bSatan! ^bYou are ^can offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

24 ^aThen Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and ^bfollow Me.

25 "For ^awhoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

26 "For what ^aprofit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or ^bwhat will a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 "For ^athe Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father ^bwith His angels, ^cand then He will reward each according to his works.

28 "Assuredly, I say to you, ^athere are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

17 Now ^aafter six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves:

2 and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.

3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, ^alet us make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 ^aWhile he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "^bThis is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. ^dHear Him!"

6 ^aAnd when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid.

7 But Jesus came and ^atouched them and said, "^aArise, and do not be afraid."

8 When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

9 Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "^aTell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

10 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "^aWhy then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11 Jesus answered and said to them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first and will restore all things." 12 "But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands." 13 Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

A Boy Is Healed

14 And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying, 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water."

16 "So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him."

17 Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me."

18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

20 So Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you."

21 "However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

22 Now while they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, 23 and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up." And they were exceedingly sorrowful.

Peter and His Master Pay Their Taxes

24 When they had come to Capernaum, those who received the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?"

25 He said, "Yes." And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their sons or from strangers?"

26 Peter said to Him, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free."

27 Nevertheless, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first.

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

2 Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, 3 and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

4 Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 "Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.

Jesus Warns of Offenses

6 "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 "Woe to the world because of offenses! For offenses must come, but woe to that man by whom the offense comes!

8 "If your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire.

9 "And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

10 "Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven.

11 "For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.

12 "What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying?

13 "And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray.

14 "Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

Dealing with a Sinning Brother

15 "Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, ^byou have gained your brother.

16 "But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that ^a*by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.*"

17 "And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a ^aheathen and a tax collector.

18 "Assuredly, I say to you, ^awhatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

19 ^a"Again¹ I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, ^bit will be done for them by My Father in heaven.

20 "For where two or three are gathered ^atogether in My name, I am there in the midst of them."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

21 Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? ^aUp to seven times?"

22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, ^aup to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.

23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

24 "And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

25 "But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded ^athat he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made.

26 "The servant therefore fell down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.'

27 "Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

28 "But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!'

29 "So his fellow servant fell down ^aat his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you ^ball.'

30 "And he would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt.

31 "So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done.

32 "Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked

35 ^a"So My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother ^bhis trespasses."

Marriage and Divorce

19 Now it came to pass, ^awhen Jesus had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.

2 ^aAnd great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came to Him, testing Him, and saying to Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for ^ajust any reason?"

4 And He answered and said to them, "Have you not read that He who ^bmade them at the beginning ^amade them male and female,"

5 ^aand said, ^a"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and ^bthe two shall become one flesh?"

6 "So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

7 They said to Him, "Why then did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?"

8 He said to them, "Moses, because of the ^ahardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your ^bwives, but from the beginning it was not so."

9 ^a"And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for ^bsexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery."

10 His disciples said to Him, "If such is the case of the man with ^ahis wife, it is better not to marry."

Jesus Teaches on Celibacy

11 But He said to them, ^a"All cannot accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given:

12 "For there are ^aeunuchs who were born thus from ^btheir mother's womb, and ^athere are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He who is able to accept it, let him accept it."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13 ^aThen little children were brought to Him that He might put

His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for ^aof such is the kingdom of heaven.”

15 And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

16 ^aNow behold, one came and said to Him, “^bGood! Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?”

17 So He said to him, “^aWhy do you call Me good? ^bNo one is ^agood but One, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, ^bkeep the commandments.”

18 He said to Him, “Which ones?” Jesus said, “^aYou shall not murder; ^aYou shall not commit adultery; ^aYou shall not steal; ^aYou shall not bear false witness.”

19 ^aHonor your father and your mother; and, ^bYou shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

20 The young man said to Him, “All these things I have ^akept ^bfrom my youth. What do I still lack?”

21 Jesus said to him, “If you want to be perfect, ^ago, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

23 Then Jesus said to His disciples, “Assuredly, I say to you that ^ait is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

24 “And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

25 When His disciples heard it, they were greatly astonished, saying, “Who then can be saved?”

26 But Jesus looked at them and said to them, “With men this is impossible, but ^awith God all things are possible.”

27 Then Peter answered and said to Him, “See, we have left all and followed You. Therefore what shall we have?”

28 So Jesus said to them, “Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, ^ayou who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 ^aAnd everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother ^aor wife or children or ^blands, for My name’s sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life.

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

20 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

2 “Now when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 “And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 “and said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.’ So they went.

5 “Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 “And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’

7 “They said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.’

8 “So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, ‘Call the laborers and give them ^atheir wages, beginning with the last to the first.’

9 “And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a denarius.

10 “But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received each a denarius.

11 “And when they had received it, they complained against the landowner, 12 “saying, ‘These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.’

13 “But he answered one of them and said, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’

14 “Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you.

15 “Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or is your eye evil because I am good?”

16 ^a“So the last will be first, and the first last. ^bFor¹ many are called, but few chosen.”

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

17 ^aNow Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them,

18 ^a“Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death,

19 ^a“and deliver Him to the Gentiles to ^bmock and to ^cscourge and to ^dcrucify. And the third day He will ^erise again.”

Greatness Is Serving

20 ^aThen the mother of ^bZebedee’s sons came to Him with her sons, kneeling down and asking something from Him.

21 And He said to her, “What do you wish?” She said to Him, “Grant that these two sons of mine ^amay sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom.” 22 But Jesus answered and said, “You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink ‘the cup that I am about to drink,’ and be baptized with ‘the baptism that I am baptized with?” They said to Him, “We are able.”

23 So He said to them, “You will indeed drink My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father.”

24 “And when the ten heard it, they were greatly displeased with the two brothers.

25 But Jesus called them to Himself and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.”

26 “Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant.”

27 “And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—”

28 “just as the ^bSon of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

29 ^aNow as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. 30 And behold, ^atwo blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Lord, ^bSon of David!”

31 Then the multitude ^awarned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!”

32 So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

33 They said to Him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened.”

34 So Jesus had compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

3 ^a“And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord has need of them,’ and immediately he will send them.”

4 ^aAll this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

5 ^a*Tell^a the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your King is coming to you,
Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.'* ”

6 ^aSo the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them.

7 They brought the donkey and the colt, ^alaid their clothes on them, ^band set ^cHim on them.

8 And a very great multitude spread their clothes on the road; ^aothers cut down branches from the trees and spread ^bthem on the road.

9 Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

“Hosanna to the Son of David!
^a*Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!*”

Hosanna in the highest!”

10 ^aAnd when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, “Who is this?”

11 So the multitudes said, “This is Jesus, ^athe prophet from Nazareth of Galilee.”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 ^aThen Jesus went into the temple ^bof God and drove out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the ^bmoney changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

13 And He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a ^b‘den of thieves.’”

14 Then ^athe blind and ^bthe lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them.

15 But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” they were ^aindignant

16 and said to Him, “Do You hear what these are saying?” And Jesus said to them, “Yes. Have you never read,

“Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have perfected praise?”

17 Then He left them and ^awent out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there.

The Fig Tree Withered

18 ^aNow in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. 19 ^aAnd seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you ever again." Immediately the fig tree withered away.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 ^aAnd when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither away so soon?"

21 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, ^aif you have faith and ^bdo not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, ^cbut also if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' it will be done."

22 "And ^awhatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

Jesus' Authority Questioned

23 ^aNow when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and ^bsaid, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"

24 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things:

25 "The ^abaptism of ^bJohn—where was it from? From heaven or from men?" And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'

26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, ^bfor all count John as a prophet."

27 So they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know." And He said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Two Sons

28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my ^avineyard.'

29 "He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he regretted it and went.

30 "Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go.

31 "Which of the two did the will of ^ahis father?" They said to Him, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that tax collec-

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

33 "Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner ^awho planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and ^bwent into a far country.

34 "Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit.

35 ^aAnd the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another.

36 "Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them.

37 "Then last of all he sent his ^ason to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

38 "But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, ^a'This is the heir. ^bCome, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.'

39 ^aSo they took him and cast ^bhim out of the vineyard and killed ^chim.

40 "Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?"

41 ^aThey said to Him, ^b"He will destroy those wicked men miserably, ^cand lease ^dhis vineyard to other vinedressers who will ^erender to him the fruits in their seasons."

42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

*"The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.
This was the Lord's doing,
And it is marvelous in our eyes?"*

43 "Therefore I say to you, ^athe kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it.

44 "And ^awhoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whom-ever it falls, ^bit will grind him to powder."

45 Now when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they ^cperceived that He was speaking of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they ^afearred the multitudes, because ^bthey took Him for a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

22 And Jesus answered ^aand spoke to them again by parables and said:

2 “The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son,
3 and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they were not willing to come.

4 “Again, he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, ‘See, I have prepared my dinner; ‘my oxen and fatted cattle are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding.’”

5 “But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business.

6 “And the rest seized his servants, treated ^bthem spitefully, and killed them.

7 “But when the king heard ^{about} it, he was furious. And he sent out his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 “Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not ^cworthy.

9 ‘Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding.’”

10 “So those servants went out into the highways and gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 “But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there ^dwho did not have on a wedding garment.

12 “So he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?’ And he was ^espeechless.

13 “Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and cast ^fhim into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”

14 “For many are called, but few are chosen.”

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

15 “Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in His talk.

16 And they sent to Him their disciples with the ^gHerodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth; nor do You care about anyone, for You do not ^hregard the person of men.

17 “Tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

18 But Jesus ⁱperceived their wickedness, and said, “Why do you test Me, you hypocrites?”

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

23 ^aThe same day the Sadducees, ^bwho say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 24 saying: “Teacher, ^cMoses said that if a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

25 “Now there were with us seven brothers. The first died after he had married, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother.

26 “Likewise the second also, and the third, even to the seventh.

27 “Last of all the woman died also.

28 “Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her.”

29 Jesus answered and said to them, “You are ^dmistaken, ^enot knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.

30 “For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but ^fare like angels ^gof God in heaven.

31 “But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying,

32 ^a*I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?* God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”

33 And when the multitudes heard this, ⁱthey were astonished at His teaching.

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

34 ^aBut when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together.

35 Then one of them, ^aa lawyer, asked Him ^ja question, testing Him, and saying,

36 “Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?”

37 Jesus said to him, ^a*“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”*

38 ^aThis is the first and great commandment.

39 ^a*“And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’*

40 ^a*“On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”*

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

41 "While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?" They said to Him, "The Son of David."
43 He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying:

44 'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool" '?

45 "If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?"

46 "And no one was able to answer Him a word, ^bnor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore.

Woe to the Scribes and Pharisees

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples,
² saying: "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat.
3 "Therefore whatever they tell you to observe, that observe and do, but do not do according to their works; for they say, and do not do.
4 "For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay ^athem on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 "But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments.

6 "They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,

7 "greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'

8 "But you, do not be called 'Rabbi'; for One is your Teacher, the Christ, and you are all brethren.

9 "Do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven.

10 "And do not be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Christ.

11 "But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 "And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.

14 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, ^anot one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, ^athe disciples came to Him privately, saying, ^b"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

4 And Jesus answered and said to them: ^a"Take heed that no one deceives you.

5 "For ^amany will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' ^band will deceive many.

6 "And you will hear of ^awars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for ^aall these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 "For ^anation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be ^bfamines, ^cpestilences, and earthquakes in various places.

8 "All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 ^a"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake.

11 "Then ^amany false prophets will rise up and ^bdeceive many.

12 "And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow ^ccold.

13 ^a"But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

14 "And this ^agospel of the kingdom ^bwill be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

15 ^a"Therefore when you see the ^b'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" ^c(whoever reads, let him understand), 16 "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

17 "Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house.

18 "And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.

19 "But ^awoe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!

20 "And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath.

21 "For ^athen there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 "And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; ^bbut for the ^celect's sake those days will be shortened.

23 ^a"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There!' do not believe it.

24 "For ^afalse christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, ^bif possible, even the elect.

25 "See, I have told you beforehand.

26 "Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it.

27 ^a"For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

28 ^a"For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The Coming of the Son of Man

29 ^a"Immediately after the tribulation of those days ^bthe sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

30 ^a"Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, ^band then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

 31 "And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

32 "Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.
 33 "So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at the doors!
 34 "Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.
 35 "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

36 "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only.
 37 "But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
 38 "For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39 "and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
 40 "Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left.
 41 "Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left.
 42 "Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming.
 43 "But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.
 44 "Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

45 "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season?
 46 "Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing.
 47 "Assuredly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all his goods.

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.

2 ^aNow five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 "Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them,

4 "but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 "But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

6 "And at midnight ^aa cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!'

7 "Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.

8 "And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

9 "But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.'

10 "And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and ^athe door was shut.

11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!'

12 "But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, ^aI do not know you.'

13 ^aWatch therefore, for you ^bknow neither the day nor the hour ^cin which the Son of Man is coming.

The Parable of the Talents

14 ^aFor the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them.

15 "And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, ^ato each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey.

16 "Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents.

17 "And likewise he who had received two gained two more also.

18 "But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money.

19 "After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

20 "So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.'

21 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, ^bI will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

22 "He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.'

23 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

24 "Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed.'

25 'And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.'

26 "But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed.'

27 'So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest.'

28 'Therefore take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.'

29 "For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.

30 'And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. ^bThere will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The Son of Man Will Judge the Nations

31 "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.

32 "All the nations will be gathered before Him, and ^bHe will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats.

33 "And He will set the ^asheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 "Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

46 "And ^athese will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples, 2 ^a"You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3 ^aThen the chief priests, ^bthe scribes, and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 ^aand ^bplotted to take Jesus by trickery and kill Him.

5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the ^apeople."

The Anointing at Bethany

6 And when Jesus was in ^aBethany at the house of Simon the leper,

7 a woman came to Him having an alabaster flask of very costly fragrant oil, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table.

8 ^aBut when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?"

9 "For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor."

10 But when Jesus was aware of it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me."

11 "For you have the poor with you always, but ^bMe you do not have always."

12 "For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My ^aburial.

13 "Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 ^aThen one of the twelve, called ^bJudas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

15 and said, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.

16 So from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates Passover with His Disciples

17 ^aNow on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18 And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples."'"

19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

20 ^aWhen evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.

21 Now as they were eating, He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will ^abetray Me."

22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to Him, "Lord, is it I?"

23 He answered and said, "He who dipped ^bhis hand with Me in the dish will betray Me.

24 "The Son of Man indeed goes just ^aas it is written of Him, but ^bwoe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25 Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said it."

30 ^aAnd when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will ^bbe ^amade to stumble because of Me this night, for it is written:

^c'I will strike the Shepherd, And the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

32 "But after I have been raised, ^aI will go before you to Galilee."

33 Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if all are ^amade to stumble because of You, I will never be made to stumble."

34 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

35 Peter said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And so said all the disciples.

The Prayer in the Garden

36 ^aThen Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray over there."

37 And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and He began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed.

38 Then He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me."

39 He went a little farther and fell on His face, and ^aprayed, saying, "^bO My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, ^anot as I will, but as You will."

40 Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What? Could you not watch with Me one hour?

41 ^a"Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. ^bThe spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42 Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done."

43 And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.

44 So He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners."

46 "Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

47 And while He was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him."

49 Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

50 But Jesus said to him, "Friend, why have you come?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him.

51 And suddenly, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

52 But Jesus said to him, "Put your sword in its place, for all who take the sword will perish by the sword."

53 "Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels?

54 "How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen thus?"

55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me.

56 "But all this was done that the "Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

57 And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest's courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, the elders, and all the council sought false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death,

60 but found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.'" 62 "And the high priest arose and said to Him, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?"

63 But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, "I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!"

64 Jesus said to him, "It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His blasphemy!"
66 "What do you think?" They answered and said, "He is deserving of death."

67 Then they spat in His face and beat Him; and others struck Him with the palms of their hands,
68 saying, "Prophesy to us, Christ! Who is the one who struck You?"

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

69 Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

71 And when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72 But again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man!"

73 And a little later those who stood by came up and said to Peter, "Surely you also are one of them, for your speech betrays you."

74 Then he began to curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!" Immediately a rooster crowed.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." So he went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

27 When morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death.

2 And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

3 Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was remorseful and brought back the thirty ^bpieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

 4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? You see to it!"
 5 Then he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple and ^adeparted, and went and hanged himself.
 6 But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because they are the price of blood."
 7 And they consulted together and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
 8 Therefore that field has been called "the Field of Blood to this day.
 9 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "^aAnd they took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced,
 10 "and ^agave them for the potter's field, as the LORD directed me."

Jesus Faces Pilate

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor. "And the governor asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" Jesus said to him, "^bIt is as you say."
 12 And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, ^aHe answered nothing.
 13 Then Pilate said to Him, "^aDo You not hear how many things they testify against You?"
 14 "But He answered him not one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

15 ^aNow at the feast the governor was accustomed to releasing to the multitude one prisoner whom they wished.
 16 And at that time they had a notorious prisoner called ^bBarabbas.
 17 Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"
 18 For he knew that they had handed Him over because of envy.
 19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that just Man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him."
 20 "But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus.
 21 The governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "^bBarabbas!"
 22 Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let Him be crucified!"

23 Then the governor said, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they cried out all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"

24 When Pilate saw that he could not prevail at all, but rather ^athat a tumult was rising, he ^btook water and washed ^chis hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this ^djust Person. You see to it."

25 And all the people answered and said, "His blood be on us and on our children."

26 Then he released Barabbas to them; and when ^ahe had ^bscourged Jesus, he delivered ^cHim to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

27 ^aThen the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the ^bPraetorium and gathered the whole ^cgarrison around Him.

28 And they ^astripped Him and ^bput a scarlet robe on Him.

29 ^aWhen they had ^btwisted a crown of thorns, they put ^cit on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

30 Then ^athey spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him on the head.

31 And when they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, put His own clothes on Him, ^aand led Him away to be crucified.

The King on a Cross

32 ^aNow as they came out, ^bthey found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. Him they compelled to bear His cross.

33 ^aAnd when they had come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull, 34 ^athey gave Him ^bsour wine mingled with gall to drink. But when He had tasted ^cit, He would not drink.

35 ^aThen they crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots, ^bthat it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet:

^b"They divided My garments
among them,
And for My clothing they cast
lots."

36 ^aSitting down, they kept watch over Him there.

37 And they ^aput up over His head the accusation written against Him:

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 ^aThen two robbers were crucified with Him, one on the right and another on the left.

39 And ^athose who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads 40 and saying, "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! ^bIf You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41 Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the ¹scribes and elders, said, 42 "He ^asaved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe ²Him.

43 ^aHe trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

44 ^aEven the robbers who were crucified with Him reviled Him with the same thing.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

45 ^aNow from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land.

46 And about the ninth hour ^aJesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, ^b"My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This Man is calling for Elijah!"

48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink.

49 The rest said, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save Him."

50 And Jesus ^acried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit.

51 Then, behold, ^athe veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split,

52 and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;

53 and coming out of the graves after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

54 ^aSo when the centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they feared greatly, saying, ^b"Truly this was the Son of God!"

55 And many women ^awho followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, were there looking on from afar.

56 ^aamong whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and ¹Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

57 Now ^awhen evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.

59 When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and ^alaid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.

61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting ¹opposite the tomb.

Pilate Sets a Guard

62 On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate,

63 saying, "Sir, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, ^a*'After three days I will rise.'*

64 "Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come ¹by night and steal Him away, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' So the last deception will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go your way, make it as secure as you know how."

66 So they went and made the tomb secure, ^asealing the stone and setting the guard.

He Is Risen

28 Now ^aafter the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene ^band the other Mary came to see the tomb.

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for ^aan angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone ¹from the door, and sat on it.

3 ^aHis countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.

4 And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like ^adead men.

5 But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.

6 "He is not here; for He is risen, ^aas He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 "And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed ^aHe is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you."

8 So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

The Women Worship the Risen Lord

9 And ^aas they went to tell His disciples, behold, ^aJesus met them, saying, ^{"Rejoice!"} So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him.

 10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

The Soldiers Are Bribed

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened.

12 When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers,

13 saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.'

14 "And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure."

15 So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

The Great Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain ^awhich Jesus had appointed for them.

17 When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some ^adoubted.

18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "^aAll authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth,

19 "^aGo therefore and ^bmake disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 "^ateaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am ^bwith you always, even to the end of the age." ¹Amen.

The Gospel According to

MARK

THE message of Mark's gospel is captured in a single verse: "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (10:45). Chapter by chapter, the book unfolds the dual focus of Christ's life: service and sacrifice.

Mark portrays Jesus as a Servant on the move, instantly responsive to the will of the Father. By preaching, teaching, and healing, He ministers to the needs of others even to the point of death. After the Resurrection, He commissions His followers to continue His work in His power—servants following in the steps of the perfect Servant.

The ancient title for this gospel was Kata Markon, "According to Mark." The author is best known by his Latin name Marcus, but in Jewish circles he was called by his Hebrew name John. Acts 12:12, 25 refer to him as "John whose surname was Mark."

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

THE ^abeginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, ^bthe Son of God.

2 As it is written in ^cthe Prophets:

^a"Behold, I send My messenger before Your face,
 Who will prepare Your way
 before You."

3 "The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

'Prepare the way of the LORD;
 Make His paths straight.'

4 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance ^afor the remission of sins.

5 ^aThen all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

6 Now John was ^aclothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

7 And he preached, saying, "^aThere comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose.

8 ^a"I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you ^bwith the Holy Spirit."

John Baptizes Jesus

9 "It came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

10 "And immediately, coming up ¹from the water, He saw the heavens ²parting and the Spirit ^bdescending upon Him like a dove.

11 Then a voice came from heaven, "You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Satan Tempts Jesus

12 "Immediately the Spirit ¹drove Him into the wilderness.

13 And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts; ^aand the angels ministered to Him.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

14 "Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came to Galilee, ^bpreaching the gospel ¹of the kingdom of God,

15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and ^bthe kingdom of God ^ais at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

16 "And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

17 Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become ^afishers of men."

18 "They immediately left their nets and followed Him.

19 When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets.

20 And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

21 "Then they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the ^bsynagogue and taught.

22 "And they were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

23 Now there was a man in their synagogue with an ^aunclean spirit. And he cried out,

24 saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I ^bknow who You are—the Holy One of God!"

25 But Jesus ^arebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!"

27 Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new ^bdoctrine is this? For with authority He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."

28 And immediately His ^afame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

29 "Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once.

31 So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

32 "At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed.

33 And the whole city was gathered together at the door.

34 Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and ^acast out many demons; and He ^bdid not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Preaching in Galilee

35 Now ^ain the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a ^bsolitary place; and there He ^bprayed.

36 And Simon and those who were with Him searched for Him.

37 When they found Him, they said to Him, "Everyone ^bis looking for You."

38 But He said to them, "Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because ^bfor this purpose I have come forth."

39 "And He was preaching in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and ^acasting out demons.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

40 "Now a leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

41 Then Jesus, moved with compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed."

42 As soon as He had spoken, ^aimmediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed.

43 And He strictly warned him and sent him away at once,

44 and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things which Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

45 "However, he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the matter, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was outside in deserted places; ^band they came to Him from every direction.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

2 And again ^aHe entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. 2 ^bImmediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them.

3 Then they came to Him, bringing a ^aparalytic who was carried by four men.

4 And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

6 And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts,

7 "Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? ^aWho can forgive sins but God alone?"

8 But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts?"

9 ^a"Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you', or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk'?"

10 "But that you may know that the Son of Man has ^bpower on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic,

11 "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

12 Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and ^aglorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

13 ^aThen He went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them.

14 ^aAs He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, ^b"Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.

15 ^aNow it happened, as He was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him.

16 And when the scribes ^aand Pharisees saw Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, "How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17 When Jesus heard it, He said to them, ^a"Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, ^bto repentance."

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

18 ^aThe disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Then they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.

20 ^aBut the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.

21 ^aNo one sews a piece of unshrunken cloth on an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse.

22 ^aAnd no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

23 ^aNow it happened that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath; and as they went His disciples began ^bto pluck the heads of grain.

24 And the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is ^anot lawful on the Sabbath?"

25 But He said to them, "Have you never read ^awhat David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him:

26 ^ahow he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the showbread, ^awhich is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

27 And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the ^aSabbath.

28 ^aTherefore the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

3 And ^aHe entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

2 So they ^awatched Him closely, whether He would ^bheal him on the Sabbath, so that they might ¹accuse Him.

3 And He said to the man who had the withered hand, ¹"Step forward."

4 Then He said to them, ²"Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent.

5 And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the ^ahardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored ¹as whole as the other.

6 ^aThen the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with ^bthe Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

A Great Multitude Follows Jesus

7 But Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, ^aand from Judea

8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how ^amany things He was doing, came to Him.

9 So He told His disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should crush Him.

10 For He healed ^amany, so that as many as had afflictions pressed about Him to ^btouch Him.

11 ^aAnd the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, saying, ^b"You are the Son of God."

12 But He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known.

The Twelve Apostles

13 ^aAnd He went up on the mountain and called to Him those He Himself wanted. And they came to Him.

14 Then He appointed twelve, ^tthat they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach,

15 and to have ¹power ²to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons:

16 ¹Simon, ^ato whom He gave the name Peter;

17 James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom He gave the name Boanerges, that is, "Sons of Thunder";

18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Cananite;

19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. And they went into a house.

A House Divided Cannot Stand

20 Then the multitude came together again, ^aso that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 But when His ^aown people heard about this, they went out to lay hold of Him, ^bfor they said, "He is out of His mind."

22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, ^a"He has Beelzebub," and, ^b"By the ^bruler of the demons He casts out demons."

23 ^aSo He called them to ^bHimself and said to them in parables: ^c"How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 ^aIf a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 ^aAnd if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 ^aAnd if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end.

27 ^aNo one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

29 ^a"but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation"—

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

31 ^aThen His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him.

32 And a multitude was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers ¹are outside seeking You."

33 But He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?"

34 And He looked around in a circle at those who sat about Him, and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers!"

35 "For whoever does the ^awill of God is My brother and My sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

4 And ^aagain He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in ^bit on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea.

2 Then He taught them many things by parables, ^aand said to them in His teaching:

3 "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow.

4 "And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds ¹of the air came and devoured it.

5 "Some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth.

 6 "But when the sun was up it was scorched, and because it had no root it withered away.
 7 "And some seed fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop.
 8 "But other seed fell on good ground and yielded a crop that sprang up, increased and produced: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."
 9 And He said to them, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

10 aBut when He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable.
 11 And He said to them, "To you it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to bthose who are outside, all things come in parables, 12 "so that

*a'Seeing they may see and not perceive,
 And hearing they may hear and not understand;
 Lest they should turn,
 And their sins be forgiven them.'*"

The Parable of the Sower Explained

13 And He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables?
 14 aThe sower sows the word.
 15 "And these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.
 16 "These likewise are the ones sown on stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness;
 17 "and they have no root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they stumble.
 18 "Now these are the ones sown among thorns; they are the ones who hear the word, 19 "and the acares of this world, bthe deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
 20 "But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

22 "For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light.

23 aIf anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."

24 Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. aWith the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given.

25 aFor whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

The Parable of the Growing Seed

26 And He said, aThe kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground, 27 "and should sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed should sprout and grow, he himself does not know how.

28 "For the earth yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head,

29 "But when the grain ripens, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

30 Then He said, aTo what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it?

31 "It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth;

32 "but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

Jesus' Use of Parables

33 aAnd with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, aHe explained all things to His disciples.

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

35 aOn the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."

36 Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him.

37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling.

38 But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, aTeacher, bdo You not care that we are perishing?"

39 Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, bPeace,¹ be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

40 But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How¹ is it that you have no faith?"

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

5 Then ^athey came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the ¹Gadarenes.

2 And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him, not even with chains,

4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.

6 When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him.

7 And he cried out with a loud voice and said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God that You do not torment me."

8 For He said to him, "Come out of the man, unclean spirit!"

9 Then He asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion; for we are many."

10 Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.

11 Now a large herd of swine was feeding there near the mountains.

12 So all the demons begged Him, saying, "Send us to the swine, that we may enter them."

13 And ^aat once Jesus gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand); and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.

14 So those who fed the swine fled, and they told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that had happened.

15 Then they came to Jesus, and saw the one who had been ^ademon-possessed and had the legion, ^bsitting and ^bclothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

16 And those who saw it told them how it happened to him who had been demon-possessed, and about the swine.

17 Then ^athey began to plead with Him to depart from their region.

20 And he departed and began to proclaim in ¹Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; and all marveled.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

21 ^aNow when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great multitude gathered to Him; and He was by the sea.

22 ^aAnd behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet

23 and begged Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live."

24 So Jesus went with him, and a great multitude followed Him and thronged Him.

25 Now a certain woman ^ahad a flow of blood for twelve years,

26 and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse.

27 When she heard about Jesus, she came behind ^bHim in the crowd and ^ctouched His garment.

28 For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well."

29 Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that ^apower had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?"

31 But His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"

32 And He looked around to see her who had done this thing.

33 But the woman, ^afearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.

34 And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."

35 ^aWhile He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?"

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not be afraid; only believe.”

37 And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

38 Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who wept and wailed loudly.

39 When He came in, He said to them, “Why make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but sleeping.”

40 And they ridiculed Him. “But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying.

41 Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, “Talitha, cumi,” which is translated, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.”

42 Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were overcome with great amazement.

43 But He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

6 Then He went out from there and came to His own country, and His disciples followed Him.

2 And when the Sabbath had come, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were astonished, saying, “Where did this Man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such mighty works are performed by His hands!”

3 “Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And are not His sisters here with us?” So they were offended at Him.

4 But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his own house.”

5 Now He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.

6 And He marveled because of their unbelief. Then He went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

Sending Out the Twelve

7 And He called the twelve to Himself, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits.

8 He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in their money belts—

9 but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.

12 So they went out and preached that people should repent.

13 And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 ^aNow King Herod heard of Him, for His name had become well known. And he said, “John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore ^bthese powers are at work in him.”

15 ^aOthers said, “It is Elijah.” And others said, “It is ^bthe Prophet, or like one of the prophets.”

16 ^aBut when Herod heard, he said, “This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!”

17 For Herod himself had sent and laid hold of John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife; for he had married her.

18 Because John had said to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”

19 Therefore Herodias held it against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not;

20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 Then an opportune day came when Herod ^bon his birthday gave a feast for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee.

22 And when Herodias’ daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, “Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you.”

23 He also swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom.”

24 So she went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?” And she said, “The head of John the Baptist!”

25 Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, “I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.”

26 ^aAnd the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her.

27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

29 When his disciples heard of it, they came and took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding the Five Thousand

30 "Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught.
31 "And He said to them, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.
32 "So they departed to a deserted place in the boat by themselves.
33 But the multitudes saw them departing, and many knew Him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to Him.
34 "And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like sheep not having a shepherd. So He began to teach them many things.
35 "When the day was now far spent, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late.
36 "Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves bread; for they have nothing to eat."
37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to Him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?"
38 But He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see." And when they found out they said, "Five, and two fish."
39 Then He commanded them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass.
40 So they sat down in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties.
41 And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven, blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all.
42 So they all ate and were filled.
43 And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish.
44 Now those who had eaten the loaves were about five thousand men.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

46 And when He had sent them away, He departed to the mountain to pray.

47 Now when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land.

48 Then He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them. Now about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea, and would have passed them by.

49 And when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed it was a ghost, and cried out;

50 for they all saw Him and were troubled. But immediately He talked with them and said to them, "Be! of good cheer! It is I; do not be afraid."

51 Then He went up into the boat to them, and the wind ceased. And they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure, and marveled.

52 For they had not understood about the loaves, because their heart was hardened.

Many Touch Him and Are Made Well

53 When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored there.

54 And when they came out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55 ran through that whole surrounding region, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick to wherever they heard He was.

56 Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged Him that they might just touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made well.

Defilement Comes from Within

7 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem.
2 Now when they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, with unwashed hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"

6 He answered and said to them,

"Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written:

*b'This people honors Me with their lips,
But their heart is far from Me.
7 And in vain they worship Me,
Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'*

8 "For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do."

9 He said to them, "All too well you ^areject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition.

10 "For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, ^b'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'

11 "But you say, 'If a man says to his father or mother, ^a'Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban'—(that is, a gift to God),

12 "then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother, 13 "making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do."

14 "When He had called all the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear Me, everyone, and ^bunderstand:

15 "There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that ^adefile a man.

16 "^aIf anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"

17 "When He had entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable.

18 So He said to them, ^a"Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him,

19 "because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, ^bthus purifying all foods?"

20 And He said, ^a"What comes out of a man, that defiles a man.

21 "^aFor from within, out of the heart of men, ^bproceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 "thefts, ^ccovetousness, wickedness, ^bdeceit, ^clewdness, an evil eye, ^bblasphemy, ^cpride, foolishness.

23 "All these evil things come from within and defile a man."

daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and fell at His feet.

26 The woman was a ¹Greek, a ²Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept ³asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs."

28 And she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children's crumbs."

29 Then He said to her, "For this saying go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."

30 And when she had come to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

Jesus Heals a Deaf-Mute

31 "Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, He came through the midst of the region of Decapolis to the Sea of Galilee.

32 Then ^athey brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him.

33 And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and ^aHe spat and touched his tongue.

34 Then, ^alooking up to heaven, ^bHe sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, ^c"Be opened."

35 ^aImmediately his ears were opened, and the ^bimpediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.

36 Then ^aHe commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it.

37 And they were ^aastonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He ^bmakes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Feeding the Four Thousand

8 In those days, ^athe multitude being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them,

² "I have ^acompassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat.

³ "And if I send them away hungry to their own houses, they will faint on the way; for some of them have come from afar."

4 Then His disciples answered Him, "How can one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness?"

⁵ "He asked them, ^a"How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."

6 So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude.

7 They also had a few small fish; and having blessed them, He said to set them also before them.

8 So they ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets of leftover fragments.

9 Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away, 10 immediately got into the boat with His disciples, and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

The Pharisees Seek a Sign

11 Then the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, testing Him.

12 But He sighed deeply in His spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Assuredly, I say to you, no sign shall be given to this generation."

Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees and Herod

13 And He left them, and getting into the boat again, departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, and they did not have more than one loaf with them in the boat.

15 Then He charged them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

17 But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "Why do you reason because you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still hardened?"

18 "Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember?"

19 "When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?" They said to Him, "Twelve."

20 "Also, when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?" And they said, "Seven."

21 So He said to them, "How is it you do not understand?"

A Blind Man Healed at Bethsaida and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything.

24 And he looked up and said, "I see men like trees, walking."

25 Then He put His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly.

26 Then He sent him away to his house, saying, ¹"Neither go into the town, nor tell anyone in the town."

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

27 Now Jesus and His disciples went out to the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road He asked His disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?"

28 So they answered, ^a"John the Baptist; but some say, ^bElijah; and others, one of the prophets."

29 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered and said to Him, ^a"You are the Christ."

30 Then He strictly warned them that they should tell no one about Him.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 He spoke this word openly. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

33 But when He had turned around and looked at His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

34 When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."

35 "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it.

36 "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?

37 "Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

38 "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

9 And He said to them, "Assuredly I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see ^bthe kingdom of God 'present with power.'

2 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them.

3 His clothes became shining, exceedingly ^awhite, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

5 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—

6 because he did not know what to say, for they were greatly afraid.

7 And a ^acloud came and overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is ^bMy beloved Son. Hear Him!"

8 Suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no one anymore, but only Jesus with themselves.

9 Now as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no one the things they had seen, till the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

10 So they kept this word to themselves, questioning ^awhat the rising from the dead meant.

11 And they asked Him, saying, "Why do the scribes say ^athat Elijah must come first?"

12 Then He answered and told them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. And ^ahow is it written concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things and ^bbe treated with contempt?

13 "But I say to you that Elijah has also come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him."

A Boy Is Healed

14 And when He came to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes disputing with them.

15 Immediately, when they saw Him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him.

16 And He asked the scribes, "What are you discussing with them?"

17 Then one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit.

18 "And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to Your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could not."

19 He answered him and said, "O faithless¹ generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me."

20 Then they brought him to Him. And ^awhen he saw Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.

21 So He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.

22 "And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

23 Jesus said to him, "If¹ you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes."

24 Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!"

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it: "Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!"

26 Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead."

27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 "And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

29 So He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing but ^aprayer and fasting."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

30 Then they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it.

31 "For He taught His disciples and said to them, "The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men, and they will ^bkill Him. And after He is killed, He will rise the third day."

32 But they did not understand this saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

Who Is the Greatest?

33 Then He came to Capernaum. And when He was in the house He asked them, "What was it you disputed among yourselves on the road?"

34 But they kept silent, for on the road they had disputed among themselves who would be the greatest.

35 And He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all."

36 Then He took a little child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them,

37 "Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me, receives not Me but Him who sent Me."

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

38 Now John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us."

39 But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for no one who works a miracle in My name can soon afterward speak evil of Me.

40 "For he who is not against us is on our side.

41 "For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, assuredly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward.

Jesus Warns of Offenses

42 "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea.

43 "If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched—

44 "where

*"Their worm does not die

45 "And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched—

Marriage and Divorce

10 Then aHe arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And multitudes gathered to Him again, and as He was accused, He taught them again.

2 aThe Pharisees came and asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" testing Him.

3 And He answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"

4 They said, a" Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to dismiss her."

5 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 "But from the beginning of the creation, God a'made them male and female.'

7 a'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,

8 'and the two shall become one flesh'; so then they are no longer two, but one flesh.

9 "Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

10 In the house His disciples also asked Him again about the same matter.

11 So He said to them, a" Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her."

12 "And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13 aThen they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for a of such is the kingdom of God.

15 "Assuredly, I say to you, awhoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will bby no means enter it."

16 And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

17 aNow as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I bdo that I may inherit eternal life?"

18 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, aGod."

19 "You know the commandments: a'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder; 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'"

20 And he answered and said to Him, "Teacher, all these things I have ^akept from my youth."

21 Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: Go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have ^btreasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow Me."

22 But he was sad at this word, and went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

23 "Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!"

24 And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is ¹for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God!"

25 "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And they were greatly astonished, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?"

27 But Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible."

28 "Then Peter began to say to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You."

29 So Jesus answered and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother ¹or wife or children or ²lands, for My sake and the gospel's, 30 "^awho shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with ^bpersecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life.

31 "^aBut many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

32 "Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. ^bThen He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that would happen to Him:

33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn

Greatness Is Serving

35 "Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."

36 And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

37 They said to Him, "Grant us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left, in Your glory."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the ^acup that I drink, and be baptized with the ^bbaptism that I am baptized with?"

39 They said to Him, "We are able." So Jesus said to them, "^aYou will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized;"

40 "but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is ^bfor those ^afor whom it is prepared."

41 "And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, "^aYou know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

43 "^aYet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant.

44 "And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all.

45 "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

46 Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

48 Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

49 So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called. Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you."

50 And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.

51 So Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" The blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, that I may receive my sight."

52 Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 Now when they drew near Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples;

2 and He said to them, "Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you have entered it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Loose it and bring it."

3 "And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."

4 So they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it.

5 But some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"

6 And they spoke to them just as Jesus had commanded. So they let them go.

7 Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and He sat on it.

8 And many spread their clothes on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna!

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!"

10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David

That comes in the name of the Lord!

"Hosanna in the highest!"

11 And Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple. So when He had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

The Fig Tree Withered

12 Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry.

13 And seeing from afar a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

14 In response Jesus said to it, "Let

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

15 So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold ^bdoves.

16 And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple.

17 Then He taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, ^a'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it a ^b'den of thieves.'

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it and sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because ^ball the people were astonished at His teaching.

19 When evening had come, He went out of the city.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter, remembering, said to Him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away."

22 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Have faith in God."

23 For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says.

24 Therefore I say to you, ^awhatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive ^bthem, and you will have ^bthem.

Forgiveness and Prayer

25 And whenever you stand praying, ^aif you have anything against anyone, forgive him, that your Father in heaven may also forgive your trespasses.

26 ^aBut ^bif you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses."

Jesus' Authority Questioned

27 Then they came again to Jerusalem. ^aAnd as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.

28 And they said to Him, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?"

29 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things:

30 "The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me."

31 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?'

32 "But if we say, 'From men'”—they feared the people, for all counted John to have been a prophet indeed.

33 So they answered and said to Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus answered and said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

12 Then he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a place for the wine vat and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country.

2 "Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that he might receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers.

3 "And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

4 "Again he sent them another servant, and at him they threw stones, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.

5 "And again he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, beating some and killing some.

6 "Therefore still having one son, his beloved, he also sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

7 "But those vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'

8 "So they took him and killed him and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 "Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and give the vineyard to others.

10 "Have you not even read this Scripture:

*"The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone."*

11 *This was the LORD's doing.
And it is marvelous in our eyes?"*

12 "And they sought to lay hands on Him, but feared the multitude, for they knew He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went away.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

13 "Then they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in His words.

14 When they had come, they said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and care about no one; for You do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?

15 "Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?" But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it."

16 So they brought it. And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to Him, "Caesar's."

17 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they marveled at Him.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

18 Then some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him; and they asked Him, saying:

19 "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

20 "Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife; and dying, he left no offspring.

21 "And the second took her, and he died; nor did he leave any offspring. And the third likewise.

22 "So the seven had her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman died also.

23 "Therefore, in the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."

24 Jesus answered and said to them, "Are you not therefore mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God?

25 "For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

26 "But concerning the dead, that they rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the burning bush passage, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?

27 "He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You are therefore greatly mistaken."

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

28 Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, ¹perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the ²first commandment of all?"

29 Jesus answered him, "The ¹first of all the commandments is: ^a'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one.'

30 ^b'And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' ^cThis is the first commandment.

31 ^d"And the second, like it, is this: ^a'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than ^ethese."

32 So the scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, ^aand there is no other but He."

33 ^b"And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, ^cwith all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, ^dis more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34 Now when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." ^eBut after that no one dared question Him.

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

35 ^aThen Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David?

36 ^b"For David himself said ^cby the Holy Spirit:

^b'The LORD said to my Lord,
^c'Sit at My right hand,
^dTill I make Your enemies Your footstool.'

37 ^e"Therefore David himself calls Him 'Lord'; how is He ^fthen his 'Son'? And the common people heard Him gladly.

Beware of the Scribes

38 Then ^aHe said to them in His teaching, ^b"Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, ^clove greetings in the market-places,

39 ^dthe ^ebest seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,

40 ^fwho devour widows' houses, and ^gfor a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

13 Then ^aas He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!"

2 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? ^aNot one stone shall be left upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

4 ^a"Tell us, when will these things be? And what ^bwill be the sign when all these things will be fulfilled?"

5 And Jesus, answering them, began to say: ^a"Take heed that no one deceives you.

6 ^a"For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will deceive many.

7 ^b"But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled; for ^csuch things must happen, but the end is not yet.

8 ^a"For nation will rise against nation, and ^bkingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines ^cand troubles. ^dThese are the beginnings of ^esorrows.

9 ^b"But ^cwatch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will ^dbe brought before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them.

10 ^a"And ^bthe gospel must first be preached to all the nations.

11 ^a"But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, ^bor premeditate what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, ^cbut the Holy Spirit.

12 ^a"Now ^bbrother will betray brother to death, and a father ^chis child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.

13 ^a"And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But ^bhe who ^cendures to the end shall be saved.

The Great Tribulation

14 a“So when you see the b‘abomination of desolation,’¹ spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not” (let the reader understand), “then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

15 “Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house.

16 “And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.

17 a“But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!

18 “And pray that your flight may not be in winter.

19 a“For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be.

20 “And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect’s sake, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

21 a“Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘Look, He is there!’ do not believe it.

22 “For false christ’s and false prophets will rise and show signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.

23 “But *a*take heed; see, I have told you all things beforehand.

The Coming of the Son of Man

24 a“But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;

25 “the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

26 a“Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 “And then He will send His angels, and gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

28 a“Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.

29 “So you also, when you see these things happening, know that *i*t is near—at the doors!

30 “Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.

31 “Heaven and earth will pass away, but *a*My words will by no means pass away.

35 a“Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming—in the evening, at midnight, at the crowing of the rooster, or in the morning—36 “lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

37 “And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After *a*two days it was the Passover and *b*the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by *c*trickery and put Him to death.

2 But they said, “Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.”

The Anointing at Bethany

3 *a*And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly *b*oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His head.

4 But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, “Why was this fragrant oil wasted?”

5 “For it might have been sold for more than three hundred *a*denarii and given to the poor.” And they *b*criticized¹ her sharply.

6 But Jesus said, “Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me.”

7 a“For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; *b*but Me you do not have always.

8 “She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial.”

9 “Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10 *a*Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates the Passover with His Disciples

12 *a*Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they *b*killed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"

13 And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him."

14 "Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, 'Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'"

15 "Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."

16 So His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

17 "In the evening He came with the twelve.

18 Now as they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"

20 He answered and said to them, "It is one of the twelve, who dips with Me in the dish.

21 "The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born."

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

22 "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

23 Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

24 And He said to them, "This is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many.

25 "Assuredly, I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

26 "And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

27 "Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of Me this night, for it is written:

b'I will strike the Shepherd, And the sheep will be scattered.'

28 "But after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee."

29 "Peter said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble, yet I will not be."

30 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

31 But he spoke more vehemently, "If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And they all said likewise.

The Prayer in the Garden

32 ^aThen they came to a place which was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

33 And He ^atook Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and deeply distressed.

34 Then He said to them, "^aMy soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch."

35 He went a little farther, and fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him.

36 And He said, "^aAbba, Father, ^ball things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me; nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will."

37 Then He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour?

38 ^a"Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. ^bThe spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39 Again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words.

40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.

41 Then He came the third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! ^aThe hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 ^a"Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

43 ^aAnd immediately, while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him and lead Him away safely."

45 As soon as he had come, immediately he went up to Him and said to Him, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

46 Then they laid their hands on Him and took Him.

47 And one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 ^aThen Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me?

 49 "I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."

50 Then they all forsook Him and fled.

A Young Man Flees Naked

51 Now a certain young man followed Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body. And the young men laid hold of him, 52 and he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

53 "And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and with him were assembled all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes.

54 But Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire.
 55 Now the chief priests and all the council sought testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but found none.

56 For many bore false witness against Him, but their testimonies did not agree.

57 Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying,

58 "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.'"
 59 But not even then did their testimony agree.

60 "And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, 'Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?'"

61 But He kept silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"

62 Jesus said, "I am. And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."

63 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "What further need do we have of witnesses?

64 "You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death.

65 Then some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, "Prophecy!" And the officers struck Him with the palms of their hands.

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps

66 Now as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came.

said, "You also were with Jesus of Nazareth."

68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he went out on the porch, and a rooster crowed.

69 "And the servant girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, "This is one of them."

70 But he denied it again. "And a little later those who stood by said to Peter again, "Surely you are one of them; ^bfor you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."

71 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this Man of whom you speak!"

72 "A second time the rooster crowed. Then Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And when he thought about it, he wept.

Jesus Faces Pilate

15 Immediately, ^ain the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council; and they bound Jesus, led Him away, and ^bdelivered Him to Pilate.

2 "Then Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" He answered and said to him, "It is as you say."

3 And the chief priests accused Him of many things, but He answered nothing.

4 "Then Pilate asked Him again, saying, "Do You answer nothing? See how many things they testify against You!"

5 "But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

6 Now ^aat the feast he was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to them, whomever they requested.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, who was chained with his fellow rebels; they had committed murder in the rebellion.

8 Then the multitude, ¹crying aloud, began to ask him to do just as he had always done for them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

10 For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.

11 But ^athe chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should rather release Barabbas to them.

12 Pilate answered and said to them again, "What then do you want me to do with Him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

13 So they cried out again, "Crucify Him!"

14 Then Pilate said to them, "Why,

"what evil has He done?" But they cried out all the more, "Crucify Him!"

15 "So Pilate, wanting to gratify the crowd, released Barabbas to them; and he delivered Jesus, after he had scourged Him, to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

16 "Then the soldiers led Him away into the hall called Praetorium, and they called together the whole garrison.

17 And they clothed Him with purple; and they twisted a crown of thorns, put it on His head,
18 and began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

19 Then they "struck Him on the head with a reed and spat on Him; and bowing the knee, they worshipped Him.

20 And when they had mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

The King on a Cross

21 "Then they compelled a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus, as he was coming out of the country and passing by, to bear His cross.

22 "And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull.

23 "Then they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it.

24 And when they crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting lots for them to determine what every man should take.

25 Now it was the third hour, and they crucified Him.

26 And the inscription of His accusation was written above:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 "With Him they also crucified two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left.

28 "So the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And He was numbered with the transgressors."

29 And those who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads and saying, "Aha! You who destroy the temple and build it in three days,

30 "save Yourself, and come down from the cross!"

31 Likewise the chief priests also, mocking among themselves with the scribes, said, "He saved others; Himself He cannot save.

32 "Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe." Even those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

33 Now when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard that, said, "Look, He is calling for Elijah!"

36 Then someone ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down."

37 And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and breathed His last.

38 Then the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

39 So when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and breathed His last, he said, "Truly this Man was the Son of God!"

40 There were also women looking on from afar, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome, 41 who also followed Him and ministered to Him when He was in Galilee, and many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

42 Now when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath,

43 Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, coming and taking courage, went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

44 Pilate marveled that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him if He had been dead for some time.

45 So when he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

46 Then he bought fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses observed where He was laid.

He Is Risen

16 Now when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, that they might come and anoint Him.

2 Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

3 And they said among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"

4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large.

5 "And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

6 "But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him."

7 "But go, tell His disciples—and Peter—that He is going ¹before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, "as He said to you."

8 So they went out ¹quickly and fled from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. "And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

9 ¹Now when He rose early on the first ^{day} of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, ^{out of} whom He had cast seven demons.

10 "She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.

11 "And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

LUKE

LUKE, a physician, writes with the compassion and warmth of a family doctor as he carefully documents the perfect humanity of the Son of Man, Jesus Christ. Luke emphasizes Jesus' ancestry, birth, and early life before moving carefully and chronologically through His earthly ministry. Growing belief and growing opposition develop side by side. Those who believe are challenged to count the cost of discipleship. Those who oppose will not be satisfied until the Son of Man hangs lifeless on a cross. But the Resurrection insures that His purpose will be fulfilled: "to seek and to save that which was lost" (19:10).

Kata Loukan, "According to Luke," is the ancient title that was added to this gospel at a very early date. The Greek name Luke appears only three times in the New Testament (Col. 4:14; 2 Tim. 4:11; Philem. 24).

Dedication to Theophilus

INASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those "things which 'have been fulfilled among us,

2 just as those who "from the beginning were ^beyewitnesses and ministers of the word "delivered them to us,

3 it seemed good to me also, having 'had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you an orderly account, "most excellent Theophilus,

4 "that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were instructed.

John's Birth Announced to Zacharias

5 There was "in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, ^bof the division of Abijah. His ^awife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well advanced in years.

8 So it was, that while he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priesthood, "his lot fell "to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 "And the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense.

11 Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of "the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and "you shall call his name John.

14 "And you will have joy and gladness, and "many will rejoice at his birth.

15 "For he will be "great in the sight of the Lord, and "shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will also be filled with the Holy Spirit, "even from his mother's womb.

16 "And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God.

17 "He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18 And Zacharias said to the angel,

LUKE 1:36

"How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

19 And the angel answered and said to him, "I am "Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you ^bthese glad ^atidings.

20 "But behold, "you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time."

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he lingered so long in the temple.

22 But when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he beckoned to them and remained speechless.

23 So it was, as soon as "the days of his service were completed, that he departed to his own house.

24 Now after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying,

25 "Thus the Lord has dealt with me, in the days when He looked on me, to "take away my reproach among people."

Christ's Birth Announced to Mary

26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin ^abetrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

28 And having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, highly favored one, "the Lord is with you; "blessed are you among women!"

29 But when she saw him, "she was troubled at his saying, and considered what manner of greeting this was.

30 Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found ^afavor with God.

31 "And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son, and ^bshall call His name JESUS.

32 "He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; and ^bthe Lord God will give Him the throne of His ^afather David.

33 "And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end."

34 Then Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I ^bdo not know a man?"

35 And the angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called ^bthe Son of God.

36 "Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren.

37 "For ^awith God nothing will be impossible."

38 Then Mary said, "Behold the maid servant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 Now Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, to a city of Judah, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.

41 And it happened, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was ^afilled with the Holy Spirit.

42 Then she spoke out with a loud voice and said, "^aBlessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!"

43 "But why is this ^agranted to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

44 "For indeed, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 "^aBlessed is she who ^bbelieved, for there will be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord."

The Song of Mary

46 And Mary said:

^a"My soul ^bmagnifies the Lord,
47 And my spirit has ^arejoiced in ^bGod my Savior.

48 For ^aHe has regarded the lowly state of His maid servant;
For behold, henceforth ^ball generations will call me blessed.

49 For He who is mighty ^ahas done great things for me,
And ^bholly is His name.

50 And ^aHis mercy is on those who fear Him
From generation to generation.

51 ^aHe has shown strength with His arm;
^bHe has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 ^aHe has put down the mighty from ^ctheir thrones,
And exalted the lowly.

53 He has ^afilled the hungry with good things,
And the rich He has sent away empty.

54 He has helped His ^aservant Israel,

56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her house.

Birth of John the Baptist

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came for her to be delivered, and she brought forth a son.

58 When her neighbors and relatives heard how the Lord had shown great mercy to her, they ^arejoiced with her.

Circumcision of John the Baptist

59 So it was, ^aon the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him by the name of his father, Zacharias.

60 His mother answered and said, "^aNo; he shall be called John."

61 But they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."

62 So they made signs to his father—what he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, "His name is John." So they all marveled.

64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God.

65 Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea.

66 And all those who heard ^athem ^bkept them in their hearts, saying, "What kind of child will this be?" And ^athe hand of the Lord was with him.

Zacharias' Prophecy

67 Now his father Zacharias ^awas filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying:

68 "^aBlessed ^bis the Lord God of Israel,

For ^bHe has visited and redeemed His people,

69 "^aAnd has raised up a horn of salvation for us
In the house of His servant David.

70 "^aAs He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets,

Who ^bhave been ^csince the world began,

71 That we should be saved from our enemies
And from the hand of all who hate us.

72 "^aTo perform the mercy promised to our fathers
And to remember His holy covenant;

73 "^aThe oath which He swore to our father Abraham:

74 To grant us that we, Being delivered from the hand of our enemies, Might ^aserve Him without fear, 75 ^aIn holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

76 "And you, child, will be called the ^aprophet of the Highest; For ^byou will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways,

77 To give ^aknowledge of salvation to His people By the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, With which the ⁱDayspring from on high ²has visited us;

79 ^aTo give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, To ^bguide our feet into the way of peace."

80 So ^athe child grew and became strong in spirit, and ^bwas in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Christ Born of Mary

2 And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered.

2 ^aThis census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria.

3 So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to ^athe city of David, which is called Bethlehem, ^bbecause he was of the house and lineage of David,

5 to be registered with Mary, ^ahis betrothed ⁱwife, who was with child.

6 So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered.

7 And ^ashe brought forth her first-born Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a ⁱmanger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Glory in the Highest

8 Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And ^bbehold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, ^aand they were greatly afraid.

10 Then the angel said to them, ^a"Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy ^bwhich will be to all people.

11 ^a"For there is born to you this day in the city of David ^ba Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

12 "And this ⁱwill be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a ⁱmanger."

14 "Glory^a to God in the highest, And on earth ^bpeace, ^cgoodwillⁱ toward men!"

15 So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us."

16 And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger.

17 Now when they had seen Him, they made ⁱwidely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child.

18 And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 ^aBut Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart.

20 Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and ^apraising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Circumcision of Jesus

21 ^aAnd when eight days were completed ⁱfor the circumcision of the Child, His name was called ^bJESUS, the name given by the angel ^abefore He was conceived in the womb.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

22 Now when ^athe days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord

23 ^a(as it is written in the law of the Lord, ^b"Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD"),

24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, ^a"A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Simeon Sees God's Salvation

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, ^awaiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not ^asee death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 So he came ^aby the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law,

28 he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

LUKE 2:29

29 "Lord, ^anow You are letting Your servant depart in peace,
According to Your word;
30 For my eyes ^ahave seen Your salvation
31 Which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, 32 ^aA light to bring revelation to the Gentiles,
And the glory of Your people Israel."

33 ¹And Joseph and His mother marveled at those things which were spoken of Him.
34 Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for ^ba sign which will be spoken against 35 "(yes, ^aa sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Anna Bears Witness to the Redeemer

36 Now there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of ^aAsher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; 37 and this woman was ^aa widow ¹of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers ^anight and day.

38 And coming in that instant she gave thanks to ^athe Lord, and spoke of Him to all those who ^alooked for redemption in Jerusalem.

The Family Returns to Nazareth

39 So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.

40 ^aAnd the Child grew and became strong ¹in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

The Boy Jesus Amazes the Scholars

41 His parents went to ^aJerusalem ^bevery year at the Feast of the Passover.

42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the ^acustom of the feast.

43 When they had finished the ^adays, as they returned, the Boy Jesus lingered behind in Jerusalem. And ¹Joseph and His mother did not know it;

44 but supposing Him to have been in the company, they went a day's journey, and sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

45 So when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him.

46 Now so it was that after three days they found Him in the temple,

48 So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously."

49 And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?"

50 But ^athey did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

Jesus Advances in Wisdom and Favor

51 Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was ^asubject to them, but His mother ^akept all these things in her heart.

52 And Jesus ^aincreased in wisdom and stature, ^band in favor with God and men.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, ^aPontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,

2 ^awhile ^aAnnas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to ^bJohn the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 ^aAnd he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance ^bfor the remission of sins,

4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

*"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.'*

5 *Every valley shall be filled
And every mountain and hill brought low;
The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough ways smooth;
6 And ^aall flesh shall see the salvation of God.'*"

John Preaches to the People

7 Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, "^aBrood! of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

8 ^aTherefore bear fruits ^aworthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

9 ^aAnd even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore ^aevery tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10 So the people asked him, saying, "What shall we do then?"

11 He answered and said to them, "^aHe who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, ^blet him do likewise."

12 Then ^atax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"

13 And he said to them, "^aCollect no more than what is appointed for you."

14 Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?" So he said to them, "Do not ^bintimidate anyone ^aor accuse falsely, and be content with your wages."

15 Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not,

16 John answered, saying to all, "^aI indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will ^bbaptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

17 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and ^agather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."

18 And with many other exhortations he preached to the people.

19 ^aBut Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him concerning Herodias, his ^bbrother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 also added this, above all, that he shut John up in prison.

John Baptizes Jesus

21 When all the people were baptized, ^ait came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened.

22 And the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, "You are My beloved Son; in You I am ^awell pleased."

Satan Tempts Jesus

4 Then ^aJesus, being filled with the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and ^bwas led by the Spirit ^cinto the wilderness,

2 ^abeing tempted for forty days by the devil. And ^bin those days He ate nothing, and afterward, when they had ended, He was hungry.

3 And the devil said to Him, "If You are ^athe Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

4 But Jesus answered him, saying, "^aIt is written, ^b'Man shall not live by bread alone, ^cbut by every word of God.'"

5 ^aThen the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said to Him, "All this authority I will give You, and their glory; for ^athis has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish.

7 "Therefore, if You will worship before me, all will be Yours."

8 And Jesus answered and said to him, "^aGet behind Me, Satan! ^bFor it is written, ^c'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"

9 ^aThen he brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here.

10 "For it is written:

*a He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you,'*

11 "and,

*a 'In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.'*"

12 And Jesus answered and said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God,'"

13 Now when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from Him until an opportune time.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

14 "Then Jesus returned ^bin the power of the Spirit to ^cGalilee, and ^dnews of Him went out through all the surrounding region.

15 And He taught in their synagogues, ^bbeing glorified by all.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

16 So He came to ^aNazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, ^bHe went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.

17 And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

18 *"The^a Spirit of the Lord is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me ^bto heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To ^bset at liberty those who are oppressed;*

19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

20 Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him.

21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

22 So all bore witness to Him, and ^amarveled at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, "^bIs this not Joseph's son?"

23 He said to them, "You will surely say this proverb to Me, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done in ^aCapernaum, do also here in ^bYour country.'"

24 Then He said, "Assuredly, I say

25 "But I tell you truly, ^amany widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine throughout all the land;

26 "but to none of them was Elijah sent except to ^aZarephath, in the region of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

27 ^aAnd many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

28 So all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with ^awrath,

29 ^aand rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down over the cliff.

30 Then ^apassing through the midst of them, He went His way.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

31 Then ^aHe went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths.

32 And they were ^aastonished at His teaching, ^bfor His word was with authority.

33 ^aNow in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice,

34 saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? ^aI know who You are—^bthe Holy One of God!"

35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "^aBe quiet, and come out of him!"

36 And when the demon had thrown him in ^atheir midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him.

36 Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out."

37 And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

38 ^aNow He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was ^bsick with a high fever, and they ^bmade request of Him concerning her.

39 So He stood over her and ^arebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

40 ^aWhen the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them.

41 ^aAnd demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" And He, rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

42 Now when it was day, He departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them;

43 but He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent."

44 And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

5 So it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret,

2 and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets.

3 Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

4 When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

5 But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless bat Your word I will let down the net."

6 And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking.

7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"

9 For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken;

10 and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men."

11 So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

13 Then He put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." Immediately the leprosy left him.

14 And He charged him to tell no one, "But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as a testimony to them, just as Moses commanded."

15 However, the report went around concerning Him all the more; and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities.

16 So He Himself often withdrew into the wilderness and prayed.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

17 Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him.

19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst before Jesus.

20 When He saw their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, He answered and said to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?

23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise up and walk'?

24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the man who was paralyzed, "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

25 Immediately he rose up before them, took up what he had been lying on, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

27 After these things He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me."

28 So he left all, rose up, and ^afollowed Him.
 29 Then Levi gave Him a great feast in his own house. And ^bthere were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them.
 30 ¹And their scribes and the Pharisees ²complained against His disciples, saying, "Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"
 31 Jesus answered and said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.
 32 ^aI have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

33 Then they said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?"
 34 And He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the ^abridegroom is with them?
 35 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them; then they will fast in those days."
 36 ^aThen He spoke a parable to them: "No one 'puts a piece from a new garment on an old one; otherwise the new makes a tear, and also the piece that was taken out of the new does not match the old.
 37 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined.
 38 "But new wine must be put into new wineskins, ¹and both are preserved.
 39 "And no one, having drunk old wine, ¹immediately desires new; for he says, 'The old is 'better.'

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

6 Now ^ait happened ¹on the second Sabbath after the first that He went through the grainfields. And His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate them, rubbing them in their hands.
 2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing ^awhat is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"
 3 But Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read this, ^awhat David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:
 4 ⁴how he went into the house of God, took and ate the showbread, and also gave some to those with him, ^awhich is not lawful for any but the priests to eat?"
 5 And He said to them, "The Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

6 ^aNow it happened on another Sabbath, also, that He entered the synagogue and taught. And a man was there whose right hand was withered.

7 So the scribes and Pharisees watched Him closely, whether He would ^aheal on the Sabbath, that they might find an ^baccusation against Him.

8 But He ^aknew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Arise and stand here." And he arose and stood.

9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or ^bto destroy?"

10 And when He had looked around at them all, He said to ¹the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored ²as whole as the other.

11 But they were filled with rage, and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

12 Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in ^aprayer to God.

13 And when it was day, He called His disciples to Himself; ^aand from them He chose ^btwelve whom He also named apostles:

14 Simon, ^awhom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew;

15 Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot;

16 Judas ^athe son of James, and ^bJudas Iscariot who also became a traitor.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

17 And He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples ^aand a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases.

18 as well as those who were tormented with unclean spirits. And they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude ^asought to ^btouch Him, for ^cpower went out from Him and healed them all.

The Beatitudes

20 Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said:

^aBlessed are you poor,
 For yours is the kingdom of God.

- 21 ^aBlessed are you who hunger now,
For you shall be ^bfilled.
^cBlessed are you who weep now,
For you shall ^dlaugh.
- 22 ^aBlessed are you when men hate you,
And when they ^bexclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the Son of Man's sake.
- 23 ^aRejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your reward is great in heaven,
For ^bin like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

Jesus Pronounces Woes

- 24 "But woe to you ^bwho are rich,
For you have received your consolation.
- 25 ^aWoe to you who are full,
For you shall hunger.
^bWoe to you who laugh now,
For you shall mourn and weep.
- 26 ^aWoe ^bto you when ^call men speak well of you,
For so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Love Your Enemies

- 27 ^aBut I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you.
- 28 ^abless those who curse you, and ^bpray for those who spitefully use you.
- 29 ^aTo him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. ^bAnd from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either.
- 30 ^aGive to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back.
- 31 ^aAnd just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.
- 32 ^aBut if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
- 33 "And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
- 34 ^aAnd if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back.
- 35 "But ^alove your enemies, ^bdo good, and ^clend, ^dhoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and ^eyou will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil.
- 36 ^aTherefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Do Not Judge

37 ^a"Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. ^bForgive, and you will be forgiven.

38 ^a"Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your ^bbosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."

39 And He spoke a parable to them: ^a"Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch?"

40 ^a"A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is perfectly trained will be like his teacher.

41 ^a"And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye?"

42 "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the plank that is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye."

A Tree Is Known by Its Fruit

43 ^a"For a good tree does not bear bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit.

44 "For every tree is known by its own fruit. For ^bmen do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.

45 ^a"A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out ^bof the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

Build on the Rock

46 ^a"But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say?"

47 ^a"Whoever comes to Me, and hears My sayings and does them, I will show you whom he is like:

48 "He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently against that house, and could not shake it, for it was founded on the rock.

49 "But he who heard and did nothing is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehemently; and immediately it fell. And the ruin of that house was great."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

7 Now when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He ^aentered Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die.

3 So when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, pleading with Him to come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was deserving.

5 "for he loves our nation, and has built us a synagogue."

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof.

7 "Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But

"say the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 "For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9 When Jesus heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, "I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!"

10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick.

Jesus Raises the Son of the Widow of Nain

11 Now it happened, the day after, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd.

12 And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her.

13 When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep."

14 Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise."

15 So he who was dead sat up and began to speak. And He presented him to his mother.

16 Then fear came upon all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen up among us"; and, "God has visited His people."

17 And this report about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.

19 And John, calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are You 'the Coming One, or ^{or}do we look for another?"

20 When the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?'"

21 And that very hour He cured many of infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many blind He gave sight.

22 Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things you have seen and heard: ^bthat the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, ^cthe poor have the gospel preached to them.

23 "And blessed is ^dhe who is not offended because of Me."

24 ^aWhen the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 "But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings' courts.

26 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

27 "This is ^ehe of whom it is written:

*"Behold, I send My messenger before Your face,
Who will prepare Your way
before You."*

28 "For I say to you, among those born of women there is ^fnot a greater prophet than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And when all the people heard Him, even the tax collectors justified God, ^ghaving been baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected ^hthe will of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.

31 ⁱAnd the Lord said, "To what then shall I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like?

32 "They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, saying:

*"We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not weep."*

33 "For ^jJohn the Baptist came ^kneither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.'

34 "The Son of Man has come ^leating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a ^mwinebibber,

35 "But wisdom is justified by all her children."

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

36 "Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat.
37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil,
38 and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil.
39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."
40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." So he said, "Teacher, say it."
41 "There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. One owed five hundred ^adenarii, and the other fifty.
42 "And when they had nothing with which to repay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?"
43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more." And He said to him, "You have rightly judged."
44 Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no ^awater for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head.
45 "You gave Me no ^akiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in.
46 "You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil.
47 "Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."
48 Then He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."
49 And those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"
50 Then He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

The Parable of the Sower

4 "And when a great multitude had gathered, and they had come to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable:

5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it.

6 "Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture.

7 "And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it.

8 "But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded ^aa crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, "^aHe who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

9 "Then His disciples asked Him, saying, "What does this parable mean?"

10 And He said, "To you it has been given to know the ^amysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that ^a'Seeing they may not see,

And hearing they may not understand.'

The Parable of the Sower Explained

11 "^aNow the parable is this: The seed is the ^bword of God.

12 "Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 "But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of ^atemptation fall away.

14 "Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, ^ariches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.

15 "But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep ^ait and bear fruit with ^apatience.¹

The Parable of the Revealed Light

16 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter may see the light."

17 "For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light."

22 "Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side of the lake." And they launched out.

24 "And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm.

was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.

30 Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him.

31 And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out into the abyss.

32 Now a herd of many swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them.

33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

36 They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been demon-possessed was healed.

37 "Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes barked Him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. And He got into the boat and returned.

38 Now the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

40 So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him.

41 "And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house,

42 for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him.

43 "Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any,

44 came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45 And Jesus said, "Who touched

Me?" When all denied it, Peter ¹and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, ²and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" 46 But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me."

47 Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

49 ^aWhile He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher."

50 But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well."

51 When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go ¹in except ²Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl.

52 Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, "Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping."

53 And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead.

54 But He ¹put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise."

55 Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat.

56 And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Sending Out the Twelve

9 Then ^aHe called His twelve disciples together and ^bgave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

2 ^aHe sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

3 ^aAnd He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey, neither staffs nor bag nor bread nor money; and do not have two tunics apiece.

4 ^aWhatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart.

5 ^aAnd whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, ^bshake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them."

6 ^aSo they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

9 Herod said, "John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" ^aSo he sought to see Him.

Feeding the Five Thousand

10 ^aAnd the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. ^bThen He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

12 ^aWhen the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding towns and country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."

13 But He said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people."

14 For there were about five thousand men. Then He said to His disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty."

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He ^bblessed and broke them, and gave ^athem to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 So they all ate and were ¹filled, and twelve baskets of the leftover fragments were taken up by them.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

18 ^aAnd it happened, as He was alone praying, ^bthat His disciples joined Him, and He asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

19 So they answered and said, "John the Baptist, but some say Elijah; and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again."

20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" ^aPeter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21 ^aAnd He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one,

^bsaying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

23 ^aThen He said to them all, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross ^bdaily, and follow Me.

24 ^aFor whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

25 ^aFor what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost?

26 ^aFor whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be ^bashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 ^aBut I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God.”

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

28 Now it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray.

29 As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe became white and glistening.

30 And behold, two men talked with Him, who were ^aMoses and ^bElijah, 31 who appeared in glory and spoke of His ^bdecease which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him.

33 Then it happened, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three ^btabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said.

34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were fearful as they entered the cloud.

35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is ^bMy beloved Son. ^aHear Him!”

36 When the voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. ^aBut they kept quiet, and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

A Boy Is Healed

37 Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him.

38 Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, saying, “Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, for he is my only child.

39 And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth; and it departs from him with great difficulty, bruising him.

40 So I implored Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.”

41 Then Jesus answered and said, “O ^bfaithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and ^bbear with you? Bring your son here.”

42 And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

43 And they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But while everyone marveled at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples,

44 ^a“Let these words sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men.”

45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

Who Is the Greatest?

46 Then a dispute arose among them as to which of them would be greatest.

47 And Jesus, ^aperceiving the thought of their heart, took a ^blittle child and set him by Him,

48 and said to them, ^a“Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and ^bwhoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all will be great.”

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

49 Now John answered and said, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us.”

50 But Jesus said to him, “Do not forbid him, for ^ahe who is not against ^bus is on ^aour side.”

A Samaritan Village Rejects the Savior

51 Now it came to pass, when the time had come for ^aHim to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him.

53 But ^athey did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem.

54 And when His disciples ^aJames and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as ^bElijah did?”

55 But He turned and rebuked them, ^band said, ^aYou do not know what manner of ^bspirit you are of.

56 ^a“For ^bthe Son of Man did not come to destroy men’s lives but to save ^cthem.” And they went to another village.

The Cost of Discipleship

57 ^aNow it happened as they journeyed on the road, that someone said to Him, “Lord, I will follow You wherever You go.”

58 And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man ^ahas nowhere to lay His head.”

59 ^aThen He said to another, “Follow Me.” But he said, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father.”

60 Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God.”

61 And another also said, “Lord, ^aI will follow You, but let me first go and bid them farewell who are at my house.”

62 But Jesus said to him, “No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.”

The Seventy Sent Out

10 After these things the Lord appointed ¹seventy others also, and ^asent them two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go.

2 Then He said to them, “^aThe harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore ^bpray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

3 ^aGo your way; ^bbehold, I send you out as lambs among wolves.

4 ^aCarry neither money bag, knapsack, nor sandals; and ^bgreet no one along the road.

5 ^aBut whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this house.’

6 ^aAnd if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you.

7 ^aAnd remain in the same house, ^beating and drinking such things as they give, for ^cthe laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house.

8 ^aWhatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 ^aAnd heal the sick there, and say to them, ^bThe kingdom of God has come near to you.’

10 ^aBut whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,

11 ^aThe very dust of your city which clings to ^bus we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you.’

12 ^aBut I say to you that ^bit will be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that city.

16 ^a“He who hears you hears Me, ^bhe who rejects you rejects Me, and ^che who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me.”

The Seventy Return with Joy

17 Then ^athe ^bseventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name.”

18 And He said to them, “^aI saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

19 ^aBehold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 ^a“Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but ^brather rejoice because ^cyour names are written in heaven.”

Jesus Rejoices in the Spirit

21 ^aIn that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, “I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from ^bthe wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.

22 ^aAll things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and ^bno one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and ^cthe one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.”

23 Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, “Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see;

24 ^afor I tell you ^bthat many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it.”

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

25 And behold, a certain ^blawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

26 He said to him, “What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?”

27 So he answered and said, “^aYou shall love the ^bLord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,” and ^byour neighbor as yourself.”

28 And He said to him, “You have answered rightly; do this and ^ayou will live."

29 But he, wanting to ^ajustify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 Then Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among ^bthieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded ^chim, and departed, leaving ^dhim half dead.

31 "Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, ^ehe passed by on the other side.

32 "Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side.

33 "But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had ^fcompassion.

34 "So he went to ^ghim and banded his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 "On the next day, ⁱwhen he departed, he took out two ^jdenarii, gave ^kthem to the innkeeper, and said to him, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.'

36 "So which of these three do you think was neighbor to him who fell among the thieves?"

37 And he said, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "^lGo and do likewise."

Mary and Martha Worship and Serve

38 Now it happened as they went that He entered a certain village; and a certain woman named ^mMartha welcomed Him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, ⁿwho also ^osat at ^pJesus' feet and heard His word.

40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she approached Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me."

41 And ^qJesus answered and said to her, "^rMartha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things.

42 "But ^sone thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her."

The Model Prayer

11 Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, ^tthat one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

2 So He said to them, "When you pray, say:

A Friend Comes at Midnight

5 And He said to them, "Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 ^afor a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I have nothing to set before him';

7 ^aand he will answer from within and say, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give to you'?

8 ^aI say to you, ^bthough he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

9 ^a"So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; ^bseek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

10 "For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

11 ^aIf a son asks for ^bbread from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish?

12 "Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 "If you then, being evil, know how to give ^agood gifts to your children, how much more will ^byour heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A House Divided Cannot Stand

14 ^aAnd He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. So it was, when the demon had gone out, that the mute spoke; and the multitudes marveled.

15 But some of them said, "^aHe casts out demons by ^bBeelzebul, the ruler of the demons."

16 Others, testing ^cHim, ^dsought from Him a sign from heaven.

17 ^aBut ^bHe, knowing their thoughts, said to them: ^c"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls."

18 "If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? Because you say I cast out demons by Beelzebub.

19 "And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

20 "But if I cast out demons with the finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.

21 "a"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace.

22 "But when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.

23 "a"He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

24 "a"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'

25 "And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order.

26 "Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and "the last state of that man is worse than the first."

Keeping the Word

27 And it happened, as He spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which nursed You!"

28 But He said, "More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Seeking a Sign

29 "*a*And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.

30 "For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation.

31 "a"The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a *b*greater than Solomon is here.

The Lamp of the Body

33 ^a"No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a ^bbasket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light.

34 ^a"The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is ^cgood, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is ^dbad, your body also is full of darkness.

35 "Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness.

36 "If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

Woe to the Pharisees and Lawyers

37 And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and sat down to eat.

38 ^aWhen the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

39 "Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but your inward part is full of ^bgreed and wickedness.

40 "Foolish ones! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also?

41 ^a"But rather give alms of ^bsuch things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.

42 ^a"But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and ^bpass by justice and the ^clove of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.

43 ^a"Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the ^bbest seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

44 ^a"Woe to you, ^bscribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ^cFor you are like graves which are not seen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."

45 Then one of the lawyers answered and said to Him, "Teacher, by saying these things You reproach us also."

46 And He said, "Woe to you also, lawyers! ^aFor you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 ^a"Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 "In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.

49 "Therefore the wisdom of God also said, "I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,"

50 "that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation,

51 "from the blood of Abel to ^bthe blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."

53 ¹And as He said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to assail Him vehemently, and to cross-examine Him about many things, 54 lying in wait for Him, ¹and seeking to catch Him in something He might say, ²that they might accuse Him.

Beware of Hypocrisy

12 In ^athe meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, ^b"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 "For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known.

3 "Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the house tops.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

4 "And I say to you, ^bMy friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 "But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, 'fear Him!'

6 "Are not five sparrows sold for two ^ccopper coins? And ^anot one of them is forgotten before God.

7 "But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

8 "Also I say to you, whoever confesses Me ^bbefore men, him the Son of Man also will confess before the angels of God.

9 "But he who ^adenies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

10 "And ^aanyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.

or what you should answer, or what you should say.

12 "For the Holy Spirit will ^ateach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

The Parable of the Rich Fool

13 Then one from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14 But He said to him, "^aMan, who made Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"

15 And He said to them, ^a"Take heed and beware of ^bcovetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."

16 Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully.

17 "And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?'

18 "So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods.'

19 'And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; beat, drink, ^cand be merry."

20 "But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul will be required of you; ^bthen whose will those things be which you have provided?'

21 "So is he who lays up treasure for himself, ^aand is not rich toward God."

Do Not Worry

22 Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, ^ado not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on.

23 "Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

24 "Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds?

25 "And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?

26 "If you then are not able to do the least, why ^aare you anxious for the rest?

27 "Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not ^barrayed like one of these.

28 "If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of ^clittle faith?

29 "And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind.

30 "For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father ^aknows that you need these things.

31 ^a"But seek ^bthe kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you.

32 "Do not fear, little flock, for ^ait is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 ^a"Sell what you have and give ^bbalms; ^cprovide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys.

34 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

35 ^a"Let your waist be girded and ^byour lamps burning;

36 ^aand you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately.

37 ^aBlessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them.

38 "And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 ^aBut know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would ^bhave watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.

40 ^a"Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

41 Then Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this parable only to us, or to all people?"

42 And the Lord said, ^aWho then is that faithful and wise steward, whom ^bhis master will make ruler over his household, to give ^cthem their portion of food ^din due season?

43 "Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes.

44 ^aTruly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has.

45 ^aBut if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk,

46 "the master of that servant will come on a ^aday when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two and appoint ^bhim his portion with the unbelievers.

47 ^aAnd that servant who ^bknew his master's will, and did not prepare ^chimself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

Christ Brings Division

49 ^aI came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

50 "But ^aI have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is ^baccomplished!

51 ^aDo you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, ^bbut rather division.

52 ^aFor from now on five in one house will be divided: three against two, and two against three.

53 ^aFather will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Discern the Time

54 Then He also said to the multitudes, ^aWhenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is.

55 ^aAnd when you see the ^bsouth wind blow, you say, 'There will be hot weather'; and there is.

56 "Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern ^cthis time?

Make Peace with Your Adversary

57 "Yes, and why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right?

58 ^aWhen you go with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort ^balong the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59 "I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last mite."

Repent or Perish

13 There were present at that season some who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had ^bmingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 "I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

4 "Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse sinners than all other men who dwelt in Jerusalem?

1 ^bmixed

5 "I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

6 He also spoke this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none.

7 "Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it 'use up the ground?'

8 "But he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it.'

9 'And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that you can 'cut it down.'

A Spirit of Infirmity

10 Now He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

11 And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over and could in no way raise herself up.

12 But when Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, "Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity."

13 "And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 But the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath; and he said to the crowd, "There are six days on which men ought to work; therefore come and be healed on them, and not on the Sabbath day."

15 The Lord then answered him and said, "Hypocrite! Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it?"

16 "So ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound—think of it—for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?"

17 And when He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

18 Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?

19 "It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and put in his garden; and it grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven

20 And again He said, "To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?

The Narrow Way

22 And He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then one said to Him, "Lord, are there few who are saved?" And He said to them,

24 "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I say to you, will seek to enter and will not be able."

25 "When once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open for us;' and He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from.'

26 "then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.'

27 "But He will say, 'I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.'

28 "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out.

29 "They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 "And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."

31 On that very day some Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."

32 And He said to them, "Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.'

33 "Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were not willing!

35 "See! Your house is left to you desolate; and assuredly, I say to you, you shall not see Me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'"

A Man with Dropsy Healed on the Sabbath

14 Now it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched Him closely.

2 And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had dropsy.

3 And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the 'Sabbath'?"

4 But they kept silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go.

5 Then He answered them, saying, "Which of you, having a 'donkey or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"

6 And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

Take the Lowly Place

7 So He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them:

8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him;

9 "and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place.

10 "But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you.

11 "For whoever exalts himself will be 'humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

12 Then He also said to him who invited Him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid.

13 "But when you give a feast, invite 'the poor, the 'maimed, the lame, the blind.'

14 "And you will be 'blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

The Parable of the Great Supper

15 Now when one of those who sat at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, "Blessed is he who shall eat 'bread in the kingdom of God!'"

16 "Then He said to him, "A certain man gave a great supper and invited many,

17 "and sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, 'Come, for all things are now ready.'

18 "But they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.'

19 "And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.'

20 "Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.'

21 "So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.'

22 "And the servant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.'

23 "Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.'

24 "For I say to you that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper."

Leaving All to Follow Christ

25 Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple.

27 "And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

28 "For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it—

29 "lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him,

30 "saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish?'

31 "Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?

32 "Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace.

33 "So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple.

35 "It is neither fit for the land nor

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 Then ^aall the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, "This Man receives sinners ^aand eats with them."

3 So He spoke this parable to them, saying:

4 "^aWhat man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he finds it?

5 "And when he has found it, he lays ^bit on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 "And when he comes home, he calls together ^bhis friends and neighbors, saying to them, "^aRejoice with me, for I have found my sheep ^bwhich was lost!"

7 "^aI say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents ^athan over ninety-nine ^bjust persons who ^bneed no repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

8 "^aOr what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?

9 "And when she has found it, she calls ^bher friends and neighbors together, saying, '^aRejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost!'

10 "Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Lost Son

11 Then He said: "A certain man had two sons.

12 "And the younger of them said to ^bhis father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them ^bhis livelihood.

13 "And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with ^bprodigal living.

14 "But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want.

15 "Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 "And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the ^bpods that the swine ate, and no one gave him ^aanything.

18 "I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you,

19 and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants.'

20 "And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.

21 "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet.'

23 'And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry;

24 ^afor this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry.

25 "Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 "So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant.

27 "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.'

28 "But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded with him.

29 "So he answered and said to ^bhis father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends.'

30 'But as soon as this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with harlots, you killed the fatted calf for him.'

31 "And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.'

32 'It was right that we should make merry and be glad, ^afor your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.'

The Parable of the Unjust Steward

16 He also said to His disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and an accusation was brought to him that this man was ^bwasting his goods.

2 "So he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an ^aaccount of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'

3 "Then the steward said within himself, ‘What shall I do? For my master is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg.’

4 ‘I have resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.’

5 “So he called every one of his master’s debtors to him, and said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

6 “And he said, ‘A hundred ¹measures of oil.’ So he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

7 “Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ So he said, ‘A hundred ¹measures of wheat.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

8 “So the master commended the unjust steward because he had dealt shrewdly. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in their generation than ^athe sons of light.

9 “And I say to you, ^amake friends for yourselves by unrighteous ¹mammon, that when ²you fail, they may receive you into an everlasting home.

10 ^aHe who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much.

11 “Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 “And if you have not been faithful in what is another man’s, who will give you what is your ^aown?

13 ^aNo servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.”

The Law, the Prophets, and the Kingdom

14 Now the Pharisees, ^awho were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they ¹derided Him.

15 And He said to them, “You are those who ^ajustify yourselves ^bbefore men, but ^cGod knows your hearts. For ^dwhat is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.”

16 ^aThe law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is pressing into it.

17 ^aAnd it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one ¹tithe of the law to fail.

18 ^aWhoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced from her husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19 ^aThere was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and ^bfared sumptuously every day.

20 ^aBut there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, 21 ^adesiring to be fed with ^bthe crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 ^aSo it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to ^bAbraham’s bosom. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 ^aAnd being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 ^aThen he cried and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and ^bcool my tongue; for I ^bam tormented in this flame.’

25 ^aBut Abraham said, ‘Son, ^bremember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented.

26 ^aAnd besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.’

27 ^aThen he said, ‘I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father’s house,

28 ^afor I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.’

29 ^aAbraham said to him, ‘^bThey have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’

30 ^aAnd he said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’

31 ^aBut he said to him, ‘^bIf they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.’”

Jesus Warns of Offenses

17 Then He said to the disciples, ^a“It is impossible that no offenses should come, but ^bwoe to him through whom they do come!

2 ^aIt would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ^aTake heed to yourselves. ^bIf your brother sins ^cagainst you, ^brebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

4 ^aAnd if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns ^bto you, saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”

Faith and Duty

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." 6 "So the Lord said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." 7 "And which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and sit down to eat?' 8 "But will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink?' 9 "Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded ¹him? I think not. 10 "So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.'"

Ten Lepers Cleansed

11 Now it happened ^aas He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. 12 Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, ^awho stood afar off. 13 And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" 14 So when He saw them, He said to them, "^aGo, show yourselves to the priests." And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud voice ^aglorified God, 16 and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a ^aSamaritan. 17 So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18 "Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?" 19 "And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom

20 Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation; 21 "^anor will they say, '¹See here!' or '¹See there!' For indeed, ^bthe kingdom of God is ²within you." 22 Then He said to the disciples, "^aThe days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23 ^aAnd they will say to you, 24 ^a"For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in His day.

25 ^a"But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 ^a"And as it ^bwas in the ^cdays of ^dNoah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man:

27 "They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the ^aday that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and ^bdestroyed them all.

28 ^a"Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

29 "but on ^athe day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 "Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man ^ais revealed.

31 "In that day, he ^awho is on the housetop, and his ^bgoods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back.

34 ^a"I tell you, in that night there will be two ^bmen in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left.

35 ^a"Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left.

36 ^a"Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."

37 And they answered and said to Him, "^aWhere, Lord?" So He said to them, "^aWherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then He spoke a parable to them, that men ^aalways ought to pray and not lose heart,

2 saying: "^aThere was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor ^bregard man.

3 "Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, '^aGet justice for me from my adversary.'

4 "And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man,

5 ^ayet because this widow troubles me I will ^bavenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'"

6 Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said.

7 "And 'shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them?'

8 "I tell you ^tthat He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 Also He spoke this parable to some ^wwho trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

11 "The Pharisee ^astood and prayed thus with himself, ^b'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.'

12 'I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.'

13 "And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!'

14 "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified ^{rather} than the other; ^ffor everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

15 ^aThen they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them to Him and said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for ^fof such is the kingdom of God.

17 ^a"Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it."

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

18 ^aNow a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

19 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but ^b'One, that is, God.'

20 "You know the commandments: ^a'Do not commit adultery,' ^a'Do not murder,' ^a'Do not steal,' ^a'Do not bear false witness,' ^b'Honor your father and your mother.'

21 And he said, "All ^wthese things I have kept from my youth."

22 So when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. ^aSell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will 23 But when he heard this, he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

With God All Things Are Possible

24 And when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!

25 "For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And those who heard it said, "Who then can be saved?"

27 But He said, "^aThe things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

28 ^aThen Peter said, "See, we have left ^tall and followed You."

29 So He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, ^wthere is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God.

30 ^awho shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 ^aThen He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things ^bthat are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be ^taccomplished.

32 "For ^aHe will be delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon.

33 "They will scourge ^aHim and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

34 ^aBut they understood none of these things; this saying was hidden from them, and they did not know the things which were spoken.

A Blind Man Receives His Sight

35 ^aThen it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging.

36 And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant.

37 So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

38 And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

39 Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

40 So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him,

41 saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight."

42 Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; ^ayour faith has made you well."

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, ^aglorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus Comes to Zacchaeus' House

19 Then Jesus entered and passed through ^aJericho.

2 Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to ^asee who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature.

4 So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up ^aand saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, ^amake haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house."

6 So he ^amade haste and came down, and received Him joyfully.

7 But when they saw it, they all ^acomplained, saying, ^a"He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner."

8 Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by ^bfalse accusation, ^aI restore fourfold."

9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because ^ahe also is ^aa son of Abraham;

10 ^a"for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

The Parable of the Minas

11 Now as they heard these things, He spoke another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because ^athey thought the kingdom of God would appear immediately.

12 ^aTherefore He said: "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return.

13 "So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten ^aminas, and said to them, 'Do business till I come.'

14 ^a"But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us.'

15 "And so it was that when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 "Then came the first, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.'

17 "And he said to him, ^a"Well done, good servant; because you were

21 ^aFor I feared you, because you are ^ban austere man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'

22 "And he said to him, "Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. ^bYou knew that I was an austere man, collecting what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow."

23 'Why then did you not put my money in the bank, that at my coming I might have collected it with interest?'

24 "And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas.'

25 ("But they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.'")

26 "For I say to you, ^athat to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.

27 'But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and slay ^athem before me.'

The Triumphal Entry

28 When He had said this, ^aHe went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 "And it came to pass, when He drew near to ^aBethphage and ^bBethany, at the mountain called ^cOlivet, that He sent two of His disciples, 30 saying, "Go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Loose it and bring it here."

31 "And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you loosing it?' thus you shall say to him, 'Because the Lord has need of it.'

32 So those who were sent went their way and found it just ^aas He had said to them.

33 But as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you loosing the colt?"

34 And they said, "The Lord has need of him."

35 Then they brought him to Jesus. ^aAnd they threw their own clothes on the colt, and they set Jesus on him.

36 And as He went, many spread their clothes on the road.

37 Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to ^arejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, 38 saying:

a“Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!” bPeace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

39 And some of the Pharisees called to Him from the crowd, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples.”

40 But He answered and said to them, “I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out.”

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

41 Now as He drew near, He saw the city and ^cwepet over it,

42 saying, “If you had known, even you, especially in this ^cyour day, the things that ^bmake for your ^cpeace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

43 “For days will come upon you when your enemies will ^bbuild an embankment around you, surround you and close you in on every side, 44 ^aand level you, and your children within you, to the ground; and ^bthey will not leave in you one stone upon another, ^cbecause you did not know the time of your visitation.”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

45 ^aThen He went into the temple and began to drive out those who ^bbought and sold in it,

46 saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a ^b‘den of thieves.’”

47 And He was teaching daily in the temple. But ^bthe chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people sought to destroy Him, 48 and were unable to do anything; for all the people were very attentive to ^chear Him.

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

20 Now ^ait happened on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, confronted Him

2 and spoke to Him, saying, “Tell us, ^bby what authority are You doing these things? Or who is he who gave You this authority?”

3 But He answered and said to them, “I also will ask you one thing, and answer Me:

5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’

persuaded that John was a prophet.”

7 So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

8 And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

9 Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to vine-dressers, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 “Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vine-dressers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

11 “Again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

12 “And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.

13 “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.’

14 “But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’

15 “So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

16 “He will come and destroy those vinedressers and give the vineyard to others.” And when they heard it they said, “Certainly not!”

17 Then He looked at them and said, “What then is this that is written:

*a‘The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone?’*

18 “Whoever falls on that stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.”

19 And the chief priests and the scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they feared the people—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

20 “So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on His words, in order to deliver Him to the power and the authority of the governor.

show personal favoritism, but teach the way of God in truth:
 22 "Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"
 23 But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, ¹"Why do you test Me?
 24 "Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" They answered and said, "Caesar's."
 25 And He said to them, ^a"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."
 26 But they could not catch Him in His words in the presence of the people. And they marveled at His answer and kept silent.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

27 ^aThen some of the Sadducees, ^bwho deny that there is a resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 28 saying: "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.
 29 Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and died without children.
 30 And the second ⁱtook her as wife, and he died childless.
 31 Then the third took her, and in like manner the seven ⁱalso; and they left no children, and died.
 32 Last of all the woman died also.
 33 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had her as wife."

34 Jesus answered and said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage.
 35 But those who are ^ccounted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;
 36 nor can they die anymore, for they are equal to the angels and are sons of God, ^bbeing sons of the resurrection.

37 But even Moses showed in the burning bush passage that the dead are raised, when he called the Lord ^a"the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

38 For He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for ^aall live to Him."

39 Then some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well."
 40 But after that they dared not question Him anymore.

42 Now David himself said in the Book of Psalms:

^aThe LORD said to my Lord,

44 Therefore David calls Him Lord; how is He then his Son?"

Beware of the Scribes

45 Then, in the hearing of all the people, He said to His disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, blove greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,

47 ^awho devour widows' houses, and for a bpretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Two Mites

21 And He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury,

2 and He saw also a certain poor widow putting in two bmites!

3 So He said, ^aTruly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all;

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

5 Then, as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said,

6 These things which you see—the days will come in which ^anot one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

7 So they asked Him, saying, Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?"

8 And He said: ^aTake heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore do not ^bgo after them.

9 But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately."

10 Then He said to them, ^aNation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.

11 And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

12 "But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and ^bprisons. ^cYou will be brought before kings and rulers ^dfor My name's sake.

13 "But ^ait will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony.

14 "Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will ^banswer;

15 "for I will give you a mouth and wisdom ^awhich all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or ^bresist.

16 "You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put ^bsome of you to death.

17 "And ^ayou will be hated by all for My name's sake.

18 "But not a hair of your head shall be lost.

19 "By your patience possess your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

20 "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near.

21 "Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those who are in the midst of her depart, and let not those who are in the country enter her.

22 "For these are the days of vengeance, that ^aall things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 "But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people.

24 "And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles ^{until} the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man

25 "And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring;

26 "men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, ^afor the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

27 "Then they will see the Son of Man ^acoming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 "Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because ^ayour redemption draws near."

The Importance of Watching

37 "And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but ^bat night He went out and stayed on the mountain called Olivet.

38 Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

22 Now ^athe Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called Passover.

2 And ^athe chief priests and the scribes sought how they might kill Him, for they feared the people.

3 ^aThen Satan entered Judas, surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered among the ^btwelve.

4 So he went his way and conferred with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him to them.

5 And they were glad, and agreed to give him money.

6 So he promised and sought opportunity to ^abetray Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

Jesus and His Disciples Prepare the Passover

7 ^aThen came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover must be ^bkilled.

8 And He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."

9 So they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"

10 And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house which he enters.

11 "Then you shall say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, 'Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'

12 "Then he will show you a large, furnished upper room; there make ready."

13 So they went and found it just as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

14 ^aWhen the hour had come, He sat down, and the twelve apostles with Him.

15 Then He said to them, "With fervent desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

16 "for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

17 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves;

18 "for I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

19 ^aAnd He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My ^bbody which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

20 Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you.

21 ^aBut behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table.

22 ^aAnd truly the Son of Man goes ^bas it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"

23 ^aThen they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

The Disciples Argue About Greatness

24 ^aNow there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the greatest.

25 ^aAnd He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.'

26 ^aBut not so among you; on the contrary, ^bhe who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves.

27 ^aFor who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet ^bI am among you as the One who serves.

28 ^aBut you are those who have continued with Me in ^bMy trials.

29 ^aAnd I bestow upon you a kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one upon Me,

30 ^athat you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, ^band sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 ^aAnd the Lord said, "Simon, Simon! Indeed, ^bSatan has asked for you, that he may ^bsift you as wheat.

32 "But I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, ^astrengthen your brethren."

33 But he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death."

34 ^aThen He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will deny three times that you know Me."

Supplies for the Road

35 ^aAnd He said to them, "When I sent you without money bag, knapsack, and sandals, did you lack anything?" So they said, "Nothing."

36 Then He said to them, "But now, he who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.

37 "For I say to you that this which is written must still be accomplished in Me: ^a'And He was numbered with the transgressors.' For the things concerning Me have an end."

38 So they said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." And He said to them, "It is enough."

The Prayer in the Garden

39 ^aComing out, ^bHe went to the Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him.

40 "When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

41 ^aAnd He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed,

42 saying, "Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless ^anot My will, but Yours, be done."

43 ^aThen an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him.

44 ^aAnd being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 When He rose up from prayer, and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow.

46 Then He said to them, "Why ^ado you sleep? Rise and ^bpray, lest you enter into temptation."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

47 And while He was still speaking, ^abehold, a multitude; and he who was called ^bJudas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss Him.

48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a ^akiss?"

49 When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"

50 And ^aone of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered and said, "Permit even this." And He touched his ear and healed him.

52 ^aThen Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to Him, "Have you come out, as against a ^brobber, with swords and clubs?

53 "When I was with you daily in the temple, you did not try to seize Me. But this is your ^bhour, and the power of darkness."

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

54 ^aHaving arrested Him, they led Him and brought Him into the high priest's house. ^bBut Peter followed at a distance.

55 ^aNow when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

56 And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with Him."

57 But he denied ¹Him, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 ^aAnd after a little while another saw him and said, "You also are of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 ^aThen after about an hour had passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Surely this fellow also was with Him, for he is a ^bGalilean."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, ¹the rooster crowed.

61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then ^aPeter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, ^b"Before the rooster ¹crows, you will deny Me three times."

62 So Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

63 ^aNow the men who held Jesus mocked Him and ^bbeat Him.

64 ^aAnd having blindfolded Him, they ^astruck Him on the face and asked Him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck You?"

65 And many other things they blasphemously spoke against Him.

71 ^aAnd they said, "What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

23 Then ^athe whole multitude of them arose and led Him to ^bPilate.

2 And they began to ^aaccuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow ^bperverting ¹the nation, and ^cforbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying ^dthat He Himself is Christ, a King."

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from ^aGalilee to this place."

Jesus Faces Herod

6 When Pilate heard ¹of Galilee, he asked if the Man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that He belonged to ^aHerod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, ^ahe was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long ^btime to see Him, because ^bhe had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him.

9 Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him ^anothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him.

11 ^aThen Herod, with his ^bmen of war, treated Him with contempt and mocked ^bHim, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate.

12 That very day ^aPilate and Herod became friends with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

13 ^aThen Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,

14 said to them, "You have brought this Man to me, as one who misleads the people. And indeed, having examined Him in your presence, I have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him;

15 "no, neither did Herod, for I sent you back to him; and indeed nothing deserving of death has been done by Him.

16 "I will therefore chastise Him and release Him"

17 "for it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast."

18 And they all cried out at once, saying, "Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas"—

19 who had been thrown into prison for a certain rebellion made in the city, and for murder.

20 Pilate, therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again called out to them.

21 But they shouted, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"

22 Then he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go."

23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 So Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they requested.

25 And he released to them the one they requested, who for rebellion and murder had been thrown into prison; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

The King on a Cross

26 Now as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And a great multitude of the people followed Him, and women who also mourned and lamented Him.

28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

29 "For indeed the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, wombs that never bore, and breasts which never nursed!'

30 "Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'

31 "For if they do these things in the green wood, what will be done in the dry?"

32 There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death.

33 And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left.

34 ^aThen Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do." And they divided His garments and cast lots.

35 And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God."

36 The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him sour wine, and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."

38 And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ^aThen one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us."

40 But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation?

41 "And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong."

42 Then he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

43 And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

Jesus Dies on the Cross

44 ^aNow it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 Then the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two.

46 And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit." Having said this, He breathed His last.

47 ^aSo when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous Man!"

48 And the whole crowd who came together to that sight, seeing what had been done, beat their breasts and returned.

49 ^aBut all His acquaintances, and the women who followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

50 ^aNow behold, there was a man named Joseph, a council member, a good and just man.

51 He had not consented to their decision and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, ^awhol himself was also waiting for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

53 ^aThen he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock, where no one had ever lain before.

54 That day was ^athe Preparation, and the Sabbath drew near.

55 And the women ^awho had come with Him from Galilee followed after, and ^bthey observed the tomb and how His body was laid.

56 Then they returned and ^aprepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Sabbath ^baccording to the commandment.

He Is Risen

24 Now ^aon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, ^band certain other women with them, came to the tomb ^bbringing the spices which they had prepared.

2 ^aBut they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.

3 ^aThen they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it happened, as they were ^bgreatly perplexed about this, that ^abehold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?"

6 "He is not here, but is risen! ^aRemember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee,

7 ^asaying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.'"

8 And ^athey remembered His words.

9 ^aThen they returned from the tomb and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, ^aJoanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles.

11 ^aAnd their words seemed to them like ^bidle tales, and they did not believe them.

12 ^aBut Peter arose and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he saw the linen cloths ^blying by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus

13 ^aNow behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was ^bseven miles from Jerusalem.

16 But ^atheir eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

17 And He said to them, "^{What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you walk and are sad?"}

18 Then the one ^awhose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?"

19 And He said to them, "^{What things?}" So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, ^awho was a Prophet ^bmighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 ^aand how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him.

21 "But we were hoping ^athat it was

He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.

22 "Yes, and ^acertain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us.

23 "When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive.

24 "And ^acertain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."

25 Then He said to them, "^{O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!}

26 ^aOught not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His ^bglory?"

27 And beginning at ^aMoses and ^ball the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

The Disciples' Eyes Opened

28 Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and ^aHe indicated that He would have gone farther.

29 But ^athey constrained Him, saying, ^b"Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them.

30 Now it came to pass, as ^aHe sat at the table with them, that He took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.

32 And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?"

33 So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, 34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"

35 And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

36 Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you."

37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a spirit.

38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts?

39 "Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."

40 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

41 But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, "Have you any food here?"

42 So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.

43 And He took it and ate in their presence.

The Gospel According to

JOHN

JUST as a coin has two sides, both valid, so Jesus Christ has two natures, both valid. Luke presents Christ in His humanity as the Son of Man; John portrays Him in His deity as the Son of God. John's purpose is crystal clear: to set forth Christ in His deity in order to spark believing faith in his readers. John's gospel is topical, not primarily chronological, and it revolves around seven miracles and seven "I am" statements of Christ.

Following an extended eyewitness description of the Upper Room meal and discourse, John records events leading up to the Resurrection, the final climactic proof that Jesus is who He claims to be—the Son of God.

The title of the Fourth Gospel follows the same format as the titles of the synoptic Gospels: Kata Ioannen, "According to John." As with the others, the word "Gospel" was added later. Ioannes is derived from the Hebrew name Johanan, "Yahweh Has Been Gracious."

The Eternal Word

IN the beginning ^awas the Word, and the ^bWord was ^cwith God, and the Word was ^dGod.

2 ^aHe was in the beginning with God.

3 ^aAll things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made.

4 ^aIn Him was life, and ^bthe life was the light of men.

5 And ^athe light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

John's Witness: The True Light

6 There was a ^aman sent from God, whose name was John.

7 This man came for a ^awitness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might ^bbelieve.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that ^aLight.

9 ^aThat! was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him.

11 ^aHe came to His ^bown, and His ^cown did not receive Him.

12 But ^aas many as received Him, to them He gave the ^bright to become children of God, to those who believe in His name:

13 ^awho were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The Word Becomes Flesh

14 ^aAnd the Word ^bbecame ^cflesh and dwelt among us, and ^dwe beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, ^efull of grace and truth.

15 ^aJohn bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, ^bHe who comes after me ^cis preferred before me, ^dfor He was before me."

16 ^aAnd of His ^bfullness we have all received, and grace for grace.

17 For ^athe law was given through Moses, but ^bgrace and ^ctruth came through Jesus Christ.

18 ^aNo one has seen God at any time. ^bThe only begotten ^cSon, who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared ^dHim.

A Voice in the Wilderness

19 Now this is ^athe testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 ^aHe confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."

21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you ^athe Prophet?" And he answered, "No."

22 Then they said to him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

23 He said: "^aI am

^b'The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
^c"Make straight the way of the LORD,"'

as the prophet Isaiah said."

24 Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, saying, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

26 John answered them, saying, "^aI baptize with water, ^bbut there stands One among you whom you do not know."

27 ^aIt is He who, coming after me, ^bis preferred before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose."

28 These things were done ^ain Bethabara beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

The Lamb of God

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! ^aThe Lamb of God ^bwho takes away the sin of the world!"

30 "This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who ^bis preferred before me, for He was before me.'

31 "I did not know Him; but that He should be revealed to Israel, ^atherefore I came baptizing with water."

32 ^aAnd John bore witness, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He remained upon Him."

33 "I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'Upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, ^athis is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'

34 "And I have seen and testified that this is the ^aSon of God."

The First Disciples

35 Again, the next day, John stood with two of his disciples.

36 And looking at Jesus as He walked, he said, "^aBehold the Lamb of God!"

37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they ^afollowed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, said to them, "^aWhat do you seek?" They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, when translated, Teacher), "where are You staying?"

39 He said to them, "^aCome and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day (now it was about the tenth hour).

40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was ^aAndrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the ¹Messiah" (which is translated, the Christ).

42 And he brought him to Jesus. Now when Jesus looked at him, He said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is translated, ²A Stone).

Philip and Nathanael

43 The following day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and He found ^aPhilip and said to him, "Follow Me." 44 Now ^aPhilip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found ^aNathanael and said to him, "We have found Him of whom ^bMoses in the law, and also the prophets, wrote—Jesus ^aof Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

46 And Nathanael said to him, "^aCan anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

48 Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49 Nathanael answered and said to Him, "Rabbi, ^aYou are the Son of God! You are ^bthe King of Israel!"

50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these."

51 And He said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, hereafter you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Water Turned to Wine

2 On the third day there was a ^awedding in ^bCana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.

3 And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."

4 Jesus said to her, "^aWoman, ^bwhat does your concern have to do with Me? ^cMy hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it."

6 Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, ^aaccording to the manner of purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece.

7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And He said to them, "Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it.

9 When the master of the feast had tasted ^athe water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom.

10 And he said to him, "Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"

11 This ^abeginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, ^band ^cmanifested His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

12 After this He went down to ^aCaphernaum, He, His mother, ^bHis brothers, and His disciples; and they did not stay there many days.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

13 ^aNow the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 ^aAnd He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers ^bdoing business.

15 When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables.

16 And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make "My Father's house a house of merchandise!""

17 Then His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for Your house ^bhas eaten Me up."

18 So the Jews answered and said to Him, "^aWhat sign do You show to us, since You do these things?"

19 Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20 Then the Jews said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

21 But He was speaking ^aof the temple of His body.

22 Therefore, when He had risen from the dead, ^aHis disciples remembered that He had said this ^bto them; and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

The Discerner of Hearts

23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name when they saw the ^asigns which He did.

24 But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He ^aknew all men, 25 and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for ^aHe knew what was in man.

The New Birth

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.

2 "This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for ^bno one can do these signs that You do unless ^cGod is with him."

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, ^aunless one is born ^bagain, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, ^aunless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

6 "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 "Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.'

8 "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?"

11 "Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and ^byou do not receive Our witness.

12 "If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?"

13 "No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man ^bwho is in heaven.

14 "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so ^bmust the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 "that whoever ^abelieves in Him should ^bnot perish but ^bhave eternal life.

16 "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

17 "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

18 "He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

22 After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He remained with them ^aand baptized.

23 Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near ^aSalim, because there was much water there. ^bAnd they came and were baptized.

24 For ^aJohn had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification.

26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, ^ato whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing, and all ^bare coming to Him!"

27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven.

A Samaritan Woman Meets Her Messiah

4 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and ^abaptized more disciples than John

2 (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples),

3 He left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

JOHN 4:4

4 But He needed to go through Samaria.

5 So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that ^aJacob ^bgave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."

8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For ^aJews have no dealings with ^bSamaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the ^agift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you ^bliving water."

11 The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water?"

12 "Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again,

14 "but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him ^bwill become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life."

15 "The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw."

16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband.'

18 "for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly."

19 The woman said to Him, "Sir, ^aI perceive that You are a prophet."

20 "Our fathers worshiped on ^athis mountain, and you Jews say that in ^bJerusalem is the place where one ought to worship."

21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming ^awhen you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 "You worship ^awhat you do not know; we know what we worship, for ^bsalvation is of the Jews.

23 "But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will ^aworship the Father in ^bspirit

24 "God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

25 The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah ^ais coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, ^bHe will tell us all things."

26 Jesus said to her, "^aI who speak to you am ^bHe."

The Whited Harvest

27 And at this point His disciples came, and they marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?"

28 The woman then left her water-pot, went her way into the city, and said to the men,

29 "Come, see a Man ^awho told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"

30 Then they went out of the city and came to Him.

31 In the meantime His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But He said to them, "^aI have food to eat of which you do not know."

33 Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him anything to eat?"

34 Jesus said to them, "^aMy food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to ^bfinish His work.

35 "Do you not say, 'There are still four months and ^athen comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, ^bfor they are already white for harvest!"

36 "^aAnd he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that ^bboth he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.

37 "For in this the saying is true: ^a'One sows and another reaps.'

38 "^aI sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; ^bothers have labored, and you have entered into their labors."

The Savior of the World

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him ^abecause of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all that I ever did."

40 So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.

41 And many more believed because of His own ^aword.

42 Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for ^awe ourselves have heard ^bHim and we know that this is indeed ^athe Christ, the Savior of the world."

Welcome at Galilee

43 Now after the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee.

44 For ^aJesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, ^ahaving seen all the things He did in Jerusalem at the feast; ^bfor they also had gone to the feast.

A Nobleman's Son Healed

46 So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee ^awhere He had made the water wine. And there was a certain ^bnobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

48 Then Jesus said to him, ^a"Unless you ^bpeople see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe."

49 The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!"

50 Jesus said to him, ^a"Go your way; your son lives." So the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, "Your son lives!"

52 Then he inquired of them the hour when he got better. And they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, ^a"Your son lives." And he himself believed, and his whole household.

54 This again is the second sign Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

A Man Healed at the Pool of Bethesda

5 After ^athis there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus ^bwent up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem ^aby the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, ^bBethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, ^bparalyzed, ^awaiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.

5 Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, ^a"Do you want to be made well?"

7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into

8 Jesus said to him, ^a"Rise, take up your bed and walk."

9 And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked. And ^athat day was the Sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath; ^ait is not lawful for you to carry your bed."

11 He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, ^{'Take up your bed and walk.'}"

12 Then they asked him, "Who is the Man who said to you, ^{'Take up your bed and walk?'}"

13 But the one who was ^ahealed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you have been made well. ^aSin no more, lest a worse thing come upon you."

15 The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Honor the Father and the Son

16 For this reason the Jews ^apersecuted Jesus, ^band sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the Sabbath.

17 But Jesus answered them, ^a"My Father has been working until now, and I have been working."

18 Therefore the Jews ^asought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also said that God was His Father, ^bmaking Himself equal with God.

19 Then Jesus answered and said to them, ^a"Most assuredly, I say to you, ^athe Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner."

20 "For ^athe Father loves the Son, and ^bshows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel."

21 "For as ^athe Father raises the dead and gives life to ^bthem, even so the Son gives life to whom He will.

22 "For ^athe Father judges no one, but ^bhas committed all judgment to the Son, 23 "that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. ^aHe who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

Life and Judgment Are Through the Son

24 "Most assuredly, I say to you, ^ahe who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, ^bbut has passed from death into life.

 25 "Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when ^athe dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live.
 26 "For ^aas the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have ^blife in Himself.
 27 "and ^ahas given Him authority to execute judgment also, ^bbecause He is the Son of Man.
 28 "Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will ^bhear His voice 29 ^a"and come forth—^bthose who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.
 30 ^a"I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because ^bI do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

The Fourfold Witness

31 ^a"If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not ^btrue.
 32 ^a"There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is true.
 33 "You have sent to John, ^aand he has borne witness to the truth.
 34 "Yet I do not receive testimony from man, but I say these things that you may be saved.
 35 "He was the burning and ^ashining lamp, and ^byou were willing for a time to rejoice in his light.
 36 "But ^aI have a greater witness than John's; for ^bthe works which the Father has given Me to finish—the very ^aworks that I do—bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me.
 37 "And the Father Himself, who sent Me, ^ahas testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, ^bnor seen His form.
 38 "But you do not have His word abiding in you, because whom He sent, Him you do not believe.
 39 ^a"You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and ^bthese are they which testify of Me.

Feeding the Five Thousand

6 After ^athese things Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of ^bTiberias.

2 Then a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His signs which He performed on those who were ^adiseased.¹

3 And Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

4 ^aNow the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near.

5 ^aThen Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to ^bPhilip, "Where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?"

6 But this He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

7 Philip answered Him, "^aTwo hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may have a little."

8 One of His disciples, ^aAndrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him,

9 "There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish; ^bbut what are they among so many?"
 10 Then Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed ^athem ^bto the disciples, and the disciples to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted.

12 So when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the fragments that remain, so that nothing is lost."

13 Therefore they gathered ^athem up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, "This is truly ^athe Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus Walks on the Sea

15 Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him ^aking, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.

16 ^aNow when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea,

17 got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them.

18 Then the sea arose because a great wind was blowing.

19 So when they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were afraid.

20 But He said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid."

21 Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

The Bread from Heaven

22 On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone away alone—

23 however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks—

24 when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

25 And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.

27 "Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set His seal on Him."

28 Then they said to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent."

30 Therefore they said to Him, "What sign will You perform then, that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do?"

31 "Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

32 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

33 "For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34 "Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to 40 "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, ^athat everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Rejected by His Own

41 The Jews then ^bcomplained about Him, because He said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven."

42 And they said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, "^aDo not murmur among yourselves.

44 "^aNo one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me ^bdraws him; and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 "It is written in the prophets, ^a'And they shall all be taught by God.'^bTherefore everyone who ^bhas heard and learned from the Father comes to Me.

46 "^aNot that anyone has seen the Father, ^bexcept He who is from God; He has seen the Father.

47 "Most assuredly, I say to you, ^ahe who believes ^bin Me has everlasting life.

48 "^aI am the bread of life.

49 "^aYour fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 "^aThis is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die.

51 "I am the living bread ^awhich came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and ^bthe bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world."

52 The Jews therefore ^aquarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless ^ayou eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you.

54 "^aWhoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 "For My flesh is ¹food indeed, and My blood is ²drink indeed.
 56 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood ^aabides in Me, and I in him.
 57 "As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me.
 58 ^a"This is the bread which came down from heaven—not ^bas your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. He who eats this bread will live forever."
 59 These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Turn Away

60 ^aTherefore many of His disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a ¹hard saying; who can understand it?"
 61 When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples ¹complained about this, He said to them, "Does this offend you?
 62 ^a"What then if you should see the Son of Man ascend where He was before?
 63 ^a"It is the Spirit who gives life; the ^bflesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life.
 64 "But ^athere are some of you who do not believe." For ^bJesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him.
 65 And He said, "Therefore I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father."
 66 ^aFrom that time many of His disciples went ^bback and walked with Him no more.
 67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also want to go away?"
 68 But Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have ^athe words of eternal life.
 69 ^a"Also we have come to believe and know that You are the ¹Christ, the Son of the living God."
 70 Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve, ^band one of you is a devil?"
 71 He spoke of ^aJudas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who would ^bbetray Him, being one of the twelve.

Jesus' Brothers Disbelieve

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, ^abecause the ¹Jews sought to kill Him.
 2 ^aNow the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand.

6 Then Jesus said to them, ^a"My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.

7 ^a"The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me ^bbecause I testify of it that its works are evil.

8 "You go up to this feast. I am not ^ayet going up to this feast, ^bfor My time has not yet fully come."

9 When He had said these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

The Heavenly Scholar

10 But when His brothers had gone up, then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then ^athe Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, "Where is He?"

12 And ^athere was much complaining among the people concerning Him. ^bSome said, "He is good"; others said, "No, on the contrary, He deceives the people."

13 However, no one spoke openly of Him ^afor fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and ^ataught.

15 ^aAnd the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this Man know letters, having never studied?"

16 ^aJesus answered them and said, ^b"My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17 ^aIf anyone wills to do His will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God or ^bwhether I speak on My own authority.

18 ^aHe who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who ^bseeks the glory of the One who sent Him is true, and ^ano unrighteousness is in Him.

19 ^a"Did not Moses give you the law, yet none of you keeps the law? ^bWhy do you seek to kill Me?"

20 The people answered and said, "^aYou have a demon. Who is seeking to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel.

22 ^aMoses therefore gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, ^bbut from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.

23 ^aIf a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry with Me because ^aI made a man completely well on the Sabbath?

24 ^a"Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

Could This Be the Christ?

25 Now some of them from Jerusalem said, "Is this not He whom they seek to kill?"

26 "But look! He speaks boldly, and they say nothing to Him. "Do the rulers know indeed that this is truly the Christ?"

27 "However, we know where this Man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one knows where He is from."

28 Then Jesus cried out, as He taught in the temple, saying, "You both know Me, and you know where I am from; and I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

29 "I know Him, for I am from Him, and He sent Me."

30 Therefore they sought to take Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed in Him, and said, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?"

Jesus and the Religious Leaders

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him.

33 Then Jesus said to them, "I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I go to Him who sent Me.

34 "You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come."

35 Then the Jews said among themselves, "Where does He intend to go that we shall not find Him? Does He intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?"

36 "What is this thing that He said, 'You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come?'"

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

37 "On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink."

38 "He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water."

39 "But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Who Is He?

40 Therefore many from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, "Truly this is the Prophet."

41 Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee?"

44 Now some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Rejected by the Authorities

45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"

46 The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this Man!"

47 Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived?"

48 "Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in Him?"

49 "But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed."

50 Nicodemus (he who came to Jesus ^bby night, being one of them) said to them,

51 "Does our law judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?"

An Adulteress Faces the Light of the World

53 And everyone went to his own house.

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 Now early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and taught them.

3 Then the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst,

4 they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in adultery, in the very act."

5 "Now Moses, in the law, commanded us that such should be stoned. But what do You say?"

6 This they said, testing Him, that they might have something of which to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, as though He did not hear.

7 So when they continued asking Him, He raised Himself up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first."

8 And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.

9 Then those who heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had raised Himself up ¹and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, "Woman, where are those accusers ²of yours? Has no one condemned you?"

11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said to her, "^aNeither do I condemn you; go ¹and ^bsin no more."

12 Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "^aI am the light of the world. He who ^bfollows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

Jesus Defends His Self-Witness

13 The Pharisees therefore said to Him, "^aYou bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not true."

14 Jesus answered and said to them, "^aEven if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but ^cyou do not know where I come from and where I am going.

15 ^a"You judge according to the flesh; ^bI judge no one.

16 "And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me.

17 ^a"It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true.

18 ^a"I am One who bears witness of Myself, and ^bthe Father who sent Me bears witness of Me."

19 Then they said to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "^aYou know neither Me nor My Father. ^bIf you had known Me, you would have known My Father also."

20 These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple; and ^bno one laid hands on Him, for ^cHis hour had not yet come.

Jesus Predicts His Departure

21 Then Jesus said to them again, "^aI am going away, and ^byou will seek Me, and ^cwill die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come."

22 So the Jews said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, '^aWhere I go you cannot come'?"

23 And He said to them, "^aYou are from beneath; I am from above; ^bYou are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 ^a"Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; ^bfor if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

25 Then they said to Him, "Who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Just what I ^ahave been saying to you from the beginning.

26 "I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but ^aHe who sent Me is true; and ^bI speak to the world those things which I heard from Him."

27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.

28 Then Jesus said to them, "^{When you liftⁱ up the Son of Man, ^bthen you will know that I am He, and ^cthat I do nothing of Myself; but ^das My Father taught Me, I speak these things.}

29 ^a"And ^bHe who sent Me is with Me. ^bThe Father has not left Me alone, ^cfor I always do those things that please Him."

30 As He spoke these words, ^amany believed in Him.

The Truth Shall Make You Free

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "^{If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed.}

32 ^a"And you shall know the truth, and ^bthe truth shall make you free."

33 They answered Him, "^aWe are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can You say, 'You will be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, ^awhoever commits sin is a slave of sin.

35 ^a"And ^ba slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever.

36 ^a"Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

37 ^a"I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but ^byou seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.

38 ^a"I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have ^bseen with your father."

39 They answered and said to Him, "^aAbraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "^bIf you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

40 ^a"But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth ^bwhich I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.

41 ^a"You do the deeds of your father." Then they said to Him, "We were not born of fornication; ^bwe have one Father—God."

42 Jesus said to them, "^aIf God were your Father, you would love Me, for ^bI proceeded forth and came from God; ^cnor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me.

43 ^a"Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word.

44 ^a"You are of your father the devil, and the ^bdesires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and ^cdoes not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.

45 "But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me.

46 "Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me?

47 "He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God."

Before Abraham Was, I AM

48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say rightly that You are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.

50 "And I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks and judges.

51 "Most assuredly, I say to you, if anyone keeps My word he shall never see death."

52 Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You have a demon; Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and You say, 'If anyone keeps My word he shall never taste death.'

53 "Are You greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. Who do You make Yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing. It is My Father who honors Me, of whom you say that He is your God.

55 "Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say, 'I do not know Him,' I shall be a liar like you; but I do know Him and keep His word.

56 "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and he saw it and was glad."

57 Then the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM."

59 Then they took up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

A Man Born Blind Receives Sight

9 Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. 2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but that the works of God should be revealed in him.

4 "I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work.

5 "As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

6 When He had said these things, He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

7 And He said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). So he went and washed, and came back seeing.

8 Therefore the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was blind said, "Is not this he who sat and begged?"

9 Some said, "This is he." Others said, "He is like him." He said, "I am he."

10 Therefore they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered and said, "A Man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed, and I received sight."

12 Then they said to him, "Where is He?" He said, "I do not know."

The Pharisees Excommunicate the Healed Man

13 They brought him who formerly was blind to the Pharisees.

14 Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

15 Then the Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

16 Therefore some of the Pharisees said, "This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a division among them.

17 They said to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 "but by what means he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself."

22 His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had agreed already that if anyone confessed that He was Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

24 So they again called the man who was blind, and said to him,

^a“Give God the glory! ^bWe know that this Man is a sinner.”
 25 He answered and said, “Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see.”
 26 Then they said to him again, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”
 27 He answered them, “I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?”
 28 Then they reviled him and said, “You are His disciple, but we are Moses’ disciples.
 29 “We know that God ^aspoke to Moses; as for this fellow, ^cwe do not know where He is from.”
 30 The man answered and said to them, “^aWhy, this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where He is from; yet He has opened my eyes!”
 31 “Now we know that ^aGod does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, He hears him.
 32 “Since the world began it has been unheard of that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind.
 33 “If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing.”
 34 They answered and said to him, “^aYou were completely born in sins, and are you teaching us?” And they ^bcast him out.

True Vision and True Blindness

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had ^afound him, He said to him, “^bDo you ^cbelieve in the Son of God?”
 36 He answered and said, “Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?”
 37 And Jesus said to him, “^aYou have both seen Him and ^bit is He who is talking with you.”
 38 Then he said, “Lord, I believe!” And he worshipped Him.
 39 And Jesus said, “^aFor judgment I have come into this world, ^bthat those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made blind.”
 40 Then some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, “Are we blind also?”
 41 Jesus said to them, “^aIf you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, ‘We see.’ Therefore your sin remains.

Jesus the True Shepherd

10 “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

4 “And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

5 “Yet they will by no means follow a ^astranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.”

6 Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

7 Then Jesus said to them again, “^bMost assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 “All who ever came ^bbefore Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them.

9 “^aI am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture.

10 “The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

11 “^aI am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep.

12 “But a ^bhireling, ^che who is not the shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and ^aleaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them.

13 “The hireling flees because he is a hireling and does not care about the sheep.

14 “I am the good shepherd; and ^aI know My sheep, and ^bam known by My own.

15 “^aAs the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father; ^band I lay down My life for the sheep.

16 “And ^aother sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; ^band there will be one flock and one shepherd.

17 “Therefore My Father ^aloves Me, ^bbecause I lay down My life that I may take it again.

18 “No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I ^ahave power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. ^bThis command I have received from My Father.”

19 Therefore ^athere was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings.

20 And many of them said, “^aHe has a demon and is ^bmad. Why do you listen to Him?”

21 Others said, “These are not the words of one who has a demon. ^aCan a demon ^bopen the eyes of the blind?”

The Shepherd Knows His Sheep

22 Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple, ^ain Solomon's porch.

24 Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him, "How long do You keep us in 'doubt'? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. ^aThe works that I do in My Father's name, they ^bbear witness of Me."

26 "But ^ayou do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, ^aas I said to you."

27 "^aMy sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me."

28 "And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand."

29 "^aMy Father, ^bwho has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand."

30 "^aI and My Father are one."

Renewed Efforts to Stone Jesus

31 Then ^athe Jews took up stones again to stone Him.

32 Jesus answered them, "Many good works I have shown you from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?"

33 The Jews answered Him, saying, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for ^bblasphemy, and because You, being a Man, ^bmake Yourself God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, ^a'I said, 'You are gods'?"

35 "If He called them gods, ^ato whom the word of God came (and the Scripture ^bcannot be broken),

36 "do you say of Him ^a'whom the Father sanctified and ^bsent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' ^bbecause I said, 'I am ^athe Son of God'?"

37 "^aIf I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me;

38 "but if I do, though you do not believe Me, ^bbelieve the works, that you may know and ^bbelieve ^athat the Father is in Me, and I in Him."

39 ^aTherefore they sought again to seize Him, but He escaped out of their hand.

The Believers Beyond Jordan

40 And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place ^awhere John was baptizing at first, and there He stayed.

41 Then many came to Him and said, "John performed no sign, ^abut all the things that John spoke about this Man were true."

42 And many believed in Him there.

town of ^aMary and her sister Martha. 2 ^aIt was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

3 Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick."

4 When Jesus heard that, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." 5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 So, when He heard that he was sick, ^aHe stayed two more days in the place where He was.

7 Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

8 The disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, lately the Jews sought to stone You, and are You going there again?"

9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? ^aIf anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the ^blight of this world."

10 "But ^aif one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

11 These things He said, and after that He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus ^asleeps, but I go that I may wake him up."

12 Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well."

13 However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep.

14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead."

15 "And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."

16 Then ^aThomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

17 So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days.

18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about ^atwo miles away.

19 And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was sitting in the house.

21 Now Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

22 "But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am ^athe resurrection and the life. ^bHe who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.

26 "And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, ^aI believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

Jesus and Death, the Last Enemy

28 And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you."

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but ¹was in the place where Martha met Him.

31 "Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, ¹saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."

32 Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she ^{fell} down at His feet, saying to Him, "^bLord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

33 Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled.

34 And He said, "^aWhere have you laid him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."

35 ^aJesus wept.

36 Then the Jews said, "See how He loved him!"

37 And some of them said, "Could not this Man, ^awho opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?"

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

38 Then Jesus, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a ¹stone lay against it.

39 Jesus said, "^aTake away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been ^{dead} four days."

40 Jesus said to her, "^aDid I not say to you that if you would believe you would ^asee the glory of God?"

41 Then they took away the stone ¹from the place where the dead man was lying. And Jesus lifted up ^{His} eyes and said, "^aFather, I thank You that You have heard Me."

42 "And I know that You always hear Me, but ^bbecause of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me."

things, He cried with a loud voice, "^aLazarus, come forth!"

44 And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with ^agrave-clothes, and ^bhis face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "^aLoose him, and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

45 Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, ^aand had seen the things Jesus did, believed in Him.

46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and ^atold them the things Jesus did.

47 ^aThen the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council and said, ^b"What shall we do? For this Man works many signs."

48 "If we let Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."

49 And one of them, ^aCaiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,

50 ^anor do you consider that it is expedient for ^bus that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish."

51 Now this he did not say on his own authority; but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, 52 and ^anot for that nation only, but ^balso that He would gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.

53 Then, from that day on, they plotted to ^aput Him to death.

54 ^aTherefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called ^bEphraim, and there remained with His disciples.

55 ^aAnd the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went from the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to ^bpurify themselves.

56 "Then they sought Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that He will not come to the feast?"

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might ^aseize Him.

The Anointing at Bethany

12 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, ^awhere Lazarus was ^bwho had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead.

2 ^aThere they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him.

3 Then ^aMary took a pound of very costly oil of ^bspikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

4 But one of His disciples, ^aJudas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said,

5 "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?"

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.

7 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial.

8 "For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

9 Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also,

11 because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

12 The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!

^aBlessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!"
The King of Israel!"

14 Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written:

15 ^aFear not, daughter of Zion; Behold, your King is coming, Sitting on a donkey's colt."

16 His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

17 Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness.

18 For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!"

The Fruitful Grain of Wheat

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast.

21 Then they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 But Jesus answered them, saying, "^aThe hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified.

24 "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain.

25 ^aHe who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

26 "If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will honor.

Jesus Predicts His Death on the Cross

27 ^a"Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? ^bBut for this purpose I came to this hour.

28 ^aFather, glorify Your name." Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again."

29 Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him."

30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake.

31 "Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out.

32 "And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself."

33 This He said, signifying by what death He would die.

34 The people answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'?" Who is this Son of Man?"

35 Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you; he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going."

36 "While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and was hidden from them.

Who Has Believed Our Report?

37 But although He had done so many signs before them, they did not believe in Him,

38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke:

*a“Lord, who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?”*

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again:

40 *“He^a has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts,
^bLest they should see with their eyes,
Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them.”*

41 “These things Isaiah said when he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

Walk in the Light

42 Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in Him, but ^abecause of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue;

43 “For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Then Jesus cried out and said, “He who believes in Me, ^bbelieves not in Me ^cbut in Him who sent Me.

45 “And ^ahe who sees Me sees Him who sent Me.

46 “I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness.

47 “And if anyone hears My words and does not ^bbelieve, ^aI do not judge him; for ^bI did not come to judge the world but to save the world.

48 “He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—^bthe word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day.

49 “For ^aI have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, ^bwhat I should say and what I should speak.

50 “And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I ^aspeak.”

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

13 Now ^abefore the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that ^bHis hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He ^cloved them to the end.

2 And ^bsupper being ended, ^athe devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him,

3 Jesus, knowing ^athat the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He ^bhad come from God and ^cwas going to God,

5 After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, “Lord, are You washing my feet?”

7 Jesus answered and said to him, “What I am doing you ^ado not understand now, ^bbut you will know after this.”

8 Peter said to Him, “You shall never wash my feet!” Jesus answered him, “If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me.”

9 Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!”

10 Jesus said to him, “He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and ^ayou are clean, but not all of you.”

11 For ^aHe knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, “You are not all clean.”

12 So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, “Do you ^aknow what I have done to you?

13 ^a“You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am.

14 ^aIf I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, ^byou also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 ^aFor I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you.

16 ^aMost assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him.

17 ^aIf you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

Jesus Identifies His Betrayer

18 ^aI do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but that the ^aScripture may be fulfilled, ^b‘He who eats ^bbread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.’

19 ^aNow I tell you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe that I am He.

20 ^aMost assuredly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.”

21 ^aWhen Jesus had said these things, ^bHe was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, “Most assuredly, I say to you, one of you will betray Me.”

22 Then the disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke.

23 Now ^athere was ^bleaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.

25 Then, leaning back on Jesus' breast, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And having dipped the bread, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 "Now after the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 But no one at the table knew for what reason He said this to him.

29 For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

30 Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

31 So, when he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him."

32 "If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and glorify Him immediately.

33 "Little children, I shall be with you a little while longer. You will seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you.

34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

36 Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I am going you cannot follow Me now, but you shall follow Me afterward."

37 Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will lay down my life for Your sake."

38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? Most assuredly, I say to you, the rooster shall not crow till you have denied Me three times.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

14 "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me.

2 In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.

4 "And where I go you know, and the way you know."

do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.

The Father Revealed

7 ^a"If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him."

8 Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us."

9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

10 "Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you ^bI do not speak on My own authority; but the Father who dwells in Me does the works.

11 "Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, ^aor else believe Me for the sake of the works themselves.

The Answered Prayer

12 ^a"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father.

13 ^a"And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 "If you ask anything in My name, I will do it."

Jesus Promises Another Helper

15 ^a"If you love Me, keep My commandments.

16 "And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever—

17 ^a"the Spirit of truth, ^bwhom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you ^cand will be in you.

18 ^a"I will not leave you orphans; ^bI will come to you.

Indwelling of the Father and the Son

19 ^a"A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but you will see Me. ^bBecause I live, you will live also.

20 "At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.

21 ^a"He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him."

22 "Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, "Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him.

24 "He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me.

The Gift of His Peace

25 "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you.

26 "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you.

27 "Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 "You have heard Me say to you, 'I am going away and coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said, 'I am going to the Father,' for My Father is greater than I.

29 "And now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe.

30 "I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me.

31 "But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

The True Vine

15 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

2 "Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

3 "You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

4 "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

5 "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing.

6 "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you.

8 "By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

Love and Joy Perfected

9 "As the Father loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love.

10 "If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

11 "These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full.

12 "This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

13 "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends.

14 "You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.

15 "No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you.

16 "You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father in My name He may give you.

17 "These things I command you, that you love one another.

The World's Hatred

18 "If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.

19 "If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.

20 "Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

21 "But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me.

22 "If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 "He who hates Me hates My Father also.

24 "If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have seen and also hated both Me and My Father.

25 "But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'

The Coming Rejection

26 "But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, ^bHe will testify of Me.

27 "And you also will bear witness, because ^byou have been with Me from the beginning.

16 "These things I have spoken to you, that you ^ashould not be made to stumble.

2 ^a"They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming ^bthat whoever kills you will think that he offers God service.

3 "And ^athese things they will do ^bto you because they have not known the Father nor Me.

4 "But these things I have told you, that when ^athe time comes, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I did not say to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

5 "But now I ^ago away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?'

6 "But because I have said these things to you, ^asorrow has filled your heart.

7 "Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but ^aif I depart, I will send Him to you.

8 "And when He has ^acome, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 ^a"of sin, because they do not believe in Me;

10 ^a"of righteousness, ^bbecause I go to My Father and you see Me no more;

11 ^a"of judgment, because ^bthe ruler of this world is judged.

12 "I still have many things to say to you, ^abut you cannot bear them now.

13 "However, when He, ^athe Spirit of truth, has come, ^bHe will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.

14 ^a"He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you.

15 ^a"All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He ^awill take of Mine and declare it to you.

Sorrow Will Turn to Joy

16 ^aA ^blittle while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me, ^bbecause I go to the Father."

17 Then some of His disciples said among themselves, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because I go to the Father'?"

18 They said therefore, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not ^aknow what He is saying." 19 Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, "Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'?

20 "Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and ^alament, but the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into ^bjoy.

21 ^a"A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world.

22 "Therefore you now have sorrow; but I will see you again and ^ayour heart will rejoice, and your joy no one will take from you.

23 "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. ^aMost assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you.

24 "Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, ^athat your joy may be ^bfull.

Jesus Christ Has Overcome the World

25 "These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you ^aplainly about the Father.

26 "In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you;

27 ^afor the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and ^bhave believed that I came forth from God.

28 ^aI came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father."

29 His disciples said to Him, "See, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech!

30 "Now we are sure that ^aYou know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this ^bwe believe that You came forth from God."

31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?"

32 ^aIndeed the hour is coming, yes, has now come, that you will be scattered, each to his ^bown, and will leave Me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.

33 "These things I have spoken to you, that ^ain Me you may have peace. ^bIn the world you ^bwill have tribulation; but be of good cheer, ^aI have overcome the world."

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said: "Father, ^athe hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You,

2 ^a"as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He ^bshould give eternal life to as many ^bas You have given Him.

3 "And ^athis is eternal life, that they may know You, ^bthe only true God, and Jesus Christ ^cwhom You have sent.

4 ^a"I have glorified You on the earth. ^bI have finished the work which You have given Me to do.

5 "And now, O Father, glorify Me together ^bwith Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world was.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

6 ^a"I have ^bmanifested Your name to the men ^bwhom You have given Me out of the world. ^cThey were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word.

7 "Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You.

8 "For I have given to them the words which You have given Me; and they have received them, ^band have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that ^cYou sent Me.

9 "I pray for them. ^aI do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours.

10 "And all Mine are Yours, and ^aYours are Mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 ^a"Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, ^bkeep¹ through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one ^aas We are.

12 "While I was with them ^bin the world, ^aI kept them in ^bYour name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept; and ^bnone of them is ^alost except the son of ^bperdition, ^cthat the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 "But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 "I have given them Your word; ^aand the world has hated them because they are not of the world, ^bjust as I am not of the world.

15 "I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but ^athat You should keep them from the evil one.

16 "They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, ^aHe went out with His disciples over ^bthe Brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered.

2 And Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place; ^afor Jesus often met there with His disciples.

3 ^aThen Judas, having received a detachment of troops, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, ^aknowing all things that would come upon Him, went forward and said to them, "^bWhom are you seeking?"

5 They answered Him, ^a"Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "^bI am He." And Judas, who ^cbetrayed Him, also stood with them.

6 Now when He said to them, "^aI am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.

7 Then He asked them again, "^bWhom are you seeking?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

8 Jesus answered, "^aI have told you that I am He. Therefore, if you seek Me, let these go their way."

9 that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, "Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none."

10 Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?"

Before the High Priest

12 Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him.

13 And they led Him away to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas who was high priest that year.

14 Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. 16 But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in.

17 Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this Man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not."

18 Now the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

Jesus Questioned by the High Priest

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about His disciples and His doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where the Jews always meet, and in secret I have said nothing."

21 "Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard Me what I said to them. Indeed they know what I said."

22 And when He had said these things, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Do You answer the high priest like that?"

23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?"

Peter Denies Twice More

25 Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. ^aTherefore they said to him, "You are not also one of His disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not!"

26 One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"

27 Peter then denied again; and immediately a rooster crowed.

In Pilate's Court

28 ^aThen they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning. ^bBut they themselves did not go into the Praetorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.

29 ^aPilate then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

30 They answered and said to him, "If He were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."

31 Then Pilate said to them, "You take Him and judge Him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death,"

32 ^athat the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, ^bsignifying by what death He would die.

33 ^aThen Pilate entered the Praetorium again, called Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered him, "Are you speaking for yourself about this, or did others tell you this concerning Me?"

35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?"

36 ^aJesus answered, ^b"My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here."

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are You a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, ^athat I should bear ^bwitness to the truth. Everyone who ^cis of the truth ^dhears My voice."

38 Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no fault in Him at all."

Taking the Place of Barabbas

39 ^aBut you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

40 "Then they all cried again, saying, "Not this Man, but Barabbas!"
bNow Barabbas was a robber.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

19 So then aPilate took Jesus and scourged Him.

2 And the soldiers twisted a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe.

3 "Then they said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they astruck Him with their hands.

4 Pilate then went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, athat you may know that I find no fault in Him."

Pilate's Decision

5 Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "Behold the Man!"

6 "Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him."

7 The Jews answered him, "aWe have a law, and according to 1our law He ought to die, because bHe made Himself the Son of God."

8 Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid, 9 and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" aBut Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have 1power to crucify You, and 1power to release You?"

11 Jesus answered, "aYou could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore bthe one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."

12 From then on Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this Man go, you are not Caesar's friend. aWhoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."

13 "When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 Now ait was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your King!"

15 But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "aWe have no king but Caesar!"

The King on a Cross

17 aAnd He, bearing His cross, bwent out to a place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha, 18 where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the center.

19 aNow Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was:

JESUS OF NAZARETH,
 THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

21 Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, 'I am the King of the Jews.''"

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 aThen the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top in one piece.

24 They said therefore among themselves, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says:

*"They divided My garments
 among them,
 And for My clothing they cast
 lots."*

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

Behold Your Mother

25 aNow there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of bClopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, "bWoman, behold your son!"

27 Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her ato his own home.

It Is Finished

28 After this, Jesus, 1knowing that all things were now accomplished, athat the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!"

29 Now a vessel full of sour wine was sitting there; and they filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on hyssop, and put it to His mouth.

30 So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!"

And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

31 *"Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, ^bthat the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a ^chigh day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.*

32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him.

33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, "they did not break His legs.

34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately ^ablood and water came out.

35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is "true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may ^bbelieve.

36 For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, "Not one of His bones shall be broken."

37 And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced."

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

38 "After this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, ^bfor fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body of Jesus.

39 And Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of ^bmyrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.

40 Then they took the body of Jesus, and ^abound it in strips of linen with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid.

42 So ^athere they laid Jesus, ^bbecause of the Jews' Preparation Day, for the tomb was nearby.

The Empty Tomb

20 Now on the "first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that ^bstone had been taken away from the tomb.

2 Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the "other disciple, ^bwhom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."

3 ^aPeter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb.

4 So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first.

5 And he, stooping down and looking in, saw ^athe linen cloths lying there; yet he did not go in.

6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; and he saw the linen cloths lying there, ^aand ^bthe handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself.

8 Then the ^aother disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed.

9 For as yet they did not ^aknow the ^bScripture, that He must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

11 ^aBut Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb.

12 And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 Then they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

14 ^aNow when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and ^bdid not know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16 Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to ^aHim, "Rabboni!" (which is to say, Teacher).

17 Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; but go to ^bMy brethren and say to them, "I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.""

18 ^aMary Magdalene came and told the ^bdisciples that she had seen the Lord, and ^cthat He had spoken these things to her.

The Apostles Commissioned

19 ^aThen, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were ^bassembled, for ^cfear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be with you."

20 When He had said this, He showed them ^aHis hands and His side. ^bThen the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

21 So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you."

22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

23 "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Seeing and Believing

24 Now Thomas, ^acalled the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord." So he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

26 And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace to you!"

27 Then He said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be unbelieving, but believing."

28 And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus said to him, "¹Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

That You May Believe

30 And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book;

31 ^abut these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, ^aand that believing you may have life in His name.

Breakfast by the Sea

21 After these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the ^aSea of Tiberias, and in this way He showed Himself.

2 Simon Peter, ^aThomas called the Twin, ^bNathanael of Cana in Galilee, ^athe sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and ^bimmediately got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples ^adid not know that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?" They answered Him, "No."

6 And He said to them, "^aCast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

7 Therefore ^athat disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish.

9 Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.

10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11 Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken.

12 Jesus said to them, "^aCome and eat breakfast." Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?"—knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

14 This is now ^athe third time Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15 So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of ^aJonah, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "^aFeed My lambs."

16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of ^aJonah, do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "^aTend My ^bsheep."

17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of ^aJonah, do you ^blove Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "^aDo you ^blove Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, ^aYou know all things; You know that I ^blove You." Jesus said to him, "^aFeed My sheep."

18 "^aMost assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish."

19 This He spoke, signifying ^aby what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, "^bFollow Me."

The Beloved Disciple and His Book

20 Then Peter, turning around, saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following, ^bwho also had leaned on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"

21 Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this man?"

22 Jesus said to him, "If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you? You follow Me."

23 Then this saying went out among the brethren that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I will of the Apostles

JESUS' last recorded words have come to be known as the Great Commission: "You shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth" (1:8). The Book of Acts, written by Luke, is the story of the men and women who took that commission seriously and began to spread the news of a risen Savior to the most remote corners of the known world.

Each section of the book (1—7; 8—12; 13—28) focuses on a particular audience, a key personality, and a significant phase in the expansion of the gospel message.

As the second volume in a two-part work by Luke, this book probably had no separate title. But all available Greek manuscripts designate it by the title Praxeis, "Acts," or by an expanded title like "The Acts of the Apostles." Praxeis was commonly used in Greek literature to summarize the accomplishments of outstanding men. While the apostles are mentioned collectively at several points, this book really records the acts of Peter (1—12) and of Paul (13—28).

Prologue

THE former account I made, O ^aTheophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, ²until the day in which ¹He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit ^bhad given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, ³to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many ⁱinfallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

The Holy Spirit Promised

4 "And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have ^bheard from Me;

5 "for John truly baptized with water, ^bbut you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

6 Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

The Upper Room Prayer Meeting

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they had entered, they went up ^ainto the upper room where they were staying: ^bPeter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and ^cSimon the Zealot; and ^dJudas the son of James.

Matthias Chosen

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the ^adisciples (altogether the number ^bof names was about a hundred and twenty), and said,

16 "Men and brethren, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, ^awhich the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, ^bwho became a guide to those who arrested Jesus;

17 "for ^ahe was numbered with us and obtained a part in ^bthis ministry."

18 ^a(Now this man purchased a field with ^bthe ^cwages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his ²entrails gushed out.

19 And it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem; so that field is called in their own language, Akel Dama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20 "For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

*"Let his dwelling place be

And let no one live in it;"*

and,

"Let another take his ²office."

21 "Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 "beginning from the baptism of John to that day when ^aHe was taken up from us, one of these must ^bbecome a witness with us of His resurrection."

23 And they proposed two: Joseph called ^aBarsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed and said, "You, O Lord, ^awho know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen.

25 ^ato take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place."

26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When ^athe Day of Pentecost had fully come, ^bthey were all ¹with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and ^ait filled the whole house where they were sitting.

3 Then there appeared to them ¹divided tongues, as of fire, and ^bone sat upon each of them.

4 And ^athey were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began ^bto speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The Crowd's Response

5 And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, ^adevout men, from every nation under heaven.

6 And when this sound occurred, the ^amultitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language.

7 Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak ^aGalileans?"

8 "And how is it that we hear, each in our own ^alanguage in which we were born?

9 "Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and ^aCappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

10 "Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

11 "Cretans and ^aArabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God."

12 So they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?"

13 Others mocking said, "They are full of new wine."

Peter's Sermon

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and heed my words.

15 "For these are not drunk, as you suppose, ^asince it is only ^bthe third hour of the day.

16 "But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 ^a*And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, bThat I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh:
Your sons and cyour daughters shall prophesy,
Your young men shall see visions,*

- Your old men shall dream dreams.*
- 18 And on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days; And they shall prophesy.
- 19 I will show wonders in heaven above And signs in the earth beneath: Blood and fire and vapor of smoke.
- 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.
- 21 And it shall come to pass That "whoever calls on the name of the LORD Shall be saved."
- 22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you ^aby miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know—23 "Him, ^abeing delivered by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, ^byou ¹have taken by lawless hands, have crucified, and put to death;
 24 ^a"whom God raised up, having ¹loosed the ²pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it.
 25 "For David says concerning Him:
- 'I foresaw the LORD always before my face.
 For He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken.'*
- 26 Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad; Moreover my flesh also will rest in hope.
- 27 *For You will not leave my soul in Hades,
 Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see ^bcorruption.*
- 28 *You have made known to me the ways of life;
 You will make me full of joy in Your presence.'*
- 29 "Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you ^aof the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
- 30 "Therefore, being a prophet, ^aand knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, ¹according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,
- 31 "he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, ^athat His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.

 CHAPTER 3
 1 ^aActs 2:46
^bPs. 55:17
 2 ^aActs 14:8
- 32 ^a"This Jesus God has raised up, ^bof which we are all witnesses.
 33 "Therefore ^abeing exalted ^bto the right hand of God, and ^chaving received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He ^dpoured out this which you now see and hear.
 34 "For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself:
 ^a*The LORD said to my Lord,
 "Sit at My right hand,
 35 Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."*"
- 36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."
 37 Now when they heard this, ^athey were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?"
 38 Then Peter said to them, ^a"Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the ^bremission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
 39 "For the promise is to you and ^ato your children, and ^bto all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."
- A Vital Church Grows*
- 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this ^bperverse generation."
 41 Then those who ¹gladly received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them.
 42 ^aAnd they continued steadfastly in the apostles' ¹doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.
 43 Then fear came upon every soul, and ^amany wonders and signs were done through the apostles.
 44 Now all who believed were together, and ^ahad all things in common.
 45 and ¹sold their possessions and goods, and ^adivided² them among all, as anyone had need.
 46 ^aSo continuing daily with one accord ^bin the temple, and ^bbreaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And ^athe Lord added ^bto the church daily those who were being saved.
- A Lame Man Healed*
- 3 Now Peter and John went up together ^ato the temple at the hour of prayer, ^bthe ninth hour.
 2 And ^aa certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, ^bto ^aask alms from those who entered the temple; 3 who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms.

4 And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, "Look at us."

5 So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: ^aIn the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk."

7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted ^bhim up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 So he, ^aleaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God.

9 ^aAnd all the people saw him walking and praising God.

10 Then they knew that it was he who ^asat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Preaching in Solomon's Portico

11 Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch ^awhich is called Solomon's, greatly amazed.

12 So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?"

13 ^aThe God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, ^bglorified His Servant Jesus, whom you ^adelivered up and ^adenied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let ^bHim go.

14 "But you denied ^athe Holy One ^band the Just, and ^asought for a murderer to be granted to you, 15 ^aand killed the ^bPrince of life, ^awhom God raised from the dead, ^bof which we are witnesses.

16 ^aAnd His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 "Yet now, brethren, I know that ^ayou did ^bit in ignorance, as did also your rulers.

18 "But ^athose things which God foretold ^bby the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled.

19 ^aRepent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord,

Christ, who was ^bpreached to you before,

21 ^a"whom heaven must receive until the times of ^brestoration of all things, ^cwhich God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since ^bthe world began.

22 "For Moses truly said to the fathers, ^a*'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Him you shall hear in all things, whatever He says to you.'*

23 ^a*'And it shall be that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.'*

24 "Yes, and ^aall the prophets, from Samuel and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have also ^bforetold these days.

25 ^a"You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ^b*'And in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'*

26 "To you ^afirst, God, having raised up His Servant Jesus, sent Him to bless you, ^bin turning away every one of you from your iniquities."

Peter and John Arrested

4 Now as they spoke to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the ^aSadducees came upon them,

2 being greatly disturbed that they taught the people and preached in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put ^bthem in custody until the next day, for it was already evening.

4 However, many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

Addressing the Sanhedrin

5 And it came to pass, on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes,

6 as well as ^aAnnas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the family of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ^a"By what power or by what name have you done this?"

8 ^aThen Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel:

9 ^aIf we this day are judged for a good deed done to a helpless man, by what means he has been made well,

10 ^alet it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, ^bthat by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, ^bwhom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole.

11 "This is the ^astone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.'

12 ^a"Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

The Name of Jesus Forbidden

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, ^aand perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been with Jesus.

14 And seeing the man who had been healed ^astanding with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, ^a"What shall we do to these men? For, indeed, that a ¹notable miracle has been done through them is ^bevident² to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 "But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us severely threaten them, that from now on they speak to no man in this name."

18 ^aSo they called them and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said to them, ^a"Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge.

20 ^a"For we cannot but speak the things which ^bwe have seen and heard."

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way of punishing them, ^abecause of the people, since they all ^bglorified God for ^cwhat had been done.

22 For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

Prayer for Boldness

23 And being let go, ^athey went to their own companions and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.

24 So when they heard that, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord, ^aYou are God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them, 25 ^awho ^bby the mouth of Your servant David have said:

Against the LORD and against His Christ.'

27 "For ^atruly against ^bYour holy Servant Jesus, ^cwhom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together 28 ^a"to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose determined before to be done.

29 "Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants ^athat with all boldness they may speak Your word,
30 "by stretching out Your hand to heal, ^aand that signs and wonders may be done ^bthrough the name of ^cYour holy Servant Jesus."

31 And when they had prayed, ^athe place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, ^band they spoke the word of God with boldness.

Sharing in All Things

32 Now the multitude of those who believed ^awere of one heart and one soul; ^bneither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common.

33 And with ^agreat power the apostles gave ^bwitness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And ^cgreat grace was upon them all.

34 Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; ^afor all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold,

35 ^aand laid ^bthem at the apostles' feet; ^cand they distributed to each as anyone had need.

36 And ^aJoses, who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of ^bEncouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, 37 ^ahaving land, sold ^bit, and brought the money and laid ^cit at the apostles' feet.

Lying to the Holy Spirit

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession.

2 And he kept back ^apart of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid ^bit at the apostles' feet.

3 ^aBut Peter said, "Ananias, why has ^bSatan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back ^cpart of the price of the land for yourself?

4 "While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

5 Then Ananias, hearing these words, ^afell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things.

6 And the young men arose and wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

7 Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

8 And Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?" She said, "Yes, for so much."

9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

10 "Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, buried her by her husband.

11 "So great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

Continuing Power in the Church

12 And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. ^bAnd they were all with one accord in Solomon's Porch.

13 Yet none of the rest dared join them, ^bbut the people esteemed them highly.

14 And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, 15 so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them.

16 Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

Imprisoned Apostles Freed

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with ^cindignation, 18 and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison.

19 But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said,

20 "Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people ^dall the words of this life."

21 And when they heard that, they entered the temple early in the morning and taught. ^eBut the high priest and those with him came and called the council together, with all the ^felders of the children of Israel, and

Apostles on Trial Again

22 But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported,

23 saying, "Indeed we found the prison shut securely, and the guards standing ^doutside before the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"

24 Now when ^ethe high priest, ^fthe captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they wondered what the outcome would be.

25 So one came and told them, ^gsaying, "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

26 Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, ^hfor they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set ⁱthem before the council. And the high priest asked them,

28 saying, ^j"Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, ^kand intend to bring this Man's ^lblood on us!"

29 But Peter and the other apostles answered and said: ^m"We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 ⁿThe God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom you murdered by hanging on a tree.

31 ^oHim God has exalted to His right hand to be ^pPrince and ^qSavior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

32 ^rAnd ^swe are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit ^twhom God has given to those who obey Him."

Gamaliel's Advice

33 When they heard this, they were ^ufurious^v and plotted to kill them.

34 Then one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named ^wGamaliel, a teacher of the law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while.

35 And he said to them: "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do regarding these men.

36 For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing.

37 After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed.

38 And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing;

39 ^a“but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found ^bto fight against God.”

40 And they agreed with him, and when they had ^ccalled for the apostles ^band beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 So they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name.

42 And daily ^ain the temple, and in every house, ^bthey did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Seven Chosen to Serve

6 Now in those days, ^awhen the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews by the ^bHellenists,¹ because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution.

2 Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said,

^a“It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables.

3 “Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this ^bbusiness;

4 “but we ^awill give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, ^aa man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and ^bPhilip, Prochorus, Nicander, Timon, Parmenas, and ^cNicolas, a proselyte from Antioch,

6 whom they set before the apostles; and ^awhen they had prayed,

^bthey laid hands on them.

7 Then ^athe word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many ^bof the priests were obedient to the faith.

Stephen Accused of Blasphemy

8 And Stephen, full of ^afaith and power, did great ^bwonders and signs among the people.

9 Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen.

10 And ^athey were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

11 ^aThen they secretly induced men to say, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.”

12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon ^ahim, seized him, and brought ^bhim to the council.

13 They also set up false witnesses who said, “This man does not cease to speak ^bblasphemous words against this holy place and the law;

14 ^a“for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us.”

15 And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's Address: The Call of Abraham

7 Then the high priest said, “Are these things so?”

2 And he said, “^aBrethren and fathers, listen: The ^bGod of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in ^cHaran,

3 ^aand said to him, ‘Get out of your country and from your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you.’

4 ^aThen he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father was ^bdead, He moved him to this land in which you now dwell.

5 ^aAnd God gave him no inheritance in it, not even enough to set his foot on. But even when Abraham had no child, ^aHe promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him.

6 ^aBut God spoke in this way: ^bthat his descendants would dwell in a foreign land, and that they would bring them into ^bbondage and oppress them four hundred years.

7 ^a*And the nation to whom they will be in bondage I will judge,* said God, ^cand after that they shall come out and serve Me in this place.’

8 ^aThen He gave him the covenant of circumcision; ^band so Abraham begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; ^cand Isaac begot Jacob, and ^d*Jacob* begot the twelve patriarchs.

The Patriarchs in Egypt

9 ^a“And the patriarchs, becoming envious, ^bsold Joseph into Egypt. ^cBut God was with him

10 ^a“and delivered him out of all his troubles, ^band gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 ^aNow a famine and great ^btrouble came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 ^aBut when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 ^aAnd the ^bsecond time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to the Pharaoh.

 14 "Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and ^ball his relatives to ^ahim, ^bseventy-five people.
 15 "^aSo Jacob went down to Egypt; ^band he died, he and our fathers.
 16 "And ^athey were carried back to Shechem and laid in ^bthe tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, ^athe father of Shechem.

God Delivers Israel by Moses

17 "But when ^athe time of the promise drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, ^bthe people grew and multiplied in Egypt 18 "^atill another king ^aarose who did not know Joseph.
 19 "This man dealt treacherously with our people, and oppressed our forefathers, ^amaking them expose their babies, so that they might not live.
 20 "^aAt this time Moses was born, and ^bwas well pleasing to God; and he was brought up in his father's house for three months.
 21 "But ^awhen he was set out, ^bPharaoh's daughter took him away and brought him up as her own son.
 22 "And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was ^amighty in words and deeds.
 23 "^aNow when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel.
 24 "And seeing one of ^athem suffer wrong, he defended and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian.
 25 "For he supposed that his brethren would have understood that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand.
 26 "And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brethren; why do you wrong one another?'
 27 "But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, '^aWho made you a ruler and a judge over us?
 28 'Do you want to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?'

29 "^aThen, at this saying, Moses fled and became a dweller in the land of Midian, where he ^bhad two sons.
 30 "^aAnd when forty years had passed, an Angel ^bof the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire in a bush, in the wilderness of Mount Sinai.
 31 "When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight; and as he drew near to observe, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 "saying, '^aI am the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'

34 "^aI have surely ^bseen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt; I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will ^bsend you to Egypt.'

36 "^aHe brought them out, after he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, ^band in the Red Sea, ^cand in the wilderness forty years.

Israel Rebels Against God

37 "^aThis is that Moses who said to the children of Israel, '^bThe ^cLORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. ^dHim ^eyou shall hear.'

38 "^aThis is he who was in the ^bcongregation in the wilderness with ^bthe Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, the one who received the living ^aoracles² to give to us,
 39 "whom our fathers ^awould not obey, but rejected. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt,
 40 "^asaying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us; as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

41 "^aAnd they made a calf in those days, offered sacrifices to the idol, and ^brejoiced in the works of their own hands.
 42 "Then ^aGod turned and gave them up to worship ^bthe host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

^cDid you offer Me slaughtered animals and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness,
^dO house of Israel?

43 You also took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
 And the star of your god
 Remphan,
 Images which you made to worship;
 And ^aI will carry you away beyond Babylon.'

God's True Tabernacle

44 "^aOur fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as He appointed, instructing Moses ^ato make it according to the pattern that he had seen,

45 "^awhich our fathers, having received it in turn, also brought with

Joshua into the land possessed by the Gentiles, ^bwhom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the ^cdays of David, 46 ^awho found favor before God and ^basked to find a dwelling for the God of Jacob.
 47 ^aBut Solomon built Him a house.
 48 "However, ^athe Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says:
 49 '*Heaven^a is My throne,
 And earth is My footstool.
 What house will you build for Me?*' says the LORD,
Or what is the place of My rest?'
 50 *Has My hand not ^amade all

Israel Resists the Holy Spirit

51 "You ^astiff-necked¹ and ^buncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you.
 52 ^aWhich of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of ^bthe Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers, 53 ^awho have received the law by the direction of angels and have not kept it."

Stephen the Martyr

54 ^aWhen they heard these things they were ^bcut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with ^ctheir teeth.
 55 But he, ^abeing full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the ^bglory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.
 56 and said, "Look! ^aI see the heavens opened and the ^bSon of Man standing at the right hand of God!"
 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, and ran at him with one accord;
 58 and they cast ^bhim out of the city and stoned ^ahim. And ^cthe witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.
 59 And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."
 60 Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, "^aLord, do not charge them with this sin." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul Persecutes the Church

8 Now Saul was consenting to his death. At that time a great persecution arose against the church which was at Jerusalem; and ^athey were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.
 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and ^amade great lamentation over him.

Christ Is Preached in Samaria

4 Therefore ^athose who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word.

5 Then ^aPhilip went down to ^bthe city of Samaria and preached Christ to them.

6 And the multitudes with one accord heeded the things spoken by Philip, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For ^aunclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed; and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

The Sorcerer's Profession of Faith

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously ^apracticed ^bsorcery in the city and ^castonished the ^dpeople of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great,

10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God."

11 And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his ^bsorceries for a long time.

12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the things ^aconcerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized.

13 Then Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.

The Sorcerer's Sin

14 Now when the ^aapostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, 15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them ^athat they might receive the Holy Spirit.

16 For ^aas yet He had fallen upon none of them. ^bThey had only been baptized in ^cthe name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then ^athey laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money,

19 saying, "Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20 But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because ^ayou thought that ^bthe gift of God could be purchased with money!

21 "You have neither part nor portion in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 "Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.

23 "For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and bound by iniquity."

24 Then Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you have spoken may come upon me."

25 So when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

Christ Is Preached to an Ethiopian

26 Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south along the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert.

27 So he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."

30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;

And as a lamb before its shearer is silent,

So He opened not His mouth.

33 In His humiliation His justice was taken away,
And who will declare His generation?
For His life is taken from the earth."

34 So the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or of some other man?"

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him.

36 Now as they went down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "See, here is water. What hinders me from being baptized?"

37 Then Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may."

^bbad things

And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."

38 So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him.

39 Now when they came up out of the water, "the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to Caesarea.

The Damascus Road: Saul Converted

9 Then Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven.

4 Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

5 And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" Then the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against the goads."

6 So he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what do You want me to do?" Then the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one.

8 Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

11 So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying.

12 And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he might receive his sight."

13 Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem.

14 "And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your name."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for ^ahe is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before ^bGentiles, ^ckings, and the ^dchildren of Israel.

16 "For ^aI will show him how many things he must suffer for My ^bname's sake."

17 ^aAnd Ananias went his way and entered the house; and ^blaying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord ^lJesus, who appeared to you on the road as you came, has sent me that you may receive your sight and ^cbe filled with the Holy Spirit."

18 Immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received his sight at once; and he arose and was baptized.

19 So when he had received food, he was strengthened. ^aThen Saul spent some days with the disciples at Damascus.

Saul Preaches Christ

20 Immediately he preached ^lthe Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

21 Then all who heard were amazed, and said, "^aIs this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and has come here for that purpose, so that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?"

22 But Saul increased all the more in strength, ^aand confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

Saul Escapes Death

23 Now after many days were past, ^athe Jews plotted to kill him.

24 ^aBut their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night, to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night and ^alet him down through the wall in a large basket.

Saul at Jerusalem

26 And ^awhen Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple.

27 ^aBut Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, ^band how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 So ^ahe was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out.

29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the ^aHellenists, ^bbut they attempted to kill him.

32 Now it came to pass, as Peter went ^athrough all ^bparts of the country, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda.

33 There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years and was paralyzed.

35 So all who dwelt at Lydda and Sharon saw him and ^bturned to the Lord.

Dorcas Restored to Life

36 At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full ^aof good works and charitable deeds which she did.

37 But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid ^bher in ^can upper room.

38 And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring ^bhim not to delay in coming to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought ^bhim to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them.

40 But Peter ^aput them all out, and ^bknelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he ^csaid, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up.

41 Then he gave her ^bhis hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, ^aand many believed on the Lord.

43 So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with Simon, a tanner.

Cornelius Sends a Delegation

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian ^bRegiment,

2 ^aa devout man and one who ^bf feared God with all his household, who gave ^calms generously to the people, and prayed to God always. 3 About ^{the} ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

4 And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, lord?" So he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God.

5 Now ^asend men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter.

6 "He is lodging with ^aSimon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea; ^bHe^l will tell you what you must do."

7 And when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually.

8 So when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

9 The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, ^aPeter went up on the housetop to pray, about ^{the} sixth hour.

10 Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance.

11 and ^asaw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth.

12 In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air.

13 And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat."

14 But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common or unclean."

15 And a voice spoke to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed you must not call common."

16 This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again.

Summoned to Caesarea

17 Now while Peter ¹wondered within himself what this vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate.

18 And they called and asked whether Simon, whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.

19 While Peter thought about the vision, ^athe Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you.

20 ^a"Arise therefore, go down and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

21 Then Peter went down to the men ¹who had been sent to him from Cornelius, and said, "Yes, I am he whom you seek. For what reason have you come?"

22 And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man, one who fears God and ^ahas a good reputation among all the nation of the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you."

23 Then he invited them in and lodged them. On the next day Peter went away with them, ^aand some brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Meets Cornelius

24 And the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends.

25 As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

26 But Peter lifted him up, saying, "^aStand up; I myself am also a man."

27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together.

28 Then he said to them, "You know how ^aunlawful it is for a Jewish man to keep company with or go to one of another nation. But ^bGod has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 "Therefore I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. I ask, then, for what reason have you sent for me?"

30 So Cornelius said, "¹Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, ^aa man stood before me ^bin bright clothing,

31 ^aand said, 'Cornelius, ^ayour prayer has been heard, and ^byour ¹psalms are remembered in the sight of God.'

32 'Send therefore to Joppa and call Simon here, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea. ¹When he comes, he will speak to you.'

33 "So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God."

Preaching to Cornelius' Household

34 Then Peter opened his mouth and said: "^aIn truth I perceive that God shows no partiality.

35 "But ^ain every nation whoever fears Him and works righteousness is ^baccepted by Him.

36 "The word which God sent to the ¹children of Israel, ^apreaching peace through Jesus Christ—^bHe is Lord of all—

37 "that word you know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, and ^abegan from Galilee after the baptism which John preached:

38 "how "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who ^bwent about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, ^cfor God was with Him.

39 "And we are ^awitnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom ^bthey ^ckilled by hanging on a tree.

40 "Him ^aGod raised up on the third day, and showed Him openly, 41 "^anot to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us ^bwho ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead.

42 "And ^aHe commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify ^bthat it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge ^cof the living and the dead.

43 "^aTo Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, ^bwhoever believes in Him will receive ^cremission¹ of sins."

The Holy Spirit Falls on the Gentiles

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, ^athe Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word. 45 ^aAnd ^bthose of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, ^bbecause the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God. Then Peter answered,

47 "Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit ^ajust as we ^bhave?"

48 ^aAnd he commanded them to be baptized ^bin the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter Defends God's Grace

11 Now the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, ^athose of the circumcision contended with him,

3 saying, "^aYou went in to uncircumcised men ^band ate with them!"

4 But Peter explained it to them ^ain order from the beginning, saying:

5 "^aI was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object descending like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me.

6 "When I observed it intently and considered, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air.

11 "At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea.

12 "Then ^athe Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover ^bthese six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.

13 "^aAnd he told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter,

14 '^awho will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.'

15 "And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, ^aas upon us at the beginning.

16 "Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, '^aJohn indeed baptized with water, but ^byou shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

17 "^aIf therefore God gave them the same gift as ^bHe gave us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, ^cwho was I that I could withstand God?"

18 When they heard these things they became silent; and they glorified God, saying, "^aThen God has also granted to the Gentiles repenance to life."

Barnabas and Saul at Antioch

19 Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only.

20 But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to ^athe Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And ^athe hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and ^bturned to the Lord.

22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out ^aBarnabas to go as far as Antioch.

23 When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and ^aencouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, ^afull of the Holy Spirit and of faith. ^bAnd a great many people were added to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas departed for ^aTarsus to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Relief to Judea

27 And in these days ^aprophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.
28 Then one of them, named ^aAgabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of ^bClaudius Caesar.

29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send ^arelief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

30 "This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Herod's Violence to the Church

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the church.

2 Then he killed James ^athe brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during ^athe Days of Unleavened Bread.

4 So ^awhen he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four ^asquads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

Peter Freed from Prison

5 Peter was therefore kept in prison, but ^bconstant prayer was offered to God for him by the church.
6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were ^bkeeping the prison.

7 Now behold, ^aan angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And his chains fell off his hands.

8 Then the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him, "Put on your garment and follow me."

9 So he went out and followed him, and ^adid not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought ^bhe was seeing a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, ^awhich opened to them of its own accord; and they went out and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

1 ^aActs 14:26

11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that ^athe Lord has sent His angel, and ^bhas delivered me from the hand of Herod and ^cfrom all the expectation of the Jewish people."

12 So, when he had considered this, ^ahe came to the house of Mary, the mother of ^bJohn whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together ^cpraying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhoda came to answer.

14 When she recognized Peter's voice, because of ^aher gladness she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter stood before the gate.

15 But they said to her, "You are beside yourself!" Yet she kept insisting that it was so. So they said, "^aIt is his angel."

16 Now Peter continued knocking; and when they opened ^athe door and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But ^amotioning to them with his hand to keep silent, he declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

18 Then, as soon as it was day, there was no small ^astir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter.

19 But when Herod had searched for him and not found him, he examined the guards and commanded that ^athey should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed ^athere.

Herod's Violent Death

20 Now Herod had been very angry with the people of ^aTyre and Sidon; but they came to him with one accord, and having made Blastus ^bthe king's personal aide their friend, they asked for peace, because ^btheir country was ^asupplied with food by the king's country.

21 So on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave an oration to them.

22 And the people kept shouting, "^aThe voice of a god and not of a man!"

23 Then immediately an angel of the Lord ^astruck him, because ^bhe did not give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and ^adied.

24 But ^athe word of God grew and multiplied.

Barnabas and Saul Appointed

25 And ^aBarnabas and Saul returned ^bfrom Jerusalem when they had ^afulfilled ^btheir ministry, and they also ^ctook with them ^dJohn whose surname was Mark.

13 Now ^ain the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: ^bBarnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, ^cLucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work ^bto which I have called them."

3 Then, ^ahaving fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

Preaching in Cyprus

4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there sailed to ^aCyprus.

5 And when they arrived in Salamis, ^athey preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had ^bJohn as their assistant.

6 Now when they had gone through ^bthe island to Paphos, they found ^aa certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus,

7 who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man called for Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God.

8 But ^aElymas the sorcerer (for so his name is translated) ^bwithstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

9 Then Saul, who also is called Paul, ^afilled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him

10 and said, "O full of all deceit and all fraud, ^ayou son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord?

11 "And now, indeed, ^athe hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time." And immediately a dark mist fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had been done, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

At Antioch in Pisidia

13 Now when Paul and his party set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and ^aJohn, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and ^awent into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down.

15 And ^aafter the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men and brethren, if you have ^bany word of ^bexhortation for the people, say on."

ACTS 13:33

16 Then Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and ^ayou who fear God, listen: 17 "The God of this people ^bIsrael chose our fathers, and exalted the people ^bwhen they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with ^can uplifted arm He ^bbrought them out of it.

18 "Now ^afor a time of about forty years He put up with their ways in the wilderness.

19 "And when He had destroyed ^aseven nations in the land of Canaan, ^bHe distributed their land to them by allotment.

20 "After that ^aHe gave them judges for about four hundred and fifty years, ^buntil Samuel the prophet.

21 ^a"And afterward they asked for a king; so God gave them ^bSaul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

22 "And ^awhen He had removed him, ^bHe raised up for them David as king, to whom also He gave testimony and said, ^c'I have found David the son of Jesse, ^da man after My own heart, who will do all My will.'

23 ^a"From this man's seed, according ^bto the promise, God raised up for Israel ^ca Savior—Jesus—

24 ^a"after John had first preached, before His coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 "And as John was finishing his course, he said, ^a"Who do you think I am? I am not He. But behold, ^bthere comes One after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to loose."

26 "Men and brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and ^athose among you who fear God, ^bto you the ^cword of this salvation has been sent.

27 "For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, ^abecause they did not know Him, nor even the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled them in condemning Him.

28 ^a"And though they found no cause for death in Him, they asked Pilate that He should be put to death.

29 ^a"Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, ^bthey took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb.

30 ^a"But God raised Him from the dead.

31 ^a"He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people.

32 "And we declare to you glad tidings—that promise which was made to the fathers.

33 "God has fulfilled this for us their children, in that He has raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm:

*"You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You."*

34 "And that He raised Him from the dead, no more to return to ¹corruption, He has spoken thus:

"I will give you the sure ²mercies of David."

35 "Therefore He also says in another Psalm:

Blessing and Conflict at Antioch

42 ¹So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, ^apersuaded them to continue in ^bthe grace of God.

44 On the next Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy; and contradicting and blaspheming, they ^aopposed the things spoken by Paul.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, ^a"It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but ^bsince you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, ^cwe turn to the Gentiles.

47 "For so the Lord has commanded us:

48 Now when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. ^aAnd as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, ^araised up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.

51 ^aBut they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and came to Iconium.

52 And the disciples ^awere filled with joy and ^bwith the Holy Spirit.

At Iconium

14 Now it happened in Iconium that they went together to the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of the Jews and of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and ^apoisoned their ^bminds against the brethren.

3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, ^awho was bearing witness to the word of His grace, granting signs and ^bwonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: part sided with the Jews, and part with the ^aapostles.

5 And when a violent attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, ^ato abuse and stone them,

6 they became aware of it and ^afled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycania, and to the surrounding region.

7 And they were preaching the gospel there.

Idolatry at Lystra

8 ^aAnd in Lystra a certain man without strength in his feet was sitting, a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

9 This man heard Paul speaking, Paul, observing him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed, 10 said with a loud voice, ^a"Stand up straight on your feet!" And he leaped and walked.

11 Now when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycanian language, ^a"The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12 And Barnabas they called ¹Zeus, and Paul, ²Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, ^aintending to sacrifice with the multitudes.

14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, ^athey tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out

15 and saying, "Men, ^awhy are you doing these things? ^bWe also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from ^cthese useless things ^dto the living God, ^ewho made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, 16 ^a"who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 ^a"Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, ^bgave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with ^cfood and gladness."

18 And with these sayings they could scarcely restrain the multitudes from sacrificing to them.

Stoning, Escape to Derbe

19 ^aThen Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, ^bthey stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be ^cdead.

20 However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Strengthening the Converts

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city ^aand made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, ^aexhorting them to continue in the faith, and ^bsaying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."

23 So when they had appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commanded them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

24 And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed.

27 Now when they had come and gathered the church together, ^athey reported all that God had done with them, and that He had ^bopened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

28 So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

brethren, ^b"Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

2 Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that ^aPaul and Barnabas and certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and elders, about this question.

3 So, ^abeing sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, ^bdescribing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren.

4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders; and they reported all things that God had done with them.

5 But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

The Jerusalem Council

6 Now the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: ^a"Men and brethren, you know that a good while ago God chose among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe.

8 "So God, ^awho knows the heart, ^backnowledged them by ^cgiving them the Holy Spirit, just as ^dHe did to us, 9 ^aand made no distinction between us and them, ^bpurifying their hearts by faith.

10 "Now therefore, why do you test God ^bby putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 "But ^awe believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved in the same manner as they."

12 Then all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring how many miracles and wonders God had ^aworked through them among the Gentiles.

13 And after they had become silent, James answered, saying, "Men and brethren, listen to me:

14 ^aSimon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for His name.

15 "And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written:

I will rebuild its ruins,
And I will set it up;*

The Jerusalem Decree

22 Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas who was also named Barsabas,¹ and Silas, leading men among the brethren.

23 They wrote this letter by them:

The apostles, the elders, and the brethren,

To the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

- 24 Since we have heard that ^asome who went out from us have troubled you with words, ^bunsettling your souls, ^csaying, "You must be circumcised and keep the law"—to whom we gave no such commandment—
- 25 it seemed good to us, being assembled with one ^daccord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

- 27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things by word of mouth.

Continuing Ministry in Syria

- 30 So when they were sent off, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter.

31 When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement.

32 Now Judas and Silas, themselves being ^cprophets also, ^bexhorting and strengthened the brethren with many words.

33 And after they had stayed ^dthere for a time, they were ^esent back with greetings from the brethren to ^fthe apostles.

34 ^gHowever, it seemed good to Silas to remain there.

35 ^hPaul and Barnabas also remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Division over John Mark

36 Then after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, ⁱand see how they are doing."

37 Now Barnabas ^jwas determined to take with them ^kJohn called Mark.

38 But Paul insisted that they should not take with them ^lthe one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work.

39 Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to ^mCyprus;

40 but Paul chose Silas and departed, ⁿbeing ^ocommanded by the brethren to the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, ^pstrengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Then he came to ^qDerbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, ^rnamed Timothy, ^sthe son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek.

2 He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he ^ttook him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the ^udecrees to keep, ^vwhich were determined by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem.

5 ^wSo the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

The Macedonian Call

6 Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of ^xGalatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in ^yAsia.

7 After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit did not permit them.

8 So passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

10 Now after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia Baptized at Philippi

11 Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day came to Neapolis,

12 and from there to Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days.

13 And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there.

14 Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God. The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul.

15 And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." So she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

16 Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune-telling.

17 This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation."

18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.

20 And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, exceedingly trouble our city;

21 and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe."

22 Then the multitude rose up to-

23 And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely.

24 Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

The Philippian Jailer Saved

25 But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself.

28 But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here."

29 Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.

30 And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31 So they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."

32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized.

34 Now when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

Paul Refuses to Depart Secretly

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, "Let those men go."

36 So the keeper of the prison reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us openly, uncondemned Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and get us out."

38 And the officers told these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans.

39 Then they came and pleaded with them and brought them out, and ^aasked them to depart from the city.

40 So they went out of the prison ^aand entered the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

Preaching Christ at Thessalonica

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to ^aThessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 Then Paul, as his custom was, ^awent in to them, and for three Sabbaths ^breasoned with them from the Scriptures,

3 explaining and demonstrating ^athat the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ."

4 ^aAnd some of them were persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Paul and ^bSilas.

Assault on Jason's House

5 But the Jews ¹who were not persuaded, ²becoming ^aenvious, took some of the evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and attacked the house of ^bJason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, "^aThese who have turned the world upside down have come here too.

7 "Jason has ¹harbored them, and these are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, ^{"saying} there is another king—Jesus."

8 And they troubled the crowd and the rulers of the city when they heard these things.

9 So when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Ministering at Berea

10 Then ^athe brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more ¹fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and ^asearched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, prominent women as well as men.

13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the crowds.

14 ^aThen immediately the brethren sent Paul away, to go to the sea; but both Silas and Timothy remained there.

15 So those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and ^areceiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

The Philosophers at Athens

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, ^ahis spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the city was ^bgiven over to idols.

17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there.

18 ^aThen certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this ^bbabble want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them Jesus and the resurrection.

19 And they took him and brought him to the ^aAreopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak?"

20 "For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean."

21 For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Addressing the Areopagus

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the ^aAreopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious;

23 "for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore, the One whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you:

24 "^aGod, who made the world and everything in it, since He is ^bLord of heaven and earth, ^cdoes not dwell in temples made with hands.

25 "Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He ^agives to all life, breath, and all things.

26 "And He has made from one ^bblood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and ^cthe boundaries of their dwellings,

27 "^aso that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, ^bthough He is not far from each one of us;

28 "for ^ain Him we live and move and have our being, ^bas also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.'

29 "Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, ^awe ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising.

30 "Truly, ^athese times of ignorance God overlooked, but ^bnow commands all men everywhere to repent.

31 "because He has appointed a day on which "He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by ^braising Him from the dead."

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter."

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Ministering at Corinth

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth.

2 And he found a certain Jew named ^aAquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them.

3 So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them ^aand worked; for by occupation they were tentmakers.

4 "And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

5 "When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was ^bcompelled ¹by the Spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ.

6 But ^awhen they opposed him and blasphemed, ^bhe shook his garments and said to them, "^cYour blood be upon your own heads; ^dI am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

7 And he departed from there and entered the house of a certain man named ¹Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

8 "Then Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household. And many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were baptized.

9 Now ^athe Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent;

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 When Gallio was proconsul of Achaea, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat,

13 saying, "This fellow persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

14 And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked crimes, O Jews, there would be reason why I should bear with you.

15 "But if it is a "question of words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of such matters."

16 And he drove them from the judgment seat.

17 Then ^{1all} the Greeks took ^aSosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat ^bhim before the judgment seat. But Gallio took no notice of these things.

Paul Returns to Antioch

18 So Paul still remained ¹a good while. Then he took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him. ^aHe had ^bhis hair cut off at ^cCenchrea, for he had taken a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they asked ^bhim to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21 but took leave of them, saying, "^aI must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem; but I will return again to you, ^bGod willing." And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at ^aCæsarea, and ^bwent up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 After he had spent some time there, he departed and went over the region of ^aGalatia and Phrygia ^bin order, ^cstrengthening all the disciples.

Ministry of Apollos

24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being ^afervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, ^bthough he knew only the baptism of John.

26 So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27 And when he desired to cross to Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; and when he arrived, ^ahe greatly helped those who had believed through grace; 28 for he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, ^ashowing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus

19 And it happened, while ^aApollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through ^bthe upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples 2 he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" So they said to him, "^aWe have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit."

3 And he said to them, "Into what then were you baptized?" So they said, "^aInto John's baptism."

4 Then Paul said, "^aJohn indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus."

5 When they heard this, they were baptized ^ain the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ^alaid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and ^bthey spoke with tongues and prophesied.

7 Now the men were about twelve in all.

8 ^aAnd he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading ^bconcerning the things of the kingdom of God.

9 But ^awhen some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil ^bof the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and withdrew the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.

10 And ^athis continued for two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

Miracles Glorify Christ

11 Now ^aGod worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 ^{"so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.}

13 ^{"Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists ^btook it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, '^aWe ^bexorcise you by the Jesus whom Paul ^apreaches.'}

14 Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"

16 Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, ^aover-powered them, and prevailed against ^bthem, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 This became known both to all Jews and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and ^afear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many who had believed came ^aconfessing and telling their deeds.

19 Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned ^bthem in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and ^ait totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 ^{"So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.}

The Riot at Ephesus

21 ^aWhen these things were accomplished, Paul ^bpurposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through ^cMacedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, ^aI must also see Rome."

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, ^aTimothy and ^bEraslus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

23 And ^aabout that time there arose a great commotion about ^bthe Way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Diana, brought ^ano small profit to the craftsmen.

25 He called them together with the workers of similar occupation, and said: "Men, you know that we have our prosperity by this trade.

26 "Moreover you see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but throughout almost all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that ^athey are not gods which are made with hands.

27 "So not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and ^aher magnificence destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worship."

28 Now when they heard this, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

29 So the whole city was filled with confusion, and rushed into the theater with one accord, having seized ^aGaius and ^bAristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's travel companions.

30 And when Paul wanted to go in to the people, the disciples would not allow him.

31 Then some of the ^aofficials of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him pleading that he would not venture into the theater.

32 Some therefore cried one thing and some another, for the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And ^aAlexander ^bmotioned with his hand, and wanted to make his defense to the people.

34 But when they found out that he was a Jew, all with one voice cried out for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

35 And when the city clerk had quieted the crowd, he said: "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple guardian of the great goddess ¹Diana, and of the image which fell down from ²Zeus?"

36 "Therefore, since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly."

37 "For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess."

38 "Therefore, if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a ¹case against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another."

39 "But if you have any other inquiry to make, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly."

40 "For we are in danger of being ¹called in question for today's uproar, there being no reason which we may give to account for this disorderly gathering."

41 And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Journeys in Greece

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to himself, embraced them, and departed to go to Macedonia.

2 Now when he had gone over that region and encouraged them with many words, he came to ^aGreece and stayed three months. And when the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.

4 And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia—also ^aAristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and ^bGaius of Derbe, and ^cTimothy, and ^dTychicus and ^eTrophimus of Asia.

5 These men, going ahead, waited for us at ^aTroas.

6 But we sailed away from Philippi after ^athe Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them ^bat Troas, where we stayed seven days.

and continued his message until midnight.

8 There were many lamps ^ain the upper room where ^bthey were gathered together.

9 And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead.

10 But Paul went down, ^afell on him, and embracing ^bhim said, ^b"Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him."

11 Now when he had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and they were not a little comforted.

From Troas to Miletus

13 Then we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul on board; for so he had ^bgiven orders, intending himself to go on foot.

14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.

15 We sailed from there, and the next day came opposite Chios. The following day we arrived at Samos and stayed at Troyllium. The next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for ^ahe was hurrying ^bto be at Jerusalem, if possible, on ^cthe Day of Pentecost.

The Ephesian Elders Exhort ed

17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, ^afrom the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you,

19 "serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me ^bby the plotting of the Jews;

20 "how ^aI kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, 21 ^a"testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, ^brepentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 "And see, now ^aI go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, 23 "except that ^athe Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me.

24 ¹"But ^anone of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself, ^bso that I may finish my ²race with joy, and the ministry ^awhich I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

25 "And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.

26 "Therefore I testify to you this day that I am ^ainnocent^b of the blood of all men.

27 "For I have not ^ashunned to declare to you ^athe whole counsel of God.

28 "^aTherefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit ^bhas made you overseers, to shepherd the church ^aof God ^bwhich He purchased ^awith His own blood.

29 "For I know this, that after my departure ^asavage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 "Also ^afrom among yourselves men will rise up, speaking ^bperverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves.

31 "Therefore watch, and remember that ^afor three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

32 "So now, brethren, I commend you to God and ^ato the word of His grace, which is able ^bto build you up and give you ^aan inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

33 "I have covetous no one's silver or gold or apparel.

34 "^aYes, you yourselves know that these hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me.

35 "I have shown you in every way, ^aby laboring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36 And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

37 Then they all ^aweped ^bfreely, and ^bfell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Warnings on the Journey to Jerusalem

21 Now it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

there seven days. ^aThey told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem.

5 When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And ^awe knelt down on the shore and prayed.

6 When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned ^ahome.

7 And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day.

8 On the next day we ^awho were Paul's companions departed and came to ^aCaesarea, and entered the house of Philip ^bthe evangelist, ^cwho was ^done of the seven, and stayed with him.

9 Now this man had four virgin daughters ^awho prophesied.

10 And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named ^aAgabus came down from Judea.

11 When he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, ^aSo shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver ^bhim into the hands of the Gentiles."

12 Now when we heard these things, both we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, "^aWhat do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

14 So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "^aThe will of the Lord be done."

Paul Urged to Make Peace

15 And after those days we ^apacked and went up to Jerusalem.

16 Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.

17 ^aAnd when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 On the following day Paul went in with us to ^aJames, and all the elders were present.

19 When he had greeted them, ^ahe told in detail those things which God had done among the Gentiles ^bthrough his ministry.

20 And when they heard ^ait, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all ^bzealous for the law;

21 ^abut they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs.

22 ¹“What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.

23 “Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have taken a vow.

24 “Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and that all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law.

25 “But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and decided ¹that they should observe no such thing, except^a that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from ²sexual immorality.”

Arrested in the Temple

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, ^aentered the temple ^{bto} announce the ¹expiration of the days of purification, at which time an offering should be made for each one of them.

27 Now when the seven days were almost ended, ^athe Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and ^blaid hands on him,

28 crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man ^awho teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place.”

29 (For they had ¹previously seen ^aTrophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And ^aall the city was disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut.

31 Now as they were ^aseeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the ¹garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 ^aHe immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33 Then the ^acommander came near and took him, and ^bcommanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done.

34 And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another. So when he could not ascertain the truth because of the tumult, he com-

35 When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, “Away with him!”

Addressing the Jerusalem Mob

37 Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, “May I speak to you?” He replied, “Can you speak Greek?”

38 ^a“Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?”

39 But Paul said, ^a“I am a Jew from Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people.”

40 So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the ^bHebrew language, saying,

22 ^aBrethren^a and fathers, hear my defense before you now.”

2 And when they heard that he spoke to them in the ^aHebrew language, they kept all the more silent. Then he said:

3 ^aI am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city ^bat the feet of ^cGamaliel, taught according to the strictness of our fathers' law, and ^dwas zealous toward God ^eas you all are today.

4 ^aI persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women,

5 ^aas also the high priest bears me witness, and ^ball the council of the elders, ^cfrom whom I also received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus ^dto bring in chains even those who were there to Jerusalem to be punished.

6 Now it happened, as I journeyed and came near Damascus at about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me.

7 And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

8 So I answered, “Who are You, Lord?” And He said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.

9 And those who were with me indeed saw the light ^aand were afraid, but they did not hear the voice of Him who spoke to me.

10 So I said, “What shall I do, Lord?” And the Lord said to me, Arise and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all things which are appointed for you to do.

11 And since I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 "Then ^aa certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, ^bhaving a good testimony with all the Jews who dwelt there, 13 "came to me; and he stood and said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And at that same hour I looked up at him.

14 "Then he said, "The God of our fathers ^bhas chosen you that you should ^cknow His will, and ^dsee the Just One, ^eand hear the voice of His mouth.

15 "^aFor you will be His witness to all men of ^bwhat you have seen and heard.

16 'And now why are you waiting? Arise and be baptized, ^cand wash away your sins, ^bcalling on the name of the Lord.'

17 "Now ^ait happened, when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I was in a trance

18 "and ^asaw Him saying to me, ^b*'Make haste and get out of Jerusalem quickly, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.'*

19 "So I said, 'Lord, ^athey know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and ^bbeat those who believe on You.'

20 "^aAnd when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by ^bconsenting to his death, and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.'

21 "Then He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles.'"

Paul's Roman Citizenship

22 And they listened to him until this word, and then they raised their voices and said, "^aAway with such a fellow from the earth, for ^bhe is not fit to live!"

23 Then, as they cried out and ^atore off their clothes and threw dust into the air,

24 the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, and said that he should be examined under scourging, so that he might know why they shouted so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, "^aIs it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?"

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, "Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman."

27 Then the commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes."

28 The commander answered, "With a large sum I obtained this citizenship." And Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

29 Then immediately those who were about to examine him withdrew from him; and the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

The Sanhedrin Divided

30 The next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 Then Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, "Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day."

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the law, and ^ado you command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

4 And those who stood by said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5 Then Paul said, "^aI did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, ^b*'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'*"

6 But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7 And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

8 ^aFor Sadducees say that there is no resurrection—and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 Then there arose a loud outcry. And the scribes of the Pharisees' party arose and protested, saying, "^aWe find no evil in this man; ^bbut ^cif a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, ^dlet us not fight against God."

10 Now when there arose a great dissension, the commander, fearing lest Paul might be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

The Plot Against Paul

11 But ^athe following night the Lord stood by him and said, "^b*'Be of good cheer, Paul; for as you have testified for Me in ^cJerusalem, so you must also bear witness at ^dRome.'*"

12 And when it was day, ^asome of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had ^bkilled Paul.

- 13 Now there were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy.
- 14 They came to the chief priests and ^aelders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul.
- 15 "Now you, therefore, together with the council, suggest to the commander that he be brought down to you ^btomorrow, as though you were going to make further inquiries concerning him; but we are ready to kill him before he comes near."
- 16 So when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.
- 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him."
- 18 So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, "Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you."
- 19 Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside, and asked privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"
- 20 And he said, "^aThe Jews have agreed to ask that you bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more fully about him.
- 21 "But do not yield to them, for more than forty of them lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you."
- 22 So the commander let the young man depart, and commanded him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me."
- Sent to Felix*
- 23 And he called for two centurions, saying, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to ^aCaesarea at the third hour of the night;
- 24 "and provide mounts to set Paul on, and bring him safely to Felix the governor."
- 25 He wrote a letter in the following manner:
- 26 Cladius Lysias,
- To the most excellent governor Felix:
- Greetings.
- 27 ^aThis man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.

- 29 I found out that he was accused ^aconcerning questions of their law, ^bbut had nothing charged against him deserving of death or chains.
- 30 And ^awhen it was told me that ^bthe Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him immediately to you, and ^balso commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him. Farewell.
- 31 Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.
- 32 The next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks.
- 33 When they came to ^aCaesarea and had delivered the ^bletter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.
- 34 And when the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from ^aCilicia,
- 35 he said, "^aI will hear you when your accusers also have come." And he commanded him to be kept in ^bHerod's ^cPraetorium.
- Accused of Sedition*
- 24 Now after ^afive days ^bAnanias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.
- 2 And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: "Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and ^bprosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight,
- 3 "we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.
- 4 "Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your ^ccourtesy, a few words from us.
- 5 ^a"For we have found this man a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.
- 6 ^a"He even tried to profane the temple, and we seized him, ^band wanted ^cto judge him according to our law.
- 7 ^a"But the commander Lysias came by and with great violence took him out of our hands.
- 8 ^a"commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."
- 9 And the Jews also ^bassented, maintaining that these things were so.

The Defense Before Felix

10 Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, 11 "because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

12 "And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city.

13 "Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.

14 "But this I confess to you, that according to ^athe Way which they call a sect, so I worship the ^bGod of my fathers, believing all things which are written in ^cthe Law and in the Prophets.

15 "^aI have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, ^bthat there will be a resurrection ^cof the dead, both of the just and the unjust.

16 "^aThis being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offense toward God and men.

17 "Now after many years ^aI came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, 18 "^ain the midst of which some Jews from Asia found me ^bpurified in the temple, neither with a mob nor with tumult.

19 "^aThey ought to have been here before you to object if they had anything against me.

20 "Or else let those who are here themselves say ^aif they found any wrongdoing in me while I stood before the council.

21 "unless it is for this one statement which I cried out, standing among them, "^aConcerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day."

Felix Procrastinates

22 But when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the ^aWay, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When ^bLysias the commander comes down, I will make a decision on your case."

23 So he commanded the centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and ^atold him not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or visit him.

24 And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the ^afaith in Christ.

25 Now as he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, "Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you."

26 Meanwhile he also hoped that ^amoney would be given him by Paul, ^bthat he might release him. Therefore he sent for him more often and conversed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix; and Felix, ^cwanting to do the Jews a favor, left Paul bound.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25 Now when Festus had come to the province, after three days he went up from ^aCaesarea to Jerusalem.

2 ^aThen the ^bhigh priest and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they petitioned him,

3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—^awhile they lay in ambush along the road to kill him.

4 But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was going there shortly.

5 "Therefore," he said, "let those who have authority among you go down with me and accuse this man, to see ^aif there is any fault in him."

6 And when he had remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought.

7 When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood about ^aand laid many serious complaints against Paul, which they could not prove,

8 while he answered for himself, "^aNeither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything at all."

9 But Festus, ^cwanting to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, ^b"Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and there be judged before me concerning these things?"

10 So Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know.

11 "^aFor if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. ^bI appeal to Caesar."

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!"

Paul Before Agrippa

13 And after some days King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus.

14 When they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying: ^a"There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix, 15 ^aabout whom the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, when I was in Jerusalem, asking for a judgment against him.

 16 ^aTo them I answered, 'It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver any man ^bto destruction before the accused meets the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the charge against him.'

17 "Therefore when they had come together, ^awithout any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in.

18 "When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such things as I ^bsuspected,
 19 ^abut had some questions against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 "And because I was uncertain of such questions, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.

21 "But when Paul ^aappealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I could send him to Caesar."

22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

23 So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great ^bpomp, and had entered the auditorium with the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at Festus' command ^aPaul was brought in.

24 And Festus said: "King Agrippa and all the men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom ^athe whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he was ^bnot fit to live any longer.

25 "But when I found that ^ahe had committed nothing deserving of death, ^band that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him.

26 "I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I may have something to write.

27 "For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him."

Paul's Early Life

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." So Paul stretched out his hand and answered for himself:

Agrippa, because today I shall answer ^bfor myself before you concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews,

3 "especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which have to do with the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 "My manner of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know.

5 "They knew me from the first, if they were willing to testify, that according to ^athe strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 ^aAnd now I stand and am judged for the hope of ^bthe promise made by God to our fathers.

7 "To this promise ^aour twelve tribes, earnestly serving God ^bnight and day, ^chope to attain. For this hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.

8 "Why should it be thought incredible by you that God raises the dead?

9 ^aIndeed, I myself thought I must do many things ^bcontrary to the name of ^cJesus of Nazareth.

10 ^aThis I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority ^bfrom the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against ^cthem.

11 ^aAnd I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled ^bthem to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted ^cthem even to foreign cities.

Paul Recounts His Conversion

12 ^aWhile thus occupied, as I journeyed to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 "at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me.

14 "And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 "So I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.'

16 'But rise and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, ^ato make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you.

17 'I will ^bdeliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, ^cto whom I ^dnow send you,

18 ^ato open their eyes, in order ^bto turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, ^cthat they may receive forgiveness of sins and ^dan inheritance among those who are ^esanctified^f by faith in Me.'

Paul's Post-Conversion Life

19 "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 "but ^adeclared first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, turn to God, and do ^bworks befitting repentance.

21 "For these reasons the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.

22 "Therefore, having obtained help from God, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and ^bMoses said would come—

23 ^athat the Christ would suffer, ^bthat He would be the first to rise from the dead, and ^cwould proclaim light to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles."

Agrippa Parries Paul's Challenge

24 Now as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, ^ayou are beside yourself! Much learning is driving you mad!"

25 But he said, "I am not ^bmad, most noble Festus, but speak the words of truth and reason.

26 "For the king, before whom I also speak freely, ^aknows these things; for I am convinced that none of these things escapes his attention, since this thing was not done in a corner.

27 "King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe."

28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to become a Christian."

29 And Paul said, "I would to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these chains."

30 When he had said these things, the king stood up, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them;

31 and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, "This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains."

32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free ^bif he had not appealed to Caesar."

delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of the Augustan Regiment.

2 So, entering a ship of Adramytium, we put to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. ^aAristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us.

3 And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius ^atreated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care.

4 When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, and he put us on board.

7 When we had sailed slowly many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of ^aCrete off Salamone.

8 Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

Paul's Warning Ignored

9 Now when much time had been spent, and sailing was now dangerous ^abecause ^bthe Fast was already over, Paul advised them,

10 saying, "Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives."

11 Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul.

12 And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there.

In the Tempest

13 When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained ^atheir desire, putting out to sea, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after, a tempestuous head wind arose, called ^aEuroclydon.

15 So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her ^bdrive.

16 And running under the shelter of an island called ^aClauda, we secured the skiff with difficulty.

17 When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the ^aSyrtis Sands, they struck sail and so were driven.

18 And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship.

19 On the third day we threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands.

20 Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.

21 But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss."

22 "And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship."

23 "For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve,

24 "saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.'

25 "Therefore take heart, men, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me.

26 "However, we must run aground on a certain island."

27 Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land.

28 And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

29 Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come.

30 And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."

32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

33 And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing."

34 "Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, for this is for your survival, since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you."

35 And when he had said these things, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat.

36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves.

37 And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six persons on the ship.

38 So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

Shipwrecked on Malta

39 When it was day, they did not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible.

40 And they ¹let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore.

41 But striking ¹a place where two seas met, ²they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.

43 But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from ³their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump ⁴overboard first and get to land, 44 and the rest, some on boards and some on ⁵parts of the ship. And so it was ⁶that they all escaped safely to land.

Paul's Ministry on Malta

28 Now when they had escaped, they then found out that ⁷the island was called Malta.

2 And the ⁸natives¹ showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire and made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.

3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid ⁹them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 So when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet justice does not allow to live."

5 But he shook off the creature into the fire and ¹⁰suffered no harm.

6 However, they were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had looked for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and ¹¹said that he was a god.

7 In that region there was an estate of the ¹²leading citizen of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and entertained us courteously for three days.

8 And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and ¹³prayed, and ¹⁴he laid his hands on him and healed him.

9 So when this was done, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed. 10 They also honored us in many ways; and when we departed, they provided such things as were necessary.

Arrival at Rome

11 After three months we sailed in an Alexandrian ship whose figure-head was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island. 12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. 13 From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome. 15 And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage. 16 Now when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

Paul's Ministry at Rome

17 And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them: "Men and brethren, though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet ^bI was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans; 18 who, ^awhen they had examined me, wanted to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death. 19 But when the Jews spoke against it, ^aI was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation. 20 "For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because ^afor the hope of Israel I am bound with ^bthis chain." 21 Then they said to him, "We nei-

23 So when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, ^ato whom he explained and solemnly testified of the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus ^bfrom both the Law of Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And ^asome were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.

25 So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to ^bour fathers,

26 "saying,

*"Go to this people and say:

So that I should heal them."*

28 "Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent ^ato the Gentiles, and they will hear it!"

29 ^aAnd when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had a great dispute among themselves.

30 Then Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came to him, 31 ^apreaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no one forbidding him.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the
ROMANS

ROMANS, Paul's greatest work, is placed first among his thirteen epistles in the New Testament. While the four Gospels present the words and works of Jesus Christ, Romans explores the significance of His sacrificial death. Using a question-and-answer format, Paul records the most systematic presentation of doctrine in the Bible. Romans is more than a book of theology; it is also a book of practical exhortation. The good news of Jesus Christ is more than facts to be believed; it is also a life to be lived—a life of righteousness befitting the person, "justified freely by [God's] grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (3:24).

Although some manuscripts omit "in Rome" in 1:7, 15, the title Pros Romaiois, "To the Romans," has been associated with the epistle almost from the beginning.

3 concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who ¹was ^aborn of the seed of David according to the flesh, 4 ^aand ^bdeclared to be the Son of God with power according ^bto the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.

5 Through Him ^awe have received grace and apostleship for ^bobedience to the faith among all nations ^cfor His name,

The Just Live by Faith

16 For ^aI am not ashamed of the gospel ^bof Christ, for ^bit is the power of God ^ato salvation for everyone who believes, ^afor the Jew first and also for the Greek.

17 For ^ain it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, ^b"The just shall live by faith."

God's Wrath on Unrighteousness

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and ^bunrighteousness of men, who ^asuppress the truth in unrighteousness,

19 because ^awhat may be known of God is ^bmanifest ^ain them, for ^bGod has shown it to them.

20 For since the creation of the world ^aHis invisible ^battributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and ^aGodhead, so that they are without excuse,

21 because, although they knew God, they did not glorify ^aHim as God, nor were thankful, but ^abecame futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

22 ^aProfessing to be wise, they became fools.

23 and changed the glory of the ^aincorruptible ^bGod into an image made like ^acorruptible man—and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.

24 Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, ^bto dishonor their bodies ^aamong themselves,

25 who exchanged ^athe truth of God ^bfor the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26 For this reason God gave them up to ^avile passions. For even their ¹women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature.

27 Likewise also the ¹men, leaving the natural use of the ²woman, burned in their lust for one another, ¹men with ¹men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things ^awhich are not fitting; 29 being filled with all unrighteousness, ¹sexual immorality, wickedness, ²covetousness, ³maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness: they are whisperers, 30 backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 ¹undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, ²unforgiving, unmerciful; 32 who, ^aknowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things ^bare deserving of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore you are ^ainexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, ^bfor in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.

2 But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.

3 And do you think this, O man, you who judge those practicing such things, and doing the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?

4 Or do you despise ^athe riches of His goodness, ^bforbearance, and ^clongsuffering, ^dnot knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?

5 But in accordance with your hardness and your ¹impenitent heart ^ayou are ^btreasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

6 who ^a"will render to each one according to his deeds":

ery soul of man who does evil, of the Jew ^afirst and also of the ¹Greek; 10 ^bbut glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

11 For ^athere is no partiality with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law

13 (for ^anot the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified;

14 for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves,

15 who show the ^awork of the law written in their hearts, their ^bconscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them)

16 ^ain the day when God will judge the secrets of men ^bby Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

The Jews Guilty as the Gentiles

17 Indeed ^ayou are called a Jew, and ^brest² on the law, ^cand make your boast in God,

18 and ^aknow His will, and ^bapprove the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law,

19 and ^aare confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, ^ahaving the form of knowledge and truth in the law.

21 "You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal?

22 You who say, "Do not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, ^ado you rob temples?

23 You who ^amake your boast in the law, do you dishonor God through breaking the law?

24 For ^a"the name of God is ^bblas-phemed among the Gentiles because of you," as it is written.

Circumcision of No Avail

25 ^aFor circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, ^aif an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?

27 And will not the physically uncircumcised, if he fulfills the law, ^ajudge you who, ^beven with your ^cwritten code and circumcision, are a transgressor of the law?

28 For ^ahe is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh;

29 but he is a Jew "who is one inwardly; and ^bcircumcision is that of the heart, ^cin the Spirit, not in the letter; ^dwhose ^epraise is not from men but from God.

God's Judgment Defended

3 What advantage then has the Jew, or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much in every way! Chiefly because ^ato them were committed the ^boracles of God.

3 For what if ^asome did not believe? ^bWill their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect?

4 ^aCertainly not! Indeed, let ^bGod be ^ctrue but ^devery man a liar. As it is written:

*"That You may be justified in Your words,
And may overcome when You are judged."*

5 But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? ^a(I speak as a man.)

6 Certainly not! For then ^ahow will God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God has increased through my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say, "^aLet us do evil that good may come"?—as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say. Their ^bcondemnation is just.

All Have Sinned

9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that ^athey are all under sin.
10 As it is written:

"There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 *There is none who understands;
There is none who seeks after
God.*

12 *They have all turned aside;
They have together become unprofitable;
There is none who does good,

19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that ^bever mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become ^cguilty before God.
20 Therefore ^aby the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

God's Righteousness Through Faith

21 But now ^athe righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, ^bbeing witnessed by the Law and the Prophets,

22 even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all ^band on all who believe. For ^cthere is no difference;

23 for ^aall have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

24 being justified ^bfreely ^cby His grace ^dthrough the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

25 whom God set forth ^aas a ^bpropitiation ^cby His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over ^dthe sins that were previously committed,

26 to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

Boasting Excluded

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude ^athat a man is ^bjustified by faith apart from the deeds of the law.

29 Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also,

30 since ^athere is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say that ^aAbraham our ^bfather^c has found according to the flesh?

2 For if Abraham was ^ajustified by works, he has ^bsomething to boast about, but not before God.

3 For what does the Scripture say? ^a"Abraham believed God, and it was ^baccounted to him for righteousness."

4 Now ^ato him who works, the wages are not counted ^bas grace but ^cas debt.

David Celebrates the Same Truth

5 But to him who ^adoes not work but believes on Him who justifies ^bthe ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness.
 6 just as David also ^adescribes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness apart from works:

- 7 "Blessed^a are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, And whose sins are covered;
 8 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD shall not impute sin."

Abraham Justified Before Circumcision

9 Does this blessedness then come upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How then was it accounted? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised.

11 And ^ahe received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which ^bhe had while still uncircumcised, that ^bhe might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

12 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father ^aAbraham had while still uncircumcised.

The Promise Granted Through Faith

13 For the promise that he would be the ^aheir of the world was not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect, 15 because ^athe law brings about wrath; for where there is no law there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith that it might be ^aaccording to grace, ^bso that the promise might be ^b'sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, ^cwho is the father of us all

17 (as it is written, ^a*"I have made you a father of many nations"*) in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, ^bwho gives life to the dead and calls those ^cthings which do not exist as though they did;

18 who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to 19 And not being weak in faith, ^ahe did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), ^band the deadness of Sarah's womb.

20 He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised ^aHe was also able to perform.

22 And therefore ^a*"it was accounted to him for righteousness."*

23 Now ^ait was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him,

24 but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe ^ain Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 ^awho was delivered up because of our offenses, and ^bwas raised because of our justification.

Faith Triumphs in Trouble

5 Therefore, ^ahaving been justified by faith, ^bwe have ^bpeace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ^athrough whom also we have access by faith into this grace ^bin which we stand, and ^crejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only that, but ^awe also glory in tribulations, ^bknowing that tribulation produces ^bperseverance; ^aand perseverance, ^bcharacter; and character, hope.

5 ^aNow hope does not disappoint, ^bbecause the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

Christ in Our Place

6 For when we were still without strength, ^bin due time ^aChrist died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die.

8 But ^aGod demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, having now been justified ^aby His blood, we shall be saved ^bfrom wrath through Him.

10 For ^aif when we were enemies ^bwe were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved ^aby His life.

11 And not only that, but we also ^brejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

12 Therefore, just as ^athrough one man sin entered the world, and ^bdeath through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned—

13 (For until the law sin was in the world, but “sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam, ^awho is a type of Him who was to come.

15 But the free gift is not like the offense. For if by the one man’s offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded ^bto many.

16 And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned. For the judgment which came from one offense resulted in condemnation, but the free gift which came from many offenses resulted in justification.

17 For if by the one man’s offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore, as through one man’s offense judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through ^aone² Man’s righteous act the free gift came ^bto all men, resulting in justification of life.

19 For as by one man’s disobedience many were made sinners, so also by ^aone Man’s obedience many will be made righteous.

20 Moreover ^athe law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace ^babounded much more,

21 so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?

2 Certainly not! How shall we who ^adied to sin live any longer in it?

3 Or do you not know that ^aas many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus ^bwere baptized into His death?

4 Therefore we were ^aburied with Him through baptism into death, that ^bjust as Christ was raised from the dead by ^cthe glory of the Father, ^deven so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 ^aFor if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin.

7 For ^ahe who has died has been freed from sin.

8 Now ^aif we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,

9 knowing that ^aChrist, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him.

10 For the death that He died, ^aHe died to sin once for all; but ^bthe life that He lives, ^bHe lives to God.

11 Likewise you also, ^areckon yourselves to be ^bdead indeed to sin, but ^balive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

12 ^aTherefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.

13 And do not present your ^amembers as ^binstruments of unrighteousness to sin, but ^bpresent yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as ^binstruments of righteousness to God.

14 For ^asin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

From Slaves of Sin to Slaves of God

15 What then? Shall we sin ^abecause we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not!

16 Do you not know that ^ato whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one’s slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?

17 But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart ^athat form of doctrine to which you were ^bdelivered.

18 And ^ahaving been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness ^bfor holiness.

20 For when you were ^aslaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

21 ^aWhat fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For ^bthe end of those things is death.

22 But now ^ahaving been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit ^bto holiness, and the end, everlasting life.

23 For ^athe wages of sin is death, but ^bthe ^cgift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Freed from the Law

7 Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law ^ahas dominion over a man as long as he lives?

2 For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband.

3 So then ^aif, while her husband lives, she marries another man, she will be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man.

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also have become ^adead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should ^bbear fruit to God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law ^awere at work in our members ^bto bear fruit to death.

6 But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve ^ain the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

Sin's Advantage in the Law

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, ^aI would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, ^b*You shall not covet.*

8 But ^asin, taking opportunity by the commandment, produced in me all manner of evil desire. For ^bapart from the law sin was dead.

9 I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died.

10 And the commandment, ^awhich was to bring life, I found to bring death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me.

12 Therefore ^athe law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

Law Cannot Save from Sin

13 Has then what is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might appear sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, ^asold under sin.

15 For what I am doing, I do not understand. ^aFor what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do.

16 If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good.

17 But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.

18 For I know that ^ain me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find.

19 For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice.

20 Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.

21 I find then a law, that evil is present with me, the one who wills to do good.

22 For I ^adelight in the law of God according to ^bthe inward man.

23 But ^aI see another law in ^bmy members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me ^afrom this body of death?

25 ^aI thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

Free from Indwelling Sin

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, ^awho ^bdo not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

2 For ^athe law of ^bthe Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For ^awhat the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, ^bGod did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh,

4 that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who ^ado not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

5 For ^athose who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who ^blive according to the Spirit, ^bthe things of the Spirit.

6 For ^ato be ^bcarnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because ^athe ^bcarnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, ^bnor indeed can be.

8 So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His.

10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of ^aHim who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, ^bHe who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies ^cthrough His Spirit who dwells in you.

Sonship Through the Spirit

12 ^aTherefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.

13 For ^aif you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you ^bput to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

14 For ^aas many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

15 For ^ayou did not receive the spirit of bondage again ^bto fear, but you received the “Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, ^a“Abba,¹ Father.”

16 ^aThe Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

17 and if children, then ^aheirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, ^bif indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

From Suffering to Glory

18 For I consider that ^athe sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For ^athe earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.

20 For ^athe creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope;

21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of ^ccorruption into the glorious ^aliberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation ^agroans and labors with birth pangs together until now.

23 Not only that, but we also who have ^athe firstfruits of the Spirit, ^beven we ourselves groan ^cwithin ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the ^aredemption of our body.

24 For we were saved in this hope, but ^ahope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees?

25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For ^awe do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but ^bthe Spirit Himself makes intercession ^cfor us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 Now ^aHe who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints ^baccording to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those ^cwho are the called according to His purpose.

29 For whom ^aHe foreknew, ^bHe also predestined ^cto be conformed to the image of His Son, ^dthat He might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom He predestined, these He also ^ccalled; whom He called, these He also ^bjustified; and whom He justified, these He also ^cglorified.

God's Everlasting Love

31 What then shall we say to these things? ^aIf God is for us, who can be against us?

32 ^aHe who did not spare His own Son, but ^bdelivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? ^aIt is God who justifies.

34 ^aWho is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, ^bwho is even at the right hand of God, ^cwho also makes intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written:

*aFor Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.”*

37 ^aYet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor ^cprincipalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come,

39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Israel's Rejection of Christ

9 I ^atell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit,

2 ^athat I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart.

3 For ^aI could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my ^bcountrymen according to the flesh,

4 who are Israelites, ^ato whom pertain the adoption, ^bthe glory, ^cthe covenants, ^dthe giving of the law, ^ethe service of God, and ^fthe promises;

5 ^aof whom are the fathers and from ^bwhom, according to the flesh, Christ came, ^cwho is over all, the eternally blessed God. Amen.

Israel's Rejection and God's Purpose

6 ^aBut it is not that the word of God has taken no effect. For ^bthey are not all Israel who are of Israel, 7 ^cnor are they all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, ^b"In Isaac your seed shall be called."

8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but the children of the promise are counted as the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise: ^a"At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son."

10 And not only this, but when ^aRebecca also had conceived by one man, even by our father Isaac

11 (for the children not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of ^aHim who calls),

12 it was said to her, ^a"The older shall serve the younger."

13 As it is written, ^a"Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."

Israel's Rejection and God's Justice

14 What shall we say then? ^aIs there unrighteousness with God? Certainly not!

15 For He says to Moses, ^a"I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion."

16 So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy.

17 For the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, ^b"For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth."

18 Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He hardens.

19 You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For ^awho has resisted His will?"

20 But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? ^aWill the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?"

21 Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make ^bone vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

22 What if God, wanting to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering ^athe vessels of wrath ^bprepared for destruction,

23 and that He might make known ^athe riches of His glory on the vessels

25 As He says also in Hosea:

^a"I will call them My people, who were not My people, And her beloved, who was not beloved."

26 ^a"And^b it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them,

<sup>'You are not My people,'
There they shall be called sons of the living God."</sup>

27 Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:

^a"Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, ^bThe remnant will be saved.

28 For ^aHe will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness,

^aBecause the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."

29 And as Isaiah said before:

^a"Unless the LORD of ^bSabaoth had left us a seed.

^bWe would have become like Sodom,
And we would have been made like Gomorrah."

Present Condition of Israel

30 What shall we say then? ^aThat Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained to righteousness, ^beven the righteousness of faith;

31 but Israel, ^apursuing the law of righteousness, ^bhas not attained to the law ^cof righteousness.

32 Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were, ^bby the works of the law. For ^athey stumbled at that stumbling stone.

33 As it is written:

^a"Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense,
And ^bwhoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."

Israel Needs the Gospel

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for ^aIsrael is that they may be saved.

2 For I bear them witness ^athat they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of ^aGod's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own ^brighteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God.

4 For ^aChrist is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

5 For Moses writes about the righteousness which is of the law, ^a"The man who does those things shall live by them."

6 But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, ^a"Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' " (that is, to bring Christ down from above)

7 or, ^a"Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

8 But what does it say? ^a"The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach):

9 that ^aif you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

10 For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the Scripture says, ^a"Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."

12 For ^athere is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for ^bthe same Lord over all ^ais rich to all who call upon Him.

13 For ^a"whoever calls ^bon the name of the LORD shall be saved."

Israel Rejects the Gospel

14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear ^awithout a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

^a"How beautiful are the feet of those who ¹preach the gospel of peace,
Who bring glad tidings of good things!"

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, ^a"LORD, who has believed our report?"

17 So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed:

^a"Their sound has gone out to all the earth,
^bAnd their words to the ends of the world."

19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says:

^a"I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation,"

I was made manifest to those who did not ask for Me."*

21 But to Israel he says:

*"All day long I have stretched out My hands
To a disobedient and contrary people."*

Israel's Rejection Not Total

11 I say then, ^ahas God cast away His people? ^bCertainly not! For ^cI also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God has not cast away His people whom ^aHe foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel, saying,

3 ^a"LORD, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life?"

4 But what does the divine response say to him? ^a"I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

5 Even so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And ^aif by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. ^bBut if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

7 What then? ^aIsrael has not obtained what it seeks; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were blinded.

8 Just as it is written:

"God has given them a spirit of stupor,

*^bEyes that they should not see
And ears that they should not hear,
To this very day."*

9 And David says:

*"Let their table become a snare and a trap,
A stumbling block and a recompense to them.*

10 *Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see,
And bow down their back always."*

Israel's Rejection Not Final

11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? Certainly not! But ^athrough their fall, to provoke them to ^bjealousy, salvation has come to the Gentiles.

12 Now if their ¹fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as ^aI am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and ^asave some of them.

15 For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be ^abut life from the dead?

16 For if ^athe firstfruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 And if ^asome of the branches were broken off, ^band you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them became a partaker of the root and ^afatness of the olive tree,

18 ^ado not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, remember that you do not support the root, but the root supports you.

19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off that I might be grafted in."

20 Well said. Because of ^aunbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear.

21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, He may not spare you either.

22 Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, ^agoodness, ^aif you continue in His goodness. Otherwise ^byou also will be cut off.

23 And they also, ^aif they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be ^awise in your own ^bopinion, that ^bblindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.

26 And so all Israel will be ^bsaved, as it is written:

^a"The Deliverer will come out of Zion,
And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;

them,
When I take away their sins."

29 For the gifts and the calling of God are ^airrevocable.

30 For as you ^awere once disobedient to God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, even so these also have now been disobedient, that through the mercy shown you they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God has ^acommitted them all to disobedience, that He might have mercy on all.

33 Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out!

Or ^bwho has become His counselor?"*

Living Sacrifices to God

12 I ^abeseech ^byou therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies ^aas living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your ^breasonable service.

2 And ^ado not be conformed to this world, but ^bbe transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may ^cprove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Serve God with Spiritual Gifts

3 For I say, ^athrough the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, ^bnot to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith.

4 For ^aas we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function,

5 so ^awe, ^bbeing many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is ^agiven to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us ^bprophecy in proportion to our faith;

7 or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; ^ahe who teaches, in teaching;

8 ^ahe who exhorts, in exhortation; ^bhe who gives, with liberality; ^che who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, ^dwith cheerfulness.

Behave Like a Christian

9 ^aLet love be without hypocrisy. ^bAhor what is evil. Cling to what is good.

10 ^aBe kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, ^bin honor giving preference to one another;

11 not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord;

12 ^arejoicing in hope, ^bpatient¹ in tribulation, ^ccontinuing steadfastly in prayer;

13 ^adistributing to the needs of the saints, ^bgiven¹ to hospitality.

14 ^aBless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.

15 ^aRejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

16 ^aBe of the same mind toward one another. ^bDo not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion.

17 ^aRepay no one evil for evil. ^bHave¹ regard for good things in the sight of all men.

18 If it is possible, as much as depends on you, ^alive peaceably with all men.

19 Beloved, ^ado not avenge yourselves, but ^brather give place to wrath; for it is written, ^b"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord.

20 Therefore

*^aIf your enemy is hungry, feed him;
 If he is thirsty, give him a drink;
 For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head."*

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but ^aovercome evil with good.

Submit to Government

13 Let every soul be ^asubject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God.

2 Therefore whoever resists ^athe authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? ^aDo what is good, and you will have praise from the same.

4 For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil.

5 Therefore ^ayou must be subject, not only because of wrath ^bbut also for conscience' sake.

6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are God's ministers attending continually to this very thing.

7 ^aRender therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Love Your Neighbor

8 Owe no one anything except to love one another, for ^ahe who loves another has fulfilled the law.

9 For the commandments, ^a"You shall not commit adultery." "You shall not murder," ^b"You shall not steal," ^c"You shall not bear false witness," ^d"You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely, ^b"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

10 Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore ^alove is the fulfillment of the law.

Put on Christ

11 And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time ^ato awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand. ^aTherefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and ^blet us put on the armor of light.

13 ^aLet us walk ^bproperly, as in the day, ^bnot in revelry and drunkenness, ^cnot in lewdness and lust, ^dnot in strife and envy.

14 But ^aput on the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^bmake no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts.

The Law of Liberty

14 Receive^a one who is weak in the faith, but not to disputes over doubtful things.

2 For one believes he ^amay eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables.

3 Let not him who eats despise him who does not eat, and ^alet not him who does not eat judge him who eats; for God has received him.

4 ^aWho are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

5 ^aOne person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind.

6 He who ^aobserves the day, observes it to the Lord; ^band he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for ^bhe gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks.

7 For ^anone of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself.

8 For if we ^alive, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

ROMANS 14:9

9 For to this end Christ died ¹and rose and lived again, that He might be ^bLord of both the dead and the living.

10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For ^awe shall all stand before the judgment seat of ^bChrist.

11 For it is written:

*a "As I live, says the LORD,
Every knee shall bow to Me,
And every tongue shall confess to God."*

12 So then ^aeach of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Therefore let us not judge one another ¹anymore, but rather resolve this, ^{"not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother's way.}

The Law of Love

14 I know and am convinced by the Lord Jesus ^athat there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 Yet if your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. ^aDo not destroy with your food the one for whom Christ died.

16 ^aTherefore do not let your good be spoken of as evil;

17 ^afor the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and ^bpeace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he who serves Christ in ^{the} things ^ais acceptable to God and approved by men.

19 ^aTherefore let us pursue the things which make for peace and the things by which ^bone may ^aedify another.

20 ^aDo not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. ^bAll things indeed are pure, ^{but it is} evil for the man who eats with ^boffense.

21 It is good neither to eat ^ameat nor drink wine nor do ^aanything by which your brother stumbles ¹or is offended or is made weak.

22 Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. ^aHappy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves.

23 But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat from faith; for ^awhatever is not from faith is ^bsin.

Bearing Others' Burdens

15 We ^athen who are strong ought to bear with the ^bscruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 ^aLet each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to ^bedification.

4 For ^awhatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

5 ^aNow may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus,

6 that you may ^awith one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Glorify God Together

7 Therefore ^areceive one another, just ^bas Christ also received ^aus, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that ^aJesus Christ has become a ^bservant to the circumcision for the truth of God, ^bto confirm the promises made to the fathers,

9 and ^athat the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written:

*b "For this reason I will confess to You among the Gentiles,
And sing to Your name."*

10 And again he says:

a "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!"

11 And again:

*a "Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud Him, all you peoples!"*

12 And again, Isaiah says:

*a "There shall be a root of Jesse;
And He who shall rise to reign over the Gentiles.
In Him the Gentiles shall hope."*

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all ^ajoy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

From Jerusalem to Illyricum

14 Now ^aI myself am confident concerning you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, ^bfilled with all knowledge, able also to admonish ^bone another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written more boldly to you on ^asome points, as reminding you, ^bbecause of the grace given to me by God, 16 that ^aI might be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the ^boffering ¹of the Gentiles might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore I have reason to glory in Christ Jesus ^ain the things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things ^awhich Christ has not accomplished through me, in word and deed, ^bto make the Gentiles obedient—

19 ^ain mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, ^alest I should build on another man's foundation,

21 but as it is written:

"To whom He was not announced, they shall see; And those who have not heard shall understand."

Plan to Visit Rome

22 For this reason ^aI also have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now no longer having a place in these parts, and ^ahaving a great desire these many years to come to you,

24 whenever I journey to Spain, ¹I shall come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, ^and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may ^benjoy your company for a while.

25 But now ^aI am going to Jerusalem to ^bminister to the saints.

26 For ^ait pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem.

27 It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For ^aif the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, ^btheir duty is also to minister to them in material things.

28 Therefore, when I have performed this and have sealed to them ^athis fruit, I shall go by way of you to Spain.

29 ^aBut I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing ^bof the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beg you, brethren, through the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^athrough the love of the Spirit, ^bthat you strive together with me in prayers to God for me,

31 ^athat I may be delivered from those in Judea who ^bdo not believe, and that ^bmy service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,

32 ^athat I may come to you with joy ^bby the will of God, and may ^cbe refreshed together with you.

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS

CORINTH, the most important city in Greece during Paul's day, was a bustling hub of worldwide commerce, degraded culture, and idolatrous religion. There Paul founded a church (Acts 18:1–17), and two of his letters are addressed "To the church of God which is at Corinth" (1:2; 2 Cor. 1:1).

First Corinthians reveals the problems, pressures, and struggles of a church called out of a pagan society. Paul addresses a variety of problems in the lifestyle of the Corinthian church: factions, lawsuits, immorality, questionable practices, abuse of the Lord's Supper, and spiritual gifts. In addition to words of discipline, Paul shares words of counsel in answer to questions raised by the Corinthian believers.

The oldest recorded title of this epistle is Pros Korinthious A, in effect, the "First to the Corinthians." The A was no doubt a later addition to distinguish this book from Second Corinthians.

Greeting

PAUL, ^acalled to be an apostle of Jesus Christ ^bthrough the will of God, and ^cSosthenes our brother,

2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who ^aare ^bsanctified in Christ Jesus, ^ccalled to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, ^dboth theirs and ours:

3 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

11 For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of Chloe's household, that there are ¹contentions among you.
 12 Now I say this, that "each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of ^bApollos," or "I am of ^cCephas," or "I am of Christ."
 13 "Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
 14 I thank God that I baptized ^anone of you except ^bCrispus and ^cGaius, 15 lest anyone should say that I had baptized in my own name.
 16 Yes, I also baptized the household of ^aStephanas. Besides, I do not know whether I baptized any other.
 17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, ^anot with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

18 For the message of the cross is ^afoolishness to ^bthose who are perishing, but to us ^cwho are being saved it is the ^apower of God.
 19 For it is written:

^a"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent."

20 ^aWhere is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the ¹disputer of this age? ^bHas not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
 21 For since, in the ^awisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe.
 22 For ^aJews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom;
 23 but we preach Christ crucified, ^ato the Jews a ¹stumbling block and to the ²Greeks ^bfoolishness,
 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^athe power of God and ^bthe wisdom of God.
 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Glory Only in the Lord

26 For ¹you see your calling, brethren, ^athat not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many ²noble, are called.
 27 But ^aGod has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty;
 28 and the ¹base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are,

29 that no flesh should glory in His presence.
 30 But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and ^arighteousness and sanctification and redemption—
 31 that, as it is written, "^a*He who glories, let him glory in the LORD.*"

Christ Crucified

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know anything among you ^aexcept Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

3 ^aI was with you ^bin weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching ^awere not with persuasive words of ^bhuman wisdom, ^bbut in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ^athat your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

Spiritual Wisdom

6 However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden ^awisdom which God ^bordained before the ages for our glory.

8 ^awhich none of the rulers of this age knew; for ^ahad they known, they would not have ^bcrucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written:

^a*"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
 Nor have entered into the heart of man
 The things which God has prepared for those who love Him."*

10 But ^aGod has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knows the things of a man except the ^aspirit of the man which is in him? ^bEven so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but ^athe Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

13 These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the ^aHoly Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 ^aBut the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one.

16 For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" "But we have the mind of Christ.

Sectarianism Is Carnal

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to "babes in Christ.

2 I fed you with "milk and not with solid food; "for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able;

3 for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?

4 For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

Watering, Working, Warning

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but "ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord gave to each one?"

6 "I planted, Apollos watered, "but God gave the increase.

7 So then "neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.

8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one, "and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are bGod's building.

10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid bthe foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it.

11 For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, bwhich is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because bit will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is.

14 If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward.

15 If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

16 Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

17 If anyone 'defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.

Avoid Worldly Wisdom

18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness";

20 and again, "The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."

21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For "all things are yours:

22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours.

23 And "you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Stewards of the Mysteries of God

4 Let a man so consider us, as "servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.

4 For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to blight the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God.

Fools for Christ's Sake

6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that you may learn in us not to think beyond what is written, that none of you may be bpuffed up on behalf of one against the other.

7 For who bmakes you differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

8 You are already full! You are already rich! You have reigned as kings without us—and indeed I could wish you did reign, that we also might reign with you!

9 For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a "spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored!

11 To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless.

12 ^aAnd we labor, working with our own hands. ^bBeing reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we ^centreat. ^dWe have been made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things until now.

Paul's Paternal Care

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but ^aas my beloved children I warn you.

15 For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for ^ain Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Therefore I urge you, ^aimitate me.

17 For this reason I have sent ^aTimothy to you, ^bwho is my beloved and faithful son in the Lord, who will ^cremind you of my ways in Christ, as I ^dteach everywhere ^ein every church.

18 ^aNow some are ^bpuffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

19 ^aBut I will come to you shortly, ^bif the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.

20 For ^athe kingdom of God is not in word but in ^bpower.

21 What do you want? ^aShall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Immorality Defiles the Church

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even ^bnamed among the Gentiles—that a man has his father's ^cwife!

2 ^aAnd you are ^bpuffed up, and have not rather ^bmourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 ^aFor I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed.

4 In the ^aname of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, ^bwith the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 ^adeliver such a one to ^bSatan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord ^cJesus.

6 ^aYour glorying is not good. Do you not know that ^ba little leaven leavens the whole lump?

7 Therefore ^bpurge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed ^aChrist, our ^bPassover, was sacrificed ^cfor us.

8 Therefore ^alet us keep the feast, ^bnot with old leaven, nor ^cwith the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Immorality Must Be Judged

9 I wrote to you in my epistle ^anot to ^bkeep company with sexually immoral people.

10 Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go ^aout of the world.

11 But now I have written to you not to keep company ^awith anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—^bnot even to eat with such a person.

12 For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside?

13 But those who are outside God judges. Therefore ^a"put away from yourselves the evil person."

Do Not Sue the Brethren

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the ^asaints?

2 Do you not know that ^athe saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life?

4 If then you have judgments concerning things pertaining to this life, do you appoint those who are least esteemed by the church to judge?

5 I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!

7 Now therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you go to law against one another. ^aWhy do you not rather accept wrong? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated?

8 No, you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and you do these things to your brethren!

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. ^aNeither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor ^bsodomites,

10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were ^asome of you. ^bBut you were washed, but you were ^csanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

1 CORINTHIANS 6:12

Gloryf God in Body and Spirit

12 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power.

15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Certainly not!

16 Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For "the two," He says, "shall become one flesh."

17 But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

18 Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

19 Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

20 For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

Principles of Marriage

7 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: If it is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render to his wife the affection due her, and likewise also the wife to her husband.

4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. And likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

5 Do not deprive one another except with consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again so that Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6 But I say this as a concession, not as a commandment.

7 For I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one in this manner and another in that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows: It is good for them if they remain even as I am;

9 but if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Keep Your Marriage Vows

10 Now to the married I command, yet not I but the Lord: A wife is not to depart from her husband.

11 But even if she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.

12 But to the rest I, not the Lord, say: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her.

13 And a woman who has a husband who does not believe, if he is willing to live with her, let her not divorce him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.

15 But if the unbeliever departs, let him depart; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. But God has called us to peace.

16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

Live as You Are Called

17 But as God has distributed to each one, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all the churches.

18 Was anyone called while circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of God is what matters.

20 Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called.

21 Were you called while a slave? Do not be concerned about it; but if you can be made free, rather use it.

22 For he who is called in the Lord while a slave is the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called while free is Christ's slave.

23 You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men.

24 Brethren, let each one remain with God in that state in which he was called.

To the Unmarried and Widows

25 Now concerning virgins: I have no commandment from the Lord; yet I give judgment as one whom the Lord in His mercy has made trustworthy.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress—that it is good for a man to remain as he is:

27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

28 But even if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, but I would spare you.

29 But ^athis I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none,

30 those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess,

31 and those who use this world as not ^amisusing it. For ^bthe form of this world is passing away.

32 But I want you to be without ^acare. ^aHe who is unmarried ^bcares for the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord.

33 But he who is married cares about the things of the world—how he may please ^ahis wife.

34 There is a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman ^acares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband.

35 And this I say for your own profit, not that I may put a leash on you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man thinks he is behaving improperly toward his ^avirgin, if she is past the flower of youth, and thus it must be, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin; let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so determined in his heart that he will keep his ^avirgin, does well.

38 ^aSo then he who gives ^aher in marriage does well, but he who does not give ^aher in marriage does better.

39 ^aA wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes, ^bonly in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she remains as she is, ^aaccording to my judgment—and ^bI think I also have the Spirit of God.

Be Sensitive to Conscience

8 Now ^aconcerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have ^bknowledge. ^cKnowledge ^bpuffs up, but love ^bedifies.

2 And ^aif anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.

4 Therefore concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that ^aan idol is nothing in the world, ^band that there is no other God but one.

5 For even if there are ^aso-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords),

6 yet ^afor us there is one God, the Father, ^bof whom are all things, and we for Him; and ^cone Lord Jesus Christ, ^dthrough whom are all things, and ^ethrough whom we live.

7 However, there is not in everyone that knowledge; for some, ^awith consciousness of the idol, until now eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is ^bdefiled.

8 But ^afood does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse.

9 But ^abeware lest somehow this liberty of yours become ^ba ^cstumbling block to those who are weak.

10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not ^athe conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things offered to idols?

11 And ^abecause of your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But ^awhen you thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

13 Therefore, ^aif food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

A Pattern of Self-Denial

9 Am ^aI not an apostle? Am I not free? ^bHave I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? ^cAre you not my work in the Lord?

2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are ^athe ^bseal of my apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is this:

4 ^aDo we have no ^bright to eat and drink?

5 Do we have no right to take along ^aa believing wife, as do also the other apostles, ^bthe brothers of the Lord, and ^cCephas?

6 Or is it only Barnabas and I ^awho have no right to refrain from working?

7 Who ever ^agoes to war at his own expense? Who ^bplants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who ^ctends a flock and does not drink of the milk of the flock?

8 Do I say these things as a mere

1 CORINTHIANS 9:9

man? Or does not the law say the same also?
 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it oxen God is concerned about?
 10 Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, that he who plows should plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things?

12 If others are partakers of this right over you, are we not even more? Nevertheless we have not used this right, but endure all things lest we hinder the gospel of Christ.
 13 Do you not know that those who minister the holy things eat of the things of the temple, and those who serve at the altar partake of the offerings of the altar?

14 Even so the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.
 15 But I have used none of these things, nor have I written these things that it should be done so to me; for it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting void.

16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me if I do not preach the gospel!

17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, I have been entrusted with a stewardship.

18 What is my reward then? That when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel of Christ without charge, that I may not abuse my authority in the gospel.

Serving All Men

19 For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win the more;
 20 and to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might win those who are under the law;
 21 to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law;
 22 to the weak I became as weak, that I might win the weak, I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.
 23 Now this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you.

the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it.
 25 And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown.

26 Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air.

27 But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

Old Testament Examples

10 Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, all passed through the sea, all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,
 3 all ate the same spiritual food,
 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

6 Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted.

7 And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."

8 Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell;

9 nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents;

10 nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.

13 No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

Flee from Idolatry

14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge for yourselves what I say.

All to the Glory of God

23 All things are lawful ¹for me, but not all things are ^ahelpful; all things are lawful for me, but not all things ²edify. 24 Let no one seek his own, but each one ^athe other's well-being. 25 ^aEat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake; 26 for ^a"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness." 27 If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, ^aeat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it ^afor the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake; ¹for ^b"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."

29 "Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other. For ^awhy is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? 30 But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for ^athe food over which I give thanks? 31 ^aTherefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 ^aGive no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God, 33 just as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Imitate ^ame, just as I also imitate Christ.

keep the traditions just as I delivered them to you.

3 But I want you to know that ^athe head of every man is Christ, ^bthe head of woman is man, and ^cthe head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or ^aprophesying, having ^bhis head covered, dishonors his head.

5 But every woman who prays or prophesies with ^aher head uncovered dishonors her head, for that is one and the same as if her head were shaved.

6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover ^ahis head, since ^bhe is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man.

8 For man is not from woman, but woman ^afrom man.

9 Nor was man created for the woman, but woman ^afor the man.

10 For this reason the woman ought to have ^aa symbol of authority on ^bher head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, ^aneither is man independent of woman, nor woman independent of man, in the Lord.

12 For as woman ^acame from man, even so man ^aalso comes through woman; but all things are from God.

13 Judge among yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him?

15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her for a covering.

16 But ^aif anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, ^bnor do the churches of God.

Conduct at the Lord's Supper

17 Now in giving these instructions I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when you come together as a church, ^aI hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

19 For ^athere must also be factions among you, ^bthat those who are approved may be ^crecognized among you.

20 Therefore when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

21 For in eating, each one takes his own supper ahead of ^aothers; and one is hungry and ^banother is drunk.

22 What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise ^athe church of God and ^bshame ^cthose who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

Institution of the Lord's Supper

23 For ^aI received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: ^bthat the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; 24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, ¹*Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me.*" 25 In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death ^ctill He comes.

Examine Yourself

27 Therefore whoever eats ^athis bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and ^bblood of the Lord. 28 But ^alet a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. 29 For he who eats and drinks ^ain an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the ^bLord's body. 30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep. 31 For ^aif we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, ^awe are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. 33 Therefore, my brethren, when you ^acome together to eat, wait for one another. 34 But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts: Unity in Diversity

12 Now ^aconcerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant: 2 You know ^athat ^byou were Gentiles, carried away to these ^bdumb idols, however you were led. 3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus ^aaccursed, and ^ano one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit. 4 ^aThere are ^bdiversities of gifts, but ^bthe same Spirit. 5 ^aThere are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God ^awho works ^ball in all. 7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: 8 for to one is given ^athe word of wisdom through the Spirit, to an-

10 ^ato another the working of miracles, to another ^bprophecy, to another ^cdiscerning of spirits, to another ^ddifferent kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, ^adistributing to each one individually ^bas He wills.

Unity and Diversity in One Body

12 For ^aas the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, ^bso also is Christ.

13 For ^aby one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and ^bhave all been made to drink ^cinto one Spirit.

14 For in fact the body is not one member but many.

15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where ^awould be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where ^awould be the smelling?

18 But now ^aGod has set the members, each one of them, in the body ^bjust as He pleased.

19 And if they were all one member, where ^awould the body be?

20 But now indeed ^athere are many members, yet one body.

21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary.

23 And those ^amembers of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unpresentable ^bparts have greater modesty,

24 but our presentable ^bparts have no need. But God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it,

25 that there should be no ^aschism in the body, but ^bthat the members should have the same care for one another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ^ayou are the body of Christ, and ^bmembers individually.

28 And ^aGod has appointed these in the church: first ^bapostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that ^amiracles, then ^agifts of healings, ^ahelps, ^aadministrations, varieties of tongues.

1011

29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

31 But ^aearnestly desire the ^bbest gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

The Greatest Gift

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, ^bso that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

3 And ^athough I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body ^bto be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

4 ^aLove suffers long and is ^bkind; love ^adoes not envy; love does not parade itself, is not ^bpuffed up;

5 does not behave rudely, ^adoes not seek its own, is not provoked, ^bthinks no evil;

6 ^adoes not rejoice in iniquity, but ^brejoices in the truth;

7 ^abears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8 Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.

9 ^aFor we know in part and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is ^bperfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For ^anow we see in a mirror, dimly, but then ^bface to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

13 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Prophecy and Tongues

14 Pursue love, and ^adesire spiritual gifts, ^bbut especially that you may prophesy.

2 For he who ^aspeaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries.

1 CORINTHIANS 14:19

3 But he who prophesies speaks ^aedification and ^bexhortation and comfort to men.

4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church.

5 I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; ^afor he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues, unless indeed he interprets, that the church may receive edification.

Tongues Must Be Interpreted

6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you unless I speak to you either by ^arevelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by teaching?

7 Even things without life, whether flute or harp, when they make a sound, unless they make a distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is piped or played? 8 For if the trumpet makes an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?

9 So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to understand, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them ^ais without ^bsignificance.

11 Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be a ^aforeigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks ^bwill be a foreigner to me.

12 Even so you, since you are ^bzealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the ^aedification of the church that you seek to excel.

13 Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may ^ainterpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding; ^aI will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing ^bwith the understanding.

16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say “Amen” ^aat your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say?

17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all;

19 yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

1 CORINTHIANS 14:20

Tongues a Sign to Unbelievers

20 Brethren, ^ado not be children in understanding; however, in malice ^bbe babes, but in understanding be mature.

21 ^aIn the law it is written:

*b "With men of other tongues and other lips
I will speak to this people;
And yet, for all that, they will not hear Me,"*

says the Lord.

22 Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe.

23 Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, ^awill they not say that you are ^bout of your mind?

24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all.

25 ^aAnd thus the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report ^athat God is truly among you.

Order in Church Meetings

26 How is it then, brethren? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, ^ahas a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. ^bLet all things be done for ^aedification.

27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret.

28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in church, and let him speak to himself and to God.

29 Let two or three prophets speak, and ^alet the others judge.

30 But if anything is revealed to another who sits by, ^alet the first keep silent.

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged.

32 And ^athe spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of ^bconfusion but of peace, ^aas in all the churches of the saints.

34 ^aLet ^byour women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the ^blaw also says.

35 And if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in church.

36 Or did the word of God come originally from you? Or was it you only that it reached?

37 ^aIf anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But ^bif anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Therefore, brethren, ^adesire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues.

40 ^aLet all things be done decently and in order.

The Risen Christ, Faith's Reality

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel ^awhich I preached to you, which also you received and ^bin which you stand, ^cby which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless ^byou believed in vain.

3 For ^aI delivered to you first of all that ^bwhich I also received: that Christ died for our sins ^caccording to the Scriptures,

4 and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day ^aaccording to the Scriptures,

5 ^aand that He was seen by ^bCephas, then ^bby the twelve.

6 After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have ^bfallen asleep.

7 After that He was seen by James, then ^bby all the apostles.

8 ^aThen last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.

9 For I am ^athe least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because ^bI persecuted the church of God.

10 But ^aby the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, ^byet not I, but the grace of God ^cwhich was with me.

11 Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Risen Christ, Our Hope

12 Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, ^athen Christ is not risen.

14 And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty.

15 Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because ^awe have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up—if in fact the dead do not rise.

16 For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen.

17 And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; ^ayou are still in your sins!

18 Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 ^aIf in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.

The Last Enemy Destroyed

20 But now ^aChrist is risen from the dead, ^band has become ^bthe firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

21 For ^asince by man came death,

^bby Man also came the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall ^bbe made alive.

23 But ^aeach one in his own order:

Christ the firstfruits, afterward those ^awho are Christ's at His coming.

24 Then comes the end, when He delivers ^athe kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power.

25 For He must reign ^atill He has put all enemies under His feet.

26 ^aThe last enemy that will be destroyed is death.

27 For ^a"He has put all things under

His feet." But when He says "all things are put under Him," it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted.

28 ^aNow when all things are made subject to Him, then ^bthe Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

Effects of Denying the Resurrection

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why then are they baptized for the dead?

30 And ^awhy do we stand in ^bjeop-ardy every hour?

31 I affirm, by ^athe boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^bI die daily.

32 If, in the manner of men, ^aI have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead do not rise, ^b"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

33 Do not be deceived: ^a"Evil company corrupts good habits."

34 ^aAwake to righteousness, and do not sin; ^bfor some do not have the knowledge of God. ^cI speak this to your shame.

A Glorious Body

35 But someone will say, ^a"How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?"

36 Foolish one, ^awhat you sow is not made alive unless it dies.

37 And what you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but mere grain—perhaps wheat or some other grain.

38 But God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but ^athere is one kind ^bof flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, ^band another of birds. 40 There are also ^acelestial bodies and ^bterrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, ^a"The first ^bThe last Adam became a living being."

46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual.

47 The first man was of the earth, ^bmade of dust; the second Man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As was the ^aman of dust, so also are those who are made of dust; and as is the heavenly Man, so also are those who are heavenly.

49 And ^aas we have borne the image of the man of dust, ^bwe shall also bear the image of the heavenly Man.

Our Final Victory

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I tell you a ^amystery: We shall not all sleep, ^bbut we shall all be changed—

52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ^athis mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: ^a"Death is swallowed up in victory."

55 O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?

56 The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, who gives us ^bthe victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

 58 ^aTherefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing ^bthat your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Collection for the Saints

16 Now concerning ^athe collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also:

2 ^aOn the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come.

3 And when I come, ^awhomever you approve by your letters I will send to bear your gift to Jerusalem.

4 ^aBut if it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

Personal Plans

5 Now I will come to you ^awhen I pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia).

6 And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may ^asend me on my journey, wherever I go.

7 For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, ^aif the Lord permits.

8 But I will tarry in Ephesus until ^aPentecost.

9 For ^aa great and effective door has opened to me, and ^bthere are many adversaries.

10 And ^aif Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for ^bhe does the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 ^aTherefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey ^bin peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

*The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to theCORINTHIANS

SINCE Paul's first letter, the Corinthian church had been swayed by false teachers who stirred the people against Paul. They claimed he was fickle, proud, unimpressive in appearance and speech, dishonest, and unqualified as an apostle of Jesus Christ. Paul sent Titus to Corinth to deal with these difficulties, and upon his return, rejoiced to hear of the Corinthians' change of heart. Paul wrote this letter to express his thanksgiving for the repentant majority and to appeal to the rebellious minority to accept his authority. Throughout the book he defends his conduct, character, and calling as an apostle of Jesus Christ.

To distinguish this epistle from First Corinthians, it was given the title Pros Korinthios B, the "Second to the Corinthians." The A and B were probably later additions to Pros Korinthios.

Greeting

PAUL, ^aan apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and ^bTimothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth, ^cwith all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Comfort in Suffering

3 ^aBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, ⁴ who ^ccomforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any ^btrouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

5 For as ^athe sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our ^cconsolation also abounds through Christ.

6 Now if we are afflicted, ^ait is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, ^ait is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope for you is steadfast, because we know that ^aas you are partakers of the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

Delivered from Suffering

8 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of ^aour ^btrouble which came to us in Asia: that we were burdened beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life.

9 Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should ^anot trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead,

10 ^awho delivered us from so great a death, and ^bdoes deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us, 11 you also ^ahelping together in prayer for us, that thanks may be given by many persons on ^bour behalf ^cfor the gift granted to us through many.

Paul's Sincerity

12 For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience that we conducted ourselves in the world in ^bsimplicity and ^cgodly sincerity, ^bnot with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you.

13 For we are not writing any other things to you than what you read or understand. Now I trust you will understand, even to the end 14 (as also you have understood us in part), ^athat we are your boast as ^byou also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Sparing the Church

15 And in this confidence ^aI intended to come to you before, that you might have ^ba second benefit—
16 to pass by way of you to Macedonia to you, and be helped by you on my way to Judea.

17 Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things I plan, do I plan ^aaccording to the flesh, that with me there should be Yes, Yes, and No, No?

18 But ^aas God is ^cfaithful, our ^bword to you was not Yes and No.

19 For ^athe Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy—was not Yes and No, ^dbut in Him was Yes.

20 ^aFor all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us.

21 Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and ^ahas anointed us is God, 22 who ^aalso has sealed us and ^bgiven us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.

23 Moreover ^aI call God as witness against my soul, ^bthat to spare you I came no more to Corinth.

24 Not ^athat we ^bhave dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for ^bby faith you stand.

25 But I determined this within myself, ^athat I would not come again to you in sorrow.

26 For if I make you ^asorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

Forgive the Offender

3 And I wrote this very thing to you, lest, when I came, ^aI should have sorrow over those from whom I ought to have joy, ^bhaving confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much ^baffliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, ^anot that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have so abundantly for you.

5 But ^aif anyone has caused grief, he has not ^bgrieved me, but all of you to some extent—not to be too severe.

6 This punishment which was inflicted ^aby the majority is sufficient for such a man,

7 "so that, on the contrary, you ought rather to forgive and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one be swallowed up with too much sorrow.

8 Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love to him.

9 For to this end I also wrote, that I might put you to the test, whether you are ^aobedient in all things.

10 Now whom you forgive anything, I also forgive. For ^bif indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11 lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Triumph in Christ

12 Furthermore, ^awhen I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and ^bthe door was opened to me by the Lord, 13 ^aI had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I departed for Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us ^bdiffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place.

15 For we are to God the fragrance of Christ ^aamong those who are being saved and ^bamong those who are perishing.

16 ^aTo the one we are the aroma of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life. And ^bwho is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not, as ^aso many, ^bpeddling² the word of God; but as ^bof sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the sight of God in Christ.

Christ's Epistle

3 Do ^awe begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, ^bepistles of commendation to you or ^cletters of commendation from you?

2 ^aYou are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men;

3 clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ^aministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not ^bon tablets of stone but ^con tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

The Spirit, Not the Letter

4 And we have such trust through Christ toward God.

5 ^aNot that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but ^bour sufficiency is from God,

6 ^awho also made us sufficient as ^bministers of ^bthe new covenant, not of the letter but of the ^bSpirit; for the letter kills, ^cbut the Spirit gives life.

Glory of the New Covenant

7 But if ^athe ministry of death, ^bwritten and engraved on stones, was glorious, ^cso that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away,

8 how will ^athe ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious?

9 For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry ^aof righteousness exceeds much more in glory.

10 For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels.

11 For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious.

12 Therefore, since we have such hope, ^awe use great boldness of speech—

13 unlike Moses, ^awho put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at ^bthe end of what was passing away.

14 But ^atheir minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ.

15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart.

16 Nevertheless ^awhen one turns to the Lord, ^bthe veil is taken away.

17 Now ^athe Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is ^bliberty.

18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding ^aas in a mirror ^bthe glory of the Lord, ^care being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as ^dby the Spirit of the Lord.

The Light of Christ's Gospel

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry, ^aas we have received mercy, we ^bdo not lose heart.

2 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor ^bhandling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth ^acommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But even if our gospel is veiled, ^ait is veiled to those who are perishing,

4 whose minds ^athe god of this age ^bhas blinded, who do not believe, lest ^cthe light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, ^dwho is the image of God, should shine on them.

5 ^aFor we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ^bourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake.

6 For it is the God ^awho commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has ^bshone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Cast Down but Unconquered

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, ^athat the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us.

8 We are ^ahard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 persecuted, but not ^aforsaken; ^bstruck down, but not destroyed—
10 ^aalways carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, ^bthat the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live ^aare always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death is working in us, but life in you.

13 And since we have ^athe same spirit of faith, according to what is written, ^b"I believed and therefore I spoke," we also believe and therefore speak,

14 knowing that ^aHe who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that ^bgrace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

Seeing the Invisible

16 Therefore we ^ado not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is ^bbeing renewed day by day.

17 For ^aour light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

18 ^awhile we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Assurance of the Resurrection

5 For we know that if ^aour earthly ^bhouse, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house ^bnot made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ^awe groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our ^bhabitation which is from heaven, 3 if indeed, ^ahaving been clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, ^bbut further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life.

5 Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also ^ahas given us the Spirit as ^ba guarantee.

6 So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord.

7 For ^awe walk by faith, not by sight.

8 We are confident, yes, ^awell pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

The Judgment Seat of Christ

9 Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him.

10 ^aFor we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, ^bthat each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

11 Knowing, therefore, ^athe terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

Be Reconciled to God

12 For ^awe do not command ourselves again to you, but give you opportunity ^bto boast on our behalf, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.

13 For ^aif we are beside ourselves, it is for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

14 For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that ^aif One died for all, then all died;

15 and He died for all, ^athat those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

16 ^aTherefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, ^byet now we know Him thus no longer.

17 Therefore, if anyone ^ais in Christ, he is ^ba new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become ^anew.

18 Now all things are of God, ^awho has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation,

19 that is, that ^aGod was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not ^bimputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then, we are ^aambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God.

21 For ^aHe made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become ^bthe righteousness of God in Him.

2 CORINTHIANS 6:1

Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as ^aworkers together with Him also ^bplead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

2 For He says:

*a "In an acceptable time I have heard you,
And in the day of salvation I have helped you."*

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 ^aWe give no offense in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed.

4 But in all things we commend ourselves ^aas ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses,

5 ^ain stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings;

6 by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love,

7 ^aby the word of truth, by ^bthe power of God, by ^cthe armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

9 as unknown, and ^ayet well known; ^bas dying, and behold we live; ^cas chastened, and yet not killed;

10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Be Holy

11 O Corinthians! ^aWe have spoken openly to you, ^aour heart is wide open.

12 You are not restricted by us, but ^ayou are restricted by your own affections.

13 Now in return for the same ^a(I speak as to children), you also be open.

14 ^aDo not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For ^bwhat fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what ^ccommunion has light with darkness?

15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For ^ayou are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

*b "I will dwell in them
And walk among them.
I will be their God,
And they shall be My people."*

17 Therefore

7 Therefore, ^ahaving these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

The Corinthians' Repentance

2 Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, ^awe have cheated no one.

3 I do not say this to condemn; for ^aI have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.

4 ^aGreat is my boldness of speech toward you, ^bgreat is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For indeed, ^awhen we came to Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but ^bwe were troubled on every side. ^cOutside were conflicts, inside were fears.

6 Nevertheless ^aGod, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by ^bthe coming of Titus.

7 and not only by his coming, but also by the ^cconsolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

8 For even if I made you ^asorry with my letter, I do not regret it; ^bthough I did regret it. For I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though only for a while.

9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly manner, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing.

10 For ^agodly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; ^bbut the sorrow of the world produces death.

11 For observe this very thing, that you sorrowed in a godly manner: What diligence it produced in you, what ^aclearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehemence desire, what zeal, what vindication! In all ^bthings you proved yourselves to be ^cclear in this matter.

12 Therefore, although I wrote to you, I did not do it for the sake of him who had done the wrong, nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong, ^abut that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

The Joy of Titus

13 Therefore we have been comforted in your comfort. And we rejoyed exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit ^ahas been refreshed by you all.

14 For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting to Titus was found true.

15 And his affections are greater for you as he remembers ^athe obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 Therefore I rejoice that ^aI have confidence in you in everything.

Excel in Giving

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:

2 that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and ^atheir deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality.

3 For I bear witness that according to ^atheir ability, yes, and beyond ^atheir ability, they were freely willing,

4 imploring us with much urgency ^athat we would receive the gift and ^athe fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And not only as we had hoped, but they first ^agave themselves to the Lord, and ^athen to us by the ^bwill of God.

6 So ^awe urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well.

7 But as ^ayou abound in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—see ^bthat you abound in this grace also.

Christ Our Pattern

8 ^aI speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others.

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^athat though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become ^brich.

10 And in this ^aI give advice: ^bIt is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and ^cwere desiring to do a year ago;

11 but now you also must complete the doing of it; that as ^athere was a readiness to desire it, so ^athere also may be a completion out of what you have.

12 For ^aif there is first a willing mind, ^bit is accepted according to what one has, ^cand not according to what he does not have.

13 For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened; 14 but by an equality, ^athat now at this time your abundance may supply their lack, that their abundance

Collection for the Judean Saints

16 But thanks be to God who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.

17 For he not only accepted the exhortation, but being more diligent, he went to you of his own accord.

18 And we have sent with him ^athe brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches, ^aand not only that, but who was also ^achosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which is administered by us ^ato the glory of the Lord Himself and to show your ready mind,

20 avoiding this: that anyone should blame us in this lavish gift which is administered by us—

21 ^aproviding honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, because of the great confidence which we have in you.

23 If anyone inquires about ^aTitus, he is my partner and fellow worker concerning you. Or if our brethren are inquired about, they are ^bmessengers¹ of the churches, the glory of Christ.

24 Therefore show to them, ^aand before the churches, the proof of your love and of our ^aboasting on your behalf.

Administering the Gift

9 Now concerning ^athe ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you;

2 for I know your willingness, about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a ^ayear ago; and your zeal has stirred up the majority.

3 ^aYet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect, that, as I said, you may be ready;

4 lest if some Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you!) should be ashamed of this ^aconfident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to ^aexhort the brethren to go to you ahead of time, and prepare your generous gift beforehand, which you had previously promised, that it may be ready as a ^amatter of generosity and not as a ^agrudging obligation.

The Cheerful Giver

6 ^aBut this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows ¹bountifully will also reap ¹bountifully.

7 So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, ^anot grudgingly or of ^bnecessity; for ^bGod loves a cheerful giver.

8 ^aAnd God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work.

9 As it is written:

*a“^aHe has dispersed abroad,
^bHe has given to the poor;
^cHis righteousness endures forever.”*

10 Now ¹may He who ^asupplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, ²supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your ^brighteousness,

11 while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, ^awhich causes thanksgiving through us to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only ^asupplies the needs of the saints, but also is abounding through many thanksgivings to
God,

13 while, through the proof of this ministry, they ^aglorify God for the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal ^bsharing with them and all men,

14 and by their prayer for you, who long for you because of the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be to God ^afor His indescribable gift!

The Spiritual War

10 Now ^aI, Paul myself am pleading with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—^bwho in presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you.

2 But I beg you ^athat when I am present I may not be bold with that confidence by which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh.

4 ^aFor the weapons ^bof our warfare are not ¹carnal but ^cmighty in God ^dfor pulling down strongholds, 5 ^acasting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,
6 ^aand being ready to punish all disobedience when ^byour obedience is fulfilled.

one is convinced in himself that he is Christ's, let him again consider this in himself, that just as he is Christ's, even ¹so ^awe are Christ's.

8 For even if I should boast somewhat more ^aabout our authority, which the Lord gave ^bus for ^cedification and not for your destruction, ^bI shall not be ashamed—

9 lest I seem to terrify you by letters.

10 “For ^ahis letters,” they say, “are weighty and powerful, but ^bhis bodily presence is weak, and ^chis ^dspeech contemptible.”

11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such ^awe will also ^bbe in deed when we are present.

Limits of Paul's Authority

12 ^aFor we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who command themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 ^aWe, however, will not boast beyond measure, but within the limits of the sphere which God appointed us—a sphere which especially includes you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves (as though ^aour authority did not extend to you), ^afor it was to you that we came with the gospel of Christ;

15 not boasting of things beyond measure, ^athat is, ^bin other men's labor, but having hope, ^athat as your faith is increased, we shall be greatly enlarged by you in our sphere,

16 to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, ^aand not to boast in another man's sphere of accomplishment.

17 But ^a“he who glories, let him glory in the LORD.”

18 For ^anot he who commands himself is approved, but ^bwhom the Lord commands.

Concern for Their Faithfulness

11 Oh, that you would bear with me in a little ^afolly—and indeed you do bear with me.

2 For I am ^ajealous for you with godly jealousy. For ^bI have betrothed you to one husband, ^athat I may present you ^bas a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest somehow, as ^athe serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds ^bmay be corrupted from the ^asimplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a ^adifferent gospel which you have not accepted—you may well put up with it!

Paul and False Apostles

5 For I consider that ^aI am not at all inferior to the most eminent apostles. 6 Even though ^aI am untrained in speech, yet I am not ^bin knowledge. But we have been thoroughly manifested among you in all things. 7 Did I commit sin in ^bhumbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you ^afree of charge? 8 I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to minister to you. 9 And when I was present with you, and in need, ^aI was a burden to no one, for what I lacked ^bthe brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself. 10 ^aAs the truth of Christ is in me, ^bno one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11 Why? ^aBecause I do not love you? God knows! 12 But what I do, I will also continue to do, ^athat I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast. 13 For such ^aare false apostles, ^bdeceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. 14 And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into ^aan angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, ^awhose end will be according to their works.

Reluctant Boasting

16 I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little. 17 What I speak, ^aI speak not according to the Lord, but as it were, foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. 19 For you put up with fools gladly, ^asince you yourselves are wise! 20 For you put up with it ^aif one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face. 21 To our shame ^aI say that we were too weak for that! But ^bin whatever anyone is bold—I speak foolishly—I am bold also.

Suffering for Christ

22 Are they ^aHebrews? So I am. Are they Israelites? So I am. Are they the seed of Abraham? So I am. 23 Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: ^ain 24 From the Jews five times I received ^aforty ^bstripes minus one.

25 Three times I was ^bbeaten with rods; ^bonce I was stoned; three times I ^cwas shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; ^bin journeys often, ^ain perils of waters, ^bin perils of robbers, ^ain perils of my own countrymen, ^bin perils of the Gentiles, ^ain perils in the city, ^bin perils in the wilderness, ^ain perils in the sea, ^bin perils among false brethren; ^bin weariness and toil, ^ain sleeplessness often, ^bin hunger and thirst, in ^cfastings often, in cold and nakedness—

28 besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: ^amy deep concern for all the churches. 29 ^aWho is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? 30 If I must boast, ^aI will boast in the things which concern my ^binfirmitiy.

31 ^aThe God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^bwho is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. 32 ^aIn Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me; ^bbut I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

The Vision of Paradise

12 It is ^adoubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to ^bvisions and ^crevelations of the Lord:

2 I know a man ^ain Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one ^bwas caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—

4 how he was caught up into ^aParadise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not ^aboast, except in my infirmities.

6 For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me.

The Thorn in the Flesh

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a ^athorn in the flesh was given to me, ^ba messenger of Satan to ^abuffet me, lest I be exalted above measure.

8 ^aConcerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me.

9 And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly ^cI will rather boast in my infirmities, ^bthat the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore ^aI take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. ^bFor when I am weak, then I am strong.

Signs of an Apostle

11 I have become ^aa fool ^bin boasting; you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commanded by you; for ^bin nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though ^cI am nothing.

12 ^aTruly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and ^bwonders and mighty ^cdeeds.

13 For what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

Love for the Church

14 ^aNow for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be burdensome to you; for ^bI do not seek yours, but you. ^cFor the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent ^afor your souls; though ^bthe more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

16 But be that as it may, ^aI did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you by cunning!

17 Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you?

18 I urged Titus, and sent our brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

19 ^aAgain, ^bdo you think that we excuse ourselves to you? ^bWe speak before God in Christ. ^cBut we do all things, beloved, for your edification.

20 For I fear lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I wish, and ^athat ^bI shall be found by you such as you do not wish; lest ^cthere be contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, backbitings, whisperings, conceits, tumults; 21 lest, when I come again, my God

2 ^aI have told you before, and foretell as if I were present the second time, and now being absent ^bI write to those ^cwho have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again ^cI will not spare—

5 Examine yourselves ^{as to} whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, ^athat Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you ^bare disqualified.

6 But I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

Paul Prefers Gentleness

7 Now ^aI pray to God that you do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that you should do what is honorable, though ^bwe may seem disqualified.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad ^awhen we are weak and you are strong. And this also we pray, ^bthat you may be made complete.

10 ^aTherefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the ^bauthority which the Lord has given me for edification and not for destruction.

Greetings and Benediction

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Become complete. ^aBe of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love ^band peace will be with you.

12 ^aGreet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All the saints greet you.

14 ^aThe grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and ^bthe communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the GALATIANS

THE Galatians, having launched their Christian experience by faith, seem content to leave their voyage of faith and chart a new course based on works—a course Paul finds disturbing. His letter to the Galatians is a vigorous attack against the gospel of works and defense of the gospel of faith.

Paul begins by setting forth his credentials as an apostle with a message from God: blessing comes from God on the basis of faith, not law. The law declares men guilty and imprisons them; faith sets men free to enjoy liberty in Christ. But liberty is not license. Freedom in Christ means freedom to produce the fruits of righteousness through a Spirit-led lifestyle.

The book is called Pros Galatas, “To the Galatians,” and it is the only letter of Paul that is specifically addressed to a number of churches (“To the churches of Galatia,” 1:2). The name Galatians was given to this Celtic people because they originally lived in Gaul before their migration to Asia Minor.

Greeting

PAUL, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised Him from the dead),
2 and all the brethren who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,
5 to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Only One Gospel

6 I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel,

7 which is not another; but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed.

9 As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.

Call to Apostleship

11 But I make known to you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.

12 For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1 ^aActs 15:2

2 ^aActs 15:1-4
^bbecause of

13 For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how ^aI persecuted the church of God beyond measure and ^btried to destroy it.

14 And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my own nation, ^abeing more exceedingly zealous ^bfor the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, ^awho separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace,

16 ^ato reveal His Son in me, that ^bI might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

Contacts at Jerusalem

18 Then after three years ^aI went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and remained with him fifteen days.

19 But ^aI saw none of the other apostles except ^bJames, the Lord's brother.

20 (Now concerning the things which I write to you, indeed, before God, I do not lie.)

21 ^aAfterward I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 And I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea which ^awere in Christ.

23 But they were ^ahearing only, “He who formerly ^bpersecuted us now preaches the faith which he once ^ctried to destroy.”

24 And they ^aglorified God in me.

Defending the Gospel

2 Then after fourteen years ^aI went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me.

2 And I went up ^bby revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but ^cprivately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means ^bI might run, or had run, in vain.

3 Yet not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

4 And this occurred because of ^afalse brethren secretly brought in (who came in by stealth to spy out our ^bliberty which we have in Christ Jesus, ^cthat they might bring us into bondage).

5 to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But from those ^awho seemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; ^bGod ^cshows personal favoritism to no man—for those who seemed to be ^asomething ^cadded nothing to me.

7 But on the contrary, ^awhen they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised ^bhad been committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcised was to Peter

8 (for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the ^acircumcised ^balso worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles),
9 and when James, ¹Cephas, and John, who seemed to be ^cpillars, perceived ^bthe grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, ^cthat we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

10 They desired only that we should remember the poor, ^athe very thing which I also was eager to do.

No Return to the Law

11 Now when ¹Peter had come to Antioch, I ²withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed; 12 for before certain men came from James, ^ahe would eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing ^bthose who were of the circumcision.

13 And the rest of the Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they were not straightforward about ^athe truth of the gospel, I said to Peter ^bbefore them all, “If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, ^cwhy do you compel Gentiles to live as ²Jews?

15 ^aWe who are Jews by nature, and not ^bsinners of the Gentiles,

16 ^aknowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but ^bby faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not ^cby the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

17 “But if, while we seek to be jus-

19 “For I ^athrough the law ^bdied to the law that I might ^clive to God.

20 “I have been ^acrucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the ^blife which I now live in the flesh ^bI live by faith in the Son of God, ^awho loved me and gave Himself for me.

21 “I do not set aside the grace of God; for ^aif righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died ^bin vain.”

Justification by Faith

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you ^athat you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed ^bamong you as crucified?

2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, ^aor by the hearing of faith?

3 Are you so foolish? ^aHaving begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by ^bthe flesh?

4 ^aHave you suffered so ^bmany things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

5 Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, ^adoes He do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?—

6 just as Abraham ^a“believed God, and ^bit was accounted to him for righteousness.”

7 Therefore know that only ^athose who are of faith are sons of Abraham.

8 And ^athe Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, ^b“In you all the nations shall be blessed.”

9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

The Law Brings a Curse

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, ^a“Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.”

11 But that no one is ^ajustified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for ^a“the just shall live by faith.”

12 Yet ^athe law is not of faith, but ^b“the man who does them shall live by them.”

13 ^aChrist has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written,

^b“Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”).

14 ^athat the blessing of Abraham might come upon the ^bGentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Changeless Promise

15 Brethren, I speak in the manner of men: ^aThough it is only a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no one annuls or adds to it.

16 Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, "And to seeds," as of many, but as of ^aone, ^b*"And to your Seed,"* who is ^cChrist.

17 And this I say, that the law, which was four hundred and thirty years later, cannot annul the covenant that was confirmed before by God ^din Christ, ^bthat it should make the promise of no effect.

18 For if ^athe inheritance is of the law, ^bit is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Purpose of the Law

19 What purpose then does the law serve? ^aIt was added because of transgressions, till the ^bSeed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was appointed through angels by the hand ^dof a mediator.

20 Now a mediator does not mediate for one only, ^abut God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.

22 But the Scripture has confined ^aall under sin, ^bthat the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 Before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, ^bkept for the faith which would afterward be revealed.

24 Therefore ^athe law was our ^btutor to bring us to Christ, ^bthat we might be justified by faith.

25 But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

Sons and Heirs

26 For you ^aare all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For ^aas many of you as were baptized into Christ ^bhave put on Christ.

28 ^aThere is neither Jew nor Greek, ^bthere is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all ^cone in Christ Jesus.

29 And ^aif you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's ^bseed, and ^cheirs according to the promise.

4 Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all, ards until the time appointed by the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, ^awere in bondage under the elements of the world.

4 But ^awhen the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, ^bborn^c of a woman, ^dborn under the law,

5 ^ato redeem those who were under the law, ^bthat we might receive the adoption as sons.

6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth ^athe Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, ^b"Abba, Father!"

7 Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, ^aand if a son, then an heir ^bof God ^cthrough Christ.

Fears for the Church

8 But then, indeed, ^awhen you did not know God, ^byou served those which by nature are not gods.

9 But now ^aafter you have known God, or rather are known by God, ^bhow is it that you turn again to ^cthe weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage?

10 You observe days and months and seasons and years.

11 I am afraid for you, ^alest I have labored for you in vain.

12 Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. ^aYou have not injured me at all.

13 You know that ^abecause of physical infirmity I preached the gospel to you at the first.

14 And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but you received me ^aas an angel of God, ^beven as Christ Jesus.

15 ^aWhat then was the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me.

16 Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

17 They ^azealously court you, ^bbut for no good; yes, they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them.

18 But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you.

19 ^aMy little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you, 20 I would like to be present with you now and to change my tone; for I have doubts about you.

Two Covenants

21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?

22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: ^athe one by a bondwoman, ^bthe other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman ^awas born according to the flesh, ^band he of the freewoman through promise, 24 which things are symbolic. For these are ^bthe two covenants: the one from Mount ^aSinai which gives birth to bondage, which is Hagar—

 25 for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children—26 but the ^aJerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all.
 27 For it is written:

^a"Rejoice, O barren,
 You who do not bear!
 Break forth and shout,
 You who are not in labor!
 For the desolate has many more children
 Than she who has a husband."

28 Now ^awe, brethren, as Isaac was, are ^bchildren of promise.
 29 But, as ^ahe who was born according to the flesh then persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, ^beven so it is now.
 30 Nevertheless what does ^athe Scripture say? ^b"Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for ^athe son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman."
 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but of the free.

Christian Liberty

5 ^aStand^b fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a ^byoke of bondage.
 2 Indeed I, Paul, say to you that if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing.
 3 And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised ^athat he is ^ba debtor to keep the whole law.
 4 ^aYou have become estranged from Christ, you who ^battempt to be justified by law; ^byou have fallen from grace.
 5 For we through the Spirit eagerly await for the hope of righteousness by faith.
 6 For ^ain Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but ^bfaith working through love.

Love Fulfils the Law

7 You ^aran well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth?
 8 This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you.
 9 ^aA little leaven leavens the whole lump.
 10 I have confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will have no other mind; but he who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

circumcision, ^awhy do I still suffer persecution? Then ^bthe offense of the cross has ceased.

12 ^aI could wish that those ^bwho trouble you would even ^ccut themselves off!

13 For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only ^ado not use liberty as an ^bopportunity for the flesh, but ^cthrough love serve one another.

14 For ^aall the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: ^b"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

15 But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!

Walking in the Spirit

16 I say then: ^aWalk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For ^athe flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, ^bso that you do not do the things that you wish.

18 But ^aif you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

19 Now ^athe works of the flesh are evident, which are: ^badultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness,

20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies,

21 envy, ^bmurders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that ^athose who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But ^athe fruit of the Spirit is ^blove, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, ^cgoodness, ^dfaithfulness, ^egentleness, self-control. ^fAgainst such there is no law.

24 And those who are Christ's ^ahave crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

25 ^aIf we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 ^aLet us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Bear and Share the Burdens

6 Brethren, if a man is ^bovertaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of ^cgentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted.

2 ^aBear one another's burdens, and so fulfill ^bthe law of Christ.

3 For ^aif anyone thinks himself to be something, when ^bhe is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But ^alet each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and ^bnot in another.

5 For ^aeach one shall bear his own load.

Be Generous and Do Good

6 ^aLet him who is taught the word share in all good things with him who teaches.

7 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for ^awhatever a man sows, that he will also reap.

8 For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap ^aeverlasting life.

9 And ^alet us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap ^bif we do not lose heart.

10 ^aTherefore, as we have opportunity, ^blet us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Glory Only in the Cross

11 See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand!

15 For ^ain Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation.

Blessing and a Plea

*The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to theEPHESIANS

EPHESIANS is addressed to a group of believers who are rich beyond measure in Jesus Christ, yet living as beggars, and only because they are ignorant of their wealth. Paul begins by describing in chapters 1–3 the contents of the Christian's heavenly "bank account": adoption, acceptance, redemption, forgiveness, wisdom, inheritance, the seal of the Holy Spirit, life grace, citizenship—in short, every spiritual blessing. In chapters 4–6 the Christian learns a spiritual walk rooted in his spiritual wealth. "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus [1–3] for good works, . . . that we should walk in them [4–6]" (2:10).

The traditional title of this epistle is Pros Ephesios, "To the Ephesians." Many ancient manuscripts, however, omit en Epheso, "in Ephesus," in 1:1. This has led a number of scholars to challenge the traditional view that this message was directed specifically to the Ephesians. The encyclical theory proposes that it was a circular letter sent by Paul to the churches of Asia. It is argued that Ephesians is really a Christian treatise designed for general use: it involves no controversy and deals with no specific problems in any particular church. Some scholars accept an ancient tradition that Ephesians is Paul's letter to the Laodiceans (Col. 4:16), but there is no way to be sure. If Ephesians began as a circular letter, it eventually became associated with Ephesus, the foremost of the Asian churches. Another plausible option is that this epistle was directly addressed to the Ephesians, but written in such a way as to make it helpful for all the churches in Asia.

Greeting

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus;

CHAPTER 1

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Redemption in Christ

3 ^aBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, 4 just as "He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, 5 having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, 6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He made us accepted in the Beloved.

7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace 8 which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself,

10 that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him. 11 In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will,

12 that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.

13 In Him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, 14 who¹ is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, 16 do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers: 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, 18 the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power 20 which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.

22 And "He put all things under His feet, and gave Him ^bto be head over all things to the church, 23 which is His body, ^bthe fullness of Him who fills all in all.

By Grace Through Faith

2 And "you He made alive, ^bwho were dead in trespasses and sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to ^bthe prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, 3 among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us,

5 even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved),

6 and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

7 that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9 not of works, lest anyone should boast.

10 For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

Brought Near by His Blood

11 Therefore remember that you, once Gentiles in the flesh—who are called Uncircumcision by what is called the Circumcision made in the flesh by hands—

12 that at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

Christ Our Peace

14 For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, 15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace,

16 and that He might ^areconcile them both to God in one body through the cross; thereby ^bputting to death the enmity.

17 And He came and preached peace to you who were afar off and to those who were near.

18 For ^athrough Him we both have access ^bby one Spirit to the Father.

Christ Our Cornerstone

19 Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, 20 having been ^abuilt ^bon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being ^athe chief cornerstone, 21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into ^a a holy temple in the Lord, 22 ^ain whom you also are being built together for a ^bdwelling place of God in the Spirit.

The Mystery Revealed

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles—

2 if indeed you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which was given to me for you,

3 ^ahow that by revelation ^bHe made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already,

4 by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ),

5 which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets: 6 that the Gentiles ^ashould be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel,

7 ^aof which I became a minister ^baccording to the gift of the grace of God given to me by ^cthe effective working of His power.

Purpose of the Mystery

8 To me, ^awho am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles ^bthe unsearchable riches of Christ,

9 and to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who ^acreated all things ^bthrough Jesus Christ;

10 ^ato the intent that now ^bthe manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church ^cto the principalities and powers in the heavenly places.

11 ^aaccording to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord,

12 in whom we have boldness and access ^awith confidence through faith in Him.

13 ^aTherefore I ask that you do not lose heart at my tribulations for you, ^bwhich is your glory.

Appreciation of the Mystery

14 For this reason I bow my knees to the ^aFather ^bof our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 that He would grant you, ^aaccording to the riches of His glory, ^bto be strengthened with might through His Spirit in ^cthe inner man,

17 ^athat Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, ^bbeing rooted and grounded in love,

18 ^amay be able to comprehend with all the saints ^bwhat is the width and length and depth and height—

19 to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled ^awith all the fullness of God.

20 Now ^ato Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly ^babove all that we ask or think, ^caccording to the power that works in us, 21 ^ato Him ^bbe glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Walk in Unity

4 I, therefore, the prisoner ^aof the Lord, ^bbeseech you to ^cwalk worthy of the calling with which you were called,

2 with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love,

3 endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit ^ain the bond of peace.

4 ^aThere is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling;

5 ^aone Lord, ^bone faith, ^cone baptism;

6 ^aone God and Father of all, who is above all, and ^bthrough all, and in ^cyou all.

Spiritual Gifts

7 But ^ato each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift.

8 Therefore He says:

*"When He ascended on high,
 He led captivity captive,
 And gave gifts to men."*

9 ^a(Now this, "He ascended"—what does it mean but that He also ^bfirst descended into the lower parts of the earth?)

10 He who descended is also the One ^awho ascended far above all the heavens, ^bthat He might fill all things.)

11 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers,

EPHESIANS 4:12

12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, ^afor the edifying of ^bthe body of Christ, 13 till we all come to the unity of the faith ^aand of the knowledge of the Son of God, to ^ba perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; 14 that we should no longer be ^achildren, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of ^bdeceitful plotting, 15 but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the ^ahead—Christ— 16 ^afrom whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.

The New Man

17 This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should ^ano longer walk as ^bthe rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, 18 having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the ^ablindness of their heart; 19 ^awho, being past feeling, ^bhave given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But you have not so learned Christ, 21 if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: 22 that you ^aput off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, 23 and ^bbe renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and that you ^aput on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Do Not Grieve the Spirit

25 Therefore, putting away lying, ^a“Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,” for ^bwe are members of one another. 26 ^a“Be angry, and do not sin”: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, 27 ^anor give ^bplace to the devil. 28 Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather ^alet him labor, working with ^bhis hands what is good, that he may have something ^bto give him who has need. 29 ^aLet no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but ^bwhat is good for necessary ^bedification, ^athat

Walk in Love

5 Therefore ^abe imitators of God as dear ^bchildren.

2 And ^awalk in love, ^bas Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God ^afor a sweet-smelling aroma. 3 But fornication and all uncleanness or ^bcovetousness, let it not even be named among you, as is fitting for saints; 4 ^aneither filthiness, nor ^bfoolish talking, nor coarse jesting, ^cwhich are not fitting, but rather ^dgiving of thanks.

5 For ^athis you know, that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any ^ainheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.

7 Therefore do not be ^apartakers with them.

Walk in Light

8 For you were once darkness, but now you are ^alight in the Lord. Walk as children of light

9 (for ^athe fruit of the ^bSpirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth),

10 ^afinding out what is acceptable to the Lord.

11 And have ^ano fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather ^bexpose them.

12 ^aFor it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret.

13 But ^aall things that are ^bexposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light.

14 Therefore He says:

“Awake, you who sleep,
Arise from the dead,
And Christ will give you light.”

Walk in Wisdom

15 ^aSee then that you walk ^bcircumspectly, not as fools but as wise,

16 ^aredeeming the time, ^bbecause the days are evil.

17 ^aTherefore do not be unwise, but ^bunderstand ^cwhat the will of the Lord is.

18 And ^ado not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, 19 speaking to one another ^ain psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making ^bmelody in your heart to the Lord.

 20 ^agiving thanks always for all things to God the Father ^bin the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 ^asubmitting to one another in the fear of ^bGod.

Marriage—Christ and the Church

22 Wives, ^asubmit to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
 23 For ^athe husband is head of the wife, as also ^bChrist is head of the church; and He is the Savior of the body.
 24 Therefore, just as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands ^ain everything.
 25 ^aHusbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and ^bgave Himself for her;
 26 that He might ¹sanctify and cleanse her ^awith the washing of water ^bby the word,
 27 ^athat He might present her to Himself a glorious church, ^bnot having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish.
 28 So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself.
 29 For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church.
 30 For ^awe are members of His body, ¹of His flesh and of His bones.
 31 ^a"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the ^btwo shall become one flesh."
 32 This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
 33 Nevertheless ^alet each one of you in particular so love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she ^brespects her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, ^aobey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
 2 ^a"Honor your father and mother;" which is the first commandment with promise:
 3 ^a"that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."
 4 And ^ayou, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but ^bbring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Bondservants and Masters

5 ^aBondservants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, ^bwith fear and trembling, ^cin sincerity of heart, as to Christ;

The Whole Armor of God

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might.

11 ^aPut on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the ^bwiles of the devil.

12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against ^aprincipalities, against powers, against ^bthe rulers of ^cthe darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly ^dplaces.

13 ^aTherefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand ^bin the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

19 and for me, that utterance may be given to me, ^athat I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 for which ^aI am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

A Gracious Greeting

21 But that you also may know my affairs ^aand how I am doing, ^dTychicus, a beloved brother and ^bfaithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you;

22 ^awhom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs, and ^bthat he may ^ccomfort your hearts.

23 Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS

PAUL writes a thank-you note to the believers at Philippi for their help in his hour of need, and he uses the occasion to send along some instruction on Christian unity. His central thought is simple: Only in Christ are real unity and joy possible. With Christ as your model of humility and service, you can enjoy a oneness of purpose, attitude, goal, and labor—a truth which Paul illustrates from his own life, and one the Philippians desperately need to hear. Within their own ranks, fellow workers in the Pilippian church are at odds, hindering the work in proclaiming new life in Christ. Because of this, Paul exhorts the church to “stand fast . . . be of the same mind . . . rejoice in the Lord always . . . but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known . . . and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (4:1, 2, 4, 6, 7).

This epistle is called Pros Philippesios, “To the Philippians.” The church at Philippi was the first church Paul founded in Macedonia.

Greeting

PAUL and Timothy, bondservants of Jesus Christ,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the ¹bishops and ^adeacons:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thankfulness and Prayer

3 ^aI thank my God upon every remembrance of you,
 4 always in ^aevery prayer of mine making request for you all with joy,
 5 ^afor your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now,
 6 being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun ^aa good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ;

7 just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace.

8 For God is my witness, how greatly I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment,
 10 that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ,

11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness ^awhich are by Jesus Christ, ^bto the glory and praise of God.

Christ Is Preached

12 But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel,

13 so that it has become evident ^ato the whole ^bpalace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ;
 14 and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill:

16 ^aThe former preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains;

17 but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.

18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

To Live Is Christ

19 For I know that ^athis will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but ^awith all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life ^bor by death.

21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I ^bcannot tell.

23 ^aFor I am hard-pressed between the two, having a ^adesire to depart and be with Christ, ^bwhich is ^bfar better.

24 Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith,

26 that ^ayour rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Striving and Suffering for Christ

27 Only ^alet your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, ^bwith one mind ^cstriving together for the faith of the gospel,
28 and not in any way terrified by your adversaries, which is to them a proof of perdition, but ^dto you of salvation, and that from God.
29 For to you ^eit has been granted on behalf of Christ, ^fnot only to believe in Him, but also to ^gsuffer for His sake, 30 ^hhaving the same conflict ⁱwhich you saw in me and now hear is in me.

Unity Through Humility

2 Therefore if there is any ^lconsolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any ^maffection and mercy,
2 ⁿfulfill my joy ^oby being like-minded, having the same love, being of ^pone accord, of one mind.
3 ^qLet nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but ^rin lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself.
4 ^sLet each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of ^tothers.

The Humbled and Exalted Christ

5 ^aLet this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus,
6 who, ^bbeing in the form of God, did not consider it ^crobbery to be equal with God,
7 ^dbut ^emade Himself of no reputation, taking the form ^fof a bond-servant, and ^gcoming in the likeness of men.
8 And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and ^hbecame ⁱobedient to ^jthe point of death, even the death of the cross.
9 ^kTherefore God also ^lhas highly exalted Him and ^mgiven Him the name which is above every name,
10 ⁿthat at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth,
11 and ^othat every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Light Bearers

12 Therefore, my beloved, ^pas you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, ^qwork out your own salvation with ^rfear and trembling;
13 for ^sit is God who works in you both to will and to do ^tfor His good pleasure.

14 Do all things ^dwithout ^ecom-
^fplaining and ^gdisputing,²
15 that you may become blameless and ^hharmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as ⁱlights in the world,

16 holding fast the word of life, so that ^lyou may rejoice in the day of Christ that ^mI have not run in vain or labored in ⁿevain.

17 Yes, and if ^oI am being poured out as ^pa drink offering on the sacrifice ^qand service of your faith, ^rI am glad and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same reason you also be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy Commanded

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send ^sTimothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your ^tstate.

20 For I have no one ^ulike-minded, who will sincerely care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are of Christ Jesus.

22 But you know his proven character, ^zthat as a son with ^{aa}his father he served with me in the gospel.

23 Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.

Epaphroditus Praised

25 Yet I considered it necessary to send to you ^{cc}Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and ^{dd}fellow soldier, ^{ee}but your messenger and ^{ff}the one who ministered to my need; ^{gg}since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.

27 For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem;

30 because for the work of Christ he came close to death, ^{jj}not regarding his life, ^{kk}to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

All for Christ

3 Finally, my brethren, ^{ll}rejoice in the Lord. For me to write the same things to you is not tedious, but for you ^{mm}it is safe.

2 ⁿⁿBeware of dogs, beware of ^{oo}evil workers, ^{pp}beware of the mutilation!

rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 though ^aI also might have confidence in the flesh. If anyone else thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I ^bmore so:

5 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, ^aof the tribe of Benjamin, ^ba Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, ^aa Pharisee; 6 concerning zeal, ^apersecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But ^awhat things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ.

8 Yet indeed I also count all things loss ^afor the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ

9 and be found in Him, not having ^amy own righteousness, which ^bis from the law, but ^bthat which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith;

10 that I may know Him and the ^apower of His resurrection, and the ^bfellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death,

11 if, by any means, I may ^aattain to the resurrection from the dead.

Pressing Toward the Goal

12 Not that I have already ^aattained,¹ or am already ^bperfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me.

13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and ^breaching forward to those things which are ahead,

14 ^aI press toward the goal for the prize of ^bthe upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Therefore let us, as many as are ^amature, ^bhave this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, ^cGod will reveal even this to you.

16 Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already ^aattained, ^alet us walk ^bby the same ^crule, let us be of the same mind.

Our Citizenship in Heaven

17 Brethren, ^ajoin in following my example, and note those who so walk, as ^byou have us for a pattern.

18 For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 ^awhose end is destruction, ^bwhose god is their belly, and ^cwhose glory is in their shame—^dwho set their mind on earthly things.

20 For ^aour citizenship is in heaven,

Be United, Joyful, and in Prayer

2 I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche ^ato be of the same mind in the Lord.

Meditate on These Things

8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are ^atrue, whatever things are ^bnoble, whatever things are ^cjust, ^dwhatever things are pure, whatever things are ^elovely, whatever things are of good report, if ^fthere is any virtue and if ^gthere is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last ^ayour care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, ^ato be content:

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the COLOSSIANS

IF Ephesians can be labeled the epistle portraying the "church of Christ," then Colossians must surely be the "Christ of the church." Ephesians focuses on the body; Colossians focuses on the Head. Like Ephesians, the little Book of Colossians divides neatly in half with the first portion doctrinal (1 and 2) and the second practical (3 and 4). Paul's purpose is to show that Christ is preeminent—first and foremost in everything—and the Christian's life should reflect that priority. Because believers are rooted in Him, alive in Him, hidden in Him, and complete in Him, it is utterly inconsistent for them to live life without Him. Clothed in His love, with His peace ruling in their hearts, they are equipped to make Christ first in every area of life.

This epistle became known as Pros Kolossaeis, "To the Colossians," because of 1:2. Paul also wanted it to be read in the neighboring church at Laodicea (4:16).

Greeting

PAUL, ^aan apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints ^aand faithful brethren in Christ who are in Colosse:

^bGrace to you and peace from God our Father ^band the Lord Jesus Christ.

Their Faith in Christ

3 ^aWe give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 ^asince we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of ^byour love for all the saints;

Preeminence of Christ

9 ^aFor this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask ^bthat you may be filled with ^cthe knowledge of His will ^din all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 ^athat you may walk worthy of the Lord, ^bfully pleasing Him, ^cbeing fruitful in every good work and increasing in the ^dknowledge of God;

14 ^ain whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is ^athe image of the invisible God, ^bthe firstborn over all creation.

16 For ^bby Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or ^bdominions or ^bprincipalities or ^bpowers. All things were created ^cthrough Him and for Him.

17 ^aAnd He is before all things, and in Him ^ball things consist.

18 And ^aHe is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, ^bthe firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

Reconciled in Christ

19 For it pleased the Father that ^ain Him all the fullness should dwell, ^band ^aby Him to reconcile ^ball things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, ^chaving made peace through the blood of His cross.

21 And you, ^awho once were alienated and enemies in your mind ^bby wicked works, yet now He has reconciled

22 ^ain the body of His flesh through death, ^bto present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight—

23 if indeed you continue ^ain the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are ^bnot moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, ^cwhich was preached to every creature under heaven, ^aof which I, Paul, became a minister.

Sacrificial Service for Christ

24 ^aI now rejoice in my sufferings ^bfor you, and fill up in my flesh ^cwhat is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for ^athe sake of His body, which is the church,

25 of which I became a minister according to ^athe ^bstewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God,

26 ^athe ^bmystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, ^bbut now has been revealed to His saints.

2 that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and ^cattaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, ^bboth of the Father and of Christ,

4 Now this I say ^alest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words.

5 For ^athough I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing ^bto see ^cyour good order and the ^csteadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him,

7 ^arooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding ^bin it with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest anyone ^bcheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to ^cthe tradition of men, according to the ^bbasic principles of the world, and not according to Christ.

9 For ^ain Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead ^bbodily;

10 and you are complete in Him, who is the ^ahead of all ^bprincipality and power.

Not Legalism but Christ

11 In Him you were also ^acircumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by ^bputting off the body ^cof the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ,

12 ^aburied with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through ^bfaith in the working of God, ^cwho raised Him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses,

Character of the New Man

12 Therefore, ^aas the elect of God, holy and beloved, ^bput on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering;

13 ^abearing with one another, and forgiving one another; if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do.

14 ^aBut above all these things ^bput on love, which is the ^cbond of perfection.

15 And let ^athe peace of God rule in your hearts, ^bto which also you were called ^cin one body; and ^dbe thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another ^ain psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And ^awhatever you do in word or deed, ^bdo all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

The Christian Home

18 ^aWives, submit to your own husbands, ^bas is fitting in the Lord.

19 ^aHusbands, love your wives and do not be ^bbitter toward them.

20 ^aChildren, obey your parents ^bin all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord.

21 ^aFathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.

22 ^aBondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyerservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God.

23 ^aAnd whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men.

24 ^aKnowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; ^bfor¹ you serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and ^athere is no partiality.

4 Masters,^a give your bondservants what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Christian Graces

2 ^aContinue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it ^bwith thanksgiving;

3 ^ameanwhile praying also for us, that God would ^bopen to us a door for the word, to speak the ^cmystery of Christ, ^dfor which I am also in chains,

4 that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
 5 ^aWalk in ^bwisdom toward those who are outside, ^credeeming the time.
 6 Let your speech always be ^awith grace, ^bseasoned with salt, ^cthat you may know how you ought to answer each one.

Final Greetings

7 ^aTychicus, a beloved brother, faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me.
 8 ^aI am sending him to you for this very purpose, that ^bhe may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts,

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS

PAUL has many pleasant memories of the days he spent with the infant Thessalonian church. Their faith, hope, love, and perseverance in the face of persecution are exemplary. Paul's labors as a spiritual parent to the fledgling church have been richly rewarded, and his affection is visible in every line of his letter.

Paul encourages them to excel in their newfound faith, to increase in their love for one another, and to rejoice, pray, and give thanks always. He closes his letter with instruction regarding the return of the Lord, whose advent signifies hope and comfort for believers both living and dead.

Because this is the first of Paul's two canonical letters to the church at Thessalonica, it received the title Pros Thessalonikeis A, the "First to the Thessalonians."

Greeting

PAUL, ^aSilvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the ^aThessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace ¹from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Their Good Example

2 ^aWe give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

4 knowing, beloved brethren, your election by God.

5 For ^aour gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, ^band in the Holy Spirit ^cand in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ^ayou became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, ^bwith joy of the Holy Spirit,

7 so that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe.

8 For from you the word of the Lord ^ahas sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also ^bin every place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything.

9 For they themselves declare concerning us ^awhat manner of entry we had to you, ^band how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God,

10 and ^ato wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivers us ^bfrom the wrath to come.

Paul's Conduct

2 For you yourselves know, brethren, that our coming to you was not in vain.

2 But ^aeven after we had suffered before and were spitefully treated at ^aPhilippi, as you know, we were ^bbold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much conflict.

3 ^aFor our exhortation did not come from error or uncleanness, nor was it in deceit.

4 But as ^awe have been approved by God ^bto be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, ^cnot as pleasing men, but God ^dwho tests our hearts.

5 For ^aneither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a ^bcloak for covetousness—^cGod is witness.

6 ^aNor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, when ^bwe might have ^cmade demands ^das apostles of Christ.

7 But ^awe were gentle among you, just as a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

8 So, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased ^ato impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also ^bour own lives, because you had become dear to us.

9 For you remember, brethren, our ^alabor and toil; for laboring night and day, ^bthat we might not be a burden to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

10 ^aYou are witnesses, and God also, ^bhow devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe;

11 as you know how we exhorted, and comforted, and ^ccharged every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12 ^athat you would walk worthy of God ^bwho calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

Their Conversion

13 For this reason we also thank God ^awithout ceasing, because when you ^breceived the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it ^cnot as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also effectively ^dworks in you who believe.

14 For you, brethren, became imitators ^aof the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For ^byou also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans,

15 ^awho killed both the Lord Jesus and ^btheir own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God ^cand are ^dcontrary to all men, 16 ^aforbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always ^bto fill up ^cthe measure of their sins; ^dbut wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

Longing to See Them

17 But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time ^ain presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we wanted to come to you—even I, Paul, time and again—but ^aSatan hindered us.

19 For ^awhat is our hope, or joy, or ^bcrown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the ^cpresence of our Lord Jesus Christ ^dat His coming?

20 For you are our glory and joy.

Concern for Their Faith

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone,

2 and sent ^aTimothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith,

3 ^athat no one should be shaken by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that ^bwe are appointed to this.

4 ^aFor, in fact, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it happened, and you know.

5 For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to know your faith, ^alest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and ^bour labor might be in vain.

Encouraged by Timothy

6 ^aBut now that Timothy has come to us from you, and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, greatly desiring to see us, ^bas we also to see you—

7 therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress ^awe were comforted concerning you by your faith.

8 For now we live, if you ^astand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake before our God, 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face and perfect what is lacking in your faith?

Prayer for the Church

11 Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.

12 And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you,

13 so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

Plea for Purity

4 Finally then, brethren, we urge and exhort in the Lord Jesus that you should abound more and more, just as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God;

2 for you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, by your sanctification: that you should abstain from sexual immorality;

4 that each of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

5 not in passion of lust, like the Gentiles who do not know God;

6 that no one should take advantage of and defraud his brother in this matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also forewarned you and testified.

7 For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in holiness.

8 Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given us His Holy Spirit.

A Brotherly and Orderly Life

9 But concerning brotherly love you have no need that I should write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another; 10 and indeed you do so toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, that you increase more and more;

11 that you also aspire to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,

12 that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and that you may lack nothing.

The Comfort of Christ's Coming who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.

15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep.

16 For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first.

17 Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.

18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you.

2 For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.

3 For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape.

4 But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief.

5 You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober.

7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night.

8 But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation.

9 For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

11 Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

Various Exhortations

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS

SINCE Paul's first letter, the seeds of false doctrine have been sown among the Thessalonians, causing them to waver in their faith. Paul removes these destructive seeds and again plants the seeds of truth. He begins by commanding the believers on their faithfulness in the midst of persecution and encouraging them that present suffering will be repaid with future glory. Therefore, in the midst of persecution, expectation can be high.

Paul then deals with the central matter of his letter: a misunderstanding spawned by false teachers regarding the coming day of the Lord. Despite reports to the contrary, that Day has not yet come, and Paul recounts the events that must first take place. Laboring for the gospel, rather than lazy resignation, is the proper response.

As the second letter in Paul's Thessalonian correspondence, this was entitled Pros Thessalonikeis B, the "Second to the Thessalonians."

Greeting

PAUL, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Final Judgment and Glory

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other, you among the churches of God ^bfor your patience and faith ^cin all your persecutions and ^dtribulations that you endure,

5 which is ^amanifest¹ evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, ^bfor which you also suffer;

6 ^asince it is a righteous thing with God to repay with ^btribulation those who trouble you,

7 and to give you who are troubled ^arest with us when ^bthe Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels,

8 in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 ^aThese shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and ^bfrom the glory of His power,

10 when He comes, in that Day, ^ato be ^bglorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who ^bbelieve, because our testimony among you was believed.

The Great Apostasy

2 Now, brethren, ^aconcerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ ^band our gathering together to Him, we ask you,

2 ^anot to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of ¹Christ had come.

3 Let no one deceive you by any means; for ^athat Day will not come ^bunless the falling away comes first, and ^bthe man of ^asin is revealed, ^cthe son of perdition, 4 who opposes and ^aexalts himself ^babove all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits ^aas God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?

6 And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time.

7 For ^athe ^bmystery of lawlessness is already at work; only ²He who now restrains ^awill do so until He is taken out of the way.

8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, ^awhom the Lord will consume ^bwith the breath of His mouth and destroy ^cwith the brightness of His coming.

9 The coming of the lawless one is ^aaccording to the working of Satan, with all power, ^bsigns, and lying wonders,

10 and with all unrighteous deception among ^athose who perish, because they did not receive ^bthe love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And ^afor this reason God will send them strong delusion, ^bthat they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but ^ahad pleasure in unrighteousness.

Stand Fast

13 But we are ^abound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God ^afrom the beginning ^bchose you for salvation ^cthrough ^dsanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth,

14 to which He called you by our gospel, for ^athe obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, ^astand fast and hold ^bthe traditions which you were taught, whether by word or our ^cepistle.

16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, ^awho has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and ^bgood hope by grace, 17 comfort your hearts ^aand ^bestablish you in every good word and work.

Pray for Us

3 Finally, brethren, ^apray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be glorified, just as it is with you,

2 and ^athat we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; ^bfor not all have faith.

3 But ^athe Lord is faithful, who will establish you and ^bguard you from the evil one.

4 And ^awe have confidence in the Lord concerning you, both that you do and will do the things we command you.

5 Now may ^athe Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ.

Warning Against Idleness

6 But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^athat you withdraw ^bfrom every brother who walks ^cdisorderly and not according to the tradition which ^dhe received from us.

7 For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, for we were not disorderly among you;

8 nor did we eat anyone's bread ^afree of charge, but worked with ^blabor and toil night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, ^cnot because we do not have ^dauthority, but to make ourselves an example of how you should follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, not working at all, but are ^abusybodies.

12 Now those who are such we command and ^bexhort through our Lord Jesus Christ ^athat they work in quietness and eat their own bread.

 13 But as for you, brethren, ^ado not grow weary in doing good.
 14 And if anyone does not obey our word in this epistle, note that person and ^ado not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed.
 15 ^aYet do not count him as an enemy, ^bbut ^aadmonish him as a brother.

*The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle toTIMOTHY

PAUL, the aged and experienced apostle, writes to the young pastor Timothy who is facing a heavy burden of responsibility in the church at Ephesus. The task is challenging: false doctrine must be erased, public worship safeguarded, and mature leadership developed. In addition to the conduct of the church, Paul talks pointedly about the conduct of the minister. Timothy must be on his guard lest his youthfulness become a liability, rather than as asset, to the gospel. He must be careful to avoid false teachers and greedy motives, pursuing instead righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and the gentleness that befits a man of God.

The Greek title for this letter is Pros Timotheon A, the “First to Timothy.” Timothy means “honoring God” or “honored by God,” and probably was given to him by his mother Eunice.

Greeting

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope,

2 To Timothy, a ^atrue son in the faith:

^bGrace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

No Other Doctrine

3 As I urged you ^awhen I went into Macedonia—remain in Ephesus that you may ^ccharge some ^bthat they teach no other doctrine, 4 ^anor give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than godly edification which is in faith.

5 Now ^athe purpose of the commandment is love ^bfrom a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from ^csincere faith,

6 from which some, having strayed, have turned aside to ^aidle talk,

7 desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say nor the things which they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is ^agood if one uses it lawfully,

9 knowing this: that the law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholly and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 for fornicators, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and if there is any other thing that is ^acontrary to sound doctrine, 11 according to the glorious gospel of the ^ablessed God which was committed to my trust.

Glory to God for His Grace

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord who has ^aenabled me, ^bbe-cause He counted me faithful,
^cputting me into the ministry,

13 although ^aI was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an ^binsolent man; but I obtained mercy because ^cI did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 ^aAnd the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant, ^bwith faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.

15 ^aThis is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that ^bChrist Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. 16 However, for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life. 17 Now to ^athe King eternal, ^bimmortal, ^cinvisible, to ^dGod ^ewho alone is wise, ^fbe honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Fight the Good Fight

18 This ¹charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, 19 having faith and a good conscience, which some having rejected, concerning the faith have suffered shipwreck, 20 of whom are ^aHymenaeus and ^bAlexander, whom I delivered to Satan that they may learn not to ^cblaspheme.

Pray for All Men

2 Therefore I ¹exhort first of all ²that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, 2 ^afor kings and ^ball who are in ^cauthority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and ^dreverence. 3 For this is ^agood and acceptable in the sight ^bof God our Savior, 4 ^awho desires all men to be saved ^band to come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 ^aFor there is one God and ^bone Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, 6 ^awho gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time, 7 ^afor which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am speaking the truth ^bin Christ and not lying—^ba teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Men and Women in the Church

8 I desire therefore that the men pray ^aeverywhere, ^blifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting; 9 in like manner also, that the ^awomen adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and ^bmoderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly clothing, 10 ^abut, which is proper for women professing godliness, with good works. 11 Let a woman learn in silence with all submission. 12 And ^aI do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence.

Qualifications of Overseers

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a ^bbishop, he desires a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach; 3 not ^agiven to wine, not violent, ^bnot greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not ^ccovetous; 4 one who rules his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence

5 (for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?); 6 not a ^anovice, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the same condemnation as the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good testimony among those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the ^asnare of the devil.

Qualifications of Deacons

8 Likewise deacons must be reverent, not double-tongued, ^anot given to much wine, not greedy for money, ^bholding the ^cmystery of the faith with a pure conscience.

10 But let these also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, being found blameless.

11 Likewise, their wives must be reverent, not ^aslanders, temperate, faithful in all things.

12 Let deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

The Great Mystery

14 These things I write to you, though I hope to come to you shortly; 15 but if I am delayed, I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ^bground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is the ^amystery of godliness:

^aGod^b was manifested in the flesh,

^bJustified in the Spirit,

^cSeen by angels,

^dPreached among the Gentiles,

^aBelieved on in the world,
^bReceived up in glory.

The Great Apostasy

4 Now the Spirit ¹expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed ^ato deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons,

2 ^aspeaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience ^bseared with a hot iron,

3 forbidding to marry, ^aand commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused if it is received with thanksgiving;

5 for it is ^asanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

6 If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, ^anourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed.

7 But ^areject profane and old wives' fables, and ^bexercise yourself toward godliness.

8 For ^abodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, ^bhaving promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For to this end ¹we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, ^awho is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

11 These things command and teach.

Take Heed to Your Ministry

12 Let no one ¹despise your youth, but be an ^aexample to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, ²in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to ¹doctrine. 14 ^aDo not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy ^bwith the laying on of the hands of the eldership.

15 Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.

16 Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Treatment of Church Members

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but ^aexhort him as a father, younger men as brothers,

2 older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

Honor True Widows

3 Honor widows who are really widows.

4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety at home and ^ato repay their parents; for this is ^bgood and acceptable before God.

5 Now she who is really a widow, and left alone, trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers ^anight and day.

6 But she who lives in ^bpleasure is dead while she lives.

7 And these things command, that they may be blameless.

8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, ^aand especially for those of his household, ^bhe has denied the faith ^cand is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Do not let a widow under sixty years old be taken into the number, ^aand not unless she has been the wife of one man,

10 well reported for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.

11 But ^brefuse ^athe younger widows; for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, 12 having condemnation because they have cast off their first ^bfaith.

13 And besides they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not.

14 Therefore I desire that ^athe younger widows marry, bear children, manage the house, give no opportunity to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some have already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any believing ^bman or woman has widows, let them ^arelieve them, and do not let the church be burdened, that it may relieve those who are really widows.

Honor the Elders

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture says, ^a"You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain," and, ^b"The laborer is worthy of his wages."

19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except ^afrom two or three witnesses.

20 Those who are sinning rebuke in the presence of all, that the rest also may fear.

21 I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the ^belect angels that you observe these things without ^aprejudice, doing nothing with partiality.

22 Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor ^ashare in other people's sins; keep yourself pure.

23 No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are ^aclearly evident, preceding them to judgment, but those of some men follow later.

25 Likewise, the good works of some are clearly evident, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

Honor Masters

6 Let as many ^abondservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and His doctrine may not be blasphemed.

2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren, but rather serve them because those who are benefited are believers and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

Error and Greed

3 If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to ^awholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^band to the ¹doctrine which accords with godliness,

4 he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions,

5 ^auseless wranglings of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. ²From ^asuch withdraw yourself.

6 Now godliness with ^acontentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, ¹and it is ^acertain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and clothing, with these we shall be ^acontent.

9 But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition.

18 Let them do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to give, willing to share, 19 ^astoring up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Guard the Faith

20 O Timothy! ^aGuard what was committed to your trust, ^bavoiding the profane and ¹idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge—

21 by professing it some have strayed concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to TIMOTHY

PRISON is the last place from which to expect a letter of encouragement, but that is where Paul's second letter to Timothy originates. He begins by assuring Timothy of his continuing love and prayers, and reminds him of his spiritual heritage and responsibilities. Only the one who perseveres, whether as a soldier, athlete, farmer, or minister of Jesus Christ, will reap the reward. Paul warns Timothy that his teaching will come under attack as men desert the truth for ear-itching words (4:3). But Timothy has Paul's example to guide him and God's Word to fortify him as he faces growing opposition and glowing opportunities in the last days.

Paul's last epistle received the title Pros Timotheon B, the "Second to Timothy." When Paul's epistles were collected together the B was probably added to distinguish this letter from the first letter he wrote to Timothy.

Greeting

PAUL, an apostle of ¹Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to to the ^apromise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, a ^abeloved son:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Timothy's Faith and Heritage

3 I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my ^aforefathers did, as without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day.

4 greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy,

5 when I call to remembrance ^athe genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and ^byour mother Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also.

preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, ^afor I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.

Be Loyal to the Faith

13 ^aHold fast ^bthe pattern of ^csound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed to you, keep by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

15 This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Phy�ellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord grant mercy to the ^ahousehold of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain;

17 but when he arrived in Rome, he sought me out very zealously and found me.

18 The Lord ^agrant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord ^bin that Day—and you know very well how many ways he ^cministered ^dto me at Ephesus.

Be Strong in Grace

2 You therefore, ^amy son, ^bbe strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

3 You therefore must ^aendure^b hardship ^cas a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 ^aNo one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of ^bthis life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier.

5 And also ^aif anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.

6 The hard-working farmer must be first to partake of the crops.
 7 Consider what I say, and ^amay the Lord ^bgive you understanding in all things.
 8 Remember that Jesus Christ, ^aof the seed of David, ^bwas raised from the dead ^caccording to my gospel,
 9 ^afor which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, ^beven to the point of chains; ^cbut the word of God is not chained.
 10 Therefore ^aI endure all things for the sake of the elect, ^bthat they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
 11 This is a faithful saying:

For ^aif we died with Him,
 We shall also live with Him.

12 If we endure,
 We shall also reign with Him.
 bIf we deny Him,
 He also will deny us.

13 If we are faithless,
 He remains faithful;
 He ^acannot deny Himself.

Approved and Disapproved Workers

14 Remind them of these things, ^acharging them before the Lord not to strive about words to no profit, to the ruin of the hearers.
 15 Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
 16 But shun profane and ^bidle babblings, for they will ^cincrease to more ungodliness.

17 And their message will spread like cancer. ^aHymenaeus and Philetus are of this sort, 18 who have strayed concerning the truth, ^asaying that the resurrection is already past; and they overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless ^athe solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord ^bknows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of ^cChrist depart from iniquity."

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honor and some for dishonor.

21 Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, ^bsanctified and useful for the Master, ^cprepared for every good work.

22 ^aFlee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife.

 26 and that they may come to their senses and ^aescape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

Perilous Times and Perilous Men

3 But know this, that ^ain the last days ^bperilous times will come:
 2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
 3 unloving, ^bunforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good,
 4 ^atraitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,
 5 ^ahaving a form of godliness but ^bdenying its power. And ^cfrom such people turn away!
 6 For ^aof this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts,
 7 always learning and never able ^ato come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth: ^bmen of corrupt minds, ^cdisapproved concerning the faith;
 9 but they will progress no further for their folly will be manifest to all, ^aas theirs also was.

The Man of God and the Word of God

10 But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance,

11 persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me ^aat Antioch, ^bat Iconium, ^cat Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And ^aout of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yes, and ^aall who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

14 But you must ^acontinue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them,

15 and that from childhood you have known ^athe Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, ^band is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for ^cinstruction in righteousness, 17 that the man of God may be complete, ^bthoroughly equipped for every good work.

Preach the Word

4 I ^acharge you ^btherefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, ^bwho will judge the living and the dead ^aat His appearing and His kingdom:

2 Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. ^aConvince, ^brebuke, ^cexhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.

3 ^aFor the time will come when they will not endure ^bsound doctrine, ^cbut according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers;

4 and they will turn ^atheir ears away from the truth, and ^bbe turned aside to fables.

5 But you be watchful in all things, ^aendure afflictions, do the work of ^ban evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

Paul's Valedictory

6 For ^aI am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of ^bmy departure is at hand.

7 ^aI have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

8 Finally, there is laid up for me ^athe crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous ^bJudge, will give to me ^con that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

*The Epistle of Paul the Apostle toTITUS

TITUS, a young pastor, faces the unenviable assignment of setting in order the church at Crete. Paul writes advising him to appoint elders, men of proven spiritual character in their homes and businesses, to oversee the work of the church. But elders are not the only individuals in the church who are required to excel spiritually. Men and women, young and old, each have their vital functions to fulfill in the church if they are to be living examples of the doctrine they profess. Throughout his letter to Titus, Paul stresses the necessary, practical working out of salvation in the daily lives of both the elders and the congregation. Good works are desirable and profitable for all believers.

This third Pastoral Epistle is simply titled Pros Titon, “To Titus.” Ironically, this was also the name of the Roman general who destroyed Jerusalem in A.D. 70 and succeeded his father Vespasian as emperor.

Greeting

PAUL, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and the acknowledgment of the truth which accords with godliness, 2 in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began, 3 but has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior; 4 To Titus, a true son in our common faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

Qualified Elders

5 For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you— 6 if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money,

8 but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled,

9 holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

The Elders' Task

10 For there are many insubordinate, both idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision,

11 whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of dishonest gain. 12 One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

13 This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn from the truth.

15 To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled.

16 They profess to know God, but in works they deny Him, being abominable, disobedient, and disqualified for every good work.

Qualities of a Sound Church

2 But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine:

2 that the older men be sober, reverent, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience;

3 the older women likewise, that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things—

4 that they admonish the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 to be discreet, chaste, ^ahomemakers, good, ^bobedient to their own husbands, ^cthat the word of God may not be blasphemed.

6 Likewise, exhort the young men to be sober-minded,

7 in all things showing yourself to be ^aa pattern of good works; in doctrine showing integrity, reverence, ^bincorruptibility,¹

8 sound speech that cannot be condemned, that one who is an opponent may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say of you.

9 Exhort ^abondservants to be obedient to their own masters, to be well pleasing in all ^bthings, not answering back,

10 not ^apilfering, but showing all good ^bfidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

Trained by Saving Grace

11 For ^athe grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men,

12 teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age,

13 looking for the blessed ^bhope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, 14 who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed ^band purify for Himself ^cHis own special people, zealous for good works.

15 Speak these things, ^aexhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Graces of the Heirs of Grace

3 Remind them ^ato be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, ^bto be ready for every good work,

2 to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men.

3 For ^awe ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another.

4 But when ^athe kindness and the love of ^bGod our Savior toward man appeared,

5 "not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through ^bthe washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit,
 6 "whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior,
 7 that having been justified by His grace ^awe should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
 8 "This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you to affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

Final Messages

12 When I send Artemas to you, or ^aLychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

13 Send Zenas the lawyer and ^aApollos on their journey with haste, that they may lack nothing.

14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to

PHILEMON

DOES Christian brotherly love really work, even in situations of extraordinary tension and difficulty? Will it work, for example, between a prominent slave owner and one of his runaway slaves? Paul has no doubt! He writes a “postcard” to Philemon, his beloved brother and fellow worker, on behalf of Onesimus—a deserter, thief, and formerly worthless slave, but now Philemon’s brother in Christ. With much tact and tenderness, Paul asks Philemon to receive Onesimus back with the same gentleness with which he would receive Paul himself. Any debt Onesimus owes, Paul promises to make good. Knowing Philemon, Paul is confident that brotherly love and forgiveness will carry the day.

Since this letter is addressed to Philemon in verse 1, it becomes known as Pros Philemona, “To Philemon.” Like First and Second Timothy and Titus, it is addressed to an individual, but unlike the Pastoral Epistles, Philemon is also addressed to a family and a church (v. 2).

Greeting

PAUL, a ^aprisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our beloved friend and fellow laborer, 2 to ¹the beloved Apphia, ^aArchippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

The Plea for Onesimus

8 Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to command you what is fitting, 9 yet for love’s sake I rather appeal to you—being such a one as Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ—

 10 I appeal to you for my son ^aOnesimus, whom I have begotten while in my chains, 11 who once was unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me.
 12 I am sending him ^bback. You therefore receive him, that is, my own ^cheart, 14 But without your consent I wanted to do nothing, ^dthat your good deed might not be by compulsion, as it were, but voluntary.

 15 For perhaps he departed for a while for this ^epurpose, that you might receive him forever,

 19 I, Paul, am writing with my own hand. I will repay—not to mention to you that you owe me even your own self besides.
 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.
 21 ^pHaving confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.
 22 But, meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for ^qI trust that ^rthrough your prayers I shall be granted to you.

The Epistle to the
HEBREWS

MANY Jewish believers, having stepped out of Judaism into Christianity, want to reverse their course in order to escape persecution by their countrymen. The writer of Hebrews exhorts them to “go on to perfection” (6:1). His appeal is based on the superiority of Christ over the Judaic system. Christ is better than the angels, for they worship Him. He is better than Moses, for He created him. He is better than the Aaronic priesthood, for His sacrifice was once for all time. He is better than the law, for He mediates a better covenant. In short, there is more to be gained in Christ than to be lost in Judaism. Pressing on in Christ produces tested faith, self-discipline, and a visible love seen in good works.

Although the King James Version uses the title “The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews,” there is no early manuscript evidence to support it. The oldest and most reliable title is simply Pros Ebraios, “To Hebrews.”

God's Supreme Revelation

The Son Exalted Above Angels

And again:

7 And of the angels He says:

^a"*Who makes His angels spirits
And His ministers a flame of fire.*"

8 But to the Son He says:

^a"*Your throne, O God, is forever

The Son Made Lower than Angels

5 For He has not put ^athe world to come, of which we speak, in subjection to angels.

6 But one testified in a certain place, saying:

^a"*What is man that You are mindful of him,
Or the son of man that You take care of him?*"

7 *You have made him ¹a little lower than the angels;
You have crowned him with glory and honor;*

²*And set him over the works of Your hands.*

8 ^a*You have put all things in subjection under his feet."*

For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing ^{that is} not put under him. But now ^bwe do not yet see all things put under him. 9 But we see Jesus, ^awho was made ¹a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death ^bcrowned with glory and honor, that He, by the grace of God, might taste death for everyone.

Bringing Many Sons to Glory

10 For it was fitting for Him, ^afor whom ^bare all things and by whom ^care all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation ^bperfect through sufferings.

11 For ^aboth He who ^bsanctifies and those who are being sanctified ^bbare all of one, for which reason ^cHe is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 saying:

^a"*I will declare Your name to My brethren;
In the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You."*

13 And again:

^a"I will put My trust in Him."

And again:

^b"Here am I and the children whom God has given Me."

14 Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He ^aHimself likewise shared in the same, ^bthat through death He might destroy him who had the power of ^cdeath, that is, the devil,

HEBREWS 2:15

15 and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham.

17 Therefore, in all things He had to be made like His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted.

The Son Was Faithful

3 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus,

2 who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was faithful in all His house.

3 For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as He who built the house has more honor than the house.

4 For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God.

5 And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward,

6 but Christ as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.

Be Faithful

7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says:

b "Today, if you will hear His voice,

8 Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
In the day of trial in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tested Me, tried Me,
And saw My works forty years.

10 Therefore I was angry with that generation,
And said, 'They always go astray in their heart,
And they have not known My ways.'

11 So I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.'

12 Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God;

13 but exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, 15 while it is said:

*a "Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."*

Failure of the Wilderness Wanderers

16 ^aFor who, having heard, rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt, led by Moses?

17 Now with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who did not obey?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

The Promise of Rest

4 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it.

2 For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.

3 For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:

*"So I swore in My wrath,
They shall not enter My rest,' "*

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way:

"And God rested on the seventh day from all His works".

5 and again in this place: "They shall not enter My rest."

6 Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience.

7 again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said:

*"Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts."*

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God.

10 For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

The Word Discovers Our Condition

11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is ^aliving and powerful, and ^bsharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is ^aa dis- cerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 ^aAnd there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things ^{are} ^bnaked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Our Compassionate High Priest

14 Seeing then that we have a great ^aHigh Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, ^blet us hold fast our confession.

15 For ^awe do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but ^bwas in all points tempted as we are, ^cyet without sin.

16 ^aLet us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Qualifications for High Priesthood

5 For every high priest taken from among men ^ais appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

2 He can ^bhave compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to ^cweakness.

3 Because of this he is required as for the people, so also for ^bhimself, to offer sacrifices for sins.

4 And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as ^aAaron was.

A Priest Forever

5 ^aSo also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him:

^b"*You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.*"

6 As He also says in another place:

^a"*You are a priest forever
According to the order of Melchizedek;*"

7 who, in the days of His flesh, when He had ^aoffered up prayers and supplications, ^bwith vehement cries and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and was heard ^dbecause of His godly fear,

8 though He was a Son, yet He learned ^cobedience by the things which He suffered.

9 And ^ahaving been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him,

Spiritual Immaturity

12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the ^boracles of God; and you have come to need ^amilk and not solid food.

13 For everyone who partakes ^aonly of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is ^aa babe. 14 But solid food belongs to those who are ^bof full age, ^cthat is, those who by reason of ^duse have their senses exercised ^eto discern both good and evil.

The Peril of Not Progressing

6 Therefore, ^aleaving the discussion of the elementary ^bprinciples of Christ, let us go on to ^cperfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from ^ddead works and of faith toward God,

2 ^aof the doctrine of baptisms, ^bof laying on of hands, ^cof resurrection of the dead, ^dand of eternal judgment.

3 And this ^bwe will do if God permits.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted ^athe heavenly gift, and ^bhave become partakers of the Holy Spirit, ^cand have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come,

6 ^aIf they fall away, to renew them again to repentance, ^bsince they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put ^cHim to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, ^areceives blessing from God;

8 ^abut if it bears thorns and briars, ^bit is rejected and near to being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

A Better Estimate

9 But, beloved, we are confident of better things concerning you, yes, things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner.

10 For ^aGod is not unjust to forget ^byour work and ^clabor of love which you have shown toward His name, ^din that you have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence ^ato the full assurance of hope until the end, 12 that you do not become ^bsluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience ^cinherit the promises.

God's Infallible Purpose in Christ

13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, ^aHe swore by Himself,
 14 saying, ^a*"Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."*
 15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the ^apromise.
 16 For men indeed swear by the greater, and ^aan oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute.
 17 Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to ^athe heirs of promise ^bthe ¹immutability of His counsel, ²confirmed it by an oath,
 18 that by two ¹immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to ^alie, we ²might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope ^bset before us.
 19 This ^ahope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, ^aand which enters the Presence behind the veil,
 20 ^awhere the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, ^bhaving become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

The King of Righteousness

7 For this ^aMelchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,
 2 to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated "king of righteousness," and then also king of Salem, meaning "king of peace,"
 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.
 4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the ^aspoils.
 5 And indeed ^athose who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to receive tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham;
 6 but he whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham ^aand blessed ^bhim who had the promises.
 7 Now beyond all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better.
 8 Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives ^athem, ^aof whom it is witnessed that he lives.
 9 Even Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak,
 10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

Need for a New Priesthood

11 ^aTherefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law.

13 For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has ^aofficiated at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord arose from ^bJudah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning ^apriesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest 16 who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life.

17 For ^aHe testifies:

^a*You are a priest forever
 According to the order of Melchizedek."*

18 For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of ^aits weakness and unprofitableness,

19 for ^athe law made nothing ^bperfect; on the other hand, there is the bringing in of ^ba better hope, through which ^awe draw near to God.

Greatness of the New Priest

20 And inasmuch as ^aHe was not made priest without an oath

21 (for they have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said to Him:

^a*"The LORD has sworn
 And will not relent,
 You are a priest ¹forever
 According to the order of Melchizedek' "),*

22 by so much more Jesus has become a ^bsurety of a ^abetter covenant.

23 Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing.

24 But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Therefore He is also ^aable to save ^bto the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives ^bto make intercession for them.

26 For such a High Priest was fitting for us, ^awho is holy, ^bharmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, ^aand has become higher than the heavens;

27 who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the people's, for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself.
 28 For the law appoints as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints the Son who has been perfected forever.

The New Priestly Service

8 Now this is the main point of the things we are saying: We have such a High Priest, ^awho is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,
 2 a Minister of ^athe 'sanctuary and of ^bthe true tabernacle which the Lord erected, and not man.
 3 For ^aevery high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore ^bit is necessary that this One also have something to offer.
 4 For if He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law;
 5 who serve ^athe copy and ^bshadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle. For He said, ^c"See that you make all things according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."
 6 But now ^aHe has obtained a more excellent ministry, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a ^bbetter covenant, which was established on better promises.

A New Covenant

7 For if that ^afirst covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.
 8 Because finding fault with them, He says: ^a"Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah—
 9 "not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the LORD.
 10 "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the ^aLORD: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and ^bI will be their God, and they shall be My people.

11 ^a"None of them shall teach his neighbor, and none his brother, saying, 'Know the ^bLORD,' for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.
 12 "For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, ^aand their sins ^band their lawless deeds I will remember no more."

13 In that He says, "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

The Earthly Sanctuary

9 Then indeed, even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and ^athe earthly sanctuary.

2 For a tabernacle was prepared: the first part, in which was the lampstand, the table, and the showbread, which is called the 'sanctuary;

3 ^aand behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All,

4 which had the ^agolden censer and ^bthe ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were the golden pot that had the manna, ^aAaron's rod that budded, and ^bthe tablets of the covenant;

5 ^aand ^babove it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

Limitations of the Earthly Service

6 Now when these things had been thus prepared, ^athe priests always went into the first part of the tabernacle, performing the services.

7 But into the second part the high priest went alone ^aonce a year, not without blood, which he offered for ^bhimself and ^cfor the people's sins committed in ignorance;

8 the Holy Spirit indicating this, that ^athe way into the Holiest of All was not yet made manifest while the first tabernacle was still standing.

9 It was symbolic for the present time in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered ^awhich cannot make him who performed the service perfect in regard to the conscience—

10 concerned only with foods and drinks, ^bvarious ^cwashings, ^dand fleshly ordinances imposed until the time of reformation.

The Heavenly Sanctuary

11 But Christ came as High Priest of ^athe good things ^bto come, with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation.

12 Not ^awith the blood of goats and calves, but ^bwith His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place ^conce for all, ^dhaving obtained eternal redemption.

13 For if ^athe blood of bulls and goats and ^bthe ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, ^csanctifies for the ^dpurifying of the flesh,

14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal

HEBREWS 9:15

Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, "cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?"

15 And for this reason He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

The Mediator's Death Necessary

16 For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives.

18 Therefore not even the first covenant was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,

20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."

21 Then likewise he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

Greatness of Christ's Sacrifice

23 Therefore it was necessary that the copies of the things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us;

25 not that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood of another—

26 He then would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

27 And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment, 28 so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many. To those who eagerly wait for Him He will appear a second time, apart from sin, for salvation.

Animal Sacrifices Insufficient

10 For the law, having a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, bcan never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once purified, would have had no more consciousness of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins.

Christ's Death Fulfills God's Will

5 Therefore, when He came into the world, He said:

^a"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
But a body You have prepared for Me.

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin

You had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—
In the volume of the book it is written of Me—
To do Your will, O God.' "

8 Previously saying, "Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them" (which are offered according to the law),

9 then He said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will, 'O God.' " He takes away the first that He may establish the second.

10 By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Christ's Death Perfects the Sanctified

11 And every priest stands ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

12 But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God, from that time waiting till His enemies are made His footstool.

14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.

15 But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before,

16 ^a"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them,"

17 then He adds, ^a"Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more."

18 Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Hold Fast Your Confession

19 Therefore, brethren, having ^aboldness¹ to enter ^bthe Holiest by the blood of Jesus,
20 by a new and ^aliving way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh,
21 and ^ahaving a High Priest over the house of God,
22 let us ^adraw near with a true heart ^bin full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the confession of ^aour hope without wavering, for ^aHe who promised is faithful.
24 And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works,
25 ^anot forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and ^bso much the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Just Live by Faith

26 For ^aif we sin willfully ^bafter we have received the knowledge of the truth, there ^cno longer remains a sacrifice for sins,
27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and ^afiery indignation which will devour the adversaries.
28 Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three ^awitnesses.
29 ^aOf how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, ^bcounted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace?
30 For we know Him who said, ^a"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," ^bsays the Lord. And again, ^b"The LORD will judge His people."
31 ^aIt is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
32 But ^arecall the former days in which, after you were ^billuminated, you endured a great struggle with sufferings:
33 partly while you were made ^aa spectacle both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while ^byou became companions of those who were so treated;
34 for you had compassion on ^ame ^bin my chains, and ^bjoyfully accepted the plundering of your ^agoods, knowing that ^cyou have a better and an enduring possession for yourselves ^ain heaven.
35 Therefore do not cast away your confidence, ^awhich has great reward.
36 ^aFor you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, ^byou may receive the promise:

HEBREWS 11:11

37 ^aFor ^ayet a little while, And ^bHe^cl who is coming will come and will not ^barry.
38 Now ^athe^b just shall live by faith;
^cBut if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him."

39 But we are not of those ^awho draw back to ^bperdition, but of those who ^bbelieve to the saving of the soul.

By Faith We Understand

11 Now faith is the ^asubstance of things hoped for, the ^bevidence ^cof things not seen.
2 For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.
3 By faith we understand that ^athe ^bworlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

Faith at the Dawn of History

4 By faith ^aAbel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still ^bspeaks.
5 By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, ^a"and was not found, because God had taken him"; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
6 But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and ^athat He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.
7 By faith ^aNoah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, ^bprepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of ^athe righteousness which is according to faith.

Faithful Abraham

8 By faith ^aAbraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.
9 By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, ^adwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, ^bthe heirs with him of the same promise;
10 for he waited for ^athe city which has foundations, ^bwhose builder and maker is God.
11 By faith ^aSarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and ^bshe^c bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him ^cfaithful who had promised.

HEBREWS 11:12

12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

The Heavenly Hope

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland.

15 And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

The Faith of the Patriarchs

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

18 of whom it was said, "In Isaac your seed shall be called,"

19 concluding that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

The Faith of Moses

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's command.

24 By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

25 choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin,

26 esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he looked to the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible.

28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

By Faith They Overcame

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were encircled for seven days.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and Barak and Samson and Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets:

33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented—

38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth.

39 Good all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, 40 God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

The Race of Faith

12 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,

2 looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Discipline of God

3 For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, blest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.

4 ^aYou have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin.
5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

*a My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;*
6 For ^awhom the LORD loves He chastens,
And scourges every son whom He receives."

7 ^aIf you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what ^bson is there whom a father does not chasten?

8 But if you are without chastening, ^aof which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid ^bthem respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live?

10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness.

11 Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Renew Your Spiritual Vitality

12 Therefore strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees,

13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

14 Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, ^bwithout which no one will see the Lord:

15 looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any ^broot of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled;

16 lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, ^bwho for one morsel of food sold his birthright.

17 For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

The Glorious Company

18 For you have not come ^ato the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and ^bdarkness and tempest, 19 and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it ^abegged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore.

22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels,

23 to the general assembly and church of the firstborn ^bwho are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men ^cmade perfect,

24 to Jesus ^athe Mediator of the new covenant, and to ^bthe blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.

Hear the Heavenly Voice

25 See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For ^aif they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven,

26 whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, ^a"Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven."

27 Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we ^amay serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

29 For ^aour God is a consuming fire.

Concluding Moral Directions

13 Let ^abrotherly love continue.

2 Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing ^bsome have unwittingly entertained angels.

3 Remember the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also.

4 Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; ^bbut fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, ^a"I will never leave you nor forsake you."

6 So we may boldly say:

*a The LORD is my helper;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?"*

Concluding Religious Directions

7 Remember those who ^arule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

9 Do not be carried ¹about with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.

11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.

12 Therefore Jesus also, that He might ¹sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate.

13 Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing ^aHis reproach.

14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come.

15 ^aTherefore by Him let us continually offer ^bthe sacrifice of praise to God, that is, ^cthe fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

16 ^aBut do not forget to do good and to share, for ^bwith such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 ^aObey those who ¹rule over you, and be submissive, for ^bthey watch out for your souls, as those who must

The Epistle of

JAMES

FAITH without works cannot be called faith. "Faith without works is dead" (2:26), and a dead faith is worse than no faith at all. Faith must work, it must produce, it must be visible. Verbal faith is not enough; mental faith is insufficient. Faith must be there, but it must be more. It must inspire action. Throughout his epistle to Jewish believers, James integrates true faith and everyday practical experience by stressing that true faith must manifest itself in works of faith.

Faith endures trials. Trials come and go, but a strong faith will face them head-on and develop endurance. Faith understands temptations. It will not allow us to consent to our lust and slide into sin. Faith obeys the Word. It will not merely hear and not do. Faith produces doers. Faith harbors no prejudice. For James, faith and favoritism cannot coexist. Faith displays itself in works. Faith is more than mere words; it is more than knowledge; it is demonstrated by obedience; and it overtly responds to the promises of God. Faith controls the tongue. This small but immensely powerful part of the body must be held in check. Faith can do it. Faith acts wisely. It gives us the ability to choose wisdom that is heavenly and to shun wisdom that is earthly. Faith produces separation from the world and submission to God. It provides us with the ability to resist the Devil and humbly draw near to God. Finally, faith waits patiently for the coming of the Lord. Through trouble and trial it stifles complaining.

The name Iakobos (James) in 1:1 is the basis for the early title Iakobou Epistle, "Epistle of James." Iakobos is the Greek form of the Hebrew name Jacob, a Jewish name common in the first century.

Greeting to the Twelve Tribes

JAMES, ^aa bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

Profiting from Trials

2 My brethren, ^acount it all joy ^bwhen you fall into various trials, ³ ^aknowing that the testing of your faith produces ^bpatience.

4 But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be ^bperfect and complete, lacking nothing.

5 ^aIf any of you lacks wisdom, ^blet him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and ^cit will be given to him.

6 ^aBut let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind.

7 For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord;

8 he is ^aa double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

The Perspective of Rich and Poor

9 Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation,

10 but the rich in his humiliation, because ^aas a flower of the field he will pass away.

11 For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

Loving God Under Trials

12 ^aBlessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive ^bthe crown of life ^cwhich the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone.

14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed.

15 Then, ^awhen desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, ^bbrings forth death.

16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.

18 ^aOf His own will He brought us forth by the ^bword of truth, ^cthat we might be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.

Qualities Needed in Trials

19 ^aSo then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, ^bslow to speak, ^cslow to wrath; ^d20 for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

Doers—Not Hearers Only

21 Therefore ^alay aside all filthiness and ^boverflow of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, ^bwhich is able to save your souls.

22 But ^abe doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

23 For ^aif anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror;

24 for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.

25 But ^ahe who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, ^bthis one will be blessed in what he does.

26 If anyone ^aamong you thinks he is religious, and ^bdoes not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless.

27 ^aPure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: ^bto visit orphans and widows in their trouble, ^cand to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Beware of Personal Favoritism

2 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^athe Lord of glory, with ^bpartiality.

2 For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in ^bfine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in ^cfilthy clothes,

3 and you ^apay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand there," or, "Sit here at my footstool,"

4 have you not ¹shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my beloved brethren: ^aHas God not chosen the poor of this world to be ^brich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

6 But ^ayou have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you ^band drag you into the courts?

7 Do they not blaspheme that noble name by which you are ^ccalled?

8 If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, ^a"You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well;

9 but if you ¹show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as ^atransgressors.

10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet ^astumble in one point, ^bhe is guilty of all.

11 For He who said, ^a"Do not commit adultery," also said, ^b"Do not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak and so do as those who will be judged by ^athe law of liberty.

13 For ^ajudgment is without mercy to the one who has shown ^bno ^cmercy. ^dMercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith Without Works Is Dead

14 ^aWhat does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him?

15 ^aIf a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food,

16 and ^aone of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what ^adoes it profit?

17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." ^aShow me your faith without ^byour works, ^band I will show you my faith by ^bmy works.

19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble!

20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is ^adead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works ^awhen he offered Isaac his son on the altar?

22 Do you see ^athat faith was working together with his works, and by ^bworks faith was made ^aperfect?

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, ^a"Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called ^bthe friend of God.

25 Likewise, ^awas not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent ^bthem out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The Untamable Tongue

3 My brethren, ^alet not many of you become teachers, ^bknowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment.

2 For ^awe all stumble in many things. ^bIf anyone does not stumble in word, ^che is a ^dperfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

3 ^aIndeed, ^bwe put bits in horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body.

4 Look also at ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires.

5 Even so ^athe tongue is a little member and ^bboasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles!

6 And ^athe tongue is a fire, a world of ^biniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it ^bdefiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of ^cnature; and it is set on fire by ^dhell.

7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind.

8 But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made ^ain the ^bsimilitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so.

11 Does a spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening?

12 Can a ^afig tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? ^bThus no spring yields both salt water and fresh.

Heavenly Versus Demonic Wisdom

13 ^aWho is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom.

14 But if you have ^abitter envy and ^bself-seeking in your hearts, ^bdo not boast and lie against the truth.

15 ^aThis wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic.

16 For ^awhere envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there.

17 But ^athe wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, ^bwithout partiality and without hypocrisy.

18 ^aNow the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Pride Promotes Strife

4 Where do ¹wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure ^athat war in your members?

2 You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and ¹war. ²Yet you do not have because you do not ask.

3 ^aYou ask and do not receive, ^bbecause you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures.

4 ¹Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that ^afriendship with the world is enmity with God?

^bWhoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "^aThe Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"?

6 But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:

*"God resists the proud,
But gives grace to the humble."*

Humility Cures Worldliness

7 Therefore submit to God. ^aResist the devil and he will flee from you.

8 ^aDraw near to God and He will draw near to you. ^bCleanse your hands, you sinners; and ^cpurify your hearts, you double-minded.

9 ^aLament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom.

10 ^aHumble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Do Not Judge a Brother

11 ^aDo not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother ^band judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

12 There is one ¹Lawgiver, ^awho is able to save and to destroy. ^bWho² are you to judge ³another?

Do Not Boast About Tomorrow

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow ¹we will go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit";

14 whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? ^aIt is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

15 Instead you ought to say, "^aIf the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that."

16 But now you boast in your arrogance. ^aAll such boasting is evil.

17 Therefore, ^ato him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Rich Oppressors Will Be Judged

5 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you!

2 Your riches ^aare corrupted, and ^byour garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. ^aYou have heaped up treasure in the last days.

4 Indeed ^athe wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and ^bthe cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 You have lived on the earth in pleasure and ¹luxury; you have ²fattened your hearts ³as in a day of slaughter.

6 You have condemned, you have murdered the just; he does not resist you.

Be Patient and Persevering

7 Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain.

8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord ^ais at hand.

9 Do not ¹grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be ²condemned. Behold, the Judge is standing at the door!

10 ^aMy brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and ^bpatience.

11 Indeed ^awe count them blessed who ^bendure. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen ^athe end intended by the Lord—that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

12 But above all, my brethren, ^ado not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes," and your "No," "No," lest you fall into ¹judgment.

Meeting Specific Needs

The First Epistle of

PETER

PERSECUTION can cause either growth or bitterness in the Christian life. Response determines the result. In writing to Jewish believers struggling in the midst of persecution, Peter encourages them to conduct themselves courageously for the Person and program of Christ. Both their character and conduct must be above reproach. Having been born again to a living hope, they are to imitate the Holy One who has called them. The fruit of that character will be conduct rooted in submission: citizens to government, servants to masters, wives to husbands, husbands to wives, and Christians to one another. Only after submission is fully understood does Peter deal with the difficult area of suffering. The Christians are not to “think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you” (4:12), but are to rejoice as partakers of the suffering of Christ. That response to life is truly the climax of one’s submission to the good hand of God.

This epistle begins with the phrase Petros apostolos Iesou Christou, “Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ.” This is the basis of the early title Petrou A, the “First of Peter.”

away, ^areserved in heaven for you, 5 ^awho are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 ^aIn this you greatly rejoice, though now ^bfor a little while, if need be, ^cyou have been ^dgrieved by various trials,

7 ^athat ^bthe genuineness of your faith, ^cbeing much more precious than gold that perishes, though ^dit is tested by fire, ^emay be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

8 ^awhom having not ^bseen you love. ^bThough now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,

9 ^areceiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.

10 Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace ^fthat would come to you,

11 searching what, or what manner of time, ^athe Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.

12 To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to ^bus they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which ^cangels desire to look into.

Living Before God Our Father

13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest ^dyour hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 as obedient children, not ^econforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance;

15 ^fbut as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct,

16 because it is written, "Be holy, for I am holy."

17 And if you call on the Father, who ^gwithout partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your ^hstay here in fear;

18 knowing that you were not redeemed with ⁱcorruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers,

19 but ^jwith the precious blood of Christ, ^kas of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

20 ^lHe indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was ^mmanifest ⁿin these last times for you

21 who through Him believe in God, ^owho raised Him from the dead and ^pgave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The Enduring Word

22 Since you ^qhave purified your souls in obeying the truth ^rthrough the Spirit in ^ssincere ^tlove of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart,

23 ^uhaving been born again, not of ^vcorruptible seed but ^wincorruptible, ^xthrough the word of God which lives and abides ^yforever,

24 because

*"All flesh is as grass,
And all ^zthe glory of man as the flower of the grass.
The grass withers,
And its flower falls away,
25 But the ^{aa}word of the LORD endures forever."*

^{aa}Now this is the word which by the gospel was preached to you.

2 ^bas newborn babes, desire the pure ^cmilk of the word, that you may grow ^dthereby,
3 if indeed you have ^etasted that the Lord is gracious.

The Chosen Stone and His Chosen People

4 Coming to Him ^fas to a living stone, ^grejected indeed by men, but chosen by God ^hand precious,

5 you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

6 Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

*"Behold, I lay in Zion
A chief cornerstone, elect, precious.
And he who believes on Him will by no means be put to shame."*

7 Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who ⁱare disobedient,

*"The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone,"*

8 and

*"A stone of stumbling
And a rock of offense."*

^jThey stumble, being disobedient to the word, ^kto which they also were appointed.

9 But you ^lare a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of ^mdarkness into His marvelous light;

10 ⁿwho once were not a people but ^oare now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Living Before the World

11 Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts ^pwhich war against the soul,

12 ^qhaving your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, ^rthey may, by your good works which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Government

13 ^sTherefore submit yourselves to every ^tordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme,

1 PETER 2:14

14 or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good.

15 For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men—

16 as free, yet not ^busing liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God.

17 Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear ^aGod. Honor the king.

Submission to Masters

18 ^aServants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh.

19 For this is ^acommendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For ^awhat credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God.

21 For ^ato this you were called, because Christ also suffered for ^bus, leaving ²us an example, that you should follow His steps:

22 "Who^a committed no sin,
Nor was deceit found in His mouth";

23 ^awho, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but ^bcommitted Himself to Him who judges righteously;

24 ^awho Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, ^bthat we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—^cby whose ^bstripes you were healed.

25 For ^ayou were like sheep going astray, but have now returned ^bto the Shepherd and ^cOverseer of your souls.

Submission to Husbands

3 Wives, likewise, be ^asubmissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, ^bthey, without a word, may ^cbe won by the conduct of their wives.

2 ^awhen they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear.

3 ^aDo not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel—

4 rather let it be ^athe hidden person of the heart, with the ^bincorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.

5 For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands,

A Word to Husbands

7 ^aHusbands, likewise, dwell with ^bthem with understanding, giving honor to the wife, ^bas to the weaker vessel, and as ^cbeing heirs together of the grace of life, ^dthat your prayers may not be hindered.

Called to Blessing

8 Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tender-hearted, be ^{courteous};

9 ^anot returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary ^bblessing, knowing that you were called to this, ^cthat you may inherit a blessing.

10 For

^a"He who would love life

^bAnd see good days,

^cLet him ^drefrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips from speaking deceit.

11 Let him ^aturn away from evil and do good;
^bLet him seek peace and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
^aAnd His ears are open to their prayers;
But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil."

Suffering for Right and Wrong

13 ^aAnd who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good?

14 ^aBut even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. ^b"And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled."

15 But ^asanctify ^bthe Lord God in your hearts, and always ^cbe ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the ^bhope that is in you, with meekness and fear;

16 ^ahaving a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed.

17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

Christ's Suffering and Ours

18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring ^bus to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit,

19 by whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison,

20 who formerly were disobedient,

^awhen once the Divine longsuffering waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.

1069

21 ^aThere is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism ^b(not the removal of the filth of the flesh, ^cbut the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

22 who has gone into heaven and ^ais at the right hand of God, ^bangels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered ^afor us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

2 that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, ^abut for the will of God.

3 For we have spent enough of our past lifetime in doing the will of the Gentiles—when we walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, revelries, drinking parties, and abominable idolatries.

4 In regard to these, they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you.

5 They will give an account to Him who is ready ^ato judge the living and the dead.

6 For this reason ^athe gospel was preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but ^blive according to God in the spirit.

Serving for God's Glory

7 But ^athe end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers.

8 And above all things have fervent love for one another, for ^a“love will cover a multitude of sins.”

9 ^aBe hospitable to one another ^bwithout grumbling.

10 ^aAs each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, ^bas good stewards of ^cthe manifold grace of God.

11 ^aIf anyone speaks, let him speak as the ^boracles of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that ^bin all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the ^cdominion forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for God's Glory

12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you;

13 but rejoice ^ato the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that ^bwhen His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.

1 PETER 5:10

14 If you are ^areproached for the name of Christ, ^bblessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. ^cOn their part He is blasphemed, ^bbut on your part He is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a ^bbusybody in other people's matters.

16 Yet if ^aanyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this ^cmatter.

17 For the time ^ahas come ^cfor judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it ^bbegins with us first, ^bwhat will ^cbe the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

18 Now

^a“If the righteous one is scarcely saved,
Where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?”

19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God ^acommit their souls to ^bHim in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

Shepherd the Flock

5 The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a ^awitness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the ^bglory that will be revealed:

2 ^aShepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, ^bnot by compulsion but ^cwillingly, ^cnot for dishonest gain but eagerly;

3 nor as ^abeing ^blords over ^bthose entrusted to you, but ^cbeing examples to the flock;

4 and when ^athe Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive ^bthe crown of glory that does not fade away.

Submit to God, Resist the Devil

5 Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to ^ayour elders. Yes, ^aall of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for

^b“God resists the proud,
But ^cgives grace to the humble.”

6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time,

7 casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

8 Be ^asober, be ^bvigilant; ^cbecause your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

9 Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world.

The Second Epistle of
PETER

FIRST Peter deals with problems from the outside; Second Peter deals with problems from the inside. Peter writes to warn the believers about the false teachers who are peddling damaging doctrine. He begins by urging them to keep close watch on their personal lives. The Christian life demands diligence in pursuing moral excellence, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and selfless love. By contrast, the false teachers are sensual, arrogant, greedy, and covetous. They scoff at the thought of future judgment and live their lives as if the present would be the pattern for the future. Peter reminds them that although God may be longsuffering in sending judgment, ultimately it will come. In view of that fact, believers should live lives of godliness, blamelessness, and steadfastness.

The statement of authorship in 1:1 is very clear: "Simon Peter, a bondservant and apostle of Jesus Christ." To distinguish this epistle from the first by Peter it was given the Greek title Petrou B, the "Second of Peter."

Greeting the Faithful

SIMON Peter, a bondservant and ^aapostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have ¹obtained ^blike² precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 ^aGrace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,
 3 as His ^adivine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him ^bwho called us by glory and virtue,
 4 ^aby which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be ^bpartakers of the divine nature, having escaped the ¹corruption that is in the world through lust.

Fruitful Growth in the Faith

5 But also for this very reason, ^agiving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue ^bknowledge, 6 to knowledge self-control, to

7 to godliness brotherly kindness, and ^ato brotherly kindness love.

8 For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither ¹barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For he who lacks these things is ^ashortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent ^ato make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble;

11 for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter's Approaching Death

12 For this reason ^aI will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, ^bthough you know and are established in the present truth.

13 Yes, I think it is right, ^aas long as I am in this ^btent, ^bto stir you up by reminding you,
¹⁴ ^aknowing that shortly I must ^bput off my tent, just as ^bour Lord Jesus Christ showed me.

15 Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my ^cdecease.

The Trustworthy Prophetic Word

16 For we did not follow ^acunningly devised fables when we made known to you the ^bpower and ^ccoming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were ^deyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For He received from God the Father honor and glory when such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory: ^a“This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on ^athe holy mountain.

19 ^aAnd so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a ^alight that shines in a dark place, ^buntil the day dawns and the morning star rises in your ^chearts;

20 knowing this first, that ^ano prophecy of Scripture is of any private ^binterpretation,

21 for ^aprophecy never came by the will of man, ^bbut ^choly men of God spoke ^aas they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Destructive Doctrines

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be ^afalse teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction.

2 And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed.

3 By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction ^adoes not slumber.

Doom of False Teachers

4 For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to ^bhell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment;

5 and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly;

6 and turning the cities of ^aSodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly;

^b[Heb. 6:4–6]

^cLuke 12:47

8 (for that righteous man, dwelling among them, ^atormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds)—

9 ^athen ^bthe Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment, 10 and especially ^athose who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. ^bThey are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of ^cdignitaries, 11 whereas ^aangels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

Depravity of False Teachers

12 But these, ^alike natural brute beasts made to be caught and destroyed, speak evil of the things they do not understand, and will utterly perish in their own corruption,

13 ^aand will receive the wages of unrighteousness, ^bas those who count it pleasure ^cto ^dcarouse in the daytime. ^eThey are spots and blemishes, ^fcarousing in their own deceptions while ^athey feast with you, 14 having eyes full of ^badultery and that cannot cease from sin, enticing unstable souls. ^aThey have a heart trained in covetous practices, ^band are accursed children.

15 They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of ^aBalaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 16 but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet.

17 ^aThese are wells without water, ^bclouds carried by a tempest, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness ^cforever.

Deception of False Teachers

18 For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who ^ahave actually escaped from those who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of ^bcorruption; ^cfor by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into ^dbondage.

20 For if, after they ^ahave escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are ^bagain entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning.

21 For ^ait would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

22 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: "A dog returns to his own vomit," and, "a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire."

God's Promise Is Not Slack

3 Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder),

2 that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, band of the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior,

3 knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts,

4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming?" For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation."

5 For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water,

6 by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water.

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

The Day of the Lord

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.

11 Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Be Steadfast

14 Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless;

15 and consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you,

16 as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.

17 You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked;

18 but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

The First Epistle of

JOHN

GOD is light; God is love; and God is life. John is enjoying a delightful fellowship with that God of light, love, and life, and he desperately desires that his spiritual children enjoy the same fellowship.

God is light. Therefore, to engage in fellowship with Him we must walk in light and not in darkness. As we walk in the light, we will regularly confess our sins, allowing the blood of Christ to continually cleanse us. Two major roadblocks to hinder this walk will be falling in love with the world and falling for the alluring lies of false teachers.

God is love. Since we are His children we must walk in love. In fact, John says that if we do not love, we do not know God. Love is more than just words; it is actions. Love is giving, not getting. Biblical love is unconditional in its nature. Christ's love fulfilled those qualities and when that brand of love characterizes us, we will be free of self-condemnation and experience confidence before God.

God is life. Those who fellowship with Him must possess His quality of life. Spiritual life begins with spiritual birth which occurs through faith in Jesus Christ. Faith in Jesus Christ infuses us with God's life—eternal life.

Although the apostle John's name is not found in this book, it was given the title Ioannou A, the "First of John."

What Was Heard, Seen, and Touched

THAT ^awhich was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have ^bseen with our eyes, ^cwhich we have looked upon, and ^dour hands have handled, concerning the ^eWord of life—

2 ^athe life ^bwas manifested, and we have seen, ^cand bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was ^dwith the Father and was manifested to us—

3 that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is ^awith the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things we write to you ^athat your joy may be full.

Fellowship with Him and One Another

5 ^aThis is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that ^bGod is light and in Him is no darkness at all.

6 ^aIf we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

7 But if we ^awalk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and ^bthe blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we ^aconfess our sins, He is ^bfaithful and just to forgive us ^cour sins and to ^dcleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we ^amake Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, ^awe have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

2 And ^aHe Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but ^balso for the whole world.

The Test of Knowing Him

3 Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments.

4 He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a ^aliar, and the truth is not in him. 5 But ^awhoever keeps His word, truly the love of God ^bis perfected ^cin him. By this we know that we are in Him.

6 ^aHe who says he abides in Him ^bought himself also to walk just as He walked.

7 ^aBrethren, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had ^afrom the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard ^bfrom the beginning.

8 Again, ^aa new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, ^bbecause the darkness is passing away, and ^cthe true light is already shining.

9 ^aHe who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now.

10 ^aHe who loves his brother abides in the light, and ^bthere is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But he who ^ahates his brother is in darkness and ^bwalks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Their Spiritual State

12 I write to you, little children, Because ^ayour sins are ^bforgiven you for His name's sake.

13 I write to you, fathers, Because you have known Him ^awho is ^bfrom the beginning. I write to you, young men, Because you have overcome the wicked one.

I write to you, little children, Because you have ^aknown the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, Because you have known Him ^awho is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, Because ^ayou are strong, and the word of God abides in you, And you have overcome the wicked one.

Do Not Love the World

15 *a*Do not love the world or the things in the world. *b*If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, *c*the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world.

17 And *a*the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

Deceptions of the Last Hour

18 *a*Little children, *b*it is the last hour; and as you have heard that *c*the¹ Antichrist is coming, *d*even now many antichrists have come, by which we know *e*that it is the last hour.

19 *a*They went out from us, but they were not of us; for *b*if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but *c*they went out *d*that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.

20 But *a*you have an anointing *b*from the Holy One, and *c*you¹ know all things.

21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 *a*Who is a liar but he who denies that *b*Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son.

23 *a*Whoever denies the Son does not have the *b*Father either; *c*he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Let Truth Abide in You

24 Therefore let that abide in you *a*which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, *b*you also will abide in the Son and in the Father.

25 *a*And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to *d*deceive you.

27 But the *a*anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and *b*you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing *c*teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you *d*will abide in Him.

The Children of God

28 And now, little children, abide in Him, that *l*when He appears, we may have *a*confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

29 *a*If you know that He is righteous, you know that *b*everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.

2 Beloved, *a*now we are children of God; and *b*it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, *c*we shall be like Him, for *d*we shall see Him as He is. 3 *a*And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and the Child of God

4 Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and *a*sin is lawlessness.

5 And you know *a*that He was manifested *b*to take away our sins, and *c*in Him there is no sin.

6 Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 *a*He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, *b*that He might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whoever has been *b*born of God does not sin, for *b*His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

The Imperative of Love

10 In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, *a*that we should love one another, 12 not as *a*Cain who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.

13 Do not marvel, my brethren, if *c*the world hates you.

14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love *b*his brother abides in death.

15 *a*Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that *b*no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

The Outworking of Love

16 *a*By this we know love, *b*because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But *a*whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him? 18 My little children, ^alet us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 19 And by this we ^bknow ^athat we are of the truth, and shall ^bassure our hearts before Him. 20 ^aFor if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, ^awe have confidence toward God. 22 And ^awhatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments ^band do those things that are pleasing in His sight. 23 And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ ^aand love one another, as He gave ^bus commandment.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

24 Now ^ahe who keeps His commandments ^babides in Him, and He in him. And ^bby this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us. 4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but ^atest the spirits, whether they are of God; because ^bmany false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: ^aEvery spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit that does not confess ^athat Jesus ^bChrist has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world. 4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than ^ahe who is in the world. 5 ^aThey are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and ^bthe world hears them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. ^aBy this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Knowing God Through Love

7 ^aBeloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who ^bloves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9 ^aIn this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten ^bSon into the world, that we might live through Him. 10 In this is love, ^anot that we loved

God, but that He loved us and sent His Son ^bto be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, ^aif God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Seeing God Through Love

12 ^aNo one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us.

13 ^aBy this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.

14 And ^awe have seen and testify that ^bthe Father has sent the Son ^aas Savior of the world.

15 ^aWhoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and ^ahe who abides in love abides in God, and God ^bin him.

The Consummation of Love

17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that ^awe may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.

19 ^aWe love ^bHim because He first loved us.

Obedience by Faith

20 ^aIf someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, ^bhow can he love God ^bwhom he has not seen?

21 And ^athis commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that ^aJesus is the Christ is ^bborn of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and ^akeep His commandments.

3 ^aFor this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And ^bHis commandments are not burdensome.

4 For ^awhatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that ^bhas overcome the world—our faith.

5 Who is he who overcomes the world, but ^ahe who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Certainty of God's Witness

6 This is He who came ^aby water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood.

^bAnd it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear witness ^ain heaven: the Father, ^athe Word, and the Holy Spirit; ^band these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness on earth: ^athe Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

9 If we receive ^athe witness of men, the witness of God is greater; ^bfor this is the witness of ^aGod which He has testified of His Son.

10 He who believes in the Son of God ^ahas the witness in himself; he who does not believe God ^bhas made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son.

11 And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.

12 ^aHe who has the Son has ^alife; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, ^aand that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

The Second Epistle of

JOHN

“LET him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall” (1 Cor. 10:12). These words of the apostle Paul could well stand as a subtitle for John’s little epistle. The recipients, a chosen lady and her children, were obviously standing. They were walking in truth, remaining faithful to the commandments they had received from the Father. John is deeply pleased to be able to commend them. But he takes nothing for granted. Realizing that standing is just one step removed from falling, he hesitates not at all to issue a reminder: “love one another” (v. 5). The apostle admits that this is not new revelation, but he views it sufficiently important to repeat. Loving one another, he stresses, is equivalent to walking according to God’s commandments.

John indicates, however, that this love must be discerning. It is not a naive, unthinking, open to anything and anyone kind of love. Biblical love is a matter of choice; it is dangerous and foolish to float through life with undiscerning love. False teachers abound who do not acknowledge Christ as having come in the flesh. It is false charity to open the door to false teaching. We must have fellowship with God. We must have fellowship with Christians. But we must not have fellowship with false teachers.

The “elder” of verse 1 has been traditionally identified with the apostle John, resulting in the Greek title Ioannou B, the “Second of John.”

*The Third Epistle ofJOHN

IN Third John the apostle encourages fellowship with Christian brothers. Following his expression of love for Gaius, John assures him of his prayers for his health and voices his joy over Gaius's persistent walk in truth and for the manner in which he shows hospitality and support for missionaries who have come to his church.

But not everyone in the church feels the same way. Diotrephes' heart is one hundred and eighty degrees removed from Gaius's heart. He is no longer living in love. Pride has taken precedence in his life. He has refused a letter John has written for the church, fearing that his authority might be superseded by that of the apostle. He also has accused John of evil words and refused to accept missionaries. He forbids others to do so and even expels them from the church if they disobey him. John uses this negative example as an opportunity to encourage Gaius to continue his hospitality. Demetrius has a good testimony and may even be one of those turned away by Diotrephes. He is widely known for his good character and his loyalty to the truth. Here he is well commended by John and stands as a positive example for Gaius.

The Greek titles of First, Second, and Third John are Ioannou A, B, and G. The G is gamma, the third letter of the Greek alphabet; Ioannou G means the "Third of John."

Greeting to Gaius

THE ELDER,

To the beloved Gaius, ^awhom I love in truth:

2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.

3 For I ^arejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth.

4 I have no greater ^ajoy than to hear that ^bmy children walk in ^ctruth.

Gaius Commended for Generosity

5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brethren ^aand for strangers,

6 who have borne witness of your love before the church. If you send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, you will do well,

7 because they went forth for His name's sake, ^ataking nothing from the Gentiles.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us.

10 Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, "prating" against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.

11 Beloved, ^ado not imitate what is evil, but what is good. ^bHe who does good is of God, ^bbut he who does evil has not seen ^cGod.

*The Epistle ofJUDE

FIIGHT! Contend! Do battle! When apostasy arises, when false teachers emerge, when the truth of God is attacked, it is time to fight for the faith. Only believers who are spiritually "in shape" can answer the summons. At the beginning of his letter Jude focuses on the believers' common salvation, but then feels compelled to challenge them to contend for the faith. The danger is real. False teachers have crept into the church, turning God's grace into unbounded license to do as they please. Jude reminds such men of God's past dealings with unbelieving Israel, disobedient angels, and wicked Sodom and Gomorrah. In the face of such danger Christians should not be caught off guard. The challenge is great, but so is the God who is able to keep them from stumbling.

The Greek title Iouda, "Of Jude," comes from the name Ioudas which appears in verse 1. This name, which can be translated Jude or Judas, was popular in the first century because of Judas Maccabaeus (died 160 B.C.), a leader of the Jewish resistance against Syria during the Maccabean revolt.

Contend for the Faith

3 Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you ^aconcerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting ^byou to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.

4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord ¹God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Old and New Apostates

5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that ^athe Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels who did not keep their ¹proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day;

7 as ^aSodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the ^bvengeance of eternal fire.

8 ^aLikewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and ^bspeak evil of ¹dignitaries.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, in ¹contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, “The Lord rebuke you!”

10 ^aBut these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way ^aof Cain, ^bhave run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished ^cin the rebellion of Korah.

THE REVELATION

of Jesus Christ

JUST as Genesis is the book of beginnings, Revelation is the book of consummation. In it, the divine program of redemption is brought to fruition, and the holy name of God is vindicated before all creation. Although there are numerous prophecies in the Gospels and Epistles, Revelation is the only New Testament book that focuses primarily on prophetic events. Its title means “unveiling” or “disclosure.” Thus, the book is an unveiling of the character and program of God. Penned by John during his exile on the island of Patmos, Revelation centers around visions and symbols of the resurrected Christ, who alone has authority to judge the earth, to remake it and to rule it in righteousness.

The title of this book in the Greek text is Apokalypsis Ioannou, “Revelation of John.” It is also known as the Apocalypse, a transliteration of the word apokalypsis, meaning “unveiling,” “disclosure,” or “revelation.” Thus, the book is an unveiling of that which otherwise could not be known. A better title comes from the first verse: Apokalypsis Iesou Christou, “Revelation of Jesus Christ.” This could be taken as a revelation which came from Christ or as a revelation which is about Christ—both are appropriate. Because of the unified contents of this book, it should not be called Revelations.

Introduction and Benediction

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, ^awhich God gave Him to show His servants—things which must shortly take place. And ^bHe sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John,
2 ^awho bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things ^bthat he saw.
3 ^aBlessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for ^bthe time is near.

The Throne Room of Heaven

4 After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a *b*trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.”

2 Immediately a I was in the Spirit; and behold, *b*a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne.

3 And He who sat there was *a*like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald.

4 *“A*round the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, *b*clothed in white robes; and they had crowns of gold on their heads.

5 And from the throne proceeded *a*lightnings, *b*thunderings, and voices. *b*Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are *c*the² seven Spirits of God.

6 Before the throne there was a sea of glass, like crystal. *b*And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back.

7 *“A*first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.

8 The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying:

b“Holy,¹ holy, holy,
*c*Lord God Almighty,
*d*Who was and is and is to come!”

9 Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever,
10 *“A*the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

And by *c*Your will they exist and were created.”

3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

Out of every tribe and tongue

And *3*we shall reign on the earth.”

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, 12 saying with a loud voice:

“Worthy is the *a*Lamb who was slain
To receive power and riches and wisdom,
And strength and honor and 14 Then the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshipped ²Him who lives forever and ever.

First Seal: The Conqueror

6 Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard ^aone of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see."

2 And I looked, and behold, ^awhite horse. ^bHe who sat on it had a bow; ^cand a crown was given to him, and he went out ^dconquering and to conquer.

4 ^aAnother horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to ^btake peace from the earth, and that ^cpeople should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A ¹quart of wheat for a ²denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and ^ddo not harm the oil and the wine."

Fourth Seal: Widespread Death on Earth

7 When He opened the fourth seal, ^aI heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see."

8 ^aSo I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And ^bpower was given to them over a fourth of the earth, ^bto kill with sword, with hunger, with death, ^cand by the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: The Cry of the Martyrs

9 When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under ^athe altar ^bthe souls of those who had been slain ^cfor the word of God and for ^dthe testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "^aHow long, O Lord, ^bholy and true, ^cuntil You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

Sixth Seal: Cosmic Disturbances

12 I looked when He opened the sixth seal, ^aand ^bbehold, there was a great earthquake; and ^bthe sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood.

13 ^aAnd the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

14 ^aThen the sky ^breceded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and ^bevery mountain and island was moved out of its place.

15 And the ^akings of the earth, the great men, ^bthe rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, ^bhid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 ^aand said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who ^bsits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!

The Sealed of Israel

7 After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, ^aholding the four winds of the earth, ^bthat the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree.

2 Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

3 saying, "^aDo not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God ^bon their foreheads."

4 ^aAnd I heard the number of those who were sealed. ^bOne hundred and forty-four thousand ^cof all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed:

5 of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed;

- A Multitude from the Great Tribulation*
- 9 After these things I looked, and behold, ^aa great multitude which no one could number, ^bof all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, ^cclothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, 10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, ^a"Salvation belongs to our God ^bwho sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

- 13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these arrayed in white robes, and where did they come from?"
- 14 And I said to him, ¹"Sir, you know." So he said to me, ^a"These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and ^bwashed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

- 1 ^aRev. 8:10
^bLuke 8:31
^cLit. shaft of the abyss
- 2 ^aJoel 2:2, 10
- ^athe prayers of all the saints upon ^bthe golden altar which was before the throne.
- 4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand.
- 5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And ^athere were noises, thunderings, ^blightnings, ^cand an earthquake.
- 6 So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
- First Trumpet: Vegetation Struck*
- 7 The first angel sounded: ^aAnd hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown ^bto the earth. And a third ^cof the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.
- Second Trumpet: The Seas Struck*
- 8 Then the second angel sounded: ^aAnd something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, ^band a third of the sea ^cbecame blood.
- 9 ^aAnd a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.
- Third Trumpet: The Waters Struck*
- 10 Then the third angel sounded: ^aAnd a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, ^band it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.
- 11 ^aThe name of the star is Wormwood. ^bA third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.
- Fourth Trumpet: The Heavens Struck*
- 12 ^aThen the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day ¹did not shine, and likewise the night.
- 13 And I looked, ^aand I heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, ^b"Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"
- Fifth Trumpet: The Locusts from the Bottomless Pit*
- 9 Then the fifth angel sounded: ^aAnd I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the bottomless pit.
- 2 And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the ^asun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.

3 Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

5 And they were not given authority to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man.

6 In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

7 The shape of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. On their heads were crowns of something like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.

9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle.

10 They had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

12 One woe is past. Behold, still two more woes are coming after these things.

Sixth Trumpet: The Angels from the Euphrates

13 Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

15 So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind.

16 Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they do harm.

20 But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk.

21 And they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Mighty Angel with the Little Book

10 I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire.

2 He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."

5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven

6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer.

7 but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

John Eats the Little Book

8 Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth."

9 So I went to the angel and said to him, "Give me the little book." And he said to me, "Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."

10 Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

11 And he said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given ^aa reed like a measuring rod. ¹And the angel stood, saying, ^b“Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there.

2 “But leave out ^athe court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, ^bfor it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will ^ctread the holy city underfoot for ^dforty-two months.

3 “And I will give power to my two ^awitnesses, ^band they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.”

4 These are the ^atwo olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the ^bGod of the earth.

5 And if anyone wants to harm them, ^afire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. ^bAnd if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner.

6 These ^ahave power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The Witnesses Killed

7 When they ^afinish their testimony, ^bthe beast that ascends ^cout of the bottomless pit ^dwill make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of ^athe great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, ^bwhere also ^cour Lord was crucified.

9 ^aThen those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations ^bwill see their dead bodies three-and-a-half days, ^band not allow their dead bodies to be put into graves.

10 ^aAnd those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, ^band send gifts to one another, ^cbecause these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

11 ^aNow after the three-and-a-half days ^bthe breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

12 And ^athey heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” ^aAnd they ascended to heaven ^bin a cloud, ^cand their enemies saw them.

13 In the same hour ^athere was a great earthquake, ^band a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid ^cand gave glory to the God of heaven.

REVELATION 12:6

14 ^aThe second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

Seventh Trumpet: The Kingdom Proclaimed

15 Then ^athe seventh angel sounded: ^bAnd there were loud voices in heaven, saying, ^c“The ^bkingdoms of this world have become the ^akingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, ^dand He shall reign forever and ever!” ¹⁶ And ^athe twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and ^bworshiped God, ^csaying:

“We give You thanks, O Lord
 God Almighty,
 The One ^awho is and who was ^band who is to come,
 Because You have taken Your great power ^band reigned.”

18 The nations were ^aangry, and
 Your ^bwrath has come,
 And the time of the ^bdead, that they should be judged,
 And that You should reward
 Your servants the prophets and the saints,
 And those who fear Your name,
 small and great,
 And should destroy those who destroy the earth.”

19 Then ^athe temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of ^bHis covenant was seen in His temple. And ^bthere were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars.

2 Then being with child, she cried out ^ain labor and in pain to give birth.

3 And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, ^aa great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads.

4 ^aHis tail drew a third ^bof the stars of heaven ^cand threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood ^dbefore the woman who was ready to give birth, ^eto devour her Child as soon as it was born.

5 She bore a male Child ^awho was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was ^bcaught up to God and His throne.

6 Then ^athe woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there ^bone thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Satan Thrown Out of Heaven

7 And war broke out in heaven: ^aMichael and his angels fought ^bwith the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought,
 8 but they ¹did not prevail, nor was a place found for ²them in heaven any longer.
 9 So ^athe great dragon was cast out, ^bthat serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, ^cwho deceives the whole world; ^dhe was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.
 10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, ^a"Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, ^bwho accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.
 11 "And ^athey overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, ^band they did not love their lives to the death.
 12 "Therefore ^arejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! ^bWoe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, ^cbecause he knows that he has a short time."

The Woman Persecuted

13 Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted ^athe woman who gave birth to the male Child.
 14 ^bBut the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, ^bthat she might fly ^ainto the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished ^dfor a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.
 15 So the serpent ^aspewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.
 16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.
 17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus ^cChrist.

The Beast from the Sea

13 Then ^I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw ^aa beast rising up out of the sea, ^bhaving ²seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a ^cblasphemous name.
 2 Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The ^adragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.

it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And ^aall the world marveled and followed the beast.

4 So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, ^a"Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"

5 And he was given ^aa mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to ^bcontinue for ^cforty-two months.

6 Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, ^aHis tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.

7 It was granted to him ^ato make war with the saints and to overcome them. And ^bauthority was given him over every ^ctribe, tongue, and nation.

8 All who dwell on the earth will worship him, ^awhose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain ^bfrom the foundation of the world.

9 ^aIf anyone has an ear, let him hear.

10 ^aHe who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; ^bhe who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. ^cHere is the ^dpatience and the faith of the saints.

The Beast from the Earth

11 Then I saw another beast ^acoming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon.

12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, ^awhose deadly wound was healed.

13 ^aHe performs great signs, ^bso that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

14 ^aAnd he deceives ^bthose who dwell on the earth ^bby those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword ^cand lived.

15 He was granted ^apower to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak ^aand cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

16 He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, ^ato receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads,

17 and that no one may buy or sell except one who has ^athe mark or ^athe name of the beast, ^bor the number of his name.

18 ^aHere is wisdom. Let him who has ^bunderstanding calculate ^cthe number of the beast, ^dfor it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and behold, ¹a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him ^bone hundred and forty-four thousand, ²having His Father's name ^cwritten on their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, ^alike the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of ^bharpists playing their harps.

3 They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no one could learn that song ^cexcept the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women, ^afor they are virgins. These are the ones ^bwho follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These ^cwere ¹redeemed from among men, ^abeing firstfruits to God and to the Lamb.

5 And ^ain their mouth was found no ¹deceit, for ^bthey are without fault ²before the throne of God.

The Proclamations of Three Angels

6 Then I saw another angel ^aflying in the midst of heaven, ^chaving the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people—⁷ saying with a loud voice, ^a“Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come; ^band worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water.”

8 And another angel followed, saying, ^a“Babylon¹ is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because ^bshe has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.”

9 Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, ^a“If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his ^bmark on his forehead or on his hand,

10 “he himself ^cshall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation. ^{He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.}

11 “And ^athe smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.”

12 ^aHere is the ^bpatience of the saints; ^bhere² are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying ^ato me, “Write: ^aBlessed are the dead ^bwho die in the Lord from now on.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, ^c“that they may rest from 16 So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Reaping the Grapes of Wrath

17 Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, ^awho had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, ^b“Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.”

19 So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And ^athe winepress was trampled ^boutside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, ^cup to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred ¹furlongs.

Prelude to the Bowl Judgments

15 Then ^aI saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: ^bseven angels having the seven last plagues, ^c“for in them the wrath of God is complete.”

2 And I saw something like ^aa sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, ^cover his image and ^bover his mark and over the ^anumber of his name, standing on the sea of glass, ^bhaving harps of God.

3 They sing ^athe song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the ^bLamb, saying:

^c“Great and marvelous are Your works,

Lord God Almighty!

^dJust and true are Your ways,
O King of the ^csaints!

4 ^aWho shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name?
For You alone are ^bholy.

REVELATION 15:5

For Your judgments have been manifested."

5 After these things I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.

6 And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands.

7 Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever.

8 The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God on the earth."

First Bowl: Loathsome Sores

2 So the first went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image.

Second Bowl: The Sea Turns to Blood

3 Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living creature in the sea died.

Third Bowl: The Waters Turn to Blood

4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying:

"You are righteous, O Lord, The One who is and who was and who is to be, Because You have judged these things.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, And You have given them blood to drink. For it is their just due."

7 And I heard another from the altar saying, "Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments."

Fourth Bowl: Men Are Scorched

8 Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the Fifth Bowl: Darkness and Pain

10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.

11 They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Sixth Bowl: Euphrates Dried Up

12 Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 ^aBehold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame."

16 ^aAnd they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, ¹Armageddon.

Seventh Bowl: The Earth Utterly Shaken

17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "^aIt is done!"

18 And there were noises and thunders and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not occurred since men were on the earth.

19 Now the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And ^bgreat Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

20 Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

The Scarlet Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters,

2 "with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.

5 And on her forehead a name was written:

aMYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

The Meaning of the Woman and the Beast

7 But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

8 "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 "Here is the mind which has wisdom; The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

10 "There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must continue a short time.

11 "The beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition.

12 "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast.

Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, ^awho had not worshiped the beast ^cor his image, and had not received ^bhis mark on their foreheads or on their hands. 6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such ^athe second death has no power, but they shall be ^bpriests of God and of Christ, ^cand shall reign with Him a thousand years.

Satanic Rebellion Crushed

7 Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison

8 and will go out ^ato deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, ^bGog and Magog, ^cto gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

10 The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone ^awhere the beast and the false prophet are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

11 Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face ^athe earth and the heaven fled away. ^bAnd there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, ^asmall and great, standing before ^bGod, ^cand books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books.

13 The sea gave up the dead who were in it, ^aand Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. ^bAnd they were judged, each one according to his works.

REVELATION 20:14

14 Then ^aDeath and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. ^bThis is the second ^cdeath.

15 And anyone not found written in the Book of Life ^awas cast into the lake of fire.

All Things Made New

21 Now ^aI saw a new heaven and a new earth, ^bfor the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea.

2 Then I, ¹John, saw ^athe holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared ^bas a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, ^athe tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them ^cand be their God.

4 ^a"And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; ^bthere shall be no more death, ^cnor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

5 Then ^aHe who sat on the throne said, ^b"Behold, I make all things new." And He said ^cto me, "Write, for ^athese words are true and faithful."

6 And He said to me, ^a"It¹ is done! ^bI am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. ^cI will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.

7 "He who overcomes ¹shall inherit all things, and ^awill be his God and he shall be My son.

8 ^a"But the cowardly, ^bunbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in ^bthe lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

9 Then one of ^athe seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came ^cto me and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you ^bthe ¹bride, the Lamb's wife."

10 And he carried me away ^ain the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me ^bthe ¹great city, the ²holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 ^ahaving the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

12 Also she had a great and high wall with ^atwelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are ^athe names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

14 Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and ^aon them were the ^bnames of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he who talked with me ^ahad a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

16 The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand ^bfurlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal.

17 Then he measured its wall: one hundred ^aand forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.

18 The construction of its wall was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

19 ^aThe foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,

20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

21 The twelve gates were twelve ^apearls: each individual gate was of one pearl. ^bAnd the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

The Glory of the New Jerusalem

22 ^aBut I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

23 ^aThe city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine ^bin it, for the ^cglory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light.

24 ^aAnd the nations ^bof those who are saved shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor ^cinto it.

25 ^aIts gates shall not be shut at all by day ^b(there shall be no night there).

26 ^aAnd they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.

27 But ^athere shall by no means enter it anything ^bthat defiles, or causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's ^bBook of Life.

The River of Life

22 And he showed me ^aa ¹pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 ^aIn the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was ^bthe tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were ^cfor the healing of the nations.

3 And ^athere shall be no more curse, ^bbut the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His ^cservants shall serve Him.

4 ^aThey shall see His face, and ^bHis name shall be on their foreheads.

5 ^aThere shall be no night there; They need no lamp nor ^blight of the sun, for ^cthe Lord God gives them light. ^dAnd they shall reign forever and ever.

The Time Is Near

6 Then he said to me, ^a“These words are faithful and true.” And the Lord God of the ¹holy prophets ^bsent His angel to show His servants the things which must ^cshortly take place.

7 ^aBehold, I am coming quickly! ^bBlessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”

8 Now I, John, ¹saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw, ^aI fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

9 Then he said to me, ^a“See that you do not do that. ^bFor I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God.”

10 ^aAnd he said to me, “Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, ^bfor the time is at hand.

Jesus Testifies to the Churches

12 ^aAnd behold, I am coming quickly, and ^bMy reward is with Me, ^cto give to every one according to his work.

13 ^aI am the Alpha and the Omega, the ^bBeginning and the End, the First and the Last.”

14 ^aBlessed are those who ^bdo His commandments, that they may have the right ^cto the tree of life, ^dand may enter through the gates into the city. 15 ^aBut outside are ^bdogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.

16 ^aI, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches. ^bI am the Root and the Offspring of David, ^cthe Bright and Morning Star.”

17 And the Spirit and ^athe bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” ^bAnd let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely.

A Warning

18 ^aFor I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: ^bIf anyone adds to these things, ^cGod will add to him the plagues that are written in this book; ^dand if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, ^eGod^f shall take away his part from the ^gBook of Life, from the holy city, and ^hfrom the things which are written in this book.

I Am Coming Quickly

20 He who testifies to these things says, ^a“Surely I am coming quickly.” Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!
